BOLTON NOTCH

Mr. Richardson, a coal dealer in Manchester, who bought the Lewis place, has built a big house on it and is filling it with a good quality of ice. He expects to have it filled this week.

Clayde Fuller from Manchester visited over Sunday with Rosalie Clements.

Mrs. Ida Moran, who was in the Hartford hospital for an operation on her foot, is home and is comfortable.

Mrs. Jeanie Smith and daughter Bernice were visitors in Bristol over Sunday.

Loren Maine was in Terryville Wednesday.

WOODSTOCK

A singing school under the direction of Mrs. Ida S. Masters has been started, meeting Monday evenings in the Hill church chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rutishauser were remembered with flowers congratulations and gifts on their 25th wedding anniversary, the 17th.

The best and most exciting basketball game of the season was played between Woodstock academy and Putnam High school last week, in which the local boys were victorious, 25 to 25.

Edward H. Rollins was in New York last week.

Last Friday evening the students of Woodstock academy gave a minstrel show under the direction of the musical director, Miss Marguerite C. Burns. The end men, Wetherell, Wilcox, Stone and White, kept the audience in good humor with their jokes and replies to the interjections of Prof. W. P. Dupleme. Dancing followed the program.

WILSONVILLE

Fred Moriarty of Putnam was with his sister, Mrs. P. Wilson, Sunday.

Keegan's mill started up on full time Monday morning.

Mrs. A. H. Beville of Willimantic was with her sister here one day the past week.

Ralph Elmer of Webster called on local friends last week.

To be on the right side in politics means to be on the inside.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Nearly half a hundred employees of the Southern New England Telephone company and in some instances their wives, gathered at Peletti's hall Thursday evening for the February meeting of the employees' association. Following the business meeting, a five course dinner was served, and the association orchestra played for dancing that was a feature of part of the evening. Being the business section, a meeting was addressed by Miss Alice Devin, of the New London district.

Loella Leroy Lashburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dewey Lashburn, were conducted at the undertaking rooms of A. F. Wood Thursday by Rev. Walter B. Williams of the Westfield Congregational church. The body was placed in the receiving vault at Westfield cemetery. The child died at the home of its parents, resident in the district between the Foster road and Mooseup valley.

At sunset Thursday evening, it was agreed by the caucus members that the ground hog has every excuse in the world either to go back into his hole to remain through six more weeks of punitive winter weather or to do his E. V. D.'s and predict the coming season. Rain that fell heavily during the morning hours from heavy dark banks of clouds, cutting off the shadows, gave place during the afternoon to bright sunshine and shadow conditions aplenty. So as a forecaster of what the next six weeks of weather are to be, the ground hog did not prove much to depend on this year.

Children chasing might not be considered a violation of the game laws, but it is strange to contemplate some of the incidents of the day that seem to hold interest for some charged with enforcement of statutes.

At the annual meeting of the Eastern Connecticut Manufacturers' association held at the rooms of the Danielson Trust company, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, J. F. Gardner Jr., Danielson; vice president, Charles Briggs, Central Village; secretary, John A. Ryan, Putnam; treasurer, Henry J. Thayer, Putnam; executive committee, J. Arthur Atwood, Willimantic; Samuel Butterworth, Plainfield; G. D. Johnson, Putnam; George A. Gardner, Putnam; Charles A. Thayer, Putnam; J. Hearson, North Grovesendale; Henry J. Thayer, Putnam; Robert W. Boye, Putnam; Walter Knight, Willimantic.

The time seems to have arrived for the first warning at this particular time of the year against allowing children to play about on river and ponds where they have been accustomed to amuse themselves during school periods for weeks past. Thursday brought the examples of some boys waiting about in knee deep water covering ice that is now so very weak under the stress of milder weather.

Word was received at Brooklyn Thursday of the death at the home of Mrs. Frank Gladwin in the company of Alice Hart Robinson wife of William N. Hart Robinson, Mrs. Danielson's boy is to be brought to Brooklyn, where she has relatives and where she was well known, for burial.

Subscribers have noted a new rule now being enforced by the telephone company—obtaining the name of a person entitled to a toll call as well as the number of the station from which it is given.

Miss Deane called in many sections of the town Thursday when the her show in several weeks was underway. Many sidewalks that have been damaged by slippy are now out of the way.

There was a large attendance of members at the rooms of the Danielson Trust company, where the business section of the meeting was held.

Persons who have made an investment of the new income tax blanks in the few weeks that they are now direct.

PUTNAM

The police of this city were engaged in an almost state-wide watch that was set in the hope of apprehending the bandits who robbed Dr. Ely Morgan of Hartford of $2,500 in cash and securities of a face value of $75,000 when the band men raided his office at two Capital city Tuesday night, seized him by the throat and threatened him with death if he did not remain quiet while they were engaged in their nefarious work.

Word of the daring robbery was flashed throughout Connecticut almost immediately after its occurrence. The fact that the robbers' car bore a Massachusetts registration plate put local officers on their mettle in their efforts to capture the holdup men, as Putnam is near the Massachusetts border, and it was considered a possibility here that the holdup men might make an effort to get back to their home state by following the state road from Hartford to this city.

Alert officers here held up cars that might be considered as coming under suspicion of being the robbers' car, but released all held examinations upon determining that in every instance the occupants of the cars were not concerned with the Hartford affair.

Spectators here watched with interest the operations of the local police in determining that in every instance the occupants of the cars were not concerned with the Hartford affair.

Dr. Morgan described the men who robbed him, telling the police of Hartford that one of the men appeared to be about 25 years of age, while the other seemed to be about 30.

It seems that the crooks had been informed that Dr. Morgan has been in the habit of keeping large sums of money on his person and even larger amounts in securities in his office.

Owners of Union hall at North Grovesendale have complied with all the requirements of the state police department relative to equipping the motion picture place with fire escapes, additional exits, and steam heat, the latter improvement to replace the stove that stood in the center of the auditorium and was regarded as a menace.

Union hall was ordered closed by the state police department following the disastrous fire, during the fall, at the Rialto theatre in New Haven. It remained closed for a time until certain requirements of the state police department were met and then was allowed to reopen without the use of the balcony, until all improvements ordered had been made.

The house now meets in its equipments and appointments the essentials of the requirements of the state police. The stove heating arrangement has been discontinued for steam heating, there are additional exits and fire escapes, and the house has been re-licensed as a place regarded as one where the public can attend a picture entertainment under what are considered safe conditions.

Alfred letters figured in an interesting and exciting Thursday morning when the car he was driving without chains, skidded on Willimantic street, which ascends the almost mountainous Oak Hill, east of the business section of the city, and crashed into a pole and then started to slide down an incline that would have brought it down into the street.

Convenient not intervened to save the car and driver from what likely would have been a disastrous experience. Men from a local garage hauled the car back into Willimantic street with the aid of a heavy rope and other apparatus. Mr. Letters escaped without any injury whatever and the car was only very slightly damaged. The place where the accident occurred is in the locality that bounds the highest point within the city limits and there is a sheer descent typical of mountain territory directly to the west of Willimantic street.

The new grand list as completed by the board of assessors of the town of Putnam amounts to $2,425,000, or $10,901 less than the grand list of last year. The new list of the board of relief had completed their work.

Included in the list of taxable property are 725 automobiles, while the assessed number only 230, and cattle 552.

While the majority of the town, the grand list shows, there are 1,102 houses and 1,375 lots.

The womanage that is so extensive in the marriage of Martin Buckingham Ryan Stephens eldest of the seven children of the late Norman B. Ryan, who left an estate valued at $40,000,000, part of which was bequeathed to the magnificent country estate at Thompson, and Anastase Andrejvitch Vonsalsky-Vonsalsky continues to be of sufficient new importance to command first page positions in metropolitan newspapers.

In a story sent out from Chicago, where the bride-to-be has claimed her residence for years as the former wife of a well known attorney of that city who is now in the city of Putnam.

The bride-to-be is 45 and her husband-to-be 25, "but he is older than his years," she is quoted as saying. "The FIERY, ITCHING SKIN IS QUICKLY SOOTHED WITH THIS SULPHUR MENTHOL-SULPHUR, a pleasant cream will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema that is covered with ugly rash or pustules, or is rough or dry. Nothing soothes fiery skin eruptions so quickly; says a noted skin specialist. The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and the eczema is in some way the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Menthol-sulphur always keeps the skin right up. A month's use of Menthol-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store.
