You'll get somewhere with a pipe and P. A!

Start fresh all over again at the beginning! Get a pipe!—and forget every smoke experience you ever had that spilled the beans! For a jimmy pipe, packed brimful with Prince Albert, will trim any degree of smokejopy you ever registered! It's a revelation!

Put a pin in here! Prince Albert can't bite your tongue or parch your throat. Both are cut out by our exclusive patented process. So, just pass up any old idea you may have stored away that you can't smoke a pipe! We tell you that you can—and just have the time of your life on every fire-up—if you play Prince Albert for packing!

What P. A. hands you in a pipe it will duplicate in a home-made cigarette! Gee—but you'll have a lot of fun rolling 'em with Prince Albert; and, it's a cinch because P. A. is crimp cut and stays put!

PRINCE ALBERT the national joy smoke

POETRY

"AMERICA FOR ME" 'Tis fine to see the old world, and travel up and down Among the famous palaces and cities of renown...

"AMERICA FOR ME" So it's home again, and home again, America for me! My heart is turning home again, and the tears are in my eyes...

"AMERICA FOR ME" Oh, London is a man's town, there's a girl in the air; And Paris is a woman's town, with flowers in her hair...

"THE MEMORY OF THE HEART" If stores of dry and learned lore we gain We keep them in the memory of the heart; Names, things, and facts—whatever we know...

"HUMOR OF THE DAY" Mabel—I think it's awful for sweethearts to quarrel. Madge—Well, if they don't how is it a girl to know whether she'll have her own way after marriage or not?—Boston Transcript.

"HUMOR OF THE DAY" "I'm sorry for the poor chump." "Why, I understood you to say he was the life of the party?" "He was, but he didn't know it!"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

"HUMOR OF THE DAY" "Did your doctor seem encouraged about your condition?" "Yes, I have an idea he thinks I'm going to be one of the most profitable patients he's ever had."—Boston Transcript.

"HUMOR OF THE DAY" "Did you hear your wife make that fine speech?" "No," replied Mr. Meekton. "Herbert has become such a fine orator that I can stay home evenings. She no longer requires anybody to lead the applause."—Washington Star.

"HUMOR OF THE DAY" "Well, Alice," said a Southern woman to a colored girl formerly in her employ, "I hear that you have married." "Yassum. Ah done got me a husband now." "Is he a good provider, Alice?" "Yassum. He's powerful good provider, but Ah's powerful sickered he's gwine get caught at it."—American Legion Weekly.

"HUMOR OF THE DAY" "Have you advertised for a chauffeur, the multitudes are sought to test the honesty of the applicant." "Suppose," he said, "you were to find a pocketbook in the tonneau containing $100.00—what would you do?" "Nothing at all," replied the truthful applicant. "I'd live on my income during the rest of my natural life."—Boston Transcript.

"HUMOR OF THE DAY" "The wife of a Western Congressman is sensitive on the subject of her deficient orthography and her demands for information as to correct spelling some times place her peace-loving husband in a delicate position." "One day, as she was writing a letter at her desk, she glanced up to ask: "Henry, do you spell 'graphic' with one 'f' or two?" "My dear," was the diplomatic answer, "if you're going to use any you might as well use two."—Harpers

"HUMOR OF THE DAY" "KALEIDOSCOPE Prior to 1825 all women's shoes were made without heels. Worms attacked the first wheat crop of the Virginia colonists. Jerusalem was entirely deserted for a period of seventy years. A silkworm in its brief lifetime spins about 4,000 yards of thread. Electric light was first used in America for street illumination in the California theatre, San Francisco, February 10, 1879. Under the English law tobacco in any form can not be sold on Sunday, but in most towns the law is regarded as a dead letter. Despite the tragedy of the ZR-1 at Hull, England, the United States navy is proceeding with the construction of the big dirigible ZR-1 at Lakehurst, N. J. The management of the Daughters of Israel Home for the Aged, in Newark, N. J., has yielded to the desire of the oldest inmate, 110 years of age, to have her hair bobbed like the other girls. A Paris newspaper inquired of its readers what attributes a Frenchman regards as most desirable in his wife. The 20,000 replies indicated that beauty was regarded as the most desirable quality. Then came courage, frankness, wit, fidelity and cleverness in turn. The majority put wealth about halfway down the list, and more surprising still, beauty was placed last of all. A few years ago citrus canker threatened to destroy the oranges and other citrus industries of Florida and adjoining states. A vigorous campaign of eradication was begun, however, during which time all orchards found infected were destroyed. As a result the Florida plant board was able to announce that no infections had been found since August, 1919, and that the disease was to be regarded as eradicated. It is more blessed to give than to receive."

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKET WAS UNSETTLED New York, Dec. 14.—Stocks were mainly higher at the outset of today's diversified session, becoming in part on profit-taking at mid-day and steadying on short covering in the final dealings.

Standard or representative issues continued to be overshadowed by the prominence of various specialties and miscellaneous issues, some of which registered highest prices for the final quarter. Oil, copper, motors and numerous related specialties supplied a preponderant proportion of the day's operations. Motors were helped by the reclamation of the regular dividend on Chandler and signs of active revival in the tire industry.

Trading in rails was negligible and several of the favorite steels and equipments reacted moderately in anti-anticipation of poor returns for the final quarter of the year. Sales amounted to $38,500 shares. Withdrawal tomorrow of $20,000,000 of government deposits by the Federal Reserve bank caused no disturbance in the money market. Call loans eased from 6 to 4 1/2 per cent, at mid-day and more so and 60 days funds were offered at 5 per cent.

Foreign exchange were dull and narrow, in contrast with recent speculative movements. Leading currencies were mixed, sterling making a slight recovery from yesterday's general reaction and the Paris rate also improving. Italian and several of the northern readjustments were lower.

United States war conditions were the active features of the bond market. Liberty third 4 1/4's at 93.30 and Victory 4 1/4's at 100.04 making new high records for the year. Elsewhere trading in bonds was less active and slightly reactionary. Total sales (par value) aggregated $117,250,000.

Stretching That Elastic Band

In other words. No matter how well you are doing, you can do a little better. Accomplished efforts are like elastic bands. There's usually a little more stretch left. No matter how big an undertaking you have completed, you can go a little bit farther and make it bigger. We hate to fall short in any duty we perform as it reflects unfavorably on our ability, and vice versa, a task completed in a satisfactory manner adds credit to our standing.
