

WILLIMANTIC

NORWICH BULLETIN
Willimantic Office
31 Church Street Telephone 1002

The case of Albert Roudon, charged with battery, the complainant being Bertha Erbesch, was heard Wednesday before Justice of the Peace...

The remains of Richard P. Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Henry of Brooklyn, N. Y., and formerly of this city, arrived here on the 11:15 service...

When police court session was opened Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock a record-breaking crowd of spectators was on hand...

At the regular meeting of Windham members while splitting a casting in the process of installing a heating system...

At a meeting of the Business Men's Association held in the chamber of commerce rooms it was decided to hold Willimantic's third Dollar Day...

At a meeting of the Business Men's Association held in the chamber of commerce rooms it was decided to hold Willimantic's third Dollar Day...

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE
Willimantic, Conn.
SILK DRESSES
FOR SUMMER WEAR
To Close At $4.50
These Silk Dresses are an unusual bargain...

Always Delicious
Always Refreshing
TEA
Sold in sealed aluminum packets only
Never in Bulk.
BLACK-GREEN-MIXED

and Mrs. Albert Ross of 345 Summit street.
Miss Lucy Chandler, daughter of Mrs. T. G. Chandler of 78 Chestnut street...

Persons.
Mr. and Mrs. William A. Dawson of 15 Johnston avenue are spending a week or ten days in New York.

Albert Coe of Willimantic was the guest of Milton Livingston of Mansfield Depot for a few days.

Miss Dorothy Burton of New Haven, spent Sunday with her grandmother, Mrs. Willard Clark at her home on the Green.

Judge and Mrs. Joel H. Reed of Stafford Springs took a trip by automobile last week to Bridgeport, stopping on their way Monday and Tuesday in Columbia at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Chapman of New Haven are spending the present week with Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Hunt.

The case against Edward Phillips in January last before Justice H. P. Collins, when Phillips was fined for having a rabbit in his possession during the closed season for hunting, and which he appealed to the superior court, was settled by Phillips, when he paid the fine and costs against him.

Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Latham of Cleveland, Ohio, are in town for a few days, the guest of A. A. Latham and his daughter, Miss Mildred Latham on Chestnut Hill.

Miss Madeline Holmes, who has been teaching in a school in South Windham, during the year is at home, her school having closed on Thursday last.

Relatives and friends of Miss Rachel Hutchins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Hutchins, attended the graduating exercises at the Normal school in Willimantic on Thursday last, when Miss Hutchins received her diploma. She is engaged to teach the seventh grade in the Central school at Cromwell during the coming school year.

Mrs. Edith Little, who has spent most of the past year at Strass Lake with her son, Walter, is expected in town this week at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Charles on the Green.

Word has been received in town during the past week from Rev. T. Newton Owen, who is at West Point, near New York, Mass., stating that he is improving from the effects of his recent injuries and expects to return home about July first, fully recovered.

Miss Edith Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Charles P. Davernport, who has been with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Porter, for some time past, was taken to the home of his parents at Shelburn Falls, Mass., on Sunday last.

It is reported that nearly, if not all, of the cottages at the lake are now occupied for the season. Among the recent arrivals are C. F. Townsend, and Mr. Kingsbury of New Haven, Thomas Linder and Mr. Seaton of Hartford, William Long of New York, Miss Hedden and sister, of Orange, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris of Brooklyn, Conn., the prolonged stay of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Forbes of Brooklyn, N. Y., who have spent two years in Mexico and are shortly going to Florida.

Rev. Mr. Grimes of Christ church, Hartford, will have charge of the service at St. Paul's church next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the absence of the rector.

Ralph Eaton, youngest son of Horace S. Eaton, and Miss Laura Imhoff of Scotland were married in Springfield June 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Eaton are with Mrs. Eaton's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carlin of New York are guests of Mrs. Carlin's mother, Mrs. J. J. Carlin.

Miss Louise Adams, who teaches in South Manchester, is at home for the summer.

The worst thunder shower in a long time was experienced between 3 and 4 o'clock Sunday morning. No damage was reported but a few telephones were out of commission and electricity was off for a few hours, as thundered at intervals from midnight until the middle of the forenoon.

Services were held at usual in both churches about 4 p.m. present at the Congregational church in the morning.

Miss Florence Truell, principal of the grammar school, motored to her home in New Haven Saturday, accompanied by her brother, Miss Truell returns next fall but the other teachers have accepted positions in Willimantic. Miss Deicola of Westfield, Miss Dickinson of South Windham will teach here. The fourth teacher has not been engaged yet.

Windham people were interested to hear of the marriage in New York recently of Mrs. Julia Weir Margherita of Plainfield, N. Y., and Mr. Merrill of Plainfield, N. J.

Charles Lubisky, who recently sold his farm has returned to G. W. Wadsworth's cottage on the Mullen Hill road for the summer and plans to purchase a farm, probably on Long Island, in the fall.

Bev. Mr. Brien and family of Norwich spent Sunday at the MacLean home.

Miss Mildred Little, who has been spending two weeks with Mrs. C. R. Utley at her cottage in Springfield, Mass., Mrs. Jessie Githler and Miss Lockman of New York are at the Lockman home for a few days.

Bellet—Mayor John F. Wade has called a special meeting of the city council in order that further action may be taken on the erection of the proposed memorial to ex-servicemen.

WILLS SAINTE CLAIRE
Motor Cars
BALANCE
Gray Goose—living proof of perfect balance. Not too much weight nor length—just enough. Not too much wing-spread nor power—just enough. A supreme development. Q The Wills Sainte Claire—its supreme power and flexibility—the ease and security with which it floats over the road—the zest with which it climbs the hills, the new-found thrill of its effortless driving— Q These things, in the Wills Sainte Claire, have been created by perfect balance—complete harmony of motor, wheel-base, weight, spring design, essentials made possible by advanced engineering.
Have you ridden in the Wills Sainte Claire?
PHAETON . . . $2475 COUPE . . . $3275 IMPERIAL SEDAN . . . $3575
ROADSTER . . . 2475 SEDAN . . . 3475 TOWN CAR . . . 3550
LIMOUSINE . . . $3180
F. O. B. Morrisville
JULIAN L. WILLIAMS,
20 TOWN ST.,
NORWICH.

attended Mr. Bragg's brother's golden wedding anniversary.
Miss Ella Lawton of Brooklyn has been visiting her sister, Mrs. William Babcock moved to Dayville, Monday.

Waldo Tillingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Tillingham, who has been attending Brown university has joined the R. I. state troops and has been assigned to a stretch of the road to the 103rd Field Artillery.

Miss Miriam Chapman, who has been attending college in Providence has returned to her home at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Chapman.

George McFarland of Norwich was spending two weeks here.
Mrs. Catherine Lyons, wife of James Lyons, died at the home on Monday evening early Thursday morning. She had been ill for several months. She leaves besides her husband, two daughters, Mary and Alice, and two sons, Francis Coffey, who lives at home, and also four sisters, one of whom, Nellie Emerson, makes her home with the Lyons family.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at All. Hollow's church in Mousup, where a solemn high mass of requiem of which Rev. J. E. McCarty was celebrant, was sung. The flowers were many and beautiful. The bearers were Edward Moran, Thomas Moran, Jr., Thomas Hanley, Napoleon Allen and William Hanley. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery in Dayville. The family formerly lived in Dayville.

Mrs. Henry Frink has been ill at her home for several days.

Ralph Booth has been appointed pre-master here Thursday morning. Frederick Tholen is home from Brown university for the summer vacation.

In spite of the unfavorable weather the Chautauque parade by the young boys and girls was successfully carried out last Saturday.

George Cady and daughter, Miss Mary Cady, of Hartford, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cady, of Plainfield, who has been in town for a few days.

Miss Margaret Black returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., after spending a few days with her mother.

Miss Elsie Phillips is home from her school at Westfield, N. Y.

Arthur Bosworth, while at work in the Hydeville mill had his left hand torn off at the wrist in the picker which he was operating. He was taken to the Johnson hospital by Charles Pinney. He has been employed in the mill nearly twenty years.

Merryle Young has gone to New London for the summer.
Mrs. P. H. Coffey and daughter Beatrice were in Putnam Friday.

Mrs. Raymond Tilton and Eva Davis spent Thursday in Danville.
The usual service of worship will be held in the church Sunday evening, July 2nd. The church was organized by Rev. J. E. McCarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young was a member of the North Woodstock with a good attendance.

Several local people were in Danville Thursday to attend the class day exercises.

Mrs. William Duca and Beatrice Sault were in Mousup Friday.
The prolonged rain of last week, together with the state road work, good progress has been made and with favorable weather about two weeks will complete a stretch of the road to the South Killbuck store.

J. F. Eldridge was a caller at The Oaks Sunday.
Mrs. Raymond Gates has been entertained by Mrs. Lila Kilpatrick of Brooklyn.

Leslie Potter spent the week-end at her home in Danville.
A. A. Tillingham, A. E. Hall and George Pitts of North Sterling started Monday morning on a trip to Rutland, Vt.

Mrs. Byron Place of Foster entertained a small company at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Barlow, Sunday afternoon in honor of the birthday of her niece and nephew, Ruth and also four sisters, one of whom, Nellie Emerson, makes her home with the Lyons family.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at All. Hollow's church in Mousup, where a solemn high mass of requiem of which Rev. J. E. McCarty was celebrant, was sung. The flowers were many and beautiful. The bearers were Edward Moran, Thomas Moran, Jr., Thomas Hanley, Napoleon Allen and William Hanley. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery in Dayville. The family formerly lived in Dayville.

Mrs. Henry Frink has been ill at her home for several days.

Ralph Booth has been appointed pre-master here Thursday morning. Frederick Tholen is home from Brown university for the summer vacation.

In spite of the unfavorable weather the Chautauque parade by the young boys and girls was successfully carried out last Saturday.

George Cady and daughter, Miss Mary Cady, of Hartford, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cady, of Plainfield, who has been in town for a few days.

Miss Margaret Black returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., after spending a few days with her mother.

Miss Elsie Phillips is home from her school at Westfield, N. Y.

Arthur Bosworth, while at work in the Hydeville mill had his left hand torn off at the wrist in the picker which he was operating. He was taken to the Johnson hospital by Charles Pinney. He has been employed in the mill nearly twenty years.

Merryle Young has gone to New London for the summer.
Mrs. P. H. Coffey and daughter Beatrice were in Putnam Friday.

Dr. C. W. Hale of Springfield and his wife were guests of Dr. M. M. Malone on their way to North Stratford Friday.

Mrs. Sarah Hale of Springfield visited her sister, Mrs. Mary Brewster a few days last week.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leon Maine attended a reunion of the Brewster family at Lake Compositus Saturday.

Laura Brownell of Hartford visited her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Brewster Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. DeWolf were in Hartford visiting Tuesday.

Mrs. and Mr. Howard Miss Mabel Howard, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Noble and W. E. Rice were guests of Luman Mainer to Willimantic Sunday.

Master Leonard Bernier of Putnam Hill is recovering satisfactorily from an operation at a Norwich hospital.

The local French societies held a ladies' night and social at St. Jean Baptiste hall, Monday evening. A comedy drama and recital were followed by old fashioned dances, ice cream, soda and cake were served during the evening. Practically all the members were present and the social was enjoyed by all. A local orchestra furnished music. Prof. Tinkham prompted.

Charles Landreville of New Haven was the guest Tuesday of Dominick Lemoine of Hanover road.

Rockville—During the past year the Rockville High school has had the largest enrollment in the history of the school, having a total of 192 pupils for the year.

Received the two boxes of your Capsules and as I have several friends who are suffering from indigestion, I have given them some. They are very good and I do not want to get out of them.

Those who have suffered the pangs and tortures of indigestion and dyspepsia are quick to acknowledge the prompt relief given by a brief use of Jacques' Little Wonder Capsules for indigestion, dyspepsia and constipation. They are so grateful for the relief they have obtained they not only recommend this valuable stomach treatment, but in many instances give the capsules to give to fellow sufferers.

This is the case with Mrs. G. G. Smythe, 322 N. 11th St., Columbus, O., who writes: "Please find enclosed stamps for which send me two boxes of Jacques' Little Wonder Capsules. I have used them last summer in Putnamburg and they gave me such relief." A few days later Mrs. Smythe wrote again:

On sale at Engler's Broadway Pharmacy, Norwich; Taffville Pharmacy, Taffville; Buregoose Drug Store, Danville; Clark, E. Casey, Jewett City, Conn.; or 50 cents by mail, shipped from Jacques' Capsule Co., Plattburgh, N. Y.