With her beautiful, rich soprano voice, Marie De Klyzer, won instant applause from a large audience gathered at the Windham High school auditorium Monday night, to enjoy the first annual concert under the auspices of the Willimantic Rotary club.

Generous in her numbers, always ready to give her delighted audience an encore, Miss De Klyzer won her way into the hearts of the music lovers of this city as no other singer has done. Miss De Klyzer's program was varied, giving her audience opportunity to hear her in practically all types of song. Her program consisted of a group of four songs interpreted in the manner of an artist, who has won the praise of practically every paper in the country. At the close of her second group of songs, Miss De Klyzer sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," in the song she sang with the accomplished art and technical skill which has won her way into the hearts of people in the north, demanding her re-appearance in cities in the southland on several occasions.

Following her closing group of four numbers by special request, she sang Waters of Minnetonka (Assurance) and at the instant demands from the audience returned and in closing beautifully interpreted Field of Ballyhoo (Malesy).

With Miss De Klyzer as accompanist was Frederick Short of New York whose playing was admirable.

The numbers Maud Scherer delighted her audience with two one-act comedies. Miss Scherer is not new to the people of this city having long since won her way into their hearts in previous appearances. Her first reading took the audience to a florist shop in a small village where a girl employed in the office in the way of the shop girl of today guided the destinies of those who traded at the store. The second act entitled Suppressed Desires was by far the more humorous, the audience enjoying a half hour of laughter while Miss Scherer acted out the play, in which a woman fadist was cured of feigning into everything that came along when one of her set faces ended in a way not to her liking, but evidently to the liking of another woman, whom she had conspired to her best, nearly at the cost of losing her husband.

The entertainment was one of the best held in the city in recent years and both entertainers will be welcomed on their return. The entertainment was followed by a dance.

The program follows:

Honor. Del. Elgo; Bonnie Sweet Bease, Gilbert, Sandmeester, Brown, Alfred Scott, Birthday, Huntington, Woodman, Philosophy, encore, Marie De Klyzer, Reading, The Florist Shop, one-act comedy, Maud Scherer, Un Bel Di (Mrs. Butterfly), Puccini; On Wings of Song, Mendelssohn; "Allegria," Mozart; Carry Me Back to Old Virginia, encore, Marie De Klyzer, Reading, Suppressed Desires, one-act comedy, Maud Scherer, Haydn and Butterflies, Del. RIOTING RENEWED IN SEVERAL PARTS OF INDIA

London, Feb. 6. (By the A. P.)—Rioting in several parts of India, involving the killing of at least seven police officials and four members of attacking parties, in addition to the wounding of a number of persons and some destruction to property, occurred over the week-end, simultaneously with issuance of a declaration by the non-cooperationist leader, Gandhi, that civil disobedience would become effective unless the government granted amnesty.

On Saturday police officers at Chauri, on the Bengal Northwestern railway, were stormed by Indian nationalist volunteers. The mob of 2,000 killed the police staff, and a watchman and slight armed policeman who were rushed to the scene to give aid to the staff. Then the nationalists burned the offices and stripped the bodies of those killed and burned them.

On the same day rioting took place at Bareilly, in the middle United Provinces, where several attempts were made by a large crowd of volunteers to seize the town hall, insufficient police forces charged them without success, and then were ordered to fire. The mob eventually was put to rout after two persons had been killed and five others wounded, among them the district magistrate and the superintendent of police.

Gandhi's declaration was made in a letter to the viceroy. He said he was prepared to advise postponement of civil disobedience until the whole situation was considered anew. If the viceroy was ready within seven days to declare all political prisoners liberated and the freedom of association and the press restored, he would advise the government's repressive policy made the adoption of civil disobedience immediately imperative and that the non-cooperators under the existing circumstances were unwilling to attend the proposed conference.

The government of Madras has issued the first statement regarding the progress of civil disobedience in Gunter, showing that at the end of January peasants were

WOODROW WILSON COULD SEE NO HUMOR IN SUBJECT

New York, Feb. 6.—A national humorous weekly tonight made public several statements from men of national prominence in response to its request for messages stating why you believe the United States should smile at this time, for use in connection with the celebration of "National Smile Week," February 5 to 12. Among those who replied with words and cheer were Postmaster General Hays, Secretary of Labor Davis, Theodore Roosevelt, and William J. Bryan.

Woodrow Wilson replied: "I have no message to send on so silly a subject."
