

WESTERLY

At the annual meeting of the Visiting Nurse association held Tuesday evening in the library hall, Dr. Ruggles, of the Rutler hospital gave an interesting talk on public health nursing. At the close of the address the reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted. Some changes were made in the board of management. The board having lost one member by death, Joseph T. Murphy, Leo Higgins was appointed to fill the place. Mrs. Everett Whipple felt that she could not serve and Mrs. George Morse was appointed. Mrs. George Utter who has served on the board continuously since the association was incorporated, declined reelection because of residence in Providence and Mrs. Henry I. Burdick was appointed in her place. The number of patients cared for from April 1, 1921, to April 1, 1922 was 988. Men, 101; women, 177; children 211; medical 119; surgical 280; maternity 143; number of nursing visits made 482; operations 36; trips in ambulance 17. There were 265 paying patients; also 131 cases paid for by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. The association is in a flourishing condition and much good is accomplished by it in this district of Westerly.

The officers who will serve Calvary Baptist church are James M. Pendleton, president; Everett E. Barnes, clerk; Eugene F. Pendleton, treasurer; Charles E. Segar, John J. Kennedy, Lewis Stanton, Lewis A. Joslin and Ralph Koeb; board of trustees for the year, William D. Howard is superintendent of the Bible school.

Miss Alice Sanford of New York who gave a most interesting talk Wednesday to the Westerly Girl Scouts. Miss Sanford is regional superintendent of Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut. Her talk was instructive and entertaining.

Samuel Johnson who passed through Westerly Tuesday afternoon on his way from New York to Boston won his bet of $1,000 having made the run by foot, about 250 miles in 44 1/2 hours.

The Union Leaven service which was held Thursday evening at Pawcatuck Congregational church drew out a large attendance. The program was as follows: Organ recital, professional, invocation, Rev. C. A. Burdick, doxology, responsive reading, Gloria Patri, scripture lesson, Rev. P. S. Saller; anthems, Gloria, prayer, Rev. Lewis A. Walker; response, Hear Our Prayers; offertory hymn. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. G. Osborn of Mystic. The communion service followed. Rev. W. A. MacDonald gave the invocation. The invocation and Lord's prayer were by Rev. M. S. Stocking. Rev. U. Hatfield assisted at the service. Prayer of intercession was offered by Rev. J. G. Osborn. The meeting called out many, this being one in a series of union communion services of the Protestant church of Westerly and vicinity.

Captain Cecilard H. Collins with three assistants have gone to Baltimore to get two government boats. One is to be used at the coast guard station at Watch Hill. William Cameron of Stamford was called home Thursday by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Annie Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hiscox and children of Brooklyn, N. Y., are spending Easter here.

Manuel Cella, who is employed at the Florida East Coast hotel at Palm Beach, Fla., has returned home.

Nathan Church of High street is confined to his home by illness.

The board of conference announced that the showing of the naturalization film which was scheduled for this week will not be until next week Wednesday and Thursday.

The number of books taken out at the Memorial library shows an increase in the number of readers for March over February. During February 7,843 books were taken out and during March the number was 7,992.

Manager C. E. Moore has returned from New York.

George Smith and Harold Landerer are visiting relatives in Pawcatuck.

Mrs. George Weller of Potter Hill was a caller here Wednesday.

Mrs. Dwight Bromley of Mystic was here Thursday.

Charles J. Greene, town treasurer of Richmond was a caller here Thursday.

Mrs. Emeline Stillman, who has been spending the winter in Florida, returned to the Rhode Island hotel Thursday.

The funeral of William Brown who was in service when he died of wound is to be held Sunday. A full military funeral is planned and the members of the members of the A. I. will take charge.

Joseph M. Hoxie died Wednesday night about 12.30 at his home in Charlestown. He was one of the best known men in South county. He has resided in Charlestown for the past 30 years, and every man woman and child knew him. He had a most cheerful disposition and was willing to assist in all matter pertaining to the town affairs. He was president of the Charlestown town council, chaplain of Quontang grange and a member of Pomona grange. He had been a staunch republican and served the town on many political committees, but of late years has voted the prohibition ticket. He at one time lived four years in Stonington and South Kingstown but most of his life was spent in Charlestown. He was deacon of the Quontang Baptist church. He is survived by his wife and brother, Ash Hoxie.

The Sons and Daughters of Liberty, 32 members of Little Rhody Council, No. 10, met at the home of Mrs. George W. Cook and attended a meeting of Mayflower Council, No. 31, of Hope Valley. After the business meeting there was a special hour and refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed.

Charles W. Lewis of Atlanta is the guest of friends here over the week end. Emmet W. Holdridge of New York spent Thursday in Westerly.

STONINGTON

Thursday evening a union meeting of the First Baptist and Calvary Episcopal church was held with the Second Congregational church. Rev. William F. Williams, rector of Calvary church preached the eloquent sermon. The choir of the churches assisted in the musical program with the Congregational choir. A large number attending. Rev. Mr. Thompson and Rev. D. C. Stone assisted at the service.

The local fishermen have their craft in the harbor ready for business. Eels are in the markets here now, bringing 15 cents a pound. Few lobsters are reported as yet. Flatfish and ood are the most abundant fish this week.

Today (Good Friday) there will be services at St. Mary's church and Calvary Episcopal church.

The grocery and meat stores will be open in the morning but will close at noon today (Friday).

The class in dressmaking and pattern construction will meet today (Friday) at the Wequetequock community club.

Work along these lines has attracted quite a little interest and attention here. Miss Jane Fuller, R. N., of New London will motor here today (Friday) and will be the guest of friends for the day.

Miss Anna MacDowell of Hartford, is a week end visitor here.

William Ostrom who has been in the private hospital at Willimantic for treatment, is expected to return home, was guest of his brother, Capt. Fred Ostrom at the Post Sunday.

J. W. Holmes, of Pittsburgh, Pa., is spending the week end here.

Charles Cox of Kentucky will spend Easter with his brother, Wm. Cox. J. M. Coleman of New York is the guest of friends here over the week end.

WINDHAM

The April meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association was largely attended. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Guy Richmond. As the treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Chappell, was unable to be present until later in the afternoon, her report was given by the president, Mrs. John Potter. As the annual meeting occurs next month, Mrs. John Webster, Mrs. Gladys Sonniussen and Mrs. Edward Bailey were appointed a nominating committee. Following the business meeting, a very interesting talk was given by Miss Elizabeth Abbe on the various schools and colleges which she visited in China, Japan, India and Ceylon during her recent trip to the Orient. Miss Abbe had a number of interesting articles which she exhibited which included beautiful lace made by children, a baby's

RHEUMATISM

Torturing Pains and Swollen Joints Vanish When Rheuma is Used or Money Refunded.

If you want relief in two days, swift, gratifying relief, take one teaspoonful of Rheuma once a day. If you want to dissolve the uric acid poison in your body and drive it out through the natural channels so that you will be free from rheumatism, get a bottle of Rheuma from your druggist at once.

Rheumatism is a powerful disease strongly entrenched in joints and muscles. In order to conquer it a powerful enemy must be sent against it. Rheuma is the enemy of rheumatism—an enemy that must conquer it in every instance or your money will be refunded.

Rheuma contains no narcotics—is absolutely harmless, and thoroughly reliable because it is the one remedy that has relieved the agonizing pains of rheumatic sufferers who thought nothing would give relief. It should do as much for you. Lee & Osgood Co will supply you on the no-cure-no-pay plan.

Leo Keeney of New York visited his mother for a short time last Friday. Miss Helen Hosking of Berlin is at home for the Easter vacation.

Mrs. Halsey Kelley of New York has been spending a few days with her sisters, Mrs. H. C. Hatch and the Misses Johnson, returning to New York Thursday, accompanied by Miss Clara Johnson, who will remain there for a visit.

Easter services at the Congregational church will include the anthems Sing to the Lord (Frey) and Thanks Be to God (Hotchkiss), with solos by Misses Elizabeth Anderson and Charlotte Lathrop. Rev. A. W. Clifford and Eden Cook. There will be a special sermon by the pastor. At the evening service the cantata Death and Life (Harry Rowe Shelley) will be given. In addition to the above mentioned solos there will be solos by Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. A. E. Harvey and Rev. W. M. Brown and a duet by Polly Bixby and Eden Cook.

Harry Little of Springfield, Mass., spent Sunday with his aunt, Miss Mary D. Little.

At the April meeting of the League of Women Voters Mrs. E. K. Leffingwell gave a very interesting talk on Women in Industry. Two members of the league, Miss Dorothy Brown and Mrs. M. A. Bates, attended some of the sessions of the school of citizenship at Trinity college, Hartford, last week.

The Woman's Missionary society met with Miss Dorothy Brown this week. Miss Elizabeth Anderson attended the funeral of a friend in Springfield, Mass., Tuesday.

Horace S. Eaton, who has been ill for several weeks, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital Monday suffering from a nervous breakdown. His housekeeper, Miss Florence Perkins, will visit friends in several places for a few weeks.

A few of Miss Josephine Bingham's friends in the Episcopal church presented her a beautiful plant on her birthday Sunday.

Miss Doris Thompson of Willimantic is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Homer Wood. This (Good Friday) evening at 7.30 at the Congregational church will be shown the film picture of The Life of Christ, from the Manger to the Cross.

Letters recently received from Mrs. Ida W. MacLean who is staying with her sister, Miss Mabel Warner, in Italy, stated that they are soon to go to Sienna.

Austin Bentley of New Haven was a recent guest of his uncle, B. S. Hall. Mrs. Erik Suominen has returned to New York after several days' visit with her family in this place.

Oscar Linberg has finished work at Carl Gallup's sawmill at Gardner Lake and is at his home.

George Cook is ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. S. Hall.

Augusta Lina, who has been living in the home of Joel Williams the past year, left last week for his native home in Finland.

Miss Sarah Palmer visited the Wyllie school last Friday and in the afternoon conducted a speaking and spelling contest at the Center school. Bertha Hall of this school was the winner in the spelling contest.

Several automobiles bringing fishermen to try their luck at trout fishing were seen at the Kennedy brook last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard and daughter Dora of Sterling, accompanied by Robert Cummings and Mrs. Robbins of Oneco, were callers Sunday at the home of Mrs. Abbie Tanner.

Mrs. Emma Willcox has been at Voluntown several days to assist in the home of John Barber, whose wife has been seriously ill.

The body of Mrs. George Cole was taken from the receiving vault and buried in the cemetery at Montpelier last Saturday. Committal services were held at the grave, B. S. Hall and family and Mr. and Mrs. William Jarvis attending.

Will Quiet Ulster

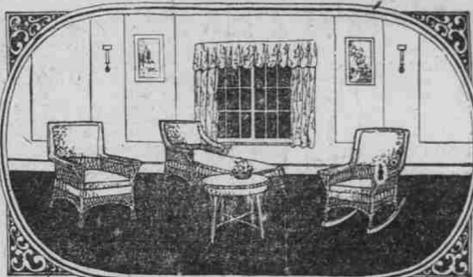

Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, former chief of staff of the British Army, who has been appointed commander-in-chief of the Ulster forces. Sir Henry, himself an Ulsterman, resigned his post with the British Army only a few weeks ago because of political differences. In his new post his task will be that of a pacifier.

Cuticura Soap
SHAVES
Without Mug
Cuticura Soap is the favorite for safety razor shaving.

The Plaut-Cadden Co.

1872—Our Golden Anniversary Year—1922

Tomorrow at our store

A 4-Piece Fibre Living Room Suite

From our new stock of reed and fibre furniture, we have selected this magnificent four-piece outfit for a Government Co-operation Special for tomorrow—it consists of a gracefully designed Chaise lounge—a handsome rocker—with chair to match, and a beautifully proportioned round table—Chaise lounge, rocker and chair, entire outfit—a regular $265.00 value—

GOVERNMENT CO-OPERATION PRICE.....

$124.50

Musical Instruments That Are Easy to Play!
Come in our store today and we will show you our complete line of Ukeleles Banjo-Mandolins Mandolins
These instruments are popular both for solo and ensemble playing. With surprisingly little practice you can play well—entertain yourself and others. They cost but little.

COLUMBIA BICYCLES

RIDE A BICYCLE AND SAVE CARFARE!

We are Factory Representatives for the world's best Bicycle—the Columbia. Famous for its durability and service. You can secure one on our easy terms, which will make it possible for you to pay for it while riding. See our display. All styles in stock. SOLD ON EASY TERMS

A Complete 7-Piece Bedroom Outfit

The above illustrates a likeness of the seven-piece Bedroom Outfit—it includes a beautiful large dresser and chiffonier, in quartered oak or mahogany finish—Colonial style—a two-inch post brass bed, in satin finish—a guaranteed National spring—a pure all-felt mattress and a pair of feather pillows—a regular $250.00 value—

GOVERNMENT CO-OPERATION PRICE.....

$113.95

Demonstration and Club Sale

SATURDAY THE LAST DAY

SATURDAY THE LAST DAY

THE ONLY LONG BOBBIN ROTARY SEWING MACHINE.

We take great pleasure in inviting you to this event, for we have chosen "THE FREE" as the Sewing Machine most worthy of our unqualified recommendation.

Sews Anything From Chiffon to Carpets

The "FREE" is the highest grade machine possible to make. It has wonderful patented features that make it the easiest running Machine in the world. Special attachments for special work.

Beautiful Souvenirs Free to Ladies—Gentlemen

Your name made with beautiful Star Twist (piece of art work) stitched by W. C. ELLIS, Silk Artist and Expert.

NOTHING DOWN, and $1.00 A WEEK Buys a "Free" Sewing Machine

$12. Allowance for Your Old Machine, If You Buy a "Free"—Come Today—Don't Delay

FOR EASTER

MAY WE SUGGEST Solid Gold ROSARIES

A beautiful selection of 14 K Solid Gold Rosaries— At $22.50 Up

SILVERWARE FOR EASTER 26 PIECES OF WALLACE BROS. SILVERWARE

This set comes in a beautiful mahogany, silk lined chest—regular $15.00 value— GOVERNMENT CO-OPERATION PRICE $8.25, complete

Gillette Safety RAZORS

Complete With 3 Blades. 75c

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.
KNOWN FOR QUALITY AND SERVICE—SINCE 1872
135-141 MAIN ST. NORWICH

Price reduced to lowest in history.

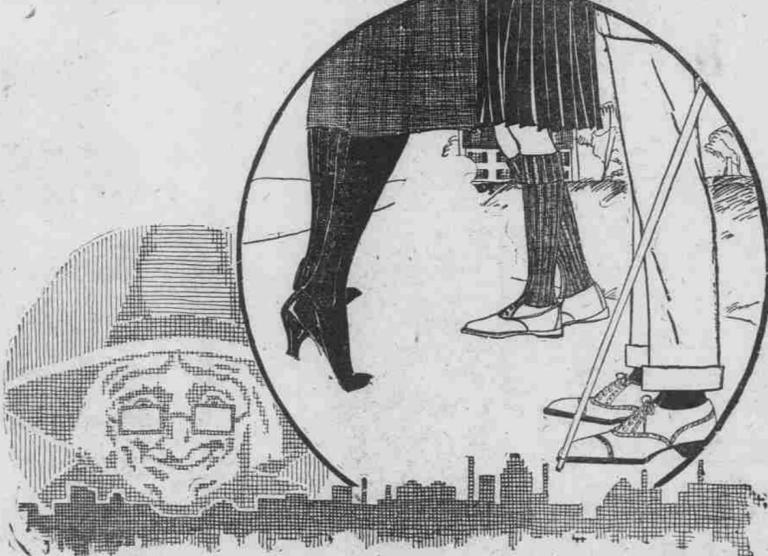

H-O

The World's Finest Oatmeal

Its steam-cooked and pan-toasted. —That's the difference between Oatmeal and H-O Oatmeal.

IPSWICH HOSIERY

For Men Women and Children

The exceptional appearance and wearing qualities of Ipswich stockings will appeal to every member of your family.

Obtainable at most good stores in silk, worsted, heather, mercerized and cotton for men, women and children

IPSWICH MILLS
LAWRENCE & CO.
NEW YORK, PHILADELPHIA, SAN FRANCISCO, LONDON, ENGL.

Makers of good hosiery for one hundred years