LENINE STILL BELIEVES IN INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY

New York, Jan. 25.—(Special Leninist.)—Head of the Russian soviet government may attempt soon to transfer headquarters of his world communique movement to the United States, Philip Norton, a foreign trade expert, returned recently from Russia, predicted today at a luncheon of the American Manufacturers' Association.

PARAL FURNERAL CEREMONY AT 3 O'CLOCK THIS AFTERNOON

Rome, Jan. 25.—(By the A. F.)—The body of Benedict XV will be interred in the Basilica of St. Peter's tomorrow. The ceremony will take place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, after which the sacred coffin will deposit itself exclusively to maintain pertaining to the deceased to be held in the Basilica.

INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY, and wished to try it out under more favorable conditions.

He pictured the Russian leader as an able man carrying tremendous burdens and personally in fear of assassination. In granting interviews, he said, Lenin received visitors with two armed guards standing watchfully behind him.

PARAL FURNERAL CEREMONY AT 3 O'CLOCK THIS AFTERNOON

Rome, Jan. 25.—(By the A. F.)—The body of Benedict XV will be interred in the Basilica of St. Peter's tomorrow. The ceremony will take place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, after which the sacred coffin will deposit itself exclusively to maintain pertaining to the deceased to be held in the Basilica.

Preparations for the funeral and the collecting and arranging of documents and medals to be placed in the coffin occupied practically the entire day of the members of the Sacred College and the Vatican household. The medals include all those struck during the pontificate of Benedict.

HOUSEHOLD, diplomatic officers accredited to the Vatican, officers of the units of the pontifical armed forces which are detailed for the ceremony according to the rites, and members of the most ancient families of papal nobility.

The officers of the majordomo of the Vatican, Monsignore Sans De Sarper, generally preside throughout the day by appointing for tickets to St. Peter's. One elderly woman, who claimed to be the sister of a cardinal and had documents in her possession corroborating this, was refused, it being explained that those were positive instruction that no additional permits should be issued. The Swiss Guards were busy keeping the crowds away.

THE SACRED COLLEGE, upon learning that the requests for tickets from diplomats generally exceeded the number allowed by the constitution, immediately gave orders to suspend all issuance of cards.

The diplomats will be permitted to enter upon the presentation of their credentials. The newspaper correspondents will be excluded absolutely.

Fulfilled All Hopes The Washington Conference has more than fulfilled the hopes of its friends, and the delegates to it may know, when they adjourn, that they have done a good piece of work.—Boston Transcript.

The session of the superior court held in this city Wednesday was delayed some time owing to the late arrival of the Boston Express due in this city at 10.38 o'clock. The court was further held up by a conference of the attorneys in the two cases brought before the court, those of Newell Bethel of Thompson, charged with adultery, and Wilfred Breatat of Hope, R. I., charged with breaking and entering. Judge John W. Banks was in the bench and at the close of the session gave notice to Sheriff Charles A. Gates to adjourn the court without day.

Newell Bethel, charged with adultery, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months in the county jail at Brooklyn.

Wilfred Breatat pleaded guilty to breaking and entering. Breatat, March 7, 1921, broke into the Onco station of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad and stole $4 in change from the ticket office. March 15th the grocery store of Mr. Arnold and the station of the railroad in Greene, R. I., just over the Connecticut line, were entered and robbed. Breatat was arrested a few days later and given a jail sentence of six months by the Rhode Island authorities. Several days ago he was released on parole and was arrested by Constable, Eastford, and brought over to the criminal term of the Willimantic county superior court.

County Protector C. L. Torrey appeared for Breatat and explained that the man would try to establish record on. He is married and has two children who need his help. Judge Banks stated that as State Attorney Charles E. Breatat was inclined to be lenient, he said and thereupon placed Breatat on probation to report in writing every two weeks to Attorney Torrey and to see him personally whenever possible. Probation would last for one year.

State's Attorney Searle called the attention of the court to a number of cases on the docket in which there was not sufficient evidence for a conviction, of which the plaintiffs did not bring forth proof to plea his case was nolle prosequi. The following cases were noted for these reasons: Peter Stankiewicz, of Thompson, charged with assault; Clayton Smith, of Eastford, charged with assault; John Cilly, of Killingly, charged with assault; Minnie Reddard, of Willimantic, charged with theft; William Mason, of Thompson, charged with theft; Harry Butler, of Killingly, charged with violation of the motor vehicle laws; Frank Sedwick, of Woodstock, charged with aggravated assault.

It was learned that Breatat was without funds to pay his way back to his home in Rhode Island and one of the court officials generously let him have the amount of money necessary to get back to his home.

James A. Boone, a traveling salesman was before the police court Wednesday morning, charged with selling goods under false pretences. Owing to the fact that an adjustment had been made he was not put to plea his case was nolle prosequi upon payment of costs of $13. The trouble arose when Boone let a contract for selling windshield polish to the State of this city, and then because he did not believe Chontas was pushing the sales, gave the contract to the Jordan Buick Company. The money paid to both local parties was refunded. In the case of the Jordan Buick Company the amount was $54.

Friends of John White, formerly employed at the dye house of the American Thread Company, have learned that Mr. White has entered the employ of the State of this city, as a janitor, at Greenville, S. C. He will leave for the south shortly with his wife and her mother, Mrs. Edward P. Sweet, formerly of this city, and her son, Mrs. Sweet, will go with them, having secured the position of foreman in the dyehouse at the Franklin mill. Since entering mill work, Mr. White has been located at Holyoke, Fall River, Mass., Pawtucket, R. I., and in this city.

The conference of Baptist churches belonging to the Ashford Association, met in this city Wednesday with afternoon and evening sessions. In the afternoon session, Rev. J. C. Stoddard, of Putnam.

The officers of Windham Encampment, No. 10, I. O. O. F., were installed Tuesday night by District Deputy Grand Patriarch William A. Sisker, of Unity Encampment, No. 21, of Danielson. The officers are: Chief patriarch, C. J. Palmer; senior warden, Louis B. Wilson; high priest, Herbert O. Ladd; junior warden, Eugene Clark; recording secretary, Charles H. Beebe; treasurer, Fred L. Avery. The appointive officers were as follows: Gold, Joseph Bernet; first watch, William Mann; second watch, Arthur Jacobs; third watch, Arthur Swanson; fourth watch, David Copeland; outside sentinel, Archie Reed; inner sentinel, D. Weathers; that guard of post, Harry Pearl; second guard of tent, Samuel Ferguson. Following the installation an oyster supper was enjoyed.

Officers of the Red Barn Club for the ensuing year are: President, Bonaventura Gingham; vice president, Randolph Laramie; secretary and treasurer, Joseph Connell. It was voted to invite the Wanderer Girls' Club of the city to a banquet to be held at the Red Barn Tuesday evening next. The club is planning a series of boxing bouts for the club smoker to be held next month.

Loren H. Reed, of Coventry, died on Monday at the home of his son, Arthur L. Reed, following a short illness. He was born in Tolland March 10, 1848. He was a farmer and was well known in this section. He leaves a brother, Charles H. Reed, of Rockville, and five children: Arthur L. Reed of Coventry, Clayton V. Reed of Tolland, Mrs. James Stacy of Windsor, Vt., Andrew Reed of Coventry.

NEARLY KILLED BY INDIGESTION

"Fruit-a-tives" Restored Him to Perfect Health

SOUTH WILMINGTON, VERMONT. "About three years ago, I began to suffer with indigestion. Food soured in my stomach, causing me to belch; and I had terrible heart burn.

I was knocked out and good for nothing, when I read about "Fruit-a-tives" and sent for a box. To my surprise and gladness, I noticed improvement and I continued the use of "Fruit-a-tives" or "Fruit Laxo Tablets" with the result that a dozen boxes made me feel like a new person."
