JOHNSON SAYS HE IS A BIT SKEPTICAL FOR 1922
Club owners of the major and minor leagues must exercise discretion and stop paying and demanding outrageous prices for players are their duty to have a and weakening according to President Ban Johnson of the American League.

"Prosperity in the last two years has carried the managers of our team," said President Johnson today, "and they are forgetting what the hard pressure means. They may be optimistic over the 1922 season, but I am inclined to be a bit skeptical. We are and have been traveling along a fictitious prosperity for the last two or three years, and the sooner we step down the better it will be for the game and everybody concerned. Next season may not be so good for the owners. Good times have affected their heads and they are almost unconsciously doing baseball an almost irreparable injury by inflating the prices on players as they have this year. There is likely to be a slump in baseball and then some of the owners will wish they had kept the strings looser to their pocketbooks."

work in interference being cheered by the spectators. Roberts made Center's first touchdown, within five minutes of the opening gun, with Roberts leading the interference. McMillin and Turner carried the ball to the Wild Cats' three yard line, where the Redskins held Turner and McMillin, but were unable to stop the Center end, who bucked across the line. The second touchdown came in the same period, when Center broke the ball down the field. McMillin went through right tackle for the score.

Center's next touchdown came four minutes after the second period opened. McMillin failed in an attempt to kick the first three yards. In the third period, Arizona rallied and advanced but Turner intercepted a forward pass behind his own line and the Redskins then slipped down the muddy field to another score. Shoddy carried the ball over and Roberts kicked the goal.

Covington scored Center's fifth touchdown when, standing on his fifty yard line he caught an Arizona punt and ran through a broken field for the tally. Roberts missed the goal. Covington scored the last touchdown on an off-tackle block. He kicked the goal.

NEW ORLEANS TO BE MECCA FOR WINTER GOLF

Not to lag behind its rivals in attracting the leading professional and amateur players the New Orleans Golf Association, comprised of a combination of the members of the four clubs in the Crescent City, has decided to hold an open tournament which will surpass anything of the kind that has been given in the South in the past and become one that the promoters fondly hope will rival in interest the national open championship.

The professionals who have already promised to compete are Jack Hutchinson, Jim Larson, Walter Hagen, Gil Nichols, Mike Brady, Robert Clark, Hank Tom, Kerrigan, Jack Dowling, John Hennessey, Otto Haskbark and at least a dozen others. Nelson Whitney, the best player that New Orleans has so far produced, will be a competitor.

PROVIDENCE LOOKS GOOD FOR INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE
Providence, R. I., Dec. 26.—A Providence club in the International League seemed virtually assured tonight when Mayor Joseph H. Gainer announced the receipt of a telegram from Harry Davis, of Philadelphia, saying that he had secured a league franchise, that he had sufficient financial backing to found a club here and that he was already assured of a large part of the land necessary for a ball park.

The announcement was a surprise in baseball circles here, since it was generally assumed that Patay Donovan was either ready to put his old franchise on the market or to promote a team here if financial assistance was given. No inkling of the Davis move had previously been received and fans and sport writers alike had looked for a blank season in the home of the old boys.
