What Is Going on Tonight
Trinity Chapter, No. 5, R. A. M., stated convocation at Masonic hall.
Obedience lodge, No. 16, I. O. O. F., meets at 547 Main street.

The April meeting of the town school committee was held Wednesday night at the police court room in the town building, those present being Dr. P. E. Guild, H. C. Lathrop, W. J. Sweeney, Walter H. King and Mrs. H. H. Fenton.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, P. E. Guild, following which Secretary E. A. Case read the report of the March regular and special meetings. The report of Trustee Officer Juan H. Paulson for March was omitted.

The report of Americanization Director Gilman for March was in substance as follows: Night school sessions closed March 9th, the total registration in the English class being 116, classes closing with an attendance of 16, the season's average attendance 22. The final session took the form of a social, games being played and refreshments served by the members of the W. C. T. U. Fifty illustrated slides on the subject "The Growth of Our Country" also shown.

Two racial meetings were held during the month, 115 interviews were given; eight aided in securing first or second citizenship papers.

As Clerk E. M. Warner did not hold session here in March, candidates received their papers. The citizenship class has been attended by 33 in all, the average attendance being 19, many of whom will try for the papers April 14th.

During the month an address on "Some Problems in Immigration" was given before the Ministers' Association and before the Methodist Men's club of Baltimore. Two other addresses were given also.

Secretary Case reported that plans for the addition to Natchaug school had not been completed but are expected by Monday of next week. A communication from Michael Demaunts seeking engagement as janitor of the Windham Center school was placed on file. The question of physical education in local schools and a discussion of the average attendance payment due the state took up considerable time. The usual bills were read and voted upon or approved of the auditor's report. An adjournment was taken at 5:10 o'clock.

The adjourned case of Harry Scheinman, charged with assault on Mrs. S. J. Milstern came up before Judge Frank H. Poes in the police court Wednesday morning. Scheinman entering a plea of not guilty. Scheinman had no attorney, saying that he expected one, Mrs. Milstern, the complainant in the case, testified that she drove down Railroad street Saturday night last and Scheinman stood in front of his store, No. 10 Railroad street. He asked her to come in as he thought he had a pair of shoes at a reasonable price that would suit her. She had never traded there before, but went in. Scheinman produced a pair of shoes, slightly worn and she tried them on, they fitted perfectly. She asked what the price was and the reply was, "Oh not much, we can fix that up between ourselves." Her feet were red and she pushed her from the store. She went to her husband and immediately they entered a complaint with Prosecuting Attorney Samuel B. Harvey.

Scheinman, before testifying, was asked if he had an attorney and replied in the negative, then changed his plea to one of guilty. His attorney arrived and after a conference entered a demurrer to the complaint, which Judge Poes overruled. The defense offered no testimony. Owing to the nature of the offense Judge Poes fined Scheinman $50 and costs, amounting to $59.99 which was paid.

"Teddy" Erishina, of Chaplin, charged with transporting liquor with intent to sell entered a plea of not guilty. Officers who made the arrest last Saturday testified that he bought the liquor Saturday morning for five dollars and he took the liquor into his wagon from the automobile driven by the party selling it to him. He testified that the liquor was for his own use. John Erishina, age 19, son of the defendant, gave similar testimony. Judge Poes found Erishina guilty and imposed a fine of $100 and costs totalling $107.50. Erishina told the court that he could not pay it and he asked for him. The boy's father into tears a bondsman for the defendant finally softened and paid over the money to free Erishina. Erishina was scheduled to appear before U. S. Commissioner Earl Matthews on a Norwich Tuesday but failed to show up and officers went out and brought him in.

At a meeting of the First Congregational church held Tuesday evening, George S. Elliott's report was read and accepted for the year ending March 31st, as follows:

Deeds were signed conveying the society's property to the church as the two have been consolidated, and will be known from now on as the First Congregational church.

Charles Youngs, of South Coventry, was arrested here Tuesday night by City Sheriff Thomas Killourey charged with seduction. The complainant was Miss Alice L. Hildreth of South Coventry. Youngs was to be given a hearing this (Thursday) morning before Deputy Sheriff A. E. Harmon of South Coventry, but an agreement was reached between the couple, Youngs being asked to make amends by marrying the girl, she consented and the y were married at the rectory in South Coventry by Rev. James J. McGinness.

Mrs. Mary T. Taber, 69, wife of Frederick J. Taber, died Wednesday morning at her home in South Windham from heart trouble. Mrs. Taber was born in Windham September 14, 1852, the daughter of Amos H. Moore and Cella C. Blinham Moore. Besides her husband she is survived by two cousins, A. W. Turner of this city and Mrs. Edward Murphy of Springfield, Mass.

At a meeting of the master bakers held Tuesday night, reports were made that the buy-local-bread campaign is bringing results. Merchants have cooperated with the bakers in boosting the campaign and results thus far are all encouraging.

A preliminary meeting of the women's auxiliary to the general committee in charge of the Elk county fair, at a recent date perfected plans for the purchase and billing of a hock chest which is to be given away at the fair. The chest is to be placed on exhibition in a local store with dough and gifts for the chest will be donated by friends of Elkdom throughout the city and surrounding towns.

San Jose Council, No. 14, Knights of Columbus, has started a "New Year's City" campaign for April 22nd, the day that District Deputy T. Frank Cunningham of this city will go there to institute a new council and exemplify the third degree on a city-wide basis. The committee in charge of the trip comprises George Donnelly, Daniel Leary, Arthur Dubriel, James M. Tighe and A. J. Martiniano.

George E. Briggs was a visitor in New York over the week end.
Wednesday was moving day for the wild geese family; no less than six flocks were noted—some flocks numbered a good 50. They were all high over, for some reason, and looked to be like mere specks in the sky. One large flock seemed very tired, for it was huddling and not traveling in the usual way like the old fashioned A barrow.
While F. L. Mackley was splitting wood his axe slipped and split open the end of his thumb.
B. F. York of Poquonoc has moved back to the old homestead in Goshen and is to make his home with his son, B. R. York, at Elm Lawn farm.
It was Palm Beach weather Monday when the mercury climbed into the 80s.

HELPED HER MOTHER WONDERFULLY
In these days of "flu" coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, it is well to know that there are used little bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar than of any other cough medicine. Mrs. S. L. L. W. W. 4th St., Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me of a hacking cough, tickling in the throat, whooping and croup, and I am feeling in much better condition. That's why druggists recommend Foley's, Lee & Osgood Co."

SPRING—EASTER
The change of seasons from gray, dull days, to the bright, warm days of Spring, is reflected here in the new cheery looking garments that are not only good to see but bright with that promise for outdoor life at hand.

CAPE — WRAPS AND COATS
In a season when capes are fashion's favorite mode, no woman without one can call her wardrobe complete. For motoring, for traveling, or sports wear — individual styles have been evolved from fabrics characteristically Spring, along truly artistic and becoming lines.
A good Spring Coat may be had here as low as $13.50 up to $49.00.

SUITS — New Styles, New Values
Abounding with all the new style touches and developed in all the favored materials, suits of equal quality last season would command at least one-third more. But this is another season, a season made more brilliant by producing more effective suit modes with the utmost regard to workmanship at lower price levels.—Prices range from $16.50 up to $39.00.

SPRING DRESSES
without the new sleeve innovations the Spring dresses would not have near so many features to command them. It is a case of sheer first, and dress second, so in accordance the new frocks have been fashioned mostly crepe effect, skirt of modest width, and trimming of beads add the finishing touches—$13.50 up to $35.00.

HAND BAGS
As Easter calls for new clothes, so do new clothes call for new dress accessories, and a hand bag is the most important. New Beaded Hand Bags just received and priced special for Easter—$4.95.

RIBBONS
New Easter Ribbons just received, in two-tone effects, black and white, gray and black, purple and gray, tan and brown, and blue and rose—$1.00 a yard.

Wednesday was moving day for the wild geese family; no less than six flocks were noted—some flocks numbered a good 50. They were all high over, for some reason, and looked to be like mere specks in the sky. One large flock seemed very tired, for it was huddling and not traveling in the usual way like the old fashioned A barrow.
While F. L. Mackley was splitting wood his axe slipped and split open the end of his thumb.

HELPED HER MOTHER WONDERFULLY
In these days of "flu" coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, it is well to know that there are used little bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar than of any other cough medicine. Mrs. S. L. L. W. W. 4th St., Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me of a hacking cough, tickling in the throat, whooping and croup, and I am feeling in much better condition. That's why druggists recommend Foley's, Lee & Osgood Co."
