BRIEF STATE NEWS
Hartford.—The steamer Hartford of the Hartford and New York Transportation company left the State street steam-boat landing at 4 p. m. Saturday on her last trip of the season. After discharging at Peck slip in New York city, she will go to drydock for an overhauling. She has been on continual duty since April 1, 1929, last winter having been an open season and the boat having been able to run all of the winter.

New Britain.—There are 19,078 children between the ages of 4 and 16 years attending the local public schools, according to the report of the census enumerator just made public. In private schools there are 3,584. The number attending no school is 1,946.

Manchester.—Starting Monday, the reduction in the wages of the outside employees of the town of Manchester became effective. Under the new schedule laborers will be paid 40 cents an hour, teamsters 42 cents, and park employees 40 cents.

Hartford.—Mr. and Mrs. Wells Campbell have announced the engagement of their daughter, Alice M. Campbell, to Philip Klein of New York city. Mr. Klein is with the Russell Sage Foundation, in charge of a study of unemployment relief measures.

Durham.—Mrs. J. F. Main, postmistress at the Durham Center office, is now located at the new office, which was moved, the other day to the residence of the late

G. H. Newton, a short distance west of the old office.
Meriden.—Austin Whitley, instructor in history at the local high school, has tendered his resignation, to take effect at the end of the present term. Mr. Whitley came here from Hartford in September.
