OLYMPIA IS BRINGING BODY OF UNKNOWN Have Oct. 25.—(By the A. P.)—America's unknown soldier is on his way home. After resting nearly three years in the land where he fought and died, he began his last homeward journey on the United States cruiser Olympia this afternoon.

The Olympia carries a large box full of the soil of France, enough to cover the bottom of the unknown soldier's grave. Simple sincerity marked the departure of the unknown warrior, as did his selection yesterday at Chalons-Sur-Marne. A medal of the Legion of Honor was placed on the casket by Minister of Pensions

Mrs. Annie Von Deck has returned from South Coventry to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Russell Lee.

Mrs. Charles M. Lee has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. William H. Atkins, in Hartford.

Magnin, who, speaking for the people of France declared: "American brother, they are taking you back to the land of your birth. We, however, will proudly preserve your memory, and the land of France will never forget that you confided to her your last dream."

Three thousand school children, among the vast throng which met the funeral train today when it arrived here from Paris, threw hundreds of flowers in the path of the cortege. Then they formed on each side of the gun carriage and escorted the unknown warrior to the dock.

Major General Henry T. Allen expressed the appreciation of America for the touching manner in which France bade farewell to the unidentified hero. Turning to the casket, he said: "The great republic which is rendering you homage is likewise paying tribute to your comrades in blue who fell with you and who lives in the hearts of his countrymen as you live endeared in the loving memory of yours. Whoever you may be, your gallant deeds are indelibly inscribed in the pages of history to the glory of your nation."

As the order to cast off was given, the American flag was half-masted, and an escort of seven French destroyers put to sea to accompany the Olympia to the three mile line.

GUNBOAT GALVESTON PICKED UP MISSING NAVAL AVIATORS New Orleans, Oct. 25.—Naval seaplane 893, missing from the local aviation station since Sunday, and both members of her crew have been picked up by the gunboat Galveston, according to a wireless message received here late today.
