MOTIVE FOR KILLING DR. GLICKSTEIN

New York, Dec. 15.—Revealing more and more of the load of anguish which she said at last became unbearable and drove her to take a human life, Mrs. William S. Raizen tonight supplied an added motive for sending a bullet through the heart of Dr. Abraham Glickstein in his Brooklyn office last Saturday.

Only after months of married life with Mr. Raizen, to whom she was married last May, she said, did she realize the full extent of her misfortune, which increased in her the desire for vengeance on the author of her unhappiness.

This disclosure on the part of the young woman who is awaiting trial on a charge of first degree murder was followed by the information, from another source, that her trial would be notable for the introduction of ideas and phrases unfamiliar to legal terminology—her alleged "vengeance complex," her "murder obsession"—words borrowed from the lexicon of the psycho-analyst.

This was predicted by Dr. Samuel A. Tannenbaum, the neurologist who advised Mrs. Raizen to go south for a change when, he said, he thought his patient's nerves had been strained to the breaking point by her sufferings. She had made a confidant of him, he asserted, and he feared that her strange "complex" with regard to Glickstein and her life-sapping

"Inhibitions" would lead to violence, either to herself or to Glickstein.

Charles Raizen, the accused woman's husband, corroborated Dr. Tannenbaum's statement that his wife, after confessing the nature of her relations with Glickstein, had often found a sort of morbid relief in brooding thoughts of suicide.

Mrs. Raizen is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Essex, Mrs. Henry Tillotson is caring for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hansen and children left Monday for an automobile trip to Deland, Fla., where they will spend the winter with Mr. Hansen's sister, Mrs. Mrs. Anthony Jacobson. Mr. Jacobson owns an orange grove, locating there several years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Hansen plan to travel about the state. Edwin Carpenter has charge of Mr. Hansen's store during his absence and has an assistant.

Christmas exercises and a tree for the children will be held at the Church Monday evening, Dec. 26. A rehearsal was held Saturday afternoon.

Norman Bligh is making a good recovery from his last surgical operation and can walk with the aid of a crutch.

Wilbert Wood has left the employ of G. V. Smith.

W. C. Eddy has finished sawing at Storrs and will move his mill nearer home.

Miss Marie Schmidt has returned to her home in Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bosworth went by motor to Fiskdale, Mass., Sunday to visit Mrs. Bosworth's sister, Mrs. John White, Mrs. George Congrove, who has been critically ill, is more comfortable. Her daughter, Mrs. Slight, of New York, has been assisting in the care of her mother.

An entertainment was given Friday evening at the church parlors on the Hill by the Old Scouts. There was a varied program consisting of recitations and music, with violin selections by the Kubelic orchestra. The proceeds, with contributions given, amount to about $15 which will be used for the Christmas tree.

29 STICKS OF DYNAMITE FOUND NEAR A BRIDGE

Beverly, Mass., Dec. 14.—Forty-nine sticks of dynamite, enough explosives, according to the police, to blow up the entire town, were found today on the flats near the Bass River bridge.

How the dynamite got there is a mystery. The explosives were placed in a city storehouse under guard.

The bridge near which the dynamite was found is used by trolley cars and by hundreds of school children.
