

WESTERLY

At the 124th annual convocation of the Grand Chapter of Connecticut, Royal Arch Masons held at Hartford Tuesday one of Westerly's best known businessmen, Arthur N. Nash, was elected grand high priest. The year has been a busy one. Grand High Priest Arthur N. Nash was raised in Pawcatuck lodge, F. A. M., December 1, 1904. He was senior deacon 1905, senior warden, 1906, worshipful master, 1907, marshal, 1908-1917, in the grand lodge of Connecticut F. A. M., he was district deputy for the 8th district 1916, 1917 and 1918, grand junior steward 1920, grand marshal 1921 and grand senior deacon 1922. He was exalted in Palmer chapter No. 28, U. A. M. of Pawcatuck Jan. 23, 1905. He was principal adjourner 1905, scribe 1906, king, 1907; high priest, 1908; in the grand chapter he was grand junior steward, 1914; grand master, 2nd veil, 1915; Royal Arch captain, 1916; captain of host, 1917-1918, grand scribe, 1919; grand scribe, 1920; deputy high priest, 1921. He is a grand representative for the grand chapter of Delaware for the Grand Chapter of Connecticut. He received the order of high priesthood in 1908. He was received and greeted in Mystic Council, R. & S. M., of Mystic in 1917, was knighted in Narragansett Commandery, K. T., of Westerly, May 17, 1905. In the commandery he was third guard 1910, junior warden, 1911; senior warden, 1912; captain-general, 1913; generalissimo, 1914; eminent commander, 1915. He is a member also of the Massachusetts and Rhode Island Past Commandery Association. He was initiated in King Solomon Lodge of Perfection, Varrenseleur Council, Princes of Jerusalem and Norwich Chapter of Rose Croix, all in Norwich, in 1907 and in Connecticut Consistory, S. P. R. S., Norwich, April 4, 1907. He was president of the Past Masters' organization of the 8th Masonic district in 1915 was one of the organizers of the Westerly Masonic club in 1920 and is president of the club which is affiliated with the National League of Masonic clubs. He was initiated in Palestine Temple, A. O. N. M. S., of Providence in 1906 and is assistant director 1921-1922.

Mr. Nash was born in Bradford, R. I., Oct. 27, 1872 and was educated in the schools of Pawcatuck and has been a business man for many years in Westerly. He was major in the World War in the Coast Artillery Corps and at different times in command at Fort Adams, Greble and Gatty at Newport. He organized and commanded the 8th ammunition train, army artillery, coast artillery corps. In the Spanish-American war he served as first sergeant of Co. K, First Regiment, R. I. U. S. Volunteer Infantry and as sergeant-major, Third Battalion. He was on the retired list of officers of the Rhode Island national guard in 1920 with rank of lieutenant-colonel.

Mr. Nash is a member of Robert Bruckner Camp, United Spanish War Veterans of Westerly and was quartermaster of the camp 20 years. He has served as aide on the staff of the Rhode Island department commander and the staff of the national commander-in-chief. He is a member of Harold Merrill Post, A. L. of Westerly and of Connecticut Commandery, Military Order of Foreign Wars.

Another Westerly man was honored at the annual state convention of the Knights of Columbus in Providence this week, when James McCormick, grand knight of Narragansett Council, No. 21, of Westerly, was elected a national delegate to the supreme council of the order which will convene at Atlantic City during August. Mr. McCormick was the second delegate honored out of the total of seven. This honor was conferred upon a Westerly man for the first time as a national officer, although Narragansett council is the first of oldest council in the state. Past District Deputy M. H. Scanlon was appointed chairman of the committee of mileage and per diem by State Deputy Joseph P. Reardon. Two better and broad minded men could not have been chosen than Mr. McCormick and Dr. Scanlon.

Charles Moore has a calque ship, square rigged, four-masted, made in a long necked bottle, the type of a wine bottle. The ship is hand-painted and is of natural wood inside with 4 small cabins with windows, etc. It is 12 inches long and 5 inches high and was brought by Mr. Moore from the Azores Islands, when he was there in the navy and was made by a French sailor. The model is perfect and attracts much attention.

Thursday at 2:30 p. m., the funeral of Mrs. Samuel G. Babcock was held at St.

Paul's cathedral, Boston. Burial was private.

R. T. Falconer, first secretary of the United States civil service division of Boston, was a caller at the esterly post-office Tuesday and Wednesday.

Charles Borden of Worcester and Arthur Congdon of Boston were here calling on friends Thursday.

Mrs. Carrie Saunders of Ashaway, who was found lying by the roadside on Tuesday on the highway between Stonington and Mystic, is reported as resting comfortably at the New London hospital and no signs of her having taken poisonous medicine have been found. Mrs. Saunders formerly conducted a restaurant on Water street, Stonington, during the existence of the shipyard here.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Margaret Fagan, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Fagan of Grove avenue, was united in marriage with Arthur Holmes Coy, both of Westerly. Rev. Edmund Cleveland, rector of Christ Episcopal church, performed the ceremony in the presence of parents and intimate friends. Owing to the recent illness of the bride's mother the wedding was quiet. Mr. and Mrs. Coy left on the evening train for a short wedding trip. The bride received many handsome and valuable gifts. Upon their return they will reside in Westerly.

May 16th Bulkley High school will play Westerly High school baseball team at Westerly.

In the case of Calvin Davis vs. Wilber Clark, which has had the attention of the superior court this week before Judge George T. Brown and a jury, a verdict was given for the plaintiff of $238 with costs. The case of Francis E. Landry vs. Frank E. Richmond were continued to the September session of the court. The case of Benjamin H. West vs. Samuel Fain brought to recovery for wages alleged to be due, the jury awarded West $87 plus interest.

The Italian Young Men's Club has organized a brass band under the name of the club. Nicolo Durio is leader and rehearsals are being held weekly; 12 members are to be able to enter. The committee in charge of organizing the band is Antonio Trovato, George Montalio, John Salimeno and Vincent Tusson.

LIBERTY HILL

The Brotherhood of Liberty Hill church had a bee Thursday for repair work at the parsonage. The women of the church provided dinner. A new garage and woodhouse has been built, and there was some clabboarding and stone-work to finish, where the old one was taken off. A new sink and pump have been put in and all the papering and painting is done inside, except where a new door and window and kitchen cabinet are to be put in. It is expected to have it all completed this week.

A social was held Thursday evening in the church rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Kenyon moved to their new home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davoll are occupying their new home which Mr. and Mrs. Caples vacated.

Otto Nettleton of Lebanon Center is helping Mr. Caples finish the interior of his new house.

Mrs. Mary Brown of Lebanon Center is with Mrs. E. A. Noyes for the present.

Robert James has built a new poultry house and has 100 White Leghorn chicks.

A buyer was through here Monday buying rags at one half cent per pound. In 1921 to 1920 old account books show that white rags were 5c lb. and colored 3c, turkey feathers 3c lb. and hens' feathers 7c lb.

ROCKVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Burdick of Ashaway called on Miss Charlotte Woodmanse recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Kenyon were recent callers in Westerly.

Some from here attended the funeral of Silas R. Richmond at Hope Valley Monday. He was a highly respected citizen and had been cashier of the bank at Hope Valley for many years.

Florence Barber called on friends at Woody Hill Sunday.

Claude Hopkins has been using his tractor doing some farm work for Charles Boss at Ferndale.

Doris, Ruby and Edna Burdick of Westerly were guests last week of their aunt, Mrs. Elmer E. Kenyon.
