

More Misery After Eating Just Takes An Eatonic

The first dose of Eatonic did wonders for me. I take it at meals and am no longer bothered with indigestion, flatulence, gas, etc.

NORWICH GRANGE FAIR

Norwich Grange No. 175, F. of H. whose membership is largely of city residents, carried out with great success on Wednesday night in Steiner's hall its first fair along such lines as would have been expected from a grange with a membership of 100.

The members made a quantity and quality display of an amazing variety of farm and garden products, there was a section for the women exhibitors of fancy work, preserves and canned goods, and even a livestock section which contained a hen with a brood of chickens, two little two-week old pigs and another pig slightly older, and a comfortable looking rabbit.

All the officers of the grange, under the general chairmanship of John E. Fanning, worthy master, served as chairmen of the different departments, and the members co-operated in making the evening was declared one of the most successful and interesting that the grange has held.

Among the farm and garden products exhibitors were Mrs. Charles A. Hasberg, J. O. Peckham, A. L. Lillibridge, Mrs. H. J. Richardson, Mrs. W. H. Hush, Mrs. Emma Worthington, Mrs. A. G. Miner, C. C. Ely, Mrs. Wood, Emily farm of W. G. Tarbox, Mrs. Eva Higgins, Mrs. W. T. Thatcher, Edward Cook, Belle Worthington, E. J. Ayers, J. M. Rogers, Charles A. Rathbun and Silas S. Ledford, who had one of the largest individual displays.

Tobacco leaf was exhibited by Joseph A. George, and in the fancy work section the exhibitors included Mrs. A. A. Robinson, Mrs. E. Wood, Mrs. O. Peckham, Mrs. George A. Bown, Mrs. Edward
