

WORRIED WIVES READ THIS

Half Sick, Cross Husbands Will Be Helped by Gude's Pepto-Mangan

In the "cross as a bear" when he comes home? Is he nervous and a bit blue and always tired? You can help him back to health with Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

PROMINENT BAPTIST CLERGYMAN DIED IN BROOKLINE

Charles Hubbard Spaulding, long a prominent Baptist clergyman, and for many years district secretary for New England of the American Baptist Association, died last Thursday at his home, 328 Tappan street, Brookline, following an illness of three weeks, in his 85th year.

He was born in Plainfield, Conn., on Oct. 1, 1837, a son of Joseph Carey and Sarah Westcott Spaulding, the former a descendant of ancestors from the township of Spaulding, England. Mr. Spaulding was a student at Plainfield academy during 1855, 1856 and 1857; at Connecticut Literary institution of Suffield, Conn., from 1858 until 1861, including; was an A. B. Brown university, in 1862; A. M. in 1864, and a student at Newton Theological institution in 1865 and 1866, and was given the degree of D. D. at Colby college in 1869.

Rev. Mr. Spaulding was ordained to the Baptist ministry in 1866. He was a pastor at Westport, N. H., from 1866 until 1871; at Portland, from 1871 until 1875; at Arlington, from 1875 until 1880; and at the Fourth street church in South Boston from 1880 until 1888. He was district secretary for New England of the American Baptist Association from 1886 until 1911; financial secretary of the Newton Theological institution from 1911 until 1914, and he had done emeritus service with the American Baptist Publication society after 1914.

Entertained on New Year's

William P. Little of 35 Washington street had as New Year's guests his sister, Mrs. Mary J. Card of Lebanon, and three children, Fred B. Little of Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. Willie C. Little and daughter Mary of New Bedford; Miss M. and Mrs. Robert T. Little and two daughters, Arlene and Phyllis, of Norwich, and Mrs. A. W. Spaulding of this city.

For Winter in Florida.

Mrs. Jennie M. Davis of 21 Laurel Hill avenue left town Monday night for New York where she will spend a few days before leaving the last of the week for Miami, Florida, where she plans to spend the rest of the winter.

Actress Tells Secret

Tells How to Darken Gray Hair with a Home-Made Mixture.

Handled Axes

$1.75 STANDARD GOODS BOUGHT AT LESS THAN MARKET PRICE.

THE HOUSEHOLD

Bulletin Building 74 Franklin Street Telephone 531-4

THE 19TH ANNUAL MEETING of the Mutual Assurance Co. of the City of Norwich will be held at the Norwich Savings Society MONDAY, Jan. 9th, 1922, at 10 a. m.

NOTICE TO POLICY HOLDERS.

Policies will be renewed at the Norwich Savings Society on presentation, dec24d C. B. BITTS, Treasurer.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

LOST—One Alfreddy and bound puppy, six months old. Finder notify F. L. Robinson, East Great Plain, Tel. 1711-3. Jan3d

LOST—A money pin, between R. Wall St. and Broadway. Return to B. J. O'Brien and receive reward. Jan3d

LOST—At armory, on Franklin St. Schoolbook with sum of money. Reward returned to Bulletin Office. Jan3d

PERSONALS

Miss Eva C. Lacey of Mt. Pleasant street is visiting friends in Providence. James O'Neill was at his home in Dayville on the Norwich sanatorium for the holidays.

George A. Lathrop of 116 Laurel Hill avenue is confined to the house with a broken ankle.

Miss Sadie Gorman of Norwich was with her father, Hugh Gorman, of Brooklyn, at the holidays.

Miss Adelaide Andrews of New London returned Monday to Woodstock after a holiday visit in New London.

Robert P. Clish of this city has returned to Springfield, Mass., where he is employed after a ten days' vacation spent at his home here.

Cards have been received by friends from Miss Nellie N. Rathbun of Stanton avenue who is spending the winter by Santa Barbara, Isle of Pines.

When Mr. and Mrs. Frank Q. Cronin of New London, arrived at the city Saturday evening their guests included Miss Eva Hennault of Norwich and John McLaughlin.

Mrs. Clarence Yeomans and son Reginald have returned to their home at Bridgeport after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Aurelio of Peck street.

Mrs. Nelson H. Moore, Jr., and daughter, Evelyn, have returned to their home in New London after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Purr of Laurel Hill avenue.

Mrs. William May, mother of Rev. Michael H. May, pastor of St. Patrick's church, Norwich, died Sunday night at her home in Center street, New London, from infirmities incident to age.

Although in improved health for four years she did not seriously ill until Wednesday last. She would have been 82 had she lived until May 20th next.

Mrs. May was born in County Kilkenny, Ireland, but came to New London with her parents more than 70 years ago, after they had resided in Canada for about three years. Her husband, William May, died in 1887. She was one of the oldest members of St. Mary's Star of the Sea parish, New London.

Surviving her are five sons, Rev. M. H. May of Norwich; Rev. Francis E. May of Norwich; Rev. John L. May of Westport; William T. and James H. May of New London, also a daughter, Miss Helen Adelaide May, who resided with her mother. She leaves a sister, Mrs. Anastasia Drea of a number of years ago, Mrs. Twiss, and a number of years ago, Catherine, died a number of years ago. She leaves seven grandchildren.

At her funeral which will be attended by a number of Father M. H. May's parishioners, especially the chairman of the mass will be her son, Father Francis May and the bearers will be her grandsons and a grand-nephew.

J. Raymond Douglas, for the past seven years a resident of Montville, died at his home on Sunday evening following a long illness. Mr. Douglas suffered a shock about a year ago and had never quite recovered his health although he had been able to be about the house until about a week ago.

Mr. Douglas was 82 years of age and had spent the greater part of his life in Salem and Norwich, going to Montville to live about seven years ago. He is survived by his wife and other relatives.

FUNERALS.

Daniel E. Shepard. Funeral services for Daniel E. Shepard were held on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with a large number of relatives and friends present. There were many beautiful floral tributes. The services were conducted by Rev. G. H. Wright of the Methodist church, who spoke of the exemplary life of Mr. Shepard. During the services Mrs. Grace Fowler sang "The Morning Star" and "The Morning Star." The bearers were Robert Fowler, Frederick Baldwin, Philip Book and Carl Nyler. Burial was in the Brewster's Neck cemetery where Rev. Mr. Wright conducted a committal service. Church and Allen were the funeral directors.

Jeremiah Elliott. The funeral of Jeremiah Elliott was held Monday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Nellie E. Sullivan, at 24 North Thames street, with relatives from Norwich, Hartford, Plainfield, Whitehouse, Putnam, Colechester, Fitchville and Lebanon in attendance. There were many handsome floral tributes. At the service at St. Patrick's church Rev. Philip J. Mooney was celebrant of the mass of requiem and Prof. F. L. Farrell was at the organ. The bearers were John McCarthy, J. Connelly, Timothy Lynch, Dennis Bowen, E. J. Twomey and George Mahoney. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery where Rev. Myles P. Galvin read a committal service at the grave.

Hourigan Brothers were the funeral directors.

John A. Watts. The funeral of John A. Watts of Norwich was held at the home of his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Watts, No. 304 Franklin avenue, Hartford, Saturday afternoon. Rev. John J. Johnson, Hartford, pastor of the First Presbyterian church officiated, assisted by the Rev. Warren S. Archibald, pastor of the South Congregational church. William J. Carroll sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "The Morning Star." The bearers were Masons. Burial was in Cedar Hill cemetery.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Miss Mary T. Army of New York, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John T. Army.

Miss Elizabeth F. Pullen spent the week-end with friends in Winchester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Perkins gave a New Year's dinner at their home on Washington street.

Mrs. Edward Allen Olds, Jr., and family of Englewood, N. J., are visiting Mrs. Olds' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Mitchell.

Miss Helen E. Buckingham has returned to New York after spending the holiday with her sister, Miss Maud Carey Buckingham.

Mrs. Frederick A. Byrnes of Warren street is a holiday week guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Byrnes, in Decatur.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jerome Richards, were guests of Mr. Richards' mother, Mrs. Charles L. Richards, returning during the week to their home in Elizabeth, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Ebenezer Learned were at home New Year's eve. They will receive their friends Sunday afternoon of this winter, continuing their custom of last season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Verter Van Deusen have returned to their home in Hudson, N. Y., after visiting Mrs. Van Deusen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Pullen, of Lincoln avenue.

Found Set of Auto Numbers. A small boy brought to police headquarters Monday a set of the new 1922 automobile registry numbers which he had picked up on Washington street. They were the numbers of a car which they are dispatched from the state motor vehicle department and had evidently not been in the owner's possession long enough to be registered to his car. The numbers were 2704.

NEW CEMETERY SERVICE CHARGES SPRING SURPRISE ON MAYOR LEROU

It developed at the regular monthly meeting of the court of common council Monday night that the public works committee has put into effect a new schedule of service rates, including several increases, at the Yantic cemetery and the other cemeteries owned and controlled by the city without consulting the council. It also developed that although the new rates went into effect January 1st, the first Mayor Herbert M. Lerou knew that Superintendent Henry C. Lane of the department of cemeteries had been authorized by the committee to put the increases into effect Monday afternoon when Mayor Lerou received a bill from the cemetery department for services performed last year by the department in caring for the mayor's lot. With the bill came information that increased rates would be charged this year.

The mayor, after bringing the matter to the attention of the council, requested information on the matter from Alderman Gilbert S. Raymond, chairman of the public works committee.

Then ensued a somewhat lively conversation between Mayor Lerou and Alderman Raymond during the course of which Alderman Raymond arose to a point of order, suggesting that if the mayor desired to speak on the matter he should rise to the chair and take the floor. This the mayor declined to do, stating that he was within his rights in addressing the council on the chair, and further that the matter had been settled in the council one year ago and that the council had sustained him in his stand.

In explaining the new rate schedule Alderman Raymond said the public works committee, especially the chairman, and the superintendent of cemeteries had for some time considered putting into effect increased rates, especially for digging graves.

He said the council had approved the matter and the mayor had referred him to the public works committee.

The alderman said he drew up a tabulation showing the rates last year and the rates proposed. He said there are only changes in two or three instances. The rate for digging graves was increased two dollars and the rate for cutting grass on the average sized lot was increased from $2.50 to $3.00.

Only twenty per cent. of the money spent in the cemetery department is charged to the city. Of a $10,000 appropriation, the city furnishes but $3,000.

In regard to the several increases in rates Alderman Raymond said he had consulted with Superintendent Hoyt of Maplewood cemetery and he had showed them to Councilman John S. Blackmar and Councilman E. B. Worthington, the other members of the committee, and they said they would support the increases. He said he was very slight and in only two or three instances and that he is willing to shoulder the responsibility for the new schedule.

Councilman Blackmar said that Superintendent Lane had told him that it costs more to dig a grave than the cemetery got back.

Mayor Lerou made plain his stand in the matter when he said he believed that any increase in rates should be presented to the council for their approval. He said the new rates show a 100 per cent. increase in charge for water-carrying in the cemetery. He said that the Yantic cemetery had been a source of revenue to the city and he believes the city can well stand the yearly expenditure of $2,000 in the cemetery.

Alderman Raymond arose to a point of order, stating that if the chair wished to address the meeting he should call the senior alderman to the chair and take the floor.

"The matter was settled once before in the council," said Mayor Lerou. "I have the right to address this meeting and I shall stand right here and address the meeting," he said.

Councilman Edward Crooks asked why the decrease in the gas and electrical department rates were not brought before the council.

The mayor answered by informing the council that the gas and electrical department operates under the provisions of the general statutes.

The discussion on the cemetery rates concluded with no action on the part of the council called for. It was intimated after the meeting that the rate increases may be laid before the next meeting of the council for their approval.

At the meeting Mayor Lerou said in conversation with a representative of the Bulletin that he feels that the matter of the rate increases should have been laid before the common council by the public works committee. The mayor said that if the cemetery is digging graves at a loss the rate should be increased, but he did not feel that there should be any increase made in the charge of caring for the lots, such as cutting grass and watering the vines.

He said he felt that an increase in the charge for the caring of lots might result in an unnecessary hardship for widows.

Most of the regular business of the meeting had been disposed of before the controversy over the cemetery rates.

Sidewalk Hearing. The first matter taken up was the hearing on the new sidewalks on West Main street, between North High and North Thames streets. The two property owners affected, Herman Hagenov and Louis Markoff. No one was present to be heard on the matter and the hearing was declared closed. The council then adopted the resolution calling for the completion of the new sidewalks before April 15th.

The monthly reports of the city treasurer, street department and the quarterly reports of the chief of police and the fire marshal were accepted.

On recommendation of the police commissioners the petition of Thomas H. Westcott, Jr. and others for a light on John street was granted. On recommendation of the police commissioners the council also granted the petition of John Vetter and others for two big lights on Fowler avenue.

A petition from C. B. Chapman asking the establishment of the northerly line of Hamilton avenue in front of his property was referred to the public works committee.

Special Constable. The name of Frank J. Martin of No. 9 Hickman street was presented by Alderman A. L. Pease for appointment as a special constable. The clerk was in-charge.

City Treasurer Stephen H. Reeves' summary of disbursements from May 18, 1921, to December 15, 1921, is as follows:

Table with columns: Dept. of Public Works, Gas & Electric Dept., Police Department, Health Department, Water Department, Salaries and tax commission, Court house, Milk inspector, Election expenses, Interest on bonds, Loan of Sept. 14, 1917, last installment, general street improvement, Loan of Sept. 23, 1918, last installment, North main street, concrete improvement, Loan 1921, first installment, North Main street improvement, First installment, temporary loan, 1921, One-fifth West Thames, Thames Street improvement, Third installment, Temporary loans, Contingent, Permanent street improvement, North Main street, 1921, Gas and Electrical Dept., Operating and general expenses, To take up notes, Interest on $400,000 mortgage bonds, Interest on $25,000 city bonds, Interest on $25,000 city bonds (or not), Accrued interest received from sale of bonds, Interest on $60,000 city notes, Interest on $50,000 temporary loan, Temporary Loan, New gas mains, Paving Sachem and Lafayette streets, Woodmansee avenue from Spring G. den avenue sewer, Widening West Main street, Male Richmond case, Prospect street, Overdraft.

JOSEPH FINE & CO. 115 Main Street, Norwich

Some men, by chance, happen to look well in the first suit they try on. Others do not.

The difference is in the build of the men and the cut and wear of the garments.

A man doesn't buy here by luck or chance.

Every suit — every overcoat — is made to order to our specific order in special proportions, which enable us to show each individual for the correct garment, designed for his particular type of figure.

Our guarantee—"Your money back if you want it."

THINK! THE LIVE STORE IN NORWICH AND NEW LONDON

Hypochondriac, Mr. Maples was forced to respond with several answers. He said that Beth Lane gave several beautiful rendered violin solos, with Mrs. Alice Roberts as her accompanist. Alexander Finlayson, who always is welcome in any gathering, entertained with several Scotch songs and Scotch recitations. Mr. Finlayson, like the others on the program, responded to many encores.

Following the entertainment, a lunch was served by the entertainment committee, of which Alex Finlayson was chairman.

At the business session it was announced that a party of 25 members had been organized and will meet regularly for drill under the direction of William Brooks, who is leader of the patrol.

ICE HARVEST MAY BE BEGUN LATE THIS WEEK. The continued cold weather has produced ice on the ponds that on Monday measured about six inches thick. Some of the ice men in the city have been cutting this ice and by putting two cakes together have been selling it in the local trade. With a few more days of the weather it is expected that the ice will be thick enough to harvest some time the latter part of the week.

TOOK POSTMASTER'S ADVICE ON EARLY CHRISTMAS MAILING. Postmaster John P. Murphy was looking over a large batch of postal cards that had been mailed two days before Christmas when he came across a number of cards for California and Alabama. "Well, here's somebody," the Norwich postmaster remarked, "who took my advice about early mailing. These are probably meant for next Christmas."

GARRETT BROWER, OLDEST MEMBER OF ODD FELLOWS, DEAR New York, Jan. 2.—Garrett Brower, said to be the oldest member of the Odd Fellows, died today at his Brooklyn home. Records of the fraternity show that he joined on July 28, 1845, and had paid dues for 76 years. He was 98 and a retired grocery man.

Tidings from the Morse Family. A holiday message to Miss Laura Perkins, of Gates Ferry, from Mrs. Elsie J. Morse, wife of Rev. Oliver Morse, formerly of Norwich Town and Gates Ferry, "Well, here's somebody," the Norwich postmaster remarked, "who took my advice about early mailing. These are probably meant for next Christmas."

After the basketball game company gathered in the large assembly hall, where after a selection by the orchestra, President James C. Macpherson extended a warm welcome to the members and friends, and wished them a most happy new year; he spoke very hopefully of the outlook for the Norwich association, and expressed the belief that the year 1922 would be a community year.

He talked enthusiastically of the new physical unit now being erected on Main street, and stated that this would probably be ready for occupancy by the latter part next; the people loudly applauded the remarks of the president. Secretary Hill told of the interest of Norwich friends in the Y. M. C. A. foreign work carried on by the Norwich association in the past year, and stated that many of the members of the local association had contributed this year to the fund, among these were over ninety of the junior members.

The program of readings given by Dorothy Berry Carpenter of Boston, the popular elocutionist was rendered in a most pleasing manner, every number bringing forth enthusiastic applause.

After the readings refreshments of ice cream and wafers were served and more of the orchestra rendered several selections. The orchestra consisted of John M. Swann, conductor; William Storms, trombone; Richard Arnold, clarinet; A. Kappell, violin and G. L. LaFrenet, Ladies of the Auxiliary, and several young ladies assisted in serving the refreshments. The affair was one of the very best ever held in the association.

MARSHAL'S WARRANT ORDERED TO BRING IN BANKRUPT. Fred W. Hoxsie, a former Lebanon cattle dealer, whose sudden disappearance from there several weeks ago had stirred up the village, failed to be produced Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, which was the time appointed for the first meeting of creditors in the office of Attorney J. J. Desmond.

Mr. Hoxsie made a voluntary petition in bankruptcy proceedings which dated Dec. 21st, but he was not on hand Monday.

Attorney J. J. Desmond appeared to represent Mr. Hoxsie, but this failed to satisfy several Vermont men present, who are the largest creditors, and were present with counsel, an attorney by the name of Raymond Smith, who had associated with him Attorney Edmund W. Perkins of this city. The Vermont creditors, who are Greer Brothers, having claims of $4,900, and A. Worthen, with claims of $3,500, with J. B. Perley of Lebanon, N. H., claim $1,500, severely criticized the absence of the bankrupt.

The hearing was put over until Jan. 10th, and it was directed that a warrant order shall be issued and served to produce the bankrupt at the hearing then.

Frank N. Gardner was appointed trustee under bond of $2,000 and appraisers named were C. J. Allen and William Clark of Lebanon and C. W. Cassidy of Norwich.

It is understood that Mr. Hoxsie has a liability of about $12,000 and assets of about $35,100, included in which is his farm of 300 acres, said to be worth about $15,000. When Mr. Hoxsie was in business he had a lot of cattle, but these were all sold off. It is understood, just before he disappeared from the village, his wife and son are still in Lebanon.

NEMROD GORTO ENTERTAINS AT NEW YEAR'S SMOKER

Nemrod Gorto, U. D., and O. V. F. R., gave a New Year's smoker Monday evening after the regular business session in Steiner hall for the members and a large number of invited friends. There were about 400 present who enjoyed every minute of the evening's entertainment.

First on the program was Frank T. Maples, elocutionist, who gave several clever recitations, his feature being The

C. A. SPEAR OPTOMETRIST Franklin Sq. Norwich, Conn.

There is a distinctive style in glasses best suited to each individual. Glasses correctly designed harmonize with the features. Let us show you.