

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Society notes in today's Boston and New York papers will include announcements of Mrs. Clayton W. Finch, of Port Chester, N. Y., of the engagement of her daughter, Helen Beach, to Earl Franklin Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wood of Academy street. Miss Finch was educated at private schools in this country and abroad. Mr. Wood, at Brown, Harvard and Columbia universities. The wedding will take place early in September.

After a honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Wood will reside in Cambridge, Mass. Mr. Wood being a member of the English department of Harvard university.

Wednesday morning the funeral of Miss Gertrude Bennett was held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Housault, at Riverview, with services at St. James' church at 9 o'clock. Rev. John Roux, M. S., Rev. Joseph Mousnier, M. S., and Rev. Walter J. Greene, M. S., were the officiators of the solemn high mass of requiem which was attended by many relatives and friends. Burial was in Holy Cross cemetery. The flowers were Thomas Galichant, Lucien Lambert, Albert Mailhot, Arthur Dupre, Gerald Bonifant and George Larriere. Louis E. Kennedy was the funeral director.

Fire that the driver said blazed up without warning, beneath his feet, damaged a motor truck owned by the Norris Redding company of Providence Wednesday afternoon while it was being driven along the state highway near Fall Brook, south of Dyer street. Chief John McFarland was among those who quickly went to where the truck was burning. Shovels were employed to dig up dirt with which the flames were smothered. The car was not in condition to operate after the fire, however.

Attorney Harry E. Bark was in New Haven Wednesday to represent a client in the federal court, where several cases originating in eastern Connecticut towns were disposed of during the day.

About 25 voices are in the combined choir of St. Philip's and St. Alban's church which will sing the cantata "The Prodigal Son" at the Good Friday evening service at St. Alban's church. A large congregation heard the choir give the cantata Palm Sunday evening at the Putnam church.

Odd Fellows here are interested in the fact that the 162nd anniversary of the organization will be observed April 23, this year, which has a large lodge in Danielson, numbers 20,000 members in Connecticut.

November-like weather succeeded Wednesday the high temperature of Monday and Tuesday. A gale that swept out of the west drove the temperature down to a point that put an end for the time being to the thought that summer weather was here to stay.

The body of Mrs. Harriet E. Palmer, who died in Waltham, Mass., was brought here Wednesday afternoon for burial in Westfield cemetery. A. F. Wood was in charge of the funeral, which was attended by local relatives and friends.

At the Goodbye United church Easter Sunday, Rev. Charles A. Downs will preach at the morning service on "The Practice of Immortality and at the evening service on "The Living and the Life of God."

A business meeting of Base of Lima, Vermont, is scheduled for this (Thursday) evening. The council now has the largest membership in its history.

With the return of blowing weather there also has come a return of the cold blasts against operating the machines in sidewalks in the borough. Bicyclists are well aware that riding on the sidewalks is strictly forbidden and that prosecution is likely to follow recalcitrance in doing so. The sidewalks are for pedestrians and they are supposed to have exclusive use of them.

As has been the custom for a number of years, many family card parties were planned in the Quince section of the West Side this spring by employees of the Quince company, which allows the use of some of good land for this purpose. Hundreds of dollars worth of vegetables are grown in these gardens each year.

Hebrew residents in towns hereabouts continue to worry over the fate of relatives who are in the famine districts of Russia. Communication with them is in most instances impossible. The concern of the residents here will find particular expression at this period of the Passover, the observance of which began Wednesday evening.

Two road building projects that it is asserted, will be revived at the next session of the legislature are those having to do with the plan to build a state highway from Brookville to Pomfret, via the stretched state route, and the plan to extend the state highway from Westminster to Willimantic.

In the town court Wednesday, Louis Breneck of Park street, Putnam, pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving of an automobile and was fined $25 and costs, a total of $34.80. Breneck was ordered into court on Sunday evening by officer A. W. Williams, who happened to be investigating an accident on the state highway between Attawagan and Dagsville when Breneck came along driving his machine through the fog in reckless manner, and narrowly missed striking two machines that had figured in a crash. Alfred Paris received for the Farnley Worsted company and formerly agent of the concern, was in Danielson Wednesday on matter pertaining to the affairs of the company.

A matter of curiosity among sportsmen hereabouts is as to what has become of the thousands of salmon that were placed in Alexander's lake a few years ago. Are they there and grown into 5 and 8 pounders by this time? That is a question and it cannot be decided without breaking the law, for the lake is now protected under special legislation as a reservoir and fishing is forbidden there. Many incline to the belief that salmon are in the lake, as some of the so-called fingerlings were nearly eight inches long when released and believed to be big and active enough to look out for themselves against the raids of bass or other large fish in the lake.

John Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith of Connecticut Village, is a patient at the Day Kimball hospital. The child has undergone an operation for appendicitis.

Roseland Con, a patient at the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam, was reported seriously ill Wednesday. Mr. Con is a machinist and has been in the employ of the Quince company for more than 40 years.

Few major building operations for this season have been announced yet, although several dwellings are to be built in the borough this season and many repair jobs are planned.

Members of the Killingly Woman's club and their guests are anticipating rare pleasure next week when Prof. Frank L. Parrell of Norwich will come here to give an organ recital to them at the Methodist church.

PUTNAM

The drive for the Salvation Army's Home Service fund in this territory will begin during the coming week and will include a house-to-house canvass in this city. It is hoped to raise $2,000 in the territory of which Putnam is the working center. A warning has been issued not to give to any solicitor for this fund not authorized by Adjutant Daisy Whipple.

At a session of the Putnam probate court over which Judge Clarence H. Child presided Wednesday, David Flagg was appointed administrator of the estate of Nazaire Pelouin, who died suddenly last month and whose body was taken to Canada for burial. The estate is one of the largest to be probated in this city in several years and includes among other property the Pelouin block on Main street, a business block on Pomfret street and some dwelling houses.

Israel Putnam lodge of Odd Fellows has voted to charter a special trolley car for the trip that is to be made to Central Village Thursday evening of next week when the local members will be guests of Protection lodge.

Another event of interest to Israel Putnam lodge will be the observance of the 162nd anniversary of the foundation of the order. The lodge will observe this anniversary by attending service at the Baptist church on Sunday morning, April 23.

Israel Putnam lodge has been organized since March 21, 1899. There were five charter members—A. A. Buchanan, George A. Hammond, Arthur D. McIntyre, L. H. Fuller and Edward G. Wright, all living excepting the last named.

The lodge has grown until at the present time it has a large membership and the order has 20,000 members in this state.

Several cases that originated in the local city court and which had to do with violations of the liquor laws were included in the more than 200 such cases scheduled for consideration in the federal court at New Haven Wednesday. The penalties inflicted at New Haven were in addition to those imposed in the Putnam court. Attorneys from this city were at New Haven to represent clients resident here or hereabouts.

It is announced that Rev. A. B. Coe is not to come here as pastor of the Second Congregational church, but will accept the pastorate of a Congregational church at West Somerville, Mass. Rev. Coe preached here twice and made such a fine impression that many of the members of the church hoped he would become the pastor, succeeding Rev. Boynton Merrill, now at Old South church, Boston. Rev. Coe is a native of Kentucky, is a graduate of Yale Divinity school.

Attorney Thomas J. Kelley, of Willimantic, referee in bankruptcy, has named Omer J. Millot and Chester M. Elliott, two of this city's business men, appraisers of the shoe stock of the People's Shoe Store, George F. Davignon proprietor, at Danielson. This store has been closed for a number of weeks pending an adjustment for the creditors through the bankruptcy court.

Elizabeth Porter Putnam chapter, D. A. R. has appointed a committee to make arrangements for the annual picnic of members to Beaufort on the birthday of Sarah B. Bradley, who is a Real Daughter of the Revolution, and who will reach her 105th birthday soon. Mrs. Bradley's father was a Revolutionary soldier.

The cash balance of St. Mary's parish is now $25,000, with no parish indebtedness. This splendid financial standing will permit of undertaking the building of a large addition to St. Mary's parochial school this year.

Nearly 100 new automobiles have been sold by local dealers within the past two months, the sales for the period being in excess of those for the corresponding time last year.

Mrs. Emma M. Chamberlin, who died recently at her home in Rockland, Mass., was a sister of Mrs. Elizabeth Howell of this city. The body was taken to Churchville, Pa., for burial. Mrs. Chamberlin was the widow of C. H. Chamberlin.

Mrs. Charles T. Thayer visited with relatives in Danielson on Wednesday.

The Parent-Teachers' association is to bring the Brown University Glee club to Putnam for a concert early in May. Previous appearances in this city of this club have given delight.

Members of the choir of St. Philip's church will go to Danielson tomorrow (Friday) evening to unite with the choir of St. Alban's church in giving the cantata, "The Prodigal Son."

A drop of over 40 degrees in temperature marked Wednesday's weather as compared to that of Tuesday.

A carload of horses, many of the animals just through with a winter's work in the Maine woods, were unloaded here Wednesday evening and taken to a stable on Woodstock avenue.

Priests from various parishes in this section of the state will make their annual Holy Thursday visits to Hartford today.

While only those who keep up a constantly alert interest in politics, are giving any attention to the subject at this particular time, some scouting and lining up of possible candidates for town and state offices is being done right now, though the elections do not come until well into the fall.

Lillian Stude Miller, who died recently in Providence, was a native of Ashford and lived there for many years. The body was taken to Southbridge for burial.

Judge Edgar M. Warner will be the leader at a sunrise prayer meeting to be held at the Congregational church Easter Sunday morning at 6 o'clock, and a

Helps digestion

—and cleans a coated tongue

Thousands of men and women have found relief from various digestive disturbances by eating Fleischmann's Yeast.

It is human nature to want to find out "why." So far as science can tell us this is the reason:

Fleischmann's Yeast is a food abundant in certain elements which are necessary to health and life itself. It promotes the flow of bile and of pancreatic juice. It has a remarkably beneficial effect on the whole digestive process. It cleans a coated tongue.

Try Fleischmann's fresh yeast in orange juice or in milk. Men like it in milk shakes and malted milk. Women like it spread on bread or crackers.

Keep your digestion in the pink of condition and your tongue clean and healthy by eating 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast fresh every day before or between meals. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer today.
