TWO NEW NORWICH AUTOMOBILE SUITS

On the ground that John Wiedwald, 17, of this city has received a permanent injury through being struck by the automobile of Shepard E. Palmer, also of this city, Augusta Wiedwald, mother of the young man, has brought suit against Mr. Palmer for $3,000 damages.

The plaintiff makes the claim that Wiedwald was standing at the corner of West Thames street and Station street waiting for a trolley car about midnight of April 23, 1921, when he was struck by the Palmer automobile. The claim is made that Mr. Palmer failed to bring his automobile to a stop when the trolley car came to a stop to take on passengers and that his alleged negligence in operating the automobile was the cause of Mr. Wiedwald being hit.

The injuries to Wiedwald are described as bruise and contusions about the neck, shoulder, hip and body, neck and shoulder muscles wrenched, shock to nervous system and right kidney displaced so that he has what is known as a "floating kidney." He was in bed for a long time, suffers great pain and will have to have an operation at considerable expense and will be unable for a long time to work at his trade of a paper maker at which he earned $26 per week.

The suit is returnable to the superior court in December, papers having been filed here Friday with the clerk of the superior court.

$2,000 For Auto Accident.
Other new cases are the following: Harold M. Dunbar of Griswold sues for $3,000 damages from Clifford L. Cray of Norwich for personal injuries and damage to Dunbar's Hudson super-six automobile which Dunbar claims was run into by Cray's automobile. The collision happened about 5:15 p. m., October 21, 1921 on North Main street, at the junction of Eighth street. Dunbar claims that Cray was operating his car at excessive speed and failed to give any warning. The repairs to the Dunbar car cost $1,000. It is claimed, and Dunbar suffered injuries to his side, back and neck and will have to spend more than $15 in doctor's bills.

On Bond For Deed.
Sarah E. Moran of Norwich sues Joseph R. Rineheart of Norwich for cancellation of a bond for deed or foreclosure of the same and possession of the property, which is at the corner of South street and Hobart avenue. It is claimed that several monthly payments on the bond for deed have not been made and there is now $2,000 due.

On the common counts Paul W. Starnes of New York has brought suit for $1,500 against the Kolb Carton Co., of New York, but having a principal place of business in Norwich.

To Stop Wood Cutting.
Sam Horowitz of Sprague is the plaintiff against Sophie Iskyok, Andrew Iskyok, Tony and Barbara Jerezsky, all of Sprague in a suit for an injunction to prevent them from cutting anything but firewood from the farm upon which Horowitz has a second mortgage for $200. There is a prior mortgage for $1,050 to Sarah Moskowitz.

Horowitz claims that the defendants have already cut off and sold $550 worth of fire wood and that they are threatening to cut a large part of the timber off of about 125 acres of the 200 acre farm, which would commit waste on the farm and totally impair the security of his mortgage.

NORWICH TOWN

Alexander Kilroy, nurse at Bellevue hospital, New York, is passing the Thanksgiving recess at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Broszka, of Town street. Friends of Mr. Kilroy, especially those in Norwich, who have passed his boyhood, are pleased that he has completely recovered from a serious illness extending over a period of eight months. During this time his condition necessitated three surgical operations, which were quite successful restoring him to normal health. Following the last two operations Mr. Kilroy spent several weeks at a rest hospital at White Plains, N. Y. It was from this institution, the Burke Relief Foundation that he came to Norwich, following five weeks' stay to regain strength and vigor.

Mr. Kilroy highly commended the Burke Foundation which was founded and endowed by the late John Masterston Burke as a tribute to the memory of his mother, Winifred Masterston Burke. This institution was opened for the reception of patients April 7, 1915. The group of brick buildings is of plain and substantial construction, in Colonial architecture. They enclose a large central court, which at present comprises eleven main buildings—cottages for men and women, administration, dining, laundry, power house, garage and stable and superintendent's house—with provision for future extensions.

The founder desired in his life time to dedicate a substantial part of his estate to the relief of worthy men and women, who, notwithstanding their willingness to support themselves, have become wholly or partly unable to do so by reason of sickness or misfortune, or have been discharged from hospitals before they have regained sufficient strength to resume their employments. It is planned not only to rescue to health and occupation those recovering from illness or surgical operation but to prevent sickness and failure by providing a period of recuperation, with freedom from worry and care during temporary residence in hospital surroundings. The grounds are equipped for all kinds of out-of-door sports and recreation. Upon his return to New York Sunday evening, Mr. Kilroy will resume his duties at Bellevue hospital.

The Young People's Christian Endeavor society of the First Congregational church is to hold a special public meeting Sunday evening at seven o'clock in the chapel. The topic is to be Immigration.
