

Borden's
UNSWEETENED
EVAPORATED MILK

Better milk - Better cooking

With the cream left in!

VARIOUS MATTERS

Grangers are holding laurel festivals. Dealers in wall paper are having a busy season.

Already cases of sun poisoning are being reported.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock the mercury stood at 70 degrees.

Light vehicle lamps at 7.52 o'clock (standard time) this evening.

Best in the market, Sea Food at Powers Bros, 77 Franklin St.—adv.

Tomorrow (Thursday) is the feast of Corpus Christi in the Catholic church.

There should be a general display of the Stars and Stripes today, Flag Day.

Schools in some of the suburban places will end the term and year this week.

Red rambler and Dorothy Perkins roses and honeysuckle are in bloom about town.

The fan is being restored to popular favor, local buyers have discovered in New York this week.

Enriching bargains in novelties in porch furniture are being featured, now that plaza parties are popular.

Next Sunday morning, the Blue lodges of Norwich will attend service in a body at Trinity Methodist church.

Certain departments of the United States Flaxing Company, Norwich plant, continue working evenings.

The preacher for next Sunday morning at the Central Baptist church will be Rev. Morris E. Alling of Hartford.

Trinity M. E. church, Ladies' Aid society, will have a cold meat supper, tonight at 8. 49c—adv.

Norwich stores which provide for the wants of children are displaying some very dainty hats and garments this week.

Local residents who were sweating at the week end were starting electric, gas or oil heaters Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Miss Hattie Carter adm. Mrs. C. D. Gallen are to be hostesses at the D. A. R. Museum today (Wednesday) from 3 to 6.

Miss Elsie Bachet will act as clerk of the probate court in New London during the absence abroad of Miss Harriet C. Smith.

Miss Emily T. Hall and Miss Harriet C. Hall of Providence, R. I. have opened their country house, Three Acres, at Brooklyn, Conn.

White Cross council, Knights of Columbus, requested a memorial mass Saturday at St. Patrick's church, 105 W. 4th St., at 8 o'clock.

An anniversary requiem high mass for Mrs. Mary Illinger was sung in St. Patrick's church Tuesday at 8 o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. M. M. May.

Although the gates damaged many trees, the 3,500 peach and apple trees in the orchards of Frank W. Browning, at Kitegaard, appear to have escaped injury.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Harris of Providence, R. I. have arrived in Thompson where they are occupying a house which they have taken for the season.

A mystic correspondent writes: Orville Smith is at his home on High street, for a few days. He has been a patient at the Norwich sanatorium for many weeks.

The pastor of the First Baptist church, New London, Rev. C. E. Howe, created a mild sensation Sunday evening, by preaching on June Brides and January Divorces.

During this week District Superintendent Rev. William H. Bath, of Norwich, is holding quarterly conferences in the Methodist churches of Hazardville, Rockville and Warehouse Point.

Remarkable pageant, "The Circle of the Princess Pocahontas," staged by Camp Fire Girls on Academy campus, Saturday, 4 p. m., 150 Norwich girls appearing—adv.

The wedding of Miss May G. Bray, daughter of John Bray of Fort Raleigh place, Mystic, and Daniel Devine will take place at St. Patrick's church, Mystic, Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

Rev. A. E. Bondarchuk, pastor of St. Nicholas Russian Orthodox church, is conducting Saturday morning classes in Russian for the children of the parish, in the church hall on Central avenue.

With a gift of money from William Maxwell of Rockville, Miss Edith Peck, librarian of the Rockville Public library, has bought a carefully selected set of new books from Yale university.

At the annual meeting of the Hartford Public Library association Monday afternoon circulatory and financial reports were discussed. Ex-Chief Justice Samuel C. Prentiss presided, a native of Stonington, president.

Mrs. John Monroe of Latham street, Groton, at a party Saturday evening, announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth M., to Lester Fowler, of Mr. and Mrs. James Fowler, of Ocean avenue, New London.

Four of the maple trees planted on the parklet in Falls avenue, near the Central Vermont station have grown big enough to cast a little shade. This parklet now serves as a diamond for juvenile baseball clubs of that section.

A Washington society item of interest to South Country people reads: Mrs. Dimock will close her home on Scott Circle this latter part of the week and will go to her summer home at Bar Harbor, after making visits in the north.

Mrs. Pratt, widow of the famous sculptor, Bela Lyon Pratt of Boston, is going to Salem to spend two weeks at Hurbit house. Mrs. Pratt's two daughters, Elizabeth and Helen, the latter a freshman at Smith college, will accompany her.

Although there has been nothing more serious than a chimney fire since the Thamesville engine-house was reopened, the fact that a modern motor fire-fighter is available day and night there is a reassuring thought to all residents of that section.

Director Edward Robinson, who selected and arranged the casts for Slater Museum, Norwich, announced Tuesday that the $1,200,000 just voted by the city of New York for a new south wing of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, thirty new galleries will be built.

Some young people from Connecticut Agricultural college, Storrs, are home for the summer. Oliver J. Lyman, Ralph Chaffee and Miss Gladys Goldthorpe were members of the graduating class. The others who are home are Carroll P. Moore and Benjamin Pinney, Jr.

Twenty-two members of the U. S. Church Socialists closed the season with a picnic at the home of the president, Mrs. Joseph A. French Orchard street, Monday evening. Following a frankfurter roast, salads, cake, etc. on the lawn, a radio concert was enjoyed in the house.

The town of Montville has completed a fine road from the Massapeag road around through Kitegaard and along Houghton's Cove back to the witch hazel mill. Postmaster John P. Murphy, of Norwich, has continued the service on R. F. D. 7, to accommodate the 15 families, who up to now have had to go to Uncasville post office for mail.

Though a man may be entitled to credit for his ability to avoid work he is seldom able to obtain it at the corner grocery.

PERSONALS

Rev. William H. Kennedy of South Coventry, was a visitor in Norwich Tuesday.

Robert Young of Norwich has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. George A. Pease, of Somers.

Mrs. Helen R. Dewhurst, of Stonington, widow of Rev. Eli Dewhurst, has been visiting friends in Voluntown, her former home.

Mrs. Arthur Bates has returned to her home in Preston after a visit at the home of her brother, Fred Darby, of Central Village.

Rev. T. Lawrence Riggs of New London, who was ordained to the priesthood Saturday by Bishop Nilan, will go to Europe this summer for special study.

Rev. James J. Tyler, of Willimantic, is to have charge of St. John's parish, Plainfield, where he will be pastor. Rev. Father Morrissey is on a vacation abroad.

Miss Edna J. Maples, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Maples, of Norwich is at Chambersburg, Penn., attending school reunion of her class at Penn. Hall.

FOUR NORWICH GIRLS WINNERS OF HONORS AT CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Commencement exercises were held at Connecticut College at New London Tuesday morning with degrees conferred upon 40 members of the class of 1922. Two Norwich young women, Miss Helen Wymann Peale and Miss Gertrude Stark Avery, were in the graduating class. The announcement of commencement honors and prizes revealed that Miss Avery had maintained the greatest proficiency in all studies covering the four-year course, for which she received the Goldsmith prize of $25. Miss Peale was awarded the scholarship to the Boston school of fine arts and crafts.

Miss Helena R. Wolf of Putnam, formerly of Norwich, a member of the class of 1923, received annual honors, and Miss Helen E. Wiggins of Norwich, a member of the class of 1923, received the Peterson $25 prize for excellence in Greek.

The exercises opened with an academic procession of faculty, speakers, alumni, college choir and commencement guests from the science building to the gymnasium. President Marshall and Gov. Everett Lake headed the line of march followed by the faculty, attired in their academic robes. The march of the speakers at the luncheon was as follows: President and Mrs. Benjamin T. Marshall, Mrs. Ernest E. Rogers, Mrs. George M. Morgan, Rev. and Mrs. T. Roney Danforth, Miss Mary Marshall, Edward F. Loomis, Mayor Lucius E. Whitton, Miss Winifred Whitton, ex-mayor and Mrs. E. Frank Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Palmer, Mrs. E. V. Mitchell of Hartford, Mrs. S. H. Williams of Glastonbury, Miss Elizabeth Wright, Miss Mary Wright, Dean Irene Nye, Prof. L. A. Coler, Prof. and Mrs. J. K. Kim, Miss Mary Holmes, Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Wells, Prof. and Mrs. D. Lell, Miss Caroline E. Black, Miss Pauline W. Deederer, Mr. and Mrs. William Baur, Dr. Esther Cary, Mrs. Mary Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bill Seiden, Mr. and Mrs. F. Weld, Miss C. L. Ernst, Miss Mary McKee, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Barlow, Rev. Edward J. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wales Lines and members of the graduating class and the classes of 1919, 1920 and 1921.

ART ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR

The Norwich Art Association held its annual meeting in Slater hall on Monday evening. The annual reports of secretary and treasurer and the five standing committees were presented. Twenty-nine new members have been received during the year, making the present enrollment, both active and associate 174. Refreshments and a social hour followed the election of officers for the ensuing year which are as follows: President, Mrs. Channing M. Huntington; vice president, Mrs. Robert W. Perkins; secretary, Mrs. William T. Browne; assistant secretary, Miss Amanda Fisher; second assistant secretary, Mrs. William H. Bath; treasurer, Miss Alice Gardwell; committee on programs, Mrs. Harriet Trumbull; house, Mrs. Henry T. Arnold; press, Mrs. Helen Perkins; donor, Mrs. Frederick T. Hayes; admission, Miss Nancy E. Lucas; auditor, Frank Hempstead.

GOOD HEALTH
depends to a greater extent than most of us believe on good teeth. If your teeth hurt it is quite probable that they need immediate attention from us.

OUR DENTAL WORK
puts your teeth in good condition, then if you will visit us at regular intervals, we will keep them that way.

Paul A. Schwartz
D. M. D.
DENTIST
SOMERS BLOCK, ON THE SQUARE
TELEPHONE 122

NOTICE

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Killingly Trust Company will be held at their office in the Borough of Danbury on Tuesday, June 13th at 10 o'clock a. m.

To elect a board of directors to serve for the coming year.

To transact any other business that may come before the meeting.

NATHAN D. PRINCE, Secretary.

THOMPSON

The Sunday School Children's Day concert is to be given on Sunday, June 18th, at 11 a. m. The public schools close this week.

Ray Allen is leaving T. H. S. to become principal and supervisor at Williamston, N. Y.

Native berries supplied by local growers have been on the market the past week.

The wedding of Miss Muriel Nichols Pease and Edward Leon Page, of Melrose, Mass., will take place in the church here Saturday, June 24, at 8 p. m.

The Trimble club has elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Winthrop Ballard; first vice president, Mrs. S. T. Livingston; second vice president, Mrs. Carol Ingham; secretary, Mrs. Warren Leese; treasurer, Mrs. Oscar Munyan. They plan to spend a day this week with Mrs. Harvey of Windham, formerly a member, in place of their annual picnic, after which meetings are suspended until October.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Elliott are occupying their new home.

David Peterson has moved to West Thompson.

At the missionary meeting last week Mr. Arthur Mills gave a delightful account of the life of his sister, Miss Beulah Gannon, as publicity worker with the Y. W. C. A. in Shanghai, China.

The Saturday afternoon ball game at Chandler's field brings out a good crowd weekly. The visiting team last week was from Montpelier.

Ceylon produces the world's finest cinnamon.

FUNERALS

Mary Beatrice Mott
Tuesday afternoon the funeral of Mary Beatrice Mott, 23 days old daughter of Frank and Ida Knapp Mott, was held from the home of her parents, on Grove Street. Rev. Gordon P. Bailey, pastor of the First Congregational church, conducted the ceremony and burial was in Maplewood cemetery. A floral service was conducted at the ceremony and a short service was conducted in Maplewood cemetery. A short service was conducted at the grave by Rev. Mr. Bailey.

Thomas Gramf Tomolinski
With relatives and friends present the funeral of Thomas Gramf Tomolinski held from the parlors of Undertaker C. A. Gager, No. 70 Franklin street, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The funeral was held at St. Joseph's church, officiated and burial was in Maplewood cemetery. Rev. Mr. Graham reading the committal. There were numerous beautiful floral tributes.

Mrs. Walter Wozniak
The funeral of Sophie Petrofski, wife of Walter Wozniak was held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from her home, No. 444 W. 4th street, with large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. J. V. Maciejewski conducted a service at the house and also conducted the funeral at St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock. Friends acted as bearers and burial took place in St. Joseph's cemetery. A committal service was conducted by Rev. Father Maciejewski. There were a number of beautiful flowers. Undertakers Shea and Burke had charge of the funeral.

Miss Laura Schleich
Funeral services for Miss Laura Schleich, who died in Brooklyn, N. Y. on Sunday, were held at the Catholic church on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The service was at the home of the parents of Miss Schleich preceding the church service at which Rev. Mr. Rouff officiated. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. The Goral tributes surrounded the casket were many and beautiful. During the service the choir of the church rendered several hymns. The bearers were Otto Deigenmuller, Otto Phillips, Walter Phillips, Otto Fromel, Fred Johnson and George Macht. Burial took place in the cemetery where Rev. Mr. Rouff conducted a committal service. George G. Grant was the funeral director.

MEMORIALS

Miss Gertrude S. Avery
WINS PRIZE FOR HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA

graduating class was Miss Helen Henning, '23, of New Haven; of the faculty, Miss Pauline Deederer, of the alumnae, Miss Mildred White, of Hartford; of the president of the college, Rev. Benjamin T. Marshall.

Members of this year's commencement committee were:
Chairman of Week—Miss Ruth Bacon. Chairman of Session and Graduation—Miss Jeanette Sperry and Miss Helen Stickle. Chairman of Class Day—Miss Winifred Powell, Miss Elizabeth Hall, Miss Marie Antoinette Taylor, Miss Marjorie Baxter and Miss Helen Peale. Chairman of Supper—Miss Anna Slade. Helen Bynon and Miss Eleanor Thibault. Chairman of Senior Ball—Miss M. A. Taylor, Miss Amy Peck, Miss Gertrude Travis and Miss Ruth Bacon. Chairman of Speeches—Miss Winifred Powell, Miss Elizabeth Hall, Miss Marie Antoinette Taylor, Miss Marjorie Baxter and Miss Helen Peale. Class Dance—Miss Winifred Powell and Evelyn Gray. Key Papers—Miss Alice Hagar and Miss Mary A. Duncan.

For $2,000,000 Endowment.
President Marshall at the meeting of the alumnae association in the afternoon stated that the trustees had voted to go ahead with the drive for a $2,000,000 endowment of the $2,000,000 for the college. A preliminary survey will begin at once.

RECEIPTS OF DEGREES

At the conclusion of the address Dean Irene Nye, Ph. D., presented the following young women for the degree of Bachelor of Arts: Gertrude Stark Avery, Ruth Slater Bacon, Margaret Elena Baxter, Harriet Adelaide Bynon, Helen Elizabeth Crofoot, Mary Hannah Damers, Mildred Bishop Duncan, Blanche Fineliver, Grace Fisher, Anne Ferguson Graham, Evelyn Gray, Alice Hunczar, Elizabeth Hotchkiss Hall, Ruth Rose Levine, Catherine Marie McCarthy, Lucy Churchhill McDermott, Elizabeth Johnston Merrill, Helen Nichols Merrill, Marjorie Mills Mary Augusta O'Sullivan, Winifred Estabrook Powell, Marjorie Elizabeth Smith Mellicent Claudine Smith, Jeanette Chatfield Sperry, Miriam Pierce Taylor, Elizabeth Taylor, Helen Gertrude Traurig, Marjorie Wells.

The degree of Bachelor of Science was conferred upon the following: Abby Paul Carley, Constance Annetta Hill, Mollie Kernal, Helen Wymann Peale, Minnie Orena Miller, Amy Langdon Peck, Ann Slade, Helen Elizabeth Stickle, Marie Antoinette Taylor, Mary Fribbie Thomson, Heloise Tryon, Dorothy Stanton Wheeler.

COMMENCEMENT HONORS

Commencement honors and prizes were announced as follows:
Department of history and political science—Miss Gertrude Stark Avery, '22.
Annual honors—Class of 1922, M. Claudine Smith of New London; class of 1923, Helena R. Wolf of Putnam; Marie L. M. Berg of Brunsell; class of 1924, Eileen M. Gaudette of Norwich; class of 1925, M. A. V. Vibert of Kensington, Conn.
The Jane Bill prize of $25 for excellence in fine arts awarded to Minnie O. Miller, '22, of Southwick, Mass.
The Peterson prize of $25 for excellence in botany awarded to Elizabeth McDougall, '24, of Upper Montclair, N. J.
The Goldsmith prize of $25 for proficiency in all studies covering the four-year course, awarded to Gertrude S. Avery, '22, of Norwich.
The Goldsmith prize of $25 for the greatest improvement in studies awarded to M. Claudine Smith, '22, of New London.
The Goldsmith prize of $25 for accomplishing the most for the advancement and benefit of Connecticut college awarded to Mildred B. Duncan, '22, of Pittsford.
The Bishop prize of $25 for proficiency in English awarded to Catherine M. McCarthy, '22, of Southwick, Mass.
The Mahan prize of $25 for proficiency in music awarded to Ann Slade, '22, of Theford, Vt.
The Peterson prize of $25 for excellence in Greek awarded to Helen E. Wiggins, '23, of Norwich.

DEATH OF JOHN V. CLABBY

SADDENS MANY FRIENDS

John F. Clabby, who died suddenly Monday morning at his home, 15 Dunham street, Norwich, was a member of St. Mary's Total Abstinence and Benevolent society, of White Cross Council, Knights of Columbus, and of the Holy Name Society of St. Patrick's parish. Delegations from these organizations visited his home Tuesday evening, offering prayers for the repose of his soul and expressing sympathy for the members of the family in their bereavement.

Mr. Clabby's brother, John Bridgford, arrived during the afternoon, a throughout the day and evening, neighbors, relatives and friends called in person to send messages of condolence. For over seventeen years Mr. and Mrs. Clabby have occupied their attractive cottage on Dunham street and Mr. Clabby was universally known as the very best type of neighbor, friend and citizen.

Among those most sincere Tuesday in expressing sorrow at his unexpected death were his employers and associate workers at the Norwich Manufacturing company plant, where he was yard foreman. A man of the finest character and most correct habits, all spoke in admiration of his good influence and his worthy life.

LEBANON DAUGHTERS HOLD THEIR ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of Gov. Jonathan Trumbull chapter, D. A. T., was held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Call and Miss Annie Gillette as hostesses at their home in Goshen, Lebanon.

Annual reports were read by the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Anne Gillette and treasurer, Mrs. William Clark. The following officers were elected:
Mrs. E. H. McCall, regent; Mrs. O. L. Pultz, vice regent; Miss Annie Gillette, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William Clark, treasurer; Mrs. D. W. Pitcher, registrar; Mrs. I. H. Arnold, historian; Mrs. E. W. Hewitt and Mrs. Bessie Case with the board of managers.

During the social hour following the business meeting of the chapter, patriotic songs were sung by two of the children of the Goshen High school, Sophie and Stoshen Gorzki.

Mrs. Karl Blash read a paper on the Indians Round About Lebanon. When the Settlers Came, also Sketches of the lives of Elmer Wheelock, founder of the Moor Charity School, the Rev. Zevelon Ely, Eliza Thacker, educator and William and Chester Fuller.

The programme ended with singing of America. Luncheon was prettily served on the beautiful old family china and homespun linen of the Gillette family.

CANTERBURY PLAINS

A very successful field day was held at Canterbury Plains, Friday. Seven schools out of the nine were represented. Grace Dawley of the Frost school had charge of the programme. Merris Hayes and Hiram Hayes of the Green assisted in starting the children in their games. Mrs. Mabel Kline, Ida Sager, and Mrs. Frank Nelson took charge of the refreshments and were assisted by the teachers. About one hundred children and adults were present. Every one enjoyed the event and commented favorably on the work done by the children and teachers. A prize was offered to the four schools which scored the highest number of points. The first prize went to the Frost school; second prize to Westminister; third to Gayhead, and fourth to the Green school. Edmund St. John, Frederick A. Hicks and Truman Hart were the judges. Mr. St. John made a brief address at the close of the programme. Miss Sarah Palmer was present for a short time, but had to leave before the close to go to Lisbon.

Miss Grace L. Dawley spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Perkins, at Jewett City.

Mr. Ellis of Putnam Trade School was at the Frost school Thursday and gave a short talk to the children.

Mrs. Fred Hyde and daughter of Willimantic were in town Thursday and visited at Mrs. Martin Bushnell's.

Richard Flynn, of New York, is spending two weeks with Mrs. Sabina Canterbury grange went to Plainfield last Tuesday night and furnished the programme. A prize was awarded to Dwight Bushnell recently purchased an automobile.

MOHEGAN

A Children's day concert was held at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon. There was special music, recitations and singing by the children. The platform was decorated with ferns, daisies, roses and peonies.

Donald Meech and daughter Marjorie of New London called on friends here Sunday.

Broadway Star Engaged To Jack Pickford

Dainty little Marilyn Miller, the star of "Sally," whose name has been linked so frequently with that of Jack Pickford, brother of "Our Mary," has at last announced her engagement to the above named gentleman. It will be remembered that Miss Miller's first husband, Frank Currier, died two years ago while Olive Thomas, Pickford's wife, died in Paris last year, of bichloride of mercury poisoning.

Founder Of The Woman's Party

Miss Alice Paul founder of the Woman's Party which recently dedicated their new national headquarters in Washington. Miss Paul was formerly chairman of the party and is now Vice-President.

Girls, Beware of Wrinkles That Form Around Eyes or Mouth

When They Appear, As They Surely Will, Try This Successful Treatment.

The most dependable and effective method I know of to massage them by an old-time buttermilk cream recipe made by Howard Bros., of Buffalo, N. Y., rubbing gently across the line of the wrinkles to bring new fresh blood to the surface. If you will do this for about five minutes each night before retiring no other treatment is necessary.

Howard's Buttermilk Cream is obtainable at any up-to-date drug or toilet goods counter and no matter whether you are troubled with wrinkles, hair little lines around eyes and mouth, coarse, sallower, faded looking skin or simply roughness and redness caused by wind or sun, you will find these troubles quickly disappear with the use of this old-fashioned recipe brought up-to-date. Remember the name, Howard's Buttermilk Cream. If you cannot obtain locally send 19 cents (silver or stamps) for generous trial package of both Cream and Soap. Howard Bros. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

WEDDING

Chamberland-Gaudette.
Monday morning at 10 a. m. Francis Albert Chamberland, son of Albert Chamberland of Sterling, and Miss Eva Josephine Gaudette, daughter of Mrs. Arling Gaudette of Voluntown, were united in marriage in St. Thomas church, Voluntown.

Solemn nuptial high mass was sung by Rev. L. Paradis, with Rev. R. L. Morrisey deacon and Rev. J. J. McCabe sub-deacon. The double ring ceremony was used. The mass in E flat was rendered by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Goodreau of Willimantic, accompanied by Misses Josephine and O. Salutaris by Mrs. Wilfred Marshall.

The bridal couple was attended by Miss Alpha Gaudette, R. N., of Worcester and Joseph Chamberland of Moosup, Miss Louise Chamberland of Sterling, and Miss Genevieve Gaudette of Sterling.

During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Chamberland left for a wedding trip to New York and up the Hudson. The bride's traveling suit was of navy blue with a canary color hat.

Mrs. Chamberland for the past five years has been manager of Deane's and Clark's store, Voluntown. Both and groom are well known and popular with their friends who extend their best wishes in their married life.

On their return they will reside in a newly furnished home in Sterling.

Markoff-Saltpeper

Harry E. Markoff of 19 Ann street and Miss Rose A. Saltpeper, proprietor of the Worth Specialty Shop of this city, were married Sunday at the home of the bride's mother in the Bronx, New York. Mr. Markoff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Markoff, who has lived in this city for a number of years, where he is employed as a salesman and is popular among a wide circle of friends.

Use Envelopes Illegally

Postmaster John P. Murphy has called the attention of users of window envelopes to a notice appearing in The Post Bulletin, which says: "It has come to attention that many users of window envelopes are not familiar with the conditions governing the use of such envelopes, particularly with respect to inclosing and folding the inclosures in such manner that they will not shift around in the envelope, but in an case with ink of a dense black or other strong contrasting color."

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Rev. J. Eldred Brown and family will spend July at Pleasant View.

Mrs. George R. Hyde, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Tyler O'Leary.

Mrs. Frank A. Robinson of Sachem street is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elijah B. Lewis, of New Haven.

A meeting of the Norwich Round Table was held Saturday at the home of Miss Caroline B. Freeman of Gates Ferry.

H. Reynolds Palmer will return home this week, commencement exercises at Pomfret school taking place Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. White have announced this week the engagement of their daughter, Mrs. William Cheney Brown, Jr., of 25 Carroll avenue to Henry B. Thompson, Jr., of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thompson of Wilmington, Del., aware. Mr. Thompson was graduated from Princeton in 1920.

Mrs. Alfred A. Adam in Providence.

A Detroit news item mentions that Mrs. Floy E. Adam has returned to her home in Providence, R. I., after spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. C. McLaughlin. Mrs. Adam is the widow of Alfred A. Adam, for years proprietor of Adams' Tavern at Norwich Town.

Flags to Fly Today

Patriotic citizens of Norwich will today display the American flag in observance of Flag Day, denoting the one hundred and forty-sixth anniversary of the adoption of the flag as the country's emblem. The observance will be carried out in conformance with a proclamation issued by Gov. Everett J. Lake.

Winested—The board of governors of the Litchfield County Automobile club met here recently and made the following appointments: Good roads, John N. Brooks, Torrington; Roger Jones, New Hartford; S. Cunningham, Litchfield; M. D. Rudd, Lakeville, and E. A. Bradley, Thomaston.

TO HEAD THE FRENCH DELEGATION TO THE HAGUE

Paris, June 13 (By the A. P.)—Charles Benoist, French minister at The Hague, will head the delegation which France will send to The Hague. This delegation, however, will only attend the preliminary meeting on June 15, the experts not being expected to arrive until later, about June 25.

The press has announced the following experts: M. Alphonse, of the foreign office, who is director of the office of private property interests, created under the Yverdon and other treaties; Count Massigli, secretary of the ambassador's council; M. Chastel, of the ministry of finance; Francois Poncet, director of the bureau of economic studies; and Professor A. G. De Lapradelle, of the law faculty of the University of Paris, legal expert.

MEETING OF CONGREGATIONAL MEMBERS OF CONNECTICUT

New Haven, June 13.—The Association of Congregational Ministers of Connecticut, in annual session here today, adopted a resolution expressing the belief that "there is nothing in the scientific method or in the scientific theory of evolution which contradicts the progressive revelation of God in the Bible, or that is hostile to the Christian religion."

The resolution also says that "true progress of society demands that the teaching of religion and science should proceed harmoniously in our institutions of higher learning."

When a pretty girl begins to work her dimples a wise man forgets his wisdom.

SAMPLE MILLINERY AT ONE-HALF PRICE.

You will be surprised at the wonderful line of MILLINERY THE PASKIN CO. are showing this season. The Paskin Co. Sell for Less.

TOO LATE FOR CLASIFICATION

FOR SALE—Two one-horse mowing machines and two team wagons. P. A. Norwich, Tattle, Tel. 1704. 1914.