COMMON PLEAS COURT GIVES FINES IN SEVERAL CASES FROM NORWICH

The December criminal term of the court of common pleas opened Thursday morning in New London with Judge Charles H. Walker on the bench. There was a large number of cases on the docket, many of which are for violations of the liquor law and several were disposed of by payments of fines and other cases were tried.

Max Nobile of Norwich was fined $100 for violation of the liquor law. Stanley Chimeleld of Norwich was fined $200 and Tom Leeburne of Norwich was fined $50 for violation of the liquor law. The bond was called in the case of John Butch of Norwich, charged with violation of the liquor law. Stanley Julecick of Norwich was fined $50 and John Kojec of the same place was fined $100 for violation of the liquor law. The Norwich cases came to the common pleas from the Norwich city court. James Kirby of New London pleaded guilty to the charge of violation of the liquor law and was fined $100. Yale Wolf of New London, charged with violation of liquor law, was fined $200 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail, but the execution of the jail sentence was suspended. Attorney Morris Lubchansky made a plea for leniency. He said that the defendant was scarcely 21 years old, was of a respectable family and that his reputation had always been of the best. Attorney Lubchansky stated that while the boy had been out of work he had been induced to accept the job at the place on Green street where he was arrested and that he was not the proprietor. Mr. Lubchansky said that his client had been fined $130 and sentenced to ten days in jail in the police court but he felt that if the jail sentence was enforced, it might ruin the boy's life. He said that Wolf is to be married this month and that his prospective father-in-law had set him up in business in Springfield, where he is to live. Judge Walker ordered the accused to pay a fine of $200 and said that if he was arrested for a similar offense in this district, he would have to serve the jail sentence. Notes were entered on the motion of Prosecuting Attorney Charles B. Whiteley, in the following cases: Elto Gennaro of Norwich, violation of liquor law; Charles Healderson, theft and intoxication; Theodore B. Hasauer, of New London, violation of medical practice act; Joseph Hoffa, violation of liquor law; Louis Cohen, of New London, fraud; Charles Caswell, of New London, theft; Vincent Russo, violation of liquor law; John Weldon of New London, violation of liquor law; Walter Karkut, breach of the peace and trespass. Cases against the following were nolle prosequi: Harry Conroy of New London, breach of the peace; Arthur Parsa of Norwich, killing of deer; John J. Legretter, violation of the liquor law and Joseph H. Saba, violation of liquor law.

It is expected that the state board of education as well as the extension department of the Connecticut Agricultural college on boys' and girls' club work will co-operate in this particular department of the exposition.

NORWICH AND GRISWOLD HAVE SPRAY RINGS FOREWED

Several committees in New London county this last fall made plans in their extension programs to organize a spraying or fruit association to take care of the spraying of fruit trees. These spraying rings have been very successful in the west and in other state in the east. At Norwich farmers owning around 100 trees have already been signed up and at Griswold about 200 trees have been signed up. The tentative plans which have been made call for the payment of one dollar per tree for farmers joining the spraying ring, this money to be used as

NORTH STONINGTON FARMERS HAVE EXCHANGED ORGANIZED

At a meeting of farmers in the town of North Stonington held at the home of Lyle Gray on Monday night a cooperative exchange was organized by the farm bureau in New London county. W. W. S. Perry of Preston attended this organization meeting with the county agent and spoke on the work of the Preston cooperative exchange. Following his talk a tentative constitution and by-laws were discussed and with only a few changes the same constitution and by-laws which govern other cooperative exchanges in this county was adopted for the North Stonington exchange. Following this came the election of officers and those men were elected: President J. D. Avery; vice president, Horace Lewis; secretary, Lyle Gray; treasurer, J. Earl Hill. These four officers together with J. D. Perry, Irving Mal and Frank White make up the board of directors of this organization. E. W. Clarke and Ellsworth Gray were elected auditors.

According to the constitution and by-laws, the board of directors has the duty of employing a business manager. Before the board of directors met, however, a motion was made and carried that it was the expression of all of the stock holders that W. F. Morgan would make a most acceptable manager of the organization. The directors went into session following the stock holders meeting and chose Mr. Morgan to be the business manager. The board of directors plans to meet next week Monday night to begin the necessary business for putting this exchange into operation. An active campaign is planned to secure as many more stockholders as possible as not nearly all of the territory has yet been covered. This makes the six cooperative exchange that the New London county farm bureau has assisted farmers to organize within the last 15 months. There are very few localities now in this county that are not within easy reach of the service which these cooperative exchanges are giving in the buying of fertilizers, lime and seeds.

CHRISTMAS REMITTANCES ARE BOOSTING MONEY ORDER DEPARTMENT

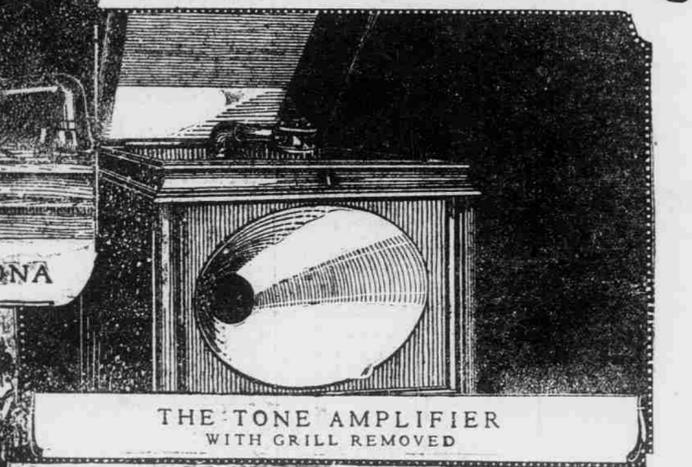

Remittances to foreign countries for Christmas presents have made volume in the Norwich post office by order business in the last few days. The Brunswick

ALL PHONOGRAPHS IN ONE

Music Lovers Choose the BRUNSWICK

MUSIC lovers choose The Brunswick Phonograph to play their favorite records, for it plays all records at their best.

The Brunswick Method of Reproduction makes this possible. It consists of two outstanding, exclusive features—The Brunswick Ultona and The Brunswick Tone Amplifier.

The Ultona
The Ultona is a scientific creation which enables one to play all records with faithful regard for the requirements of each make. It is not in any sense a combination contrivance, but involves a fundamental principle of sound reproduction. Nor is the Ultona a complex mechanism. By a slight turn of the hand it is adapted to any make record, instantly supplying the correct position on the record, the proper needle and diaphragm and the precise pressure or weight necessary to play that particular record.

The Tone Amplifier
The Brunswick Tone Amplifier is another improvement of fundamental importance. As the name implies, it amplifies the tone, making it richer, sweeter, truer. This vibrant tone chamber, constructed entirely of moulded hollywood, free from metal, provides the requisite resiliency that unfolds and projects true tone. Like a fine violin or the sounding board of a piano, it complies with the approved laws of acoustics.

Hear The Brunswick Before You Buy
One hearing of this remarkable instrument is enough to convince the most critical music lover that here is the final type phonograph. Come in today for demonstration.
