

ARE YOU A TARGET FOR INFLUENZA?

Be Prepared—Strengthen and Build Up Your Blood With Gude's Pepto-Mangan

If you are not feeling your best—if you have that "always-tired" feeling, be careful of the influenza. It is thin-blooded, anemic people that disease strikes first. It is the red corpuscles of the blood that fight disease and save you from sickness.

Hairs Will Vanish After This Treatment

You can keep your arms, neck or face free from hair or fuzz by the occasional use of plain deodorant and in using it you need have no fear of mar-

MOVIE GIVES LESSONS ON THE SIX OF BLASPHEMY

The motion picture "The Blasphemer," sent out under the auspices of the Catholic Art Association, was shown in the basement of St. Patrick church on Wednesday afternoon and evening with a large attendance at each performance.

THE PORTER & MITCHELL COMPANY

New Arrivals In SILKS

Amongst the Silks, Taffeta is considered the leading Fabric for Spring Dresses. We are showing a good line of Taffeta Silks, as well as other fashionable fabrics:

AT $1.19 A YARD We are showing an excellent quality of Taffeta Silk, 36 inches wide, in black, Copenhagen, rose, red, navy and brown.

AT $2.75 A YARD Skinner's Taffeta, a well-known make, guaranteed for wear, in black, brown, light and dark navy.

AT $1.98 A YARD At this price we are showing an excellent line of new materials, 36 inches wide, in small, neat designs on navy, brown and black grounds—a serviceable silk for street or evening wear.

AT $2.50 A YARD Faille Silk, in new shades for Hats and Dresses—black, navy, sapphire, pumpkin, rubellite and henna.

AT $2.75 A YARD Skinner's Satin All-Silk, very serviceable for Dresses—in black, tan, gray, blue, brown, navy and white.

The Porteous & Mitchell Co.

THE WM. W. BACKUS HOSPITAL

Training School For Nurses

A Private, General Hospital with well equipped medical, surgical and obstetrical departments, offers a three years' graded course to young women desiring a nurse's training.

APPLICATIONS FOR THE MARCH CLASS, MUST BE RETURNED BEFORE FEBRUARY 20th.

K. A. DOWD, R. N. SUPERINTENDENT OF THE TRAINING SCHOOL

PERSONALS

Mrs. A. B. Sherrons of Ballouville was a recent visitor in Norwich.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 5.51 o'clock this evening.

The planet Saturn will be morning star until March 25th.

The stores are featuring some novel favors and emblems in advance of Washington's Birthday.

Cafeteria supper, before and after devotional program, at the Parish house, Pompanok, tonight—7:30.

At Monday the 50 members of the American Legion have voted to have a stag party on Washington's Birthday.

The youth with the shovel had a chance to earn a profitable number of dollars during yesterday's storm.

Local alumni learn that Yale university class of 1903 will have its annual dinner at the Club in New York Saturday evening.

The bus stretch is ready. The snow is ready. Ten couples fill the stretch.

The amount of good wool consumed in Jersey has become more and more a matter of a talking point with those who are advising farmers to keep sheep.

An unusually low tide prevailed at Niantic early this week. Although it was a low tide, the rocks were engaged digging clams on Clam Point.

Recent word from Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Patton of Norwich, who are touring Florida, located them in Miami and mentioned the cold winter in the north.

Pomona Grange invites you to Professor Paton's lecture, 8 yrs. farming with Pompanok, on Feb. 17, 8 o'clock. Admission free. Welcome—adv.

Port Hunt, Virginia, to which Capt. Franklin T. Lord of Norwich, was assigned recently, is on the ancient lands of the old, ancestral home of the National Red Cross society.

Thomasan Tribe, No. 51, L. O. R. M. of Rockville, initiated eighteen members in a regular meeting Wednesday evening.

The other day the carcass of a small, half-grown deer was taken from the mill fence at the Ballouville mill.

At the annual roll call and parish meeting of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Pompanok, the pastor, Rev. Wm. C. Combs, stated that there are now 75 families belonging to the mission.

A meeting planned for Wednesday evening at Liffordville to be addressed by Rev. J. P. MacFarlane, of the Central Baptist church, Norwich, was postponed two weeks because of the storm.

Myrtle community chorus held its weekly rehearsal Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. P. MacFarlane.

The choir boys of the Goodyear school are practicing faithfully under the direction of Pete Franchette, for a minstrel show. The proceeds are to be used for athletic equipment for the school.

Arrangement has been made at Dayville between the school authorities and Mrs. William Swainson to have the Convention school building for a few hours of school.

The Norwich branch of the International Silver Company at Thameville will have its four-day, nine-hour schedule, Supt. Chauncey A. Sherman's employees here work exclusively on steel knives.

The Rockville public site at Lore's Point, has been sold. The old rock sold to a silent partner when Capt. Kidd needed his treasure nearby and has never divulged its exact resting place.

Wednesday evening when the Girls' Friendly Society celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary at Portland, Conn. Episcopal church, one of the speakers was former Norwich resident, Miss Lella Van Schaack, of Ridgefield, Conn. president.

Comfort Circle of the King's Daughters, two chapters to celebrate its twenty-fourth birthday Wednesday by holding a meeting with the new leader, Mrs. Stanton W. Brown, but because of the storm deferred the celebration until today (Thursday).

The trustees of the Crain Memorial Library, Colechester, met at the house of Samuel P. Willard Monday afternoon and passed a list of about 100 books to be secured at once. About one-half of the list were books for children in the school.

Among the university students who have maintained a good average as indicated by the results of the mid-year examinations, is Francis C. Bidwell, who has won a list of about 100 books to be secured at once. About one-half of the list were books for children in the school.

Howard E. Buck of Hartford, who has erected five cottages on Clark avenue at Pleasant View, has awarded the contract for the erection of three more cottages to be completed before the summer season. The five cottages are completed and some are already furnished.

The United States civil service commission announces examinations on March 22 and 23 for inspector of safety and inspector of health, a list of about 100 men, aged 21 to 35, for vacancies in the interstate commerce commission at salaries of $3,600 a year, with necessary allowance for expense incurred.

The new board of directors of the American Brass Company, of Waterbury, which organized Wednesday at the New York office, includes John E. Weyland, who has won attention in eastern Connecticut by opposing the plans of his aged father, Chanler N. Weyland, who had promised new roads and parks to Stonington.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

The Tuesday Afternoon Auction Bridge club met this week with Mary E. Richards.

Miss John L. Leonard of Willimantic, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Gott Johnson, of Broadway.

Miss Helen B. Buckingham, who visited at her home in Norwich, before leaving New York for California, is now located at San Jose.

Came from Plainfield Parish. A delegation of members of the Parish society of Fr. R. P. Morrissey's parish, Plainfield, visited the parish of Cummings & Ring Tuesday afternoon and offered prayer for the repose of the soul of Mrs. David Ring, a member of St. John's church, Plainfield, who died in Norwich Monday.

PERSONALS

Mrs. A. B. Sherrons of Ballouville was a recent visitor in Norwich.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 5.51 o'clock this evening.

The planet Saturn will be morning star until March 25th.

The stores are featuring some novel favors and emblems in advance of Washington's Birthday.

Cafeteria supper, before and after devotional program, at the Parish house, Pompanok, tonight—7:30.

At Monday the 50 members of the American Legion have voted to have a stag party on Washington's Birthday.

The youth with the shovel had a chance to earn a profitable number of dollars during yesterday's storm.

Local alumni learn that Yale university class of 1903 will have its annual dinner at the Club in New York Saturday evening.

The bus stretch is ready. The snow is ready. Ten couples fill the stretch.

The amount of good wool consumed in Jersey has become more and more a matter of a talking point with those who are advising farmers to keep sheep.

An unusually low tide prevailed at Niantic early this week. Although it was a low tide, the rocks were engaged digging clams on Clam Point.

Recent word from Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Patton of Norwich, who are touring Florida, located them in Miami and mentioned the cold winter in the north.

Pomona Grange invites you to Professor Paton's lecture, 8 yrs. farming with Pompanok, on Feb. 17, 8 o'clock. Admission free. Welcome—adv.

Port Hunt, Virginia, to which Capt. Franklin T. Lord of Norwich, was assigned recently, is on the ancient lands of the old, ancestral home of the National Red Cross society.

Thomasan Tribe, No. 51, L. O. R. M. of Rockville, initiated eighteen members in a regular meeting Wednesday evening.

The other day the carcass of a small, half-grown deer was taken from the mill fence at the Ballouville mill.

At the annual roll call and parish meeting of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Pompanok, the pastor, Rev. Wm. C. Combs, stated that there are now 75 families belonging to the mission.

A meeting planned for Wednesday evening at Liffordville to be addressed by Rev. J. P. MacFarlane, of the Central Baptist church, Norwich, was postponed two weeks because of the storm.

Myrtle community chorus held its weekly rehearsal Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. P. MacFarlane.

The choir boys of the Goodyear school are practicing faithfully under the direction of Pete Franchette, for a minstrel show. The proceeds are to be used for athletic equipment for the school.

Arrangement has been made at Dayville between the school authorities and Mrs. William Swainson to have the Convention school building for a few hours of school.

The Norwich branch of the International Silver Company at Thameville will have its four-day, nine-hour schedule, Supt. Chauncey A. Sherman's employees here work exclusively on steel knives.

The Rockville public site at Lore's Point, has been sold. The old rock sold to a silent partner when Capt. Kidd needed his treasure nearby and has never divulged its exact resting place.

Wednesday evening when the Girls' Friendly Society celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary at Portland, Conn. Episcopal church, one of the speakers was former Norwich resident, Miss Lella Van Schaack, of Ridgefield, Conn. president.

Comfort Circle of the King's Daughters, two chapters to celebrate its twenty-fourth birthday Wednesday by holding a meeting with the new leader, Mrs. Stanton W. Brown, but because of the storm deferred the celebration until today (Thursday).

The trustees of the Crain Memorial Library, Colechester, met at the house of Samuel P. Willard Monday afternoon and passed a list of about 100 books to be secured at once. About one-half of the list were books for children in the school.

Among the university students who have maintained a good average as indicated by the results of the mid-year examinations, is Francis C. Bidwell, who has won a list of about 100 books to be secured at once. About one-half of the list were books for children in the school.

Howard E. Buck of Hartford, who has erected five cottages on Clark avenue at Pleasant View, has awarded the contract for the erection of three more cottages to be completed before the summer season. The five cottages are completed and some are already furnished.

The United States civil service commission announces examinations on March 22 and 23 for inspector of safety and inspector of health, a list of about 100 men, aged 21 to 35, for vacancies in the interstate commerce commission at salaries of $3,600 a year, with necessary allowance for expense incurred.

The new board of directors of the American Brass Company, of Waterbury, which organized Wednesday at the New York office, includes John E. Weyland, who has won attention in eastern Connecticut by opposing the plans of his aged father, Chanler N. Weyland, who had promised new roads and parks to Stonington.

PERSONALS

Mrs. A. B. Sherrons of Ballouville was a recent visitor in Norwich.

Mrs. Gertrude Pendleton has been in New York during the week.

Lieut. S. Landolt and wife of Boston are visiting Mrs. William Banker of Fountain street.

William T. Johnson, who has been employed at the umbrella mill, Danielson, has entered the employ of the Falls company, Norwich.

James Podabe, who has been passing a fortnight's shore leave with his parents in Norwich, has left to join his ship, the U. S. Casper, at Norfolk, Va.

HOLDUP MEN GET $85 FROM WILLIMANTIC GROCER (Special to the Bulletin)

Willimantic, Feb. 15.—Two unknown men held up Joseph Nahass who conducts a grocery store on Valley street Wednesday evening about 9:30 o'clock. The men suddenly appeared in the store and held up Nahass at the point of a light liquor. One of the men threatened action on his part they shot twice, one of the bullets piercing the rear door of the store and the other striking a large show-case. The robbers fled with $85 and were still at large at 10:30 a. m.

HAD STILL IN DUG-OUT. WILL FACE DISTRICT COURT

William Rivers of Moscop was present at the home of Judge P. H. Willimantic on Wednesday afternoon on a charge of having and operating a still for the purpose of manufacturing illegal liquor. Rivers holds in Moscop was visited by Federal prohibition officers on Feb. 8 and 9. He was found in possession of a still and two stills were found in a dug-out in the cellar of his home together with two barrels of mash and 14 gallons of finished product.

Rivers was bound over to the U. S. district court at New Haven the fourth Tuesday of this month.

ROUNDS UP OF QUANTITY OF CLOTH STOLEN FROM NORWICH BLEACHERY

Larry Peruzzo, 27, of Cedar street, this city, was found guilty by Judge H. H. Pettis in the city court on Wednesday morning on a charge of receiving goods stolen from the U. S. Finishing Co. to the value of $35, and was sentenced to three months in the city jail.

Peruzzo was also charged with the theft of maverized cotton goods from the U. S. Finishing Co. and the trial on this charge was continued to Monday and he was placed under $100 bonds on this charge. Peruzzo admitted having taken goods from the bleachers from time to time since he went to work there on October 1. Public Defender Charles L. Stewart appeared for the accused.

Joseph Trumontzoff, 50, and his wife, who were present at the trial, were charged with receiving stolen goods from the U. S. Finishing Co. estimated at a value of $125. The goods were the same as found at the home of Peruzzo but the defendant denied the charge. Judge Pettis found them guilty and they were bound over to the superior court under bonds of $500 which were furnished. Mrs.

Trumontzoff admitted to Officer John H. Kane that about 40 yards of cloth had been brought to her by Peruzzo. Y. P. O. was the attorney for the accused.

The arrest of Peruzzo was made as he was coming out of work at the bleachers on Wednesday morning about 6 o'clock. Capt. John P. Nowell of the Watta detective agency of Boston, who had worked up the case, was on hand at the arrest. Peruzzo was taken to the police station and held there until he was taken to the city jail.

Later the Franklin street home of the man and woman was visited. A large quantity of cloth was found there but it could not be identified as coming from the bleachers.

The work was part of the activity of the Mercantile Protective service, organized and protected by the Watta detective agency which has been working the work of putting a stop to laundries and wulf destruction of property in manufacturing establishments.

BARITONE AND CELLIST GIVE ADMIRABLE PROGRAMME

Fred Patton, baritone and Miss May McKillop, cellist, gave an admirable program in joint recital Wednesday evening at Slater hall in the third number of the Academy musical course, winning the highest approval of the judges.

Patton opened the program with a change from his announced number, singing "The Song of the Lark" from his second number, which was to come in his second number of the series. The piece from the "Liberio" (Apollon). Range that was remarkable, delicate that was possible, an ever truly thoughtful interpreter, and dramatic ability in expression were characteristics of Mr. Patton's well trained voice that made his singing a delight to his hearers. Mr. Patton gave an charming rendering of Schubert's "Who is Sylvia."

Miss McKillop's first and second numbers, Miss McKillop made her first appearance on the program with a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her second number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her third number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her fourth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her fifth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her sixth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her seventh number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her eighth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her ninth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her tenth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her eleventh number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her twelfth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her thirteenth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her fourteenth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her fifteenth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her sixteenth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her seventeenth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her eighteenth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her nineteenth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her twentieth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her twenty-first number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her twenty-second number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her twenty-third number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her twenty-fourth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her twenty-fifth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her twenty-sixth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her twenty-seventh number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her twenty-eighth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her twenty-ninth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her thirtieth number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her thirty-first number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

Her thirty-second number, "The Song of the Lark," was a group of four old songs, "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," "The Song of the Lark," and "The Song of the Lark."

ROTARIANS HEAR MORE ABOUT SCOUT MOVEMENT

The Boy Scout and What it Means to Norwich was the topic of discussion at the monthly luncheon of the Norwich Rotary club held at the Warranor hotel on Wednesday.

The Rotary club a year ago endorsed the campaign during which enough money was raised to carry the movement through the year and within a short time it will be necessary for another campaign for funds for the coming year and no doubt again the Rotary club will do all in its power to help the movement.

What has been accomplished during the past year and what is to be accomplished during the coming year through the Boy Scouts of America was presented by several of the members of the Boy Scouts council.

Edward J. Graham, superintendent of the local schools, and one who has worked earnestly in the interests of the Boy Scouts and the welfare of the children of Norwich, was the first speaker.

Mr. Graham spoke briefly of the work of the Boy Scouts as a character builder for the youth of the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

John B. Stanton, principal of Mt. Pleasant school, and a member of the executive committee of the Boy Scouts, spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.

Mr. Stanton spoke of the work of the Boy Scouts in the community and spoke of the movement as one that no community could afford to neglect.