

FACE INFLAMED WITH ECZEMA

"Fruit-a-tives" The Marvellous Fruit Medicine Cured After Specialists Failed.

Another 'Fruit-a-tive' Triumph

Elba, New York. I suffered with Eczema in my face for five years. I tried several doctors, two of whom were specialists on Skin Diseases, and got no help whatever.

JOSEPH FINE & CO. 115 Main Street, Norwich

We can't grow hair on bald heads, but we can clothe men in a manner most becoming to their years and in garments that emphasize the finer points of each individual figure.

THINK! JOSEPH FINE & CO.

THE LIVE STORE IN NORWICH AND NEW LONDON

Madam Stanley

the seventh daughter of the third generation. She tells the past, present and future by the planet you were born under, puts you on the guard of your friends and enemies, and your future companions.

SIX CASES SMALLPOX IN ONE FAMILY - BRIDGEPORT

Bridgeport, Jan. 20.—Six new cases of smallpox, all of which were in the same family, were reported by the health department today.

CITY OF BURLINGO MARKS HOLLAND 180,000,000 OUNES FOR RABBITS

Burlingo, Jan. 20.—(By the A. P.)—The Berlin city council in its effort to find a way out of the city's financial difficulties, has passed a resolution.

GERMAN REPRESENTATIVES WILL ATTEND CONFERENCE

Berlin, Jan. 20.—(Havas)—The German government has accepted the invitation to send representatives to the coming international economic conference at Geneva.

ELKS' RUMMAGE and FOOD SALE

For the Benefit of the ELKS' CHARITY FUND To Be Held TUESDAY, JANUARY 24th At the Store Formerly Occupied by The G. W. Kies Company 80 MAIN STREET

THE WORLD ALMANAC Is now on sale, and every home should have a copy.

SHEA'S NEWS BUREAU

PERSONALS

Mrs. George A. Haskell, of Jewett City was a visitor in Norwich Friday.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 5.15 o'clock this evening. New scallops, $1.00 per quart at Powers Bros.—adv.

This week there are 144 patients at Norwich State Sanatorium.

The Assawag Company at Dayville is wiring their tenements for electric lights.

Miss Rockwell, of Norwich chapter of the Red Cross, was in Canterbury for the purpose of organizing a class in home sewing recently.

The American Woolen Company, which has mills at Moosung, will open their fall 1922 season Monday next.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Talcott of Montclair, N. J., arrived Tuesday in Norwich to look over property which they recently bought.

The Catholic residents are desirous of building a church in Flanders and an entertainment Thursday night to help raise money for that purpose.

Miss George E. Tingley of the west side and Charles Foley of the east side have been successfully soliciting this week for the Woodrow Wilson Foundation.

At a meeting of Washington council, No. 7, Jr. O. U. A. M. of Noank, held Tuesday evening, the officers were seated in their respective chairs by Ralph H. Jones of Buckingham council, No. 14, Norwich.

Friday afternoon the Woman's auxiliary of Trinity Episcopal church held an interesting meeting, the programme consisting of a play, a concert and a social.

The Hungarian girl violinist who was invited to give an engagement in Norwich with last week, Evzika Morini, has recovered and played with the Philharmonic Society at Carnegie hall, New York, several times.

The Methodist church is to celebrate Sunday the 75th anniversary. This (Saturday) evening the history of the church will be read in a paper presented by persons participating at 7:30 Sunday. Bishop Hughes will speak.

Raymond O. Stone, formerly of Moosung, whose parents now live at Washington, R. I., has been elected to the service and is now in Santo Domingo. When the war closed he was chief pharmacist's mate and he is now commissary.

Hope Valley young man, Paul S. Lamphere, is still in the hospital in Providence, but is making the progress towards recovery following an operation for typhoid fever.

Do you want to sell your farm or city property. We have large list of customers. Write to J. H. Agency, Thayer building—adv.

Connecticut trappers and buyers are keenly interested in the February fur auction in New York, which is expected to be sold near $9 per pound.

A prominent Stonington man, Henry Robinson Palmer, spoke before the Old South church in Norwich, Conn., Monday night, his subject being "The Decoration of Life." The president of the club is Dr. William H. Fisher, who spends his summers in Stonington.

During the past week Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, superintendent at Norwich State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, was in New York, attending the annual convention of the American Association of Tuberculosis, which was held in Philadelphia and Central Pennsylvania.

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT Washington, Jan. 20.—Ordinary expenses of the government fell off by nearly $70,000,000 during the first three months of the current fiscal year as compared with the same period in 1920, while public debt disbursements decreased by about one billion dollars.

10 YEAR OLD WOODCHOPPER FOUND EXHAUSTED IN WOODS Stafford, Jan. 20.—After having wandered all night in the woods in the town of Somers, Conn., a 10 year old woodchopper was found in an exhausted condition near West Stafford today by a rural mail carrier.

FORMER PRESIDENT WILSON ATTENDED A PUBLIC CONCERT Washington, Jan. 20.—Former President Wilson today for the first time in many months attended a public concert, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, the former president, was present at a concert at which Jeanie Mather, an American contralto, appeared for the benefit of the Disabled Veterans' Relief Society.

Zepplin Construction in Germany Berlin, Jan. 20.—(By the A. P.)—It will be necessary for the reichstag to pass a special law permitting the construction of Zepplins before work can be begun on the dirigible being constructed by the German government. This necessity has been pointed out since the arrival here of two American experts, Horace Byer and Charles Burgess, who are charged with supervising the construction of the proposed giant dirigible.

WEDDING BELLS HEARD LESS IN NORWICH IN 1921 THAN IN 1920

Cupid has got to do better in Norwich in 1922 than he did in 1921. The little god with the bow and arrow has found a more marriageable people of the town a hard-hearted lot, for he has to confess ignominious defeat in the past twelve months as compared with his work in 1920.

There were 56 less marriages in Norwich in 1921 than in 1920, for the figures show 274 marriages in 1921 as compared to 332 in 1920. However, the number of Norwich people who entered the happy state of matrimony was further increased by 17 in 1921 than in 1920.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Gov. William H. Bath, of Norwich has been in Pennsylvania because of the death of a relative.

Detective Alfred Cameron of California, who is on duty at Misses Durr of Occum, with his new car.

Toufant Stinney has returned to his home on Plain Hill after spending two months in Montreal, Canada.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

Mr. E. J. Stanton and son Edmond of Danford Street, Superior, Wis., were with Mrs. and Mrs. Delphia La Pre of 35 Dunham street.

PERSONALS

Mrs. George A. Haskell, of Jewett City was a visitor in Norwich Friday.

The Assawag Company at Dayville is wiring their tenements for electric lights.

Miss Rockwell, of Norwich chapter of the Red Cross, was in Canterbury for the purpose of organizing a class in home sewing recently.

The American Woolen Company, which has mills at Moosung, will open their fall 1922 season Monday next.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Talcott of Montclair, N. J., arrived Tuesday in Norwich to look over property which they recently bought.

The Catholic residents are desirous of building a church in Flanders and an entertainment Thursday night to help raise money for that purpose.

Miss George E. Tingley of the west side and Charles Foley of the east side have been successfully soliciting this week for the Woodrow Wilson Foundation.

A prominent Stonington man, Henry Robinson Palmer, spoke before the Old South church in Norwich, Conn., Monday night, his subject being "The Decoration of Life." The president of the club is Dr. William H. Fisher, who spends his summers in Stonington.

During the past week Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, superintendent at Norwich State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, was in New York, attending the annual convention of the American Association of Tuberculosis, which was held in Philadelphia and Central Pennsylvania.

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT Washington, Jan. 20.—Ordinary expenses of the government fell off by nearly $70,000,000 during the first three months of the current fiscal year as compared with the same period in 1920, while public debt disbursements decreased by about one billion dollars.

10 YEAR OLD WOODCHOPPER FOUND EXHAUSTED IN WOODS Stafford, Jan. 20.—After having wandered all night in the woods in the town of Somers, Conn., a 10 year old woodchopper was found in an exhausted condition near West Stafford today by a rural mail carrier.

FORMER PRESIDENT WILSON ATTENDED A PUBLIC CONCERT Washington, Jan. 20.—Former President Wilson today for the first time in many months attended a public concert, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, the former president, was present at a concert at which Jeanie Mather, an American contralto, appeared for the benefit of the Disabled Veterans' Relief Society.

Zepplin Construction in Germany Berlin, Jan. 20.—(By the A. P.)—It will be necessary for the reichstag to pass a special law permitting the construction of Zepplins before work can be begun on the dirigible being constructed by the German government. This necessity has been pointed out since the arrival here of two American experts, Horace Byer and Charles Burgess, who are charged with supervising the construction of the proposed giant dirigible.

Do you want to sell your farm or city property. We have large list of customers. Write to J. H. Agency, Thayer building—adv.

Connecticut trappers and buyers are keenly interested in the February fur auction in New York, which is expected to be sold near $9 per pound.

A prominent Stonington man, Henry Robinson Palmer, spoke before the Old South church in Norwich, Conn., Monday night, his subject being "The Decoration of Life." The president of the club is Dr. William H. Fisher, who spends his summers in Stonington.

During the past week Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, superintendent at Norwich State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, was in New York, attending the annual convention of the American Association of Tuberculosis, which was held in Philadelphia and Central Pennsylvania.

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT Washington, Jan. 20.—Ordinary expenses of the government fell off by nearly $70,000,000 during the first three months of the current fiscal year as compared with the same period in 1920, while public debt disbursements decreased by about one billion dollars.

10 YEAR OLD WOODCHOPPER FOUND EXHAUSTED IN WOODS Stafford, Jan. 20.—After having wandered all night in the woods in the town of Somers, Conn., a 10 year old woodchopper was found in an exhausted condition near West Stafford today by a rural mail carrier.

FORMER PRESIDENT WILSON ATTENDED A PUBLIC CONCERT Washington, Jan. 20.—Former President Wilson today for the first time in many months attended a public concert, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, the former president, was present at a concert at which Jeanie Mather, an American contralto, appeared for the benefit of the Disabled Veterans' Relief Society.

Zepplin Construction in Germany Berlin, Jan. 20.—(By the A. P.)—It will be necessary for the reichstag to pass a special law permitting the construction of Zepplins before work can be begun on the dirigible being constructed by the German government. This necessity has been pointed out since the arrival here of two American experts, Horace Byer and Charles Burgess, who are charged with supervising the construction of the proposed giant dirigible.

Do you want to sell your farm or city property. We have large list of customers. Write to J. H. Agency, Thayer building—adv.

Connecticut trappers and buyers are keenly interested in the February fur auction in New York, which is expected to be sold near $9 per pound.

A prominent Stonington man, Henry Robinson Palmer, spoke before the Old South church in Norwich, Conn., Monday night, his subject being "The Decoration of Life." The president of the club is Dr. William H. Fisher, who spends his summers in Stonington.

During the past week Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, superintendent at Norwich State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, was in New York, attending the annual convention of the American Association of Tuberculosis, which was held in Philadelphia and Central Pennsylvania.

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT Washington, Jan. 20.—Ordinary expenses of the government fell off by nearly $70,000,000 during the first three months of the current fiscal year as compared with the same period in 1920, while public debt disbursements decreased by about one billion dollars.

PERSONALS

Mrs. George A. Haskell, of Jewett City was a visitor in Norwich Friday.

The Assawag Company at Dayville is wiring their tenements for electric lights.

Miss Rockwell, of Norwich chapter of the Red Cross, was in Canterbury for the purpose of organizing a class in home sewing recently.

The American Woolen Company, which has mills at Moosung, will open their fall 1922 season Monday next.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Talcott of Montclair, N. J., arrived Tuesday in Norwich to look over property which they recently bought.

The Catholic residents are desirous of building a church in Flanders and an entertainment Thursday night to help raise money for that purpose.

Miss George E. Tingley of the west side and Charles Foley of the east side have been successfully soliciting this week for the Woodrow Wilson Foundation.

A prominent Stonington man, Henry Robinson Palmer, spoke before the Old South church in Norwich, Conn., Monday night, his subject being "The Decoration of Life." The president of the club is Dr. William H. Fisher, who spends his summers in Stonington.

During the past week Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, superintendent at Norwich State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, was in New York, attending the annual convention of the American Association of Tuberculosis, which was held in Philadelphia and Central Pennsylvania.

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT Washington, Jan. 20.—Ordinary expenses of the government fell off by nearly $70,000,000 during the first three months of the current fiscal year as compared with the same period in 1920, while public debt disbursements decreased by about one billion dollars.

10 YEAR OLD WOODCHOPPER FOUND EXHAUSTED IN WOODS Stafford, Jan. 20.—After having wandered all night in the woods in the town of Somers, Conn., a 10 year old woodchopper was found in an exhausted condition near West Stafford today by a rural mail carrier.

FORMER PRESIDENT WILSON ATTENDED A PUBLIC CONCERT Washington, Jan. 20.—Former President Wilson today for the first time in many months attended a public concert, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, the former president, was present at a concert at which Jeanie Mather, an American contralto, appeared for the benefit of the Disabled Veterans' Relief Society.

Zepplin Construction in Germany Berlin, Jan. 20.—(By the A. P.)—It will be necessary for the reichstag to pass a special law permitting the construction of Zepplins before work can be begun on the dirigible being constructed by the German government. This necessity has been pointed out since the arrival here of two American experts, Horace Byer and Charles Burgess, who are charged with supervising the construction of the proposed giant dirigible.

Do you want to sell your farm or city property. We have large list of customers. Write to J. H. Agency, Thayer building—adv.

Connecticut trappers and buyers are keenly interested in the February fur auction in New York, which is expected to be sold near $9 per pound.

A prominent Stonington man, Henry Robinson Palmer, spoke before the Old South church in Norwich, Conn., Monday night, his subject being "The Decoration of Life." The president of the club is Dr. William H. Fisher, who spends his summers in Stonington.

During the past week Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, superintendent at Norwich State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, was in New York, attending the annual convention of the American Association of Tuberculosis, which was held in Philadelphia and Central Pennsylvania.

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT Washington, Jan. 20.—Ordinary expenses of the government fell off by nearly $70,000,000 during the first three months of the current fiscal year as compared with the same period in 1920, while public debt disbursements decreased by about one billion dollars.

10 YEAR OLD WOODCHOPPER FOUND EXHAUSTED IN WOODS Stafford, Jan. 20.—After having wandered all night in the woods in the town of Somers, Conn., a 10 year old woodchopper was found in an exhausted condition near West Stafford today by a rural mail carrier.

FORMER PRESIDENT WILSON ATTENDED A PUBLIC CONCERT Washington, Jan. 20.—Former President Wilson today for the first time in many months attended a public concert, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, the former president, was present at a concert at which Jeanie Mather, an American contralto, appeared for the benefit of the Disabled Veterans' Relief Society.

Zepplin Construction in Germany Berlin, Jan. 20.—(By the A. P.)—It will be necessary for the reichstag to pass a special law permitting the construction of Zepplins before work can be begun on the dirigible being constructed by the German government. This necessity has been pointed out since the arrival here of two American experts, Horace Byer and Charles Burgess, who are charged with supervising the construction of the proposed giant dirigible.

Do you want to sell your farm or city property. We have large list of customers. Write to J. H. Agency, Thayer building—adv.

Connecticut trappers and buyers are keenly interested in the February fur auction in New York, which is expected to be sold near $9 per pound.

A prominent Stonington man, Henry Robinson Palmer, spoke before the Old South church in Norwich, Conn., Monday night, his subject being "The Decoration of Life." The president of the club is Dr. William H. Fisher, who spends his summers in Stonington.

During the past week Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, superintendent at Norwich State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, was in New York, attending the annual convention of the American Association of Tuberculosis, which was held in Philadelphia and Central Pennsylvania.

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT Washington, Jan. 20.—Ordinary expenses of the government fell off by nearly $70,000,000 during the first three months of the current fiscal year as compared with the same period in 1920, while public debt disbursements decreased by about one billion dollars.

PERSONALS

Mrs. George A. Haskell, of Jewett City was a visitor in Norwich Friday.

The Assawag Company at Dayville is wiring their tenements for electric lights.

Miss Rockwell, of Norwich chapter of the Red Cross, was in Canterbury for the purpose of organizing a class in home sewing recently.

The American Woolen Company, which has mills at Moosung, will open their fall 1922 season Monday next.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Talcott of Montclair, N. J., arrived Tuesday in Norwich to look over property which they recently bought.

The Catholic residents are desirous of building a church in Flanders and an entertainment Thursday night to help raise money for that purpose.

Miss George E. Tingley of the west side and Charles Foley of the east side have been successfully soliciting this week for the Woodrow Wilson Foundation.

A prominent Stonington man, Henry Robinson Palmer, spoke before the Old South church in Norwich, Conn., Monday night, his subject being "The Decoration of Life." The president of the club is Dr. William H. Fisher, who spends his summers in Stonington.

During the past week Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, superintendent at Norwich State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, was in New York, attending the annual convention of the American Association of Tuberculosis, which was held in Philadelphia and Central Pennsylvania.

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT Washington, Jan. 20.—Ordinary expenses of the government fell off by nearly $70,000,000 during the first three months of the current fiscal year as compared with the same period in 1920, while public debt disbursements decreased by about one billion dollars.

10 YEAR OLD WOODCHOPPER FOUND EXHAUSTED IN WOODS Stafford, Jan. 20.—After having wandered all night in the woods in the town of Somers, Conn., a 10 year old woodchopper was found in an exhausted condition near West Stafford today by a rural mail carrier.

FORMER PRESIDENT WILSON ATTENDED A PUBLIC CONCERT Washington, Jan. 20.—Former President Wilson today for the first time in many months attended a public concert, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, the former president, was present at a concert at which Jeanie Mather, an American contralto, appeared for the benefit of the Disabled Veterans' Relief Society.

Zepplin Construction in Germany Berlin, Jan. 20.—(By the A. P.)—It will be necessary for the reichstag to pass a special law permitting the construction of Zepplins before work can be begun on the dirigible being constructed by the German government. This necessity has been pointed out since the arrival here of two American experts, Horace Byer and Charles Burgess, who are charged with supervising the construction of the proposed giant dirigible.

Do you want to sell your farm or city property. We have large list of customers. Write to J. H. Agency, Thayer building—adv.

Connecticut trappers and buyers are keenly interested in the February fur auction in New York, which is expected to be sold near $9 per pound.

A prominent Stonington man, Henry Robinson Palmer, spoke before the Old South church in Norwich, Conn., Monday night, his subject being "The Decoration of Life." The president of the club is Dr. William H. Fisher, who spends his summers in Stonington.

During the past week Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, superintendent at Norwich State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, was in New York, attending the annual convention of the American Association of Tuberculosis, which was held in Philadelphia and Central Pennsylvania.

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT Washington, Jan. 20.—Ordinary expenses of the government fell off by nearly $70,000,000 during the first three months of the current fiscal year as compared with the same period in 1920, while public debt disbursements decreased by about one billion dollars.

10 YEAR OLD WOODCHOPPER FOUND EXHAUSTED IN WOODS Stafford, Jan. 20.—After having wandered all night in the woods in the town of Somers, Conn., a 10 year old woodchopper was found in an exhausted condition near West Stafford today by a rural mail carrier.

FORMER PRESIDENT WILSON ATTENDED A PUBLIC CONCERT Washington, Jan. 20.—Former President Wilson today for the first time in many months attended a public concert, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, the former president, was present at a concert at which Jeanie Mather, an American contralto, appeared for the benefit of the Disabled Veterans' Relief Society.

Zepplin Construction in Germany Berlin, Jan. 20.—(By the A. P.)—It will be necessary for the reichstag to pass a special law permitting the construction of Zepplins before work can be begun on the dirigible being constructed by the German government. This necessity has been pointed out since the arrival here of two American experts, Horace Byer and Charles Burgess, who are charged with supervising the construction of the proposed giant dirigible.

Do you want to sell your farm or city property. We have large list of customers. Write to J. H. Agency, Thayer building—adv.

Connecticut trappers and buyers are keenly interested in the February fur auction in New York, which is expected to be sold near $9 per pound.

A prominent Stonington man, Henry Robinson Palmer, spoke before the Old South church in Norwich, Conn., Monday night, his subject being "The Decoration of Life." The president of the club is Dr. William H. Fisher, who spends his summers in Stonington.

During the past week Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, superintendent at Norwich State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, was in New York, attending the annual convention of the American Association of Tuberculosis, which was held in Philadelphia and Central Pennsylvania.

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT Washington, Jan. 20.—Ordinary expenses of the government fell off by nearly $70,000,000 during the first three months of the current fiscal year as compared with the same period in 1920, while public debt disbursements decreased by about one billion dollars.

PERSONALS

Mrs. George A. Haskell, of Jewett City was a visitor in Norwich Friday.

The Assawag Company at Dayville is wiring their tenements for electric lights.

Miss Rockwell, of Norwich chapter of the Red Cross, was in Canterbury for the purpose of organizing a class in home sewing recently.

The American Woolen Company, which has mills at Moosung, will open their fall 1922 season Monday next.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Talcott of Montclair, N. J., arrived Tuesday in Norwich to look over property which they recently bought.

The Catholic residents are desirous of building a church in Flanders and an entertainment Thursday night to help raise money for that purpose.

Miss George E. Tingley of the west side and Charles Foley of the east side have been successfully soliciting this week for the Woodrow Wilson Foundation.

A prominent Stonington man, Henry Robinson Palmer, spoke before the Old South church in Norwich, Conn., Monday night, his subject being "The Decoration of Life." The president of the club is Dr. William H. Fisher, who spends his summers in Stonington.

During the past week Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, superintendent at Norwich State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, was in New York, attending the annual convention of the American Association of Tuberculosis, which was held in Philadelphia and Central Pennsylvania.

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT Washington, Jan. 20.—Ordinary expenses of the government fell off by nearly $70,000,000 during the first three months of the current fiscal year as compared with the same period in 1920, while public debt disbursements decreased by about one billion dollars.

10 YEAR OLD WOODCHOPPER FOUND EXHAUSTED IN WOODS Stafford, Jan. 20.—After having wandered all night in the woods in the town of Somers, Conn., a 10 year old woodchopper was found in an exhausted condition near West Stafford today by a rural mail carrier.

FORMER PRESIDENT WILSON ATTENDED A PUBLIC CONCERT Washington, Jan. 2