

WESTERLY

Carl Mazzarella, six year old son of Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Mazzarella, of Pierce street, was struck by Frank W. Wilcox's truck, Thursday. The boy suffered a fractured pelvis. He was removed to St. Joseph's hospital in Providence.

The fourth accident within a year on the Watch Hill road, Gladys E. Girard, nine year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Girard, of 10 Wells street, was struck by an automobile driven by William A. Sheffield. The girl sustained bruises about the face and head and fears are entertained that serious injuries may result. The girl was on her way from school.

The funeral of Edgar H. Cottrell was held at his home, 151 West Broad street, Friday, at 2 o'clock. The stores were closed between 1:45 and 3 p. m.

At the meeting of the Western council of Jewish Women, Mrs. Max Novogrodski gave out communications in regard to the interests convention and reception of the Rhode Island and Connecticut Council of Jewish Women to be held in Providence, March 20 and 21. The Western delegates are Mrs. Max Novogrodski, chairman, Mrs. H. J. Leon, Mrs. D. Novogrod, Mrs. L. Mahovsky and Miss Gertrude Lahn.

The death of Mrs. Grace Billings Miller, wife of George B. Miller, occurred Tuesday in Stonington. Besides her husband she is survived by eight children, three sisters, Mrs. Arthur Wheeler, and Miss Lucy Billings of Stonington, and Mrs. Parker Johnson of Springfield, Mass., also three brothers, Byron Billings and Sanford Billings, Jr., of Stonington and William W. Billings of North Stonington.

Mrs. Ida Matin, who is at the Lawrence hospital, will return to her home on West street, Sunday. Thomas Perry, who has been ill at his home on Margin street, is able to be out. Charles D. Maxson is able to be out.

STONINGTON

Wolcott Sylvia, sustained a severe injury to his right arm Thursday while cranking an automobile at the Corson garage on Elm street. His arm was also cut, requiring four stitches to be taken to close the wound. Dr. W. T. Neal dressed the injury.

Miss Rose D'Amico who has been a patient at the Lawrence hospital, will leave there Sunday and will spend some time with her aunt in New London.

Friday afternoon the women's society of the Second Congregational church held a very successful food sale. The proceeds are to go for church work.

The Stonington chorale met Thursday evening. The rehearsal are greatly enjoyed by the large number who attend weekly.

Mrs. J. F. Joseph of Water street, who has been confined to her home by illness, is able to be out.

Mrs. Lena Chesbro who is a patient at Lawrence hospital, New London is resting comfortably.

CANTERBURY GREEN

A meeting of the Ladies' Aid society was held Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Humphrey at the parsonage. The usual program of work was followed, with refreshments at the close of the session.

The Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening will be with Mrs. Walter Sager with Mrs. S. B. Hadley, leader.

C. C. Frink and daughter, Mrs. Wright, motored to New London one day this week.

William Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kearn have been ill with the prevailing distemper but are now able to be out.

Miss Coakley met the members of the nursing class as usual at Mrs. Hawes Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawes and family were callers the first of the week on Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Richardson of Pachaug. Mr. Richardson has read his resignation and expects to leave Pachaug the first of May.

Mrs. M. F. Elmer of Providence was a guest over the week end of Mrs. James Towne. Mrs. Elmer has been spending several weeks with Mrs. Towne's mother, Mrs. Dodge, of Plainfield. In early life she was a resident of Canterbury and has many friends in this vicinity.

Torva Haverman, the lad who has been ill with rheumatic trouble for several weeks, is much improved.

Levi Clark is still confined to the house because of rheumatism.

A bad cave-in of the state road just over the bridge on the Plainfield side was discovered Wednesday evening. A part of the embankment on the south side of the road gave way, due probably to destructive forces set to work by Tuesday's storm. Passersby reported the danger and lanterns were placed as a warning signal. Thursday morning Mr. Davenport of the state road department inspected the damage and temporary repairs were begun at once.

In view of the possibility of a strike of coal miners and railway employees the members of Canterbury grange, No. 19, unanimously passed at its last meeting the following resolutions:

after his recent illness which confined him home on Spruce street. Charles W. Callis, of Washington, D. C., will spend the week end with friends in town.

Funeral services for James William Fenaro, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Crist Fenaro, of Newton avenue, was held Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with services conducted at the Church of the Immaculate Conception at 3 o'clock. Burial was in St. Michael's cemetery.

The funeral services for Mrs. Phoebe Doherty was held at the Immaculate Conception church Friday morning. Rev. Father Bruno singing recited high mass. Dr. Willing sang Nearer, My God to Thee. Burial was in River Bend cemetery.

Frank M. Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Parker, of Summit street and Miss Ruth M. Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston, of Newton avenue were united in marriage at Grace Methodist Episcopal church, Friday evening by Rev. George D. Stanley. They were attended by Miss Evelyn Rooker and Miss Champlin. The wedding march was played by Miss Selena Veale. Mr. and Mrs. Parker left for New York and Washington.

LEDYARD

Perhaps the largest gathering of townspeople that has ever met at one time in the town of Ledyard was that of Wednesday afternoon when at 1:30 o'clock they assembled at the call of the warning of the selectmen printed in The Bulletin, that a town tax be laid and to decide whether the voters would approve of building a new two-room schoolhouse at Gales Ferry for a sum not to exceed $10,000. The meeting was held in the vestry of the Congregational church, and the room was filled. Frederick W. Burton, first selectman of the town of Ledyard, was chosen chairman, and William I. Allen, town clerk of Ledyard, was elected clerk. Mr. Burton explained the finances of the town and upon motion of Peter Hoffman of Gales Ferry a 25-mill tax was voted. This is one mill higher than last year. There was much discussion about building the new schoolhouse at Gales Ferry, some favoring it and some voicing their opposition. Moderator Burton declared the ballot box opened and all proceeded to ballot. The result of the vote as announced by the moderator showed that 57 had voted in favor of building a new schoolhouse and 103 voted against it. The meeting was then adjourned.

Miss Nellie Geer has been the guest of friends in Westerly during the past week. Samuel Marshall, of Providence has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Enos M. Gray.

Over 50 people met in the Congregational church Wednesday evening and held a farewell reception for William N. Brown and his daughter, Mrs. Grace Connolly, who are soon to move to Lefthampton, where Mr. Brown has purchased a small farm. Mr. Brown and his daughter have been very active grange members and will be missed both in the church and grange. Mrs. Connolly was presented a handsome set of silver spoons and Mr. Brown was given a French briar pipe and case with a glass jar of cut plug tobacco. Later cake and coffee were served.

Mrs. Hans King and son of Stonington are guests of Mrs. King's sister, Mrs. Fanny Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barlow of Mystic were week end and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Evers Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Weman and family, together with Mrs. Fanny Lamb, visited relatives in Stonington Sunday.

Frederick W. Burton has purchased a yoke of Holstein oxen and team wagon from William N. Brown.

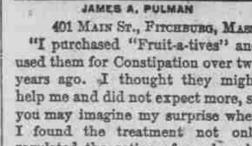

GALES FERRY

The March meeting of the local auxiliary of the Woman's Home Missionary society was held at the home of Mrs. Harriet L. Perkins, Tuesday afternoon. The president, Miss Caroline R. Freeman, presided. The meeting opened with singing hymn, The Master Calling, preceding devotions conducted by Rev. G. H. Wright. Report of the secretary, Mrs. Fanny A. Moltrop, who also gave the treasurer's report for Mrs. C. E. Colver. The fourth chapter in the book, Survey to Service, subject, Barriers Between Neighbors, was reviewed by Miss Alice Satterlee. In place of the missionary enigmas, Miss Freeman gave a talk on Marcy Settlement work in Chicago. Mrs. R. Irving Hubbard spoke on the Jeanie Lee Home, in Alaska, and Mrs. Moltrop read about the Immigrants' Home in Boston.

During the social hour following Mrs. Perkins served coffee, being assisted by

AWFUL TROUBLE IS CONSTIPATION

Conquered by "FRUIT-A-TIVES" The Famous Fruit Medicine

JAMES A. PULMAN 401 MAIN ST., FRIBURG, MASS. "I purchased 'Fruit-a-tives' and used them for Constipation over two years ago. I thought they might help me and did not expect more, so you may imagine my surprise when I found the treatment not only regulated the action of my bowels, but also acted as a tonic to the whole system and built me up in every way. I have been a long sufferer with Constipation and never have I found anything equal to 'Fruit-a-tives'. I am nearing the three score and ten mark, and do not make any claims to be as vigorous as ever; but I do know that 'Fruit-a-tives' have given me strength and my general health has improved materially."

JAMES A. PULMAN "Fruit-a-tives" or "Fruit Laxo Tablets" will always cure Constipation. 60c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or from FRUIT-A-TIVES Limited, OGDENSBURG, N.Y."

her daughters, Mrs. J. A. Birch, and Mrs. Monet Lawson.

A report of the recently appointed committee for securing a school site at Gales Ferry was made by Miss Alice Satterlee, chairman of the committee at the town meeting in Ledyard Wednesday and several spoke in favor of such a building. Others questioned the need of the building. The vote, by ballot, resulted in 109 against and 57 in favor. Votes were distributed by Miss Satterlee and Mrs. Carl B. Lawson and Mrs. Billings T. Avery served as checker, with Richard H. Chase as ballot tender. Transportation for the voters from the village, was provided by Commander F. D. Berrian of the submarine base, R. H. Chase, C. A. Johnson, Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham and Norman F. Povey.

The Gales Ferry Pinocchio club played the last game in the series of seven games with the Uncasville Pinocchio Chums, Wednesday evening, at the Country club house here, with a score of 19 to 16 in favor of Gales Ferry. The total score for the entire series being 132 to 115 in favor of the Gales Ferry club. Johnson and Miller had the highest score for the evening.

Charles H. Johnson, marine gunner at the sub base, has been transferred to U. S. Henderson at Hampton Roads, Virginia, to report for duty there this week, sailing for Haiti on the 21st of March. Mr. Johnson has been connected with the base for six months and he and his family have occupied the Davis cottage in the village. Mrs. Johnson and children will remain at the cottage and probably spend the summer here.

Courtland E. Colver who is convalescing at his home at the submarine base, after leaving Lawrence hospital, some ten days ago, was able to walk a short distance out of doors Thursday.

Eugene L. Fontaine of the Stoddard district, who met with an accident while fell from a tree at Bando's saw mill, Center Grotton, which resulted in a broken leg, was able to have the cast removed Sunday, after a period of six weeks. Mr. LaFontaine can now bear some weight on the foot, and is learning to walk again.

Rev. A. S. Bush attended the March meeting of Congregational ministers at Tatfield, Tuesday and Mrs. Bush spent the day with Mrs. Arthur Varley, wife of the pastor of the Tatfield Congregational church.

Judge and Mrs. Lucius Brown of Norwich were recent callers on Mrs. Brown's uncle, Noyes B. Allen.

Alfred E. Rogers, formerly of Gales Ferry, but who has spent some sixteen years in Panama, returning here last year, and who has leased the Satterlee homestead now known as Trout Brook cottage, has completed a four-room hen house 28 feet in length on the property, and will raise poultry. Mr. Rogers has purchased a new roadster with a light delivery body. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers have spent the winter at the cottage of Mrs. Lucy M. Harbut and are now moving to their new home.

Rev. W. H. Bath, district superintendent, presided at the fourth quarterly conference of the Versailles M. E. church, held Wednesday evening. Reports of the church activities showing a healthy condition of all church work. The meeting was unanimous in extending an invitation to Rev. Charles Smith to return for another year. Mr. Smith has been on the Baltic and Versailles charge for the past 13 years.

At the March meeting of the Totokett Hose company, Wednesday evening in the company's quarters, an enjoyable social was held under the direction to its foreman, A. R. Boullier. Light refreshments being served, Irving Gregory acting as stuart.

Friends of Mrs. Alexander Colburn learn with pleasure of her returning strength, following a recent serious operation. Mrs. Colburn has been a resident of Ocum for many years. Joseph Rainville is seriously ill with blood poisoning.

COVENTRY Five young men were received into membership at the Congregational church Sunday morning; three were on confession of faith and two by letter from other churches.

A charity committee was appointed by the worthy master at the grange meeting Thursday evening, consisting of three sisters and two brothers.

Mrs. C. Irving Loomis has spent a few days with her mother in South Coventry. The Coventry grange theatrical troupe gave their fifth performance of Polly Wante a Cracker at the Congregational church, Mansfield, Wednesday evening.

Coventry extension school held a two-days' session Thursday and Friday. The topics discussed were interior decoration, home nursing, clothing talk and demonstration in canning meat for the women, with the kinds of business that pay in Connecticut, what shall we do with the pastures, purchase and use of commercial fertilizers for the men.

Dr. and Mrs. Isaac P. Fiske have gone to New York, where Mrs. Fiske will enter a hospital for special treatment.

The Ready Helpers held their March meeting in the chapel Friday evening.

The school committee will omit their April meeting. There seems very little for the committee to do now that the superintendent has entire charge of the schools.

At the special town meeting Saturday a 27-mill tax was voted, 25 for expenses and two mills toward the town debt.

OCCUM AND VERSAILLES

Rev. W. H. Bath, district superintendent, presided at the fourth quarterly conference of the Versailles M. E. church, held Wednesday evening. Reports of the church activities showing a healthy condition of all church work. The meeting was unanimous in extending an invitation to Rev. Charles Smith to return for another year. Mr. Smith has been on the Baltic and Versailles charge for the past 13 years.

At the March meeting of the Totokett Hose company, Wednesday evening in the company's quarters, an enjoyable social was held under the direction to its foreman, A. R. Boullier. Light refresh-

PURITY "SALADA" Is the Essence of all That is Best in Tea "To Taste is to Believe"

FITCHVILLE The condition of Miss Josephine Kingberger remains unchanged. Mrs. N. D. Austin of Yantic is very ill. Her sister from Putnam is taking care of her. Mrs. Francis Dawley of the New Village, Fitchville, and Mrs. Alfred Smith, patients at Backus hospital, are doing well. The Fitchville Ladies' Benevolent society held its March meeting with Mrs. Nelson Stark. A good number of its members were present during the afternoon of Wednesday. They tied two quilts and transacted important business. Refreshments were served. The Christian Endeavor prayer meeting was held Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Tolson, a large number being present. Mrs. Warren Thompson was the

Brooklyn Outfitters Announce a Great Purchase HOLDING OUT TO THE VERY LAST IN THE VAIN HOPE OF AVOIDING TAKING A LOSS, THE EASTERN PANTS MANUFACTURERS OF NORWICH WERE FINALLY FORCED TO TAKE A TREMENDOUS SACRIFICE ON THEIR STOCK AND Sold to the Brooklyn Outfitters at Our Price and Now On Sale (BEGINNING TODAY) Nearly 2,000 pairs of guaranteed Pants, almost every kind of pants a man would want is in this lot—and included are a great many Suitsing Pants that will match up well with any coat and vest. There's a good range of sizes in Blue Serges, Cheviots, Cassimeres, Fancy Worsteds and Flannels. There are pants for every occasion—work, dress and business. Sizes 28 to 50. 500 PAIRS AT $2.45 700 PAIRS AT $2.95 750 PAIRS AT $3.45 YOUR GUARANTEE — BROOKLYN OUTFITTERS HAVE BEEN SELLING PANTS TO THOUSANDS OF MEN AND YOUNG MEN DURING THE PAST 21 YEARS, AND STAND BACK OF EVERY PAIR WE SELL. BROOKLYN OUTFITTERS. Large as our regular stock is at present, we made this huge purchase because it gives is an opportunity to present our customers with a value absolutely without a parallel. We got them at a fraction of their worth, and pass the benefit of this big transaction to you. Shoes for Women, Men, Boys and Children As to Price, Quality, Value-Giving, Positively Unmatched Anywhere Else Today! BROOKLYN OUTFITTERS "The Store That Satisfies" NORWICH, CONN. 266-270 MAIN STREET

VOLUNTOWN Lenten devotions held at St. Thomas' church on Sunday evening were well attended.

A feeling of sorrow and regret pervaded the village Saturday morning when news was received of the death of Leon Saylor of Ekoon as a result of the accident at Onoco crossing Friday afternoon. Mr. Saylor was well known here and was highly respected.

The financial town meeting was held Monday afternoon. John N. Lewis was chairman and George R. Edmonds clerk. A tax of 40 mills was laid, of which six mills was appropriated for the use of the public school; $1,600 was appropriated for the care of highways and bridges.

Thursday afternoon at a justice court held in Union held before Justice E. T. Burke of Norwich, Edward O. Cooney was fined $2 and costs for breach of the peace.

The severe storm of Tuesday did no serious damage in town, except to wash out the roads a little in places. A circle of Companions of the Forest of America will be instituted Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Union hall. Mrs. Abby A. Blake of Norwich, who is suspense chief companion of the order, will be present to confer the degree on a class of about 50 candidates who are anxiously awaiting the award. Delegates from Norwich and New London are expected to be present.