About one hundred and fifty business men and women of the Y. M. C. A. met at the association building Wednesday night and enjoyed the annual supper. The menu was as follows:

- Roast Native Turkey, Giblet Sauce
- Mashed Potatoes, Turnips
- Fried Fish, Celery
- Pickled Relish, Jelly
- Apple Pie, Coffee

During the supper George W. Hickey led in the singing of several popular songs, accompanied on the piano by Herbert Smith, Physical Director. Brown presented Judge Frank H. Fox as toastmaster of the evening.

Mr. Fox in closing his remarks said there were several presentations to be made. A member of the Landlubbers' volleyball team was called for and presented a shield bearing the inscription "Valley Ball Champions—1922." The Landlubbers were captained by Raymond Combs. The "Hicks" were presented a novelty spoon, James Moutery, who led the local men they could trim Norwich at volleyball, was presented a bouquet of paper flowers, in recognition of his judgment of the Stewich team, which by the way trimmed the local men soundly.

Several members of the various women's groups responded briefly, being unanimous in their opinion that Physical Director A. F. Brown had done much for the local Y since coming to Willimantic. All urged the other men to attend the gymnasium classes and get the good derived from exercise of this nature. President R. H. Fenlon also was emphatic in urging the men to get together and keep the Y together, that it might continue its good work in this city. A rising vote of thanks was given to the Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. for the splendid supper served. The meeting closed with the singing of hymns.

Arrangements have been completed for the final public forum and lecture under the auspices of the Willimantic Community Forum, made up of public-spirited citizens who have succeeded in past months in bringing some of the best speaking talent in the country to this city. The speaker for Sunday evening is Dr. James J. Walsh of New York, one of the national lecturers of the Knights of Columbus.

Dr. Walsh is recognized as one of the greatest lecturers before the American public today and at the request of the forum committee has consented to give the following lecture:

DR. JAMES J. WALSH

his noted lecture, "The Thirteenth, Greatest of Centuries." Dr. Walsh, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, has addressed public gatherings in many sections of this country and will bring a message worth while to the public of Willimantic.

Prior to the public meeting at the town hall at 7:15 o'clock Dr. Walsh is to be tendered a reception at the Hooker House by San Jose Council, No. 14, Knights of Columbus. Following the address Dr. Walsh is to be the guest of prominent local men at a banquet at the Danman House.

The Salvation Army Home Drive recently completed in this city, netted $1827, according to reports made by Captain and Mrs. Ingersoll in charge of the drive. The quota set for the drive was $2200 and more donations may come in late and bring the total nearer this mark. The drive was conducted entirely by members of the Salvation Army, such society or lodge in the city appointing delegates to lend support. The money raised is to be employed in promoting the useful work of the army in this city.

Town Clerk Frank P. Fenlon has received his supply of 1922 dog license tags and expects to do a rushing business between now and the first of May when all fees are due. The number of dogs to be licensed is about 600. During the past two years there has been a steady increase in the number.

As there was no session of the police court Wednesday morning, the trouble between Charles H. Baker and Peter J. Ray, over a load of manure at the local freight yard, was put over until the matter is cleared up. Mr. Baker claims Agent W. H. Parkhurst of the American Railway Express gave him permission to remove and keep the manure and Mr. Ray claims that the bookkeeper of the express company gave permission to him. This was disputed later by the bookkeeper in question and the matter simmered down to just which man owns the manure. Although Mr. Baker seems to have the better of the argument, Mr. Ray has carried away the greater share of the manure.

John McQuillan, manager of the American Thread Athletic Association last year, and triumphed the Boston Red Sox. At is now with the Detroit Tigers at their southern training camp at Augusta, Ga. When the letter was written Kroog had been in camp a week and gives the daily routine as follows: Breakfast, 5:30 to 9; report in uniform at 11:30; practice until 2 p. m.; go up to town in the meantime; dinner at 6 p. m. and go to bed early. As Kroog tells the story, a pitcher gets into these pepper games, warming up, ploches to bat, and gets in plenty of runline. Kroog states that he realizes his job is a tough one as he is only one of fourteen pitchers who have not been in the big leagues before. Kroog states he is going to make a hard fight to stay in with the Tigers. In writing Kroog tells of his engagement to a girl named Nedham and wants to be remembered to his many friends in this city.
