"Old Trusty," one of the three horses at the town farm, died suddenly Monday forenoon in front of the police station. The horse was being driven down the street by Supt. Henry W. Chamberlain. A stop was made in front of the police station and as Mr. Chamberlain was putting on the horse's blanket the animal dropped dead. "Old Trusty" was 29 years of age and a great favorite at the town farm, and Mr. Chamberlain said he was a faithful animal in the 15 years the town had owned him. The horse was buried during the afternoon on the land of the town on West Main street.

Shirley Marie Brown, the 3 months old daughter of James and Clara Hebert Brown of 42 Ash street, died Monday morning from infantile trouble.

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Farrell Nolan were held Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Catherine McCarthy, Requiem high mass at St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock was sung by Rev. John E. Clark. Mrs. Edmund R. Portolano was at the organ. As the body was borne into the church Mrs. Portolano sang Nearer, My God, to Thee, at the offertory O Salutaris, and as a waiting hymn Face to Face. The bearers were Joseph Nolan, Alfred and Arthur Melick, Leo Lamoureux, Cornelius Foley and John Sagro. The body was placed in the receiving vault of St. Joseph's cemetery. Killourey Bros. were in charge.

Frank Potter died Sunday at St. Joseph's hospital after an illness of three weeks. He was born in Plainfield Jan. 10, 1847, the son of William and Betsy Parkhurst Potter. He was a widower, and leaves one brother, Adney S. Potter, of this city, two sisters, Mrs. Emma Bruce of Rockville and Mrs. Annie Eiden of Middletown, several nephews and nieces. Among whom is Mrs. Inez Howlett of Willimantic. Mr. Potter served with the Connecticut Heavy artillery during the Civil war.

Emma Jane Lee, wife of Charles A. Lee, died Sunday at her home, No. 1172 Main street, from bronchial pneumonia. Mrs. Lee was a member of the Francis S. Long Women's Relief corps. She was born April 25, 1834, in Union, the daughter of Ephraim and Sarah Cleveland Squier. Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Blanche G. Lee, two sisters, Mrs. A. G. Saut and Mrs. H. E. Hamman of Stafford Hollow, and an uncle, Francis Cleveland, of Hartford.

The February meeting of the board of aldermen was held Monday evening in the council chamber of the town building, all but one of the members being present. The meeting lasted about thirty minutes and was called to order by Mayor Charles H. Gates. The minutes of the January meeting were then read and accepted, also the report of Chief of Police Killourey. The report of Irvin M. Ford, superintendent of streets, showing expenditures of $1,529.34 for the past month, was read and accepted, as was also the report of the city health officer. The application of Putnam F. Howlett for appointment as a permanent member of Fire Department No. 1, signed by the captain of the fire department and Aldermen Jackson and Jacobs, was read. Alderman Flynn moved that an amendment be made to the original motion and the name of Eugene Martin be substituted for that of Howlett, claiming that it would be to the advantage of the department to have a man with some experience in fire fighting to fill the vacancy. Alderman Jacobs objected to the amendment as being illegal, but his objection was overruled by Mayor Gates. The matter of the amendment was then voted on and the motion prevailed. Mayor Gates was authorized and empowered to borrow $5,000 to defray current expenses of the city.
The city street committee was authorized and requested to extend Brown's avenue to Trepello street as a city

Results in Half the Usual Time!
The reason Ironized Yeast brings such amazing results is because it not only contains just the right amount of all three essential vitamins, but in addition contains a type of yeast which has positively no equal as a reconstructive agent—a yeast which is adapted especially for medicinal purposes, and which is entirely different from the yeast found in ordinary "yeast tablets."
But even more important than this is the fact that this yeast has been ironized—or treated through a scientific process with a special form of easily assimilated organic iron, similar to the iron found in spinach. When yeast is ironized in this manner it is found that results are not only more permanent, but are secured just as quickly!

JEWETT CITY
The children's dancing class taught by Mrs. William Ballantine Penfield, and held Monday afternoon in Rhoads hall, had a Valentine party this week. Each child invited a friend and the mothers were present, making sixty who attended.
Mrs. H. C. Webster was patroness and was assisted by Mrs. L. M. Carpenter and Mrs. Edmond Jodoin and Mrs. M. E. Shea. Punch was served.
The prizes were taken at the O. E. S. ball and dance Saturday evening by Henry Olsen, receiving a bill fold, L. M. Carpenter received a leather belt, Mrs. E. B. Cheney and Miss Verna Tarbox were tied for the lady's first prize, but in the drawing Miss Tarbox won, receiving a wooden salad set. The second prize went to Mrs. C. E. Spicer and was a glass fruit knife.
The Riverside grammar school pupils celebrated Lincoln's birthday with special exercises. After the raising of the flag, the Star Spangled Banner was sung. The Fifth grade recited O Captain, My Captain. After singing the Battle Hymn of the Republic, Ellen Prior and Eva Duff played a piano duet. Superintendent Clement showed stereoscopic views relating to Lincoln's life and while the picture of the Battle of Gettysburg was on the screen the eighth grade recited Lincoln's great speech. The singing of America closed the exercises. The school was dismissed at one o'clock for the remainder of the day.
The union service held at the Congregational church Sunday evening was attended by one hundred and fifteen. A chorus choir of seventeen voices with Miss Alice Gilbert, organist and the singing of the hymns, was excellent as to both tune and time. Rev. George MacLennan presided and Rev. Mr. Lumsden, who presided at the Baptist church and Rev. C. H. Andrews both spoke of the salient features in Lincoln's character, which everyone would do well to emulate. The congregational singing was especially noteworthy.

Mawlaque Attinsk, 55, died Sunday night after six weeks' illness. He was a member of the St. Camille society. He leaves his wife and two children.
Paul Anthony will commence at once the erection of an addition to his property on Main street. The front will be 45x17 and will extend to the sidewalk in front of the present building.

The Waco company was called to a fire alarm to a chimney fire in James Shea's house, on 17th street, Monday afternoon.
Volunteers people mourn the death of Mrs. Henry Young. She was prominent in the Baptist church there. Nathan Babcock and his son, Mrs. Augusta Lee and Mrs. Charles Gilbert are cousins.
Edward Brasinski and Josephine Zawistowska were married at St. Mary's church by Rev. J. J. McCabe, Monday morning. The witnesses were Alexander Mioduslawski and Marganna Zawistowska. The bride was gowned in white and carried a bouquet of bride roses and sweet peas. The bride had been the president of the Polish Children of Mary. During the world war she assisted the committee in the various drives.
E. M. Gray assisted by Herbert Gray is taking the census of the women in town from 21 to 60 and the young men from the ages of 18 to 21.
Much interest is being shown in the musical show being rehearsed under the choir of St. Mary's church. Thirty of the most talented of the members will take part.
The February business meeting of the Men's class of the M. E. church was held at the home of L. D. Howe Saturday evening. After business was transacted the meeting was turned over to Brother Howe, the toastmaster of the evening. The following programme was given: Solo, Old Black Joe, by Louis Aldrich, in costume; piano solo, by John Bailey.

The Maiden's Prayer, T. Badarzewski; piano solo, by John Bailey (by request), the old Scotch ballad, The Old Clock of the North. In behalf of the class Rev. Mr. Anthony presented Brother Earle Howe and wife an easy chair. In words of appreciation they accepted the gift. Piano solo, by John Bailey. Under the Double Eagle, by Wagner. Remarks by the members of the class. President Frank Mell, James McCluggage, J. F. Gardner, G. H. Thurston, I. M. Thornton, Rev. E. M. Anthony, followed. One new member was presented and taken in. Solo, R. W. Robertson. Because He Loved Me So. The hostess served doughnuts, cheese and coffee and was assisted by the Misses Edith Howe, Arline and Christine Burdick. At the close of the programme a rising vote of thanks was given to the host and hostess and their aides, also to Mr. Bailey.

BALTIC
Rev. J. H. V. Belanger, pastor of the French parish of St. Anne, Hartford, formerly of this parish, was deacon at the funeral services held at the Immaculate Conception church Saturday morning for Henry Cyril Belanger, who died the previous Thursday. Mr. Belanger was employed as an overseer by the Baltic Mills Co. He was buried in the family lot in St. Mary's cemetery.
A smoker and concert was held in the rooms of the Baltic Social and Athletic club on their regular meeting night. A large number of the members went out to enjoy the entertainment that had been provided. The chairman of the committee called the members to order and the concert members were as follows:

Vocal solo, Miss Viola Grover; vocal selections by Elizabeth Lane; solos character comedian, Thomas Powers, William Banfield, pleased the members very much by his feats of magic and the sleight-of-hand tricks which he accomplished. The singing of Miss Groves and the playing and imitations on the violin by Miss Lane were greatly appreciated and they very willingly responded to encores. The Harry Lauder style of Mr. Powers took with the crowd. He had all the members with him, especially when singing Roaming in the Gloaming. The accompanist of the evening were Miss Hazel Banfield and Miss Olive Linton, whose efforts added greatly to the evening's entertainment.
The committee in charge was William Magill, James Cronin, Willis Ridgeway, Matthew Bailey, Harry Hannan, Larry Genard and Charles B. Barnes. It is expected that this successful smoker and concert is the start of something further in the social and entertaining line.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allard spent the week end in Putnam.
The prizes for the whist given by the League of Women Voters were displayed in one of the windows at Core's.
