"Fruit-a-tives" The Marvelous Fruit Medicine Cured After Specialists Failed.

Another 'Fruit-a-tive' Triumph

Elba, New York. "I suffered with Eczema in my face for five years. I tried several doctors, two of whom were specialists on Skin Diseases, and got no help whatever.

Last April, I read an advertisement about Dr. E. N. Obendorf of Dover, N. H., being completely relieved of a stubborn case of Eczema similar to mine by the use of "Fruit-a-tives" and "Sootha-Salva."

On May 1st, I began using these fruit juices tablets and after two weeks I saw improvement. On June 1st I began using "Sootha-Salva" and by the first of August, I was completely cured.

In all the history of medicine, there has never been another treatment for Eczema, Rash and other skin diseases to compare with the peculiar extract of fruit juices found in "Fruit-a-tives". This famous fruit medicine, used in connection with "Sootha-Salva" is the ideal combination to purify the blood, insure sound digestion, correct constipation, and soothe and heal the inflamed, itching skin.

At the Davis theatre Friday evening before a moderate sized crowd, The Proscenium Players presented "The Emperor Jones," the unique play, The Emperor Jones, with the noted colored actor, Charles S. Gilpin, in the title role.

This unusual play which had its origin in New York and has just closed a three week engagement in Boston, was interpreted with convincing dramatic talent by Mr. Gilpin who carries the action of the play in the character of the Emperor, who arrives as a stowaway on a West Indian island, has a brief reign as emperor and is forced to flee by an uprising of his subjects.

After the first scene in the emperor's palace, the scene remaining scenes are occupied with his struggling flight through the forest, the house in darkness and the threatening boom of the tom tom continuing in the distance. The Emperor struggles on through one brief scene after another, terrified by the "hunts" of his former criminal record. He loses his way and is chased back to the spot from which he started, where he is shot by the silver bullet which he had made the supernatural natives believe was the only thing that could kill him.

Proceeding the O'Neill play was a comedy in two scenes, Suppressed Desires, by George Crane Cook and Susan Glasswell, cleverly acted by Elizabeth Brown, Kenneth Thompson and Florence Burnham.

BUSINESS MEN RECEIVE PROPOSAL FOR PROPOSED CHARTER

Considerable has been said about the powers of the mayor under the new charter, said Mayor Herbert M. Lerou at the membership meeting of the Norwich Chamber of Commerce in Odd Fellows hall Friday evening.

The mayor is confident that the "power" simply gives him the opportunity to go out and select the proper men for the proper places.

The new charter, the text of which has already been published in both local papers, was the subject of discussion at the membership meeting.

The provisions of the charter were outlined in detail, more or less by Martin E. Jensen, chairman of the sub-committee on the charter commission, which had in charge the actual preparation of the instrument, and during the general discussion which followed Mr. Jensen's talk a number of questions were raised.

It is safe to say that all present at the meeting were very favorably impressed with the new charter.

The meeting opened at 6:15 o'clock with a supper served under the direction of the department of public safety, No. 21, I. O. O. F. The menu was as follows:

- Grapefruit. Escalloped Oysters. Mashed Potatoes. Prunes Pie. Rolls. Coffee.

Present at the meeting and occupying the head table were Mayor H. M. Lerou, Charles D. Noyes, chairman of the charter commission, and the members of the commission.

At the close of the menu Charles F. Wells, president of the chamber, called the gathering to order, and after adjourning to the dining room, he presided during the remainder of the meeting.

make a successful administration. It can't be otherwise.

The question has been raised if there are any charters similar to this in the other cities of the state. Yes. We went over the provisions of other charters and picked out whatever we thought was for the best interests of Norwich.

After explaining the charter commission's decision to leave the matter of the naming of salaried city officers, Mayor Lerou said: I would say that $1,000 a year for a man to manage the city of Norwich, which handles a million and a quarter a year's business, is not a bad thing.

Mayor Lerou said that when he took the mayor's chair two years ago he did so with but one object, to give Norwich a business administration and that when he took up the matter of a new charter he did so with the object of giving Norwich the best.

Mayor Lerou expressed confidence that the charter will be adopted at the election in June.

Majority Vote Will Adopt. It was brought out in the discussion which followed that, contrary to first opinions, a 50 per cent. vote on the charter is not necessary at a regular election.

Both Mayor Lerou and Mr. Jensen said this matter has been thoroughly investigated and expert legal advice shows that a majority vote on election day will adopt or reject the charter.

On motion of Arthur L. Peala a rising vote of yeas and nays was given on the charter, and the members of the charter commission, after which adjournment was taken, a few minutes after 8 o'clock.

SHAKE-UP IN OFFICERS OF JEWETT CITY TRUST CO. (Special to The Bulletin.)

Jewett City, April 21.—Jewett City financial circles received a considerable jolt when, at 10 o'clock this afternoon, it was announced that all the Jewett City officers and directors of the Jewett City Trust Co., had resigned and their resignations had been accepted by the stock control of the bank.

The banking institution had organized some months ago by Ralph H. Mann of the Gunders Mann company of New York City. Interests, reported to be in sympathy with Gunders Mann & Co., now control the bank.

The local men who resigned are: President, L. M. Carpenter; vice president, D. P. Finn, J. C. Worth; secretary and treasurer, H. M. Dunbar; directors, L. M. Carpenter, D. P. Finn, J. C. Worth, H. M. Dunbar, James H. Shea, George H. Jennings, E. A. Faust, W. C. Terry, Alec McNeil.

The reason given by the resigning officials is that they were not in sympathy with the attitude and policy of the New York board. Although a considerable sum of money was drawn from the bank by local depositors Friday there is no truth in the report that a run had taken place.

The Jewett City Trust company is perfectly solvent as the readjustment and change of control will not affect its financial status.

ORIENT AN OCCIDENT. Marie Bashian, soprano, gave her unique and entertaining costume recital of folk songs of the Orient and Occident Friday evening at the Community house on Church street under the auspices of the Home-Tree group of the United Congregational church. BROWN ALUMNI ASSOCIATION HELD 1922 BANQUET HERE. With an attendance of about thirty the 1922 banquet of the Brown Alumni Association of Washington County (R. I.) and New London County (Conn.), was held Friday evening at the Waukegan hotel.

A 7 o'clock the following menu was served:

- Grape Fruit. Celery Soup, an Juice. Roast Beef, au Jus. Mashed Potatoes. String Beans. Ice Cream. Fancy Cakes. Cigars. Cigarettes.

Hon. Allyn L. Brown (1905), president of the alumni, acted as toastmaster. The programme opened with the singing of college songs, all joining in heartily.

The speaker of the evening was William Shupert (1923), Philadelphia, representing the college. Mr. Shupert was:

MRS. ALVAH H. McCREARY, of Philadelphia, who says nothing she could say for Tanlac would be half good enough after the way this remarkable medicine has brought back her health.

"It is just glorious to have my health back, and in my opinion there is nothing I can say about Tanlac would be half good enough after the way this remarkable medicine has brought back her health."

"For two years I had all the miserable and agonizing symptoms that go with a bad case of stomach trouble. Although I lived on the strictest kind of diet, I suffered torture from indigestion and finally my whole system seemed to give way."

"I certainly know how to appreciate the wonderful blessing of good health and I have such confidence in Tanlac that I wish it was in my power to put a bottle of it in the hands of every sick man, woman and child so that they might take it and get well and strong, as I have done."

Tanlac is sold in Norwich by National Drug Stores Corp. and Tatville Pharmacy, and in Plainfield by F. L. Merdier, Charles R. Carey, Jewett City, Conn.; Dearnley & Clark, Voluntown, Conn.
