

Baldness Conquered

INDIANS' SECRET FREE

A baldness man, almost completely bald, who had used numerous remedies, including the famous 'Indian' method...

BABY CARRIAGE WHEELS RE-TIRED

QUICKLY - REASONABLE SILVEY'S TIRE SHOP 80 FRANKLIN STREET

AUTO HIT MAN IN WEST THAMES STREET

While going south on West Thames street near Nelson place Monday afternoon about 1 o'clock, the automobile driven by Joseph Springar...

SETTLEMENT REACHED IN PAUTIPAG HILL SUIT

In this city Monday morning the common pleas court continued the trial of the case of Herbert C. Watson vs. Patrick McGrath...

PRESIDENT AND CORPORATION ARE EACH FINED $1,000

In the superior court in this city the case of Calvin Agar and others against the Trustees Board...

BERTHOOLD COMEAU WINS HONOR AT TUFTS COLLEGE

Berthold R. ComEAU of this city, a tutor at Tufts college, has been given honorable mention in the contest for selling government securities...

Metored Here From Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Larkin arrived in Norwich Friday to visit the former's relatives here.

Seeking Rem Running Steeps.

The waters between New London and Boston are being searched for the Wills B. the Newport stow-away...

DIED

LEEMIS-In this city, June 19, 1922, Filomena Clay, widow of Antoine Leemis of 46 Ward street...

Judge Edwin S. Thomas of the federal court has reserved decision on the application for the appointment of a receiver for the Ironsides Board company...

The New Haven road has been operating new-type multiple unit cars on two trains of its lines between New Haven, New York and Bridgeport...

Like a breeze off the ocean

Lipton's iced tea, the essence of cool comfort on a hot summer's day.

LIPTON'S ICED TEA

To Meriden for Dedication Several local people who have received invitations from Rev. John Neale, D. D., will go to Meriden Sunday, June 25, for the dedication of St. Rose's community building...

Old Milestone in Niantic Walk.

An interesting and unique feature of the brick walk recently laid at the Niantic public library is the milestone at Niantic, which is set in the walk next to the library steps...

Contract Awarded For FRAMES ST. SCHOOL HEATERS

Bids for two new Richmond heaters at the Thames street school were opened Monday by the members of the town school committee...

MISS FLORENCE CARPENTER IS ACADEMY ALEXANDRIAN

Miss Florence Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carpenter of Newton street, has the honor of being valedictorian of the class of 1922 Norwich Free Academy...

PERSONALS

William Beind has returned to New Haven to accept a position with a firm in that city.

VARIOUS MATTERS

The moon is now in its last quarter. New moon is due Saturday.

Dahl's almanac predicted "pleasant" weather for Saturday, Sunday and yesterday.

The reunion classes at Yale will hold their parade to Yale field this (Tuesday) afternoon.

John Ball Osborne, American consul general at Genoa, has returned to Yale for the reunion of his class, 1922.

The first of the series of 15-day summer cruises of the U. S. Naval Reserve in Connecticut will start July 15th.

Monday night the planet Mars made its nearest approach to the earth and will not again come so close until 1934.

These are the longest days of the year. There will be 15 hours and 10 minutes of daylight each day from now until June 25th.

Eighteen new Connecticut firms were incorporated last week in the capitalization totaling $484,600 of which the firms begin business with $135,400 paid in.

Swordfish are reported as coming inshore but being so wild that none have been taken. A number of Stonington boats will be in this industry this season.

The U. S. civil service commission announces that applications for associate in clinical psychiatry will be rated as received until further notice.

Regular meeting, Mercier Assembly, No. 12, C. L. of C., tonight at 8 o'clock. -Adv.

The U. S. S. C. 271, Lieut. J. E. Fred A. Williams, commanding, has been ordered to make the run from New Haven to New London for the Yale-Harvard boat race June 29.

Saturday was Alumni day at Wheeler school and a large number of former graduates, students and their friends met to renew old friendships.

Among the graduates at Trinity college, Hartford, this year is Robert D. Adams, Jr. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Byrnes, attended the commencement exercises Monday.

Out of the 107 candidates who took the state examination for admission to the New Haven County bar, 88 passed, according to the official announcement issued by the bar examining committee.

The water chute installed for the past few summer seasons at Riverside park will be moved ashore this summer and instead of the children who use the slide landing in the water, they will land on dry ground.

John C. Ernst of New London, hailed into Groton town court Monday morning on charge of reckless driving, was fined $50 and costs by Judge Cornelius C. Costello. The charge was continued from last Monday.

The third annual women's Connecticut tennis tournament was held at the hotel in Stratford, doubles and mixed doubles will start on the clay courts of the Country club of New Canaan on Monday, June 26.

When you want a "taxi" so nice and clean, seven-passenger Cadillac, limousine, or sedan, call the taxi company. Six-seven-five will get him on the phone. Seventeen Linden Parkway is his home. -Adv.

Electrification of the "New Haven" will be resumed, it is expected, as soon as the financial condition improves and the board of directors has approved the construction of a power station for the Shore Line division.

The drum corps of the Waterbury lodge of Moose won first prize in the competitive drill for fire and drum corps of Connecticut, held under the auspices of the Meriden lodge of Columbus in the Silver City, Saturday.

Winifred C. Hine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hine of Fishers Island, N. Y., has just received her A. B. degree from Smith college. Miss Hine is a member of the Smith college choir, orchestra and orchestra.

It is understood that trolley service between the Atlantic beach casino and Weepaug on the Weepaug-Westerly division will be abandoned entirely this season. Last year the cars made trips to Weepaug every two hours.

The auxiliary yacht Norseman, with the owner, G. W. Williams of Farmington, was in Norwich Monday for Gloucester, Mass., on the first lap of a cruise to Labrador. The yacht is commanded by Capt. Charles Jensen.

Feeling in a talkative mood the market reporter for the state board of agriculture points out that the addition of new products to the list of those in evidence on the farmers' market has a price lowering effect in the entire market.

Homer K. Underwood, headmaster of Bulkeley school, and Mrs. Isabel B. Fitch were married Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Fitch at 154 Hempstead street, New London, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Philip M. Kerridge.

Next Saturday what is hoped will be an annual event will occur at Connecticut college, when the campus will be church schools of New London and vicinity as a field day of sports and athletic contests.

The letter carriers on the several routes in Mystic have been changed around by Postmaster George H. Foley in order that each carrier may be thoroughly acquainted with each route and be able to take up the duties on any at a moment's notice.

Judge Edwin S. Thomas of the federal court has reserved decision on the application for the appointment of a receiver for the Ironsides Board company...

The New Haven road has been operating new-type multiple unit cars on two trains of its lines between New Haven, New York and Bridgeport...

Miss Catherine Marie McCarthy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah McCarthy, of Middletown, who was graduated last Tuesday from Connecticut college, has been engaged as a teacher of English, and assistant instructor in athletics at the Meriden High school.

To Meriden for Dedication Several local people who have received invitations from Rev. John Neale, D. D., will go to Meriden Sunday, June 25, for the dedication of St. Rose's community building...

It is often more satisfactory not to know things and have people tell you than to know them and not have anybody believe it.

PERSONALS

William Beind has returned to New Haven to accept a position with a firm in that city.

VARIOUS MATTERS

The moon is now in its last quarter. New moon is due Saturday.

Dahl's almanac predicted "pleasant" weather for Saturday, Sunday and yesterday.

The reunion classes at Yale will hold their parade to Yale field this (Tuesday) afternoon.

John Ball Osborne, American consul general at Genoa, has returned to Yale for the reunion of his class, 1922.

The first of the series of 15-day summer cruises of the U. S. Naval Reserve in Connecticut will start July 15th.

Monday night the planet Mars made its nearest approach to the earth and will not again come so close until 1934.

These are the longest days of the year. There will be 15 hours and 10 minutes of daylight each day from now until June 25th.

Eighteen new Connecticut firms were incorporated last week in the capitalization totaling $484,600 of which the firms begin business with $135,400 paid in.

Swordfish are reported as coming inshore but being so wild that none have been taken. A number of Stonington boats will be in this industry this season.

The U. S. civil service commission announces that applications for associate in clinical psychiatry will be rated as received until further notice.

Regular meeting, Mercier Assembly, No. 12, C. L. of C., tonight at 8 o'clock. -Adv.

The U. S. S. C. 271, Lieut. J. E. Fred A. Williams, commanding, has been ordered to make the run from New Haven to New London for the Yale-Harvard boat race June 29.

Saturday was Alumni day at Wheeler school and a large number of former graduates, students and their friends met to renew old friendships.

Among the graduates at Trinity college, Hartford, this year is Robert D. Adams, Jr. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Byrnes, attended the commencement exercises Monday.

Out of the 107 candidates who took the state examination for admission to the New Haven County bar, 88 passed, according to the official announcement issued by the bar examining committee.

The water chute installed for the past few summer seasons at Riverside park will be moved ashore this summer and instead of the children who use the slide landing in the water, they will land on dry ground.

John C. Ernst of New London, hailed into Groton town court Monday morning on charge of reckless driving, was fined $50 and costs by Judge Cornelius C. Costello. The charge was continued from last Monday.

The third annual women's Connecticut tennis tournament was held at the hotel in Stratford, doubles and mixed doubles will start on the clay courts of the Country club of New Canaan on Monday, June 26.

When you want a "taxi" so nice and clean, seven-passenger Cadillac, limousine, or sedan, call the taxi company. Six-seven-five will get him on the phone. Seventeen Linden Parkway is his home. -Adv.

Electrification of the "New Haven" will be resumed, it is expected, as soon as the financial condition improves and the board of directors has approved the construction of a power station for the Shore Line division.

The drum corps of the Waterbury lodge of Moose won first prize in the competitive drill for fire and drum corps of Connecticut, held under the auspices of the Meriden lodge of Columbus in the Silver City, Saturday.

Winifred C. Hine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hine of Fishers Island, N. Y., has just received her A. B. degree from Smith college. Miss Hine is a member of the Smith college choir, orchestra and orchestra.

It is understood that trolley service between the Atlantic beach casino and Weepaug on the Weepaug-Westerly division will be abandoned entirely this season. Last year the cars made trips to Weepaug every two hours.

The auxiliary yacht Norseman, with the owner, G. W. Williams of Farmington, was in Norwich Monday for Gloucester, Mass., on the first lap of a cruise to Labrador. The yacht is commanded by Capt. Charles Jensen.

Feeling in a talkative mood the market reporter for the state board of agriculture points out that the addition of new products to the list of those in evidence on the farmers' market has a price lowering effect in the entire market.

Homer K. Underwood, headmaster of Bulkeley school, and Mrs. Isabel B. Fitch were married Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Fitch at 154 Hempstead street, New London, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Philip M. Kerridge.

Next Saturday what is hoped will be an annual event will occur at Connecticut college, when the campus will be church schools of New London and vicinity as a field day of sports and athletic contests.

The letter carriers on the several routes in Mystic have been changed around by Postmaster George H. Foley in order that each carrier may be thoroughly acquainted with each route and be able to take up the duties on any at a moment's notice.

Judge Edwin S. Thomas of the federal court has reserved decision on the application for the appointment of a receiver for the Ironsides Board company...

The New Haven road has been operating new-type multiple unit cars on two trains of its lines between New Haven, New York and Bridgeport...

Miss Catherine Marie McCarthy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah McCarthy, of Middletown, who was graduated last Tuesday from Connecticut college, has been engaged as a teacher of English, and assistant instructor in athletics at the Meriden High school.

To Meriden for Dedication Several local people who have received invitations from Rev. John Neale, D. D., will go to Meriden Sunday, June 25, for the dedication of St. Rose's community building...

It is often more satisfactory not to know things and have people tell you than to know them and not have anybody believe it.

PRINCIPAL TIRRELL TELLS OF ACADEMY

TEACHER CHANGES

The annual meeting of the Norwich Free Academy Alumni Association was held Monday evening at Slater Hall with about 200 of the alumni and graduates of the Academy class of 1922 present.

A reception was held from 7.30 o'clock until 8.30 o'clock during which the Academy orchestra, under the able leadership of Director Frederick H. Cranston, rendered a delightful musical entertainment.

The business meeting of the association was opened at 8.30 o'clock by President Edmund W. Perkins, the report of the 1921 meeting being read by Lee Roy Robbins, R. V. Congdon, treasurer, reported that with all expenses paid the association has in the treasury the sum of $357.22.

Preparing Memorial Tablet. President Perkins, who is also a member of the association memorial committee, reported progress during the year. The memorial tablet to those who fought during the World war is to measure 4 by 3 feet and will be placed in the Academy upon completion.

There are many faculty changes this year in which the school loses some of its long service teachers. Miss Helen Marshall, librarian, and Miss Dorothy C. Greason, who has served as a trustee, for 20 years, has served as a trustee, was treasurer of the board for nine years and president for eight years.

Miss Catherine Crocker, for nine years a member of the faculty as French instructor, leaves this summer and will remain in France for a year. Another loss to the faculty is in Miss Edna Currier, teacher for three years. New teachers secured for places left vacant are Miss Smith, Miss Edith Crosby and Miss Lydia Dixey.

Principal Henry A. Tirrell on behalf of the nominating committee, handed in the following list of officers for the ensuing year: President, Grover Ott; vice president, W. Tyler Olcott; treasurer, Raymond W. Congdon; secretary, Lee Roy Robbins; assistant secretary, Bruce Rogers.

President Perkins announced that the classes of 1902, 1912, and 1917 were holding reunions this year and called for remarks from members of each class. Fred Adams, of the class of 1912, reported the activities of the class since the Saturday night at the Norwich Golf club, and spoke of the memorial cup in memory of Robert Ogden Fletcher and Charles Wolcott Willey.

Following the announcements by Mr. Tirrell, President Perkins called upon Raymond Reed, president of the class of 1922, for a few remarks, to which Mr. Reed responded for his classmates telling of their plans for the coming year.

While preparations were being made for the showing of the motion pictures of life at Yale university the Academy girls Glece club entertained with several delightful numbers. The picture of Yale filled with college "pep" and activities of the university known as "The Mother of Men" was shown and the meeting adjourned to the school gymnasium where dancing was enjoyed by about midnight.

The alumni members and graduates were received by the following committees upon arrival at the hall: Committee to receive the ladies, Miss Doring, Miss Brown, Miss Briggs, Miss Austin, Miss Brown, Miss Gunn, Mrs. Frederick Craven, Mrs. Benjamin Palmer, Mrs. Shepard Palmer, Miss Elizabeth Patten, Miss Cipa Rosenberg and Mrs. Mabel Webb; men's committee, Raymond B. Shuman, Messrs. Manley Eastwood, Benedict, Patten, Bruce Rogers, Arthur E. Story and Frank L. Woodard.

GREENVILLE DECIDES TO HAVE HORRIBLE PARADE The Greenville Community 4th of July celebration committee at a recent meeting at the home of O. W. Carpenter, chairman, to make the celebration of the 4th of July celebration this year decided to have a parade.

LIBSON SCHOOLS GRADUATION HELD AT NEWTON CHURCH Annual graduation exercises of the Libson school took place Monday evening at the Newton church at 7.30 o'clock standard time.

LIGHTNING WORKS DESTRUCTION AT OLD LYME FARM During the hard thunder shower early Sunday morning at Old Lyme, Conn., lightning struck the barn at Old Lyme, which was struck by lightning and burned to the ground.

WATERBURY COMPANY PAID PRESIDENT'S CLUB BILLS Carleton E. Hoadley, president as special master at a hearing in equity at Waterbury Monday in the case of the Eastern Brass and Iron Corporation against which firm Attorney John H. Cassidy has filed an involuntary petition in bankruptcy.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION Commissioner J. J. Donohue: Richmond Radiator Co., Norwich, employer, also Amos Gomez, 18 Thames St., employe, left big toe bruised, at rate of $10.00.

TWO LOCAL GRADUATES AT BOSTON UNIVERSITY Two students from Norwich, (Connecticut) and vicinity, were honored by degrees at the annual commencement of Boston University, which was held at the Symphony hall Monday morning.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR FRAMES ST. SCHOOL HEATERS Bids for two new Richmond heaters at the Thames street school were opened Monday by the members of the town school committee and the contract was awarded to Thomas F. Burns of this city at his low bid of $710.

MISS FLORENCE CARPENTER IS ACADEMY ALEXANDRIAN Miss Florence Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carpenter of Newton street, has the honor of being valedictorian of the class of 1922 Norwich Free Academy and will deliver the valedictory address this (Tuesday) afternoon during the academy graduation exercises at Slater Hall.

REPORT AT WASHINGTON Lieut. Howard L. Peckham has been relieved from duty at the University of Kansas at Lawrence, an assistant professor of military science and tactics and has received notice to report for duty at the chief engineer's office at Washington, D. C. about June 26th.

LIET. PECKHAM IS TO REPORT AT WASHINGTON Lieut. Howard L. Peckham has been relieved from duty at the University of Kansas at Lawrence, an assistant professor of military science and tactics and has received notice to report for duty at the chief engineer's office at Washington, D. C. about June 26th.

MISS FLORENCE CARPENTER IS ACADEMY ALEXANDRIAN Miss Florence Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carpenter of Newton street, has the honor of being valedictorian of the class of 1922 Norwich Free Academy and will deliver the valedictory address this (Tuesday) afternoon during the academy graduation exercises at Slater Hall.

REPORT AT WASHINGTON Lieut. Howard L. Peckham has been relieved from duty at the University of Kansas at Lawrence, an assistant professor of military science and tactics and has received notice to report for duty at the chief engineer's office at Washington, D. C. about June 26th.

MISS FLORENCE CARPENTER IS ACADEMY ALEXANDRIAN Miss Florence Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carpenter of Newton street, has the honor of being valedictorian of the class of 1922 Norwich Free Academy and will deliver the valedictory address this (Tuesday) afternoon during the academy graduation exercises at Slater Hall.

REPORT AT WASHINGTON Lieut. Howard L. Peckham has been relieved from duty at the University of Kansas at Lawrence, an assistant professor of military science and tactics and has received notice to report for duty at the chief engineer's office at Washington, D. C. about June 26th.

MISS FLORENCE CARPENTER IS ACADEMY ALEXANDRIAN Miss Florence Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carpenter of Newton street, has the honor of being valedictorian of the class of 1922 Norwich Free Academy and will deliver the valedictory address this (Tuesday) afternoon during the academy graduation exercises at Slater Hall.

REPORT AT WASHINGTON Lieut. Howard L. Peckham has been relieved from duty at the University of Kansas at Lawrence, an assistant professor of military science and tactics and has received notice to report for duty at the chief engineer's office at Washington, D. C. about June 26th.

MISS FLORENCE CARPENTER IS ACADEMY ALEXANDRIAN Miss Florence Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carpenter of Newton street, has the honor of being valedictorian of the class of 1922 Norwich Free Academy and will deliver the valedictory address this (Tuesday) afternoon during the academy graduation exercises at Slater Hall.

REPORT AT WASHINGTON Lieut. Howard L. Peckham has been relieved from duty at the University of Kansas at Lawrence, an assistant professor of military science and tactics and has received notice to report for duty at the chief engineer's office at Washington, D. C. about June 26th.

MISS FLORENCE CARPENTER IS ACADEMY ALEXANDRIAN Miss Florence Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carpenter of Newton street, has the honor of being valedictorian of the class of 1922 Norwich Free Academy and will deliver the valedictory address this (Tuesday) afternoon during the academy graduation exercises at Slater Hall.

REPORT AT WASHINGTON Lieut. Howard L. Peckham has been relieved from duty at the University of Kansas at Lawrence, an assistant professor of military science and tactics and has received notice to report for duty at the chief engineer's office at Washington, D. C. about June 26th.

MISS FLORENCE CARPENTER IS ACADEMY ALEXANDRIAN Miss Florence Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carpenter of Newton street, has the honor of being valedictorian of the class of 1922 Norwich Free Academy and will deliver the valedictory address this (Tuesday) afternoon during the academy graduation exercises at Slater Hall.

REPORT AT WASHINGTON Lieut. Howard L. Peckham has been relieved from duty at the University of Kansas at Lawrence, an assistant professor of military science and tactics and has received notice to report for duty at the chief engineer's office at Washington, D. C. about June 26th.

THE-Porteous & Mitchell COMPANY

Demonstration

Wednesday, June 21st RED STAR VAPOR OIL STOVES

On Wednesday, June 21st, a representative of the manufacturers will be at our store to demonstrate the merits of Red Star Oil Stoves.

1. No wicks or asbestos rings. 2. Burners directly under cooking. 3. Heavy 8 1/2 pound iron burners. 4. Burns any liquid fuel. 5. Uses one-fourth less fuel. 6. Cooks as fast as gas. 7. Easy to operate. 8. Double-flue oven. 9. White enamel dip pan. 10. Durable enamel finish.

The prices for the different sizes are as follows: 2-burner $24.50 3-burner $29.50 3-burner with two-burner oven beneath $57.50 4-burner with enclosed two-burner oven $69.50

Demonstration Will Be Held In Our Kitchenware Department.

The Porteous & Mitchell Co.

get together. They were absent of taking money from the handbag in the case of Mr. and Mrs. MacNeil of the West Side, Saturday at Waterbury Hill.

GROTTO OPEN HOUSE WITH ENTERTAINMENT FOR GUESTS Newgro Grotto held a delightful open house entertainment Monday evening in Olympic hall with an attendance of about 200, when Monarch George N. Chappell presented a brief but cordial address of welcome to the visitors.

FLETCHER POST AUXILIARY SOCIAL WITH WHIST The Ladies' auxiliary of Fletcher post, No. 4, American Legion, held its regular meeting Monday evening in the American Legion rooms in the Stead building, Main street.

Had Fall at Peck Library. Miss Helen Marshall, librarian of Peck Library, Slater hall, was painfully injured Monday afternoon when she slipped and fell while descending the steps of the library.

Happilyland Park Casino's Opening Success The semi-weekly dances at Happilyland park casino, Popocatepec drive, bridge, on Saturday evening, the Casino orchestra furnished the dance program for the 600 dancers present.

Glad to See You Appreciate Good Values - Those $1.97 LADIES' GINGHAM STRET DRESSES, COMING IN EVERY DAY. ON SALE IN ALL 5 STORES. The Pasknik Co. BELL FOR LESS

When you want to put your head above the public, there is no magic better than the advertising columns of The Bulletin.