

FRUIT CURES RHEUMATISM

"FRUIT-A-TIVES". The Famous Fruit Medicine Proves It.

MRS. ANNIE PAGE

"I feel it my duty to write to thank you for the wonderful benefit I received from 'Fruit-a-tives'..."

One day last fall, I saw your advertisement in our paper so I bought a 25c. trial box. They helped me, so I bought two more boxes and I can hardly realize that I ever had Rheumatism...

I enclose $2.00—please send me six boxes of "Fruit-a-tives". Mrs. ANNIE PAGE.

At dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by FRUIT-A-TIVES Limited, OGDENSBURG, N.Y.

F. H. HENTON, General Agent. GEO. S. DELAP, Special Agent. JAMES L. FOSTER, Special Agent.

New York, New Haven

MR. AND MRS GOOD CITIZEN

Are you interested in the Salvation Army?

Do you want to help in its great task?

READ THE WAR CRY!

Sincerely, Capt. & Mrs. Chas. Carpenter

CANTERBURY GREEN

One of the annual events in the village is the summer meeting of the Ladies Aid society at Mrs. Frank Miller's.

During the shower last Saturday afternoon the house of Nathan Exley was struck by lightning, cupboards being torn off and some interior damage done.

William Baxter, 44, of East Hamden, Mass., while swimming in the Connecticut river was drowned last week.

Among those who are going to Camp DeWens for training are John Vere and Edward Parkhurst of Sterling, Ralph Weston of Eastford, Fred Adams of Moomps, and Joseph Eaton and Charles Lafave of Central Village.

Since the big rains, Stafford Springs people who have been camping at Crystal Lake have been having a difficult time over the stretch of roadway.

His platinum has advanced again, this time to an ounce and a half, and is giving their customers the advice to buy now.

TOWNS APPLYING FOR MONEY SPENDING FOR CHILDREN

Commonwealth Charles E. Dow, of the bureau of child welfare, has received the first batch of applications from towns for the special state fund.

The number of children when the homes last have been made nominations are taking care of the forty, as follows: Coventry, one; Bristol, eleven; Hebron, one; Seymour, one; and Lyme, one.

It is thought that the amount which the state will pay the towns will be placed, must first be approved by the state authorities and they will be subject to the supervision of the bureau of child welfare.

The department has granted licenses to the following to take care of children: Mrs. Mary Hamilton, Mary Hamilton, Bloomfield, for five children; Mrs. Charles Herman of Vernon Center, three children; Mrs. William Thomas of North...

The members of the department at their meeting this week discussed the budget for the fiscal period ending June 30, 1923, which they will submit by August 1 to the state board of finance.

Wine Window Trimming Prize. In a window trimming contest put on by the Fairbanks company, featuring Gold, Dutch, and honeydew and honey cleaning articles, Harry A. Cowey, salesman for a Central avenue grocer, won sixth prize.

There was a national contest and over 10,000 entries were made from the United States and Canada. There was $3,000 in prizes, the first prize of $500 going to Pittsburgh, Pa.

The picture was taken by Frank Leonard of Norwich.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. James Egan are spending their vacation at Mount of the Holy Cross, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cleary, of Boswell avenue have returned after spending ten days at Black Island and the latter's children in Colchester. She was formerly a resident of this place.

The Misses Shook, of Baltimore, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, of Broad street.

Mrs. Nellie Moore is spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Danby of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The papers note that a former Norwich resident, Mrs. Calvin Rawson, of Woodstock, Ill. died last week.

Miss Margaret M. Murphy of Main street was a recent guest of the Misses Lyons, of Peace Dale, R. I.

Misses May and Nora McCrohan of North Main street have returned from a vacation spent on Block Island.

Mrs. A. M. Counihan of Norwich is in Providence spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Frank H. Allen.

William Dunn of Main street is entertaining his nieces and the latter's children from New Haven, for two weeks.

Miss Eve Provencher who came from Canada a few weeks ago to her home in Moomps, is visiting friends in Baltic.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Counihan of Norwich and Miss Mary E. Counihan have a cottage at Quaker Hill for the summer.

Joseph Connolly, Jr., of Newark, N. J. is spending the summer with his aunt, Mrs. Joseph Desmond of Cliff street.

Miss Katherine Walsh of Pasadena, Cal., is spending several months in Norwich as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Maria Walsh, of Cliff street.

Mrs. Walter C. Martin and daughter, Doris of New York, who are spending the summer at Madison, are visiting with relatives on West Main street.

John P. Corcoran has been in New York the past week and was one of the 60,000 who witnessed the Leonard-Terrier fight in Jersey City Thursday night.

Miss Julia A. Skelly of the account department of a leading Hartford life insurance company, is spending her vacation at her former home below Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Chandler have come up from their home in California and are with their son Herman, in Williamite. They will visit Woodstock friends before they return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Wyman of Norwich and Miss Mildred Phillips of Versailles and Miss Ora Brown of Norwich were entertained at Mrs. D. J. Brown's cottage at Grooten Long Point this week.

Charles E. Brightman and Charles Crandall of Providence are week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Brightman on the Post road, Quonochontaug, as are Mr. and Mrs. Henry and Mrs. Mary Lehman of Versailles, Conn., and Miss Mary Lee of Stonington—Westerly Sun.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Walsh and daughter, Kathleen S. Edger of Brooklyn, N. Y., who have been spending the past few weeks at Pleasant View, guests of Mrs. Walsh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Walsh, returned a few days this week in town, guests of Mr. Walsh's mother, Mrs. Maria Walsh, of Cliff street.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson of Ocean avenue, New London, and Miss Abby Fish of Noank, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, performed by the Rev. Chester H. Howe, pastor of the First Baptist church at his parsonage in New London. They were accompanied by Mrs. Watson left immediately on an automobile trip through New England and upon their return they will reside in Ocean avenue.

Miss Lena Haubt of Norwich and William A. Gager of Buffalo were married July 13th in that city by Rev. R. Richter. Following their wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Gager are to reside in Buffalo where the groom is a mason.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haubt of Hammond avenue and has for bridesmaids, Misses Maud and Estelle. Her many friends here learned of her marriage with pleasure and extend to her best wishes for a happy future.

Trinity Methodist Church Preachers for August. Rev. Dr. Robert L. Roberts, pastor of Trinity, has arranged for preachers during his vacation in August as follows:

August 6, Rev. O. J. Aldrich, of the First Methodist church, Taunton, Mass.; 13th, Dr. Roberts will exchange with Rev. C. W. Ruoff, of Baltic; 20th, Rev. Victor V. Sawyer, of Attleboro, Mass.; 27, Camp Meeting Sunday.

Assaulted Man With Lantern. Arthur Smith of the Spitzhead section of Waterford, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace John H. Waterford Thursday afternoon on a charge of assaulting John Malona, also of Spitzhead, with a lantern a few days ago. Smith was found guilty and was fined $10 and costs.

Norwich Man Enlists. Connecticut men who have enlisted recently in the marine corps are Lee J. Moquin and Thomas Adams of Bristol and Joseph F. Loughlin of Norwich. Mr. Moquin has been stationed at the marine barracks at Hingham, Mass. Adams has been transferred to Iona Island, N. Y., and Loughlin to Santo Domingo.

Cows Poisoned in Preston Pasture. Six cows in the McMillan Beas' pasture in Preston were poisoned by Paris green Thursday and three of them have died. The Paris green was placed on a brook near where the cows go to water. It is hoped that the rest of the cows that were affected by eating the poison may be saved.

Incidents in Society. Gen. William A. Aiken has been at Marblehead, Mass. Mrs. Thomas Harland of Norwich town is at Block Island. Mr. and Mrs. Guy B. DoBears are at their cottage at Eastford.

Miss Mary Ely of Waltham, Mass. is the guest of her brother, Grosvener Ely. Mrs. E. F. Stoddard, with her daughter, Sara, of Haystack, Md., has been in town for a few days.

DEATH OF REV. J. B. SLOCUM, D. D., FORMER BAPTIST PASTOR HERE

received the sad news Friday through a telephone message from his son Lovimer, who is employed in New York city. Mr. Slocum had gone from Dayton to the Pacific coast some time ago for the benefit of his health and Dr. Slocum had just returned to his home in Dayton, Ohio, having been engaged to preach for six Sundays in Vancouver.

The former Norwich pastor was a graduate of Colgate college in New York and Theological seminary in 1894. Before coming to Norwich he had held pastorates at Concord, N. H., five years; First Baptist church, Yonkers, N. Y., three years; and Greenwood Baptist church, Brooklyn.

He took the pastorate of the Central Baptist church on the first Sunday in May, 1913, and held it until the last of March, 1917, when he received and accepted a call to the Warburton Avenue Baptist church, Yonkers, N. Y. After about three years at Yonkers, he accepted a call to the First Baptist church of Dayton, O., one of the largest and most influential churches in that city. His leadership of the church has been well marked success.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Lovimer of Philadelphia and Jamieson of New Haven. His pastorate in Norwich was one that endeared him to the congregation of the Central Baptist church, where he was highly esteemed for his ability in the pulpit, his inspiring and progressive leadership in the work of the church, and his high personal and social qualities as a councillor and friend.

Rev. Joel B. Slocum, D. D., pastor of the Central Baptist church, died suddenly Thursday night at Vancouver, British Columbia, where he was spending his summer vacation of two months from his pastorate at Dayton, Ohio.

Norwich friends of Rev. Dr. Slocum

PONEMAH MILL OVERSEER ARRESTED ON THEFT CHARGE. An overseer at the Ponemah mill, who has been with the company for 32 years, was arrested Friday afternoon on the charge of theft of cloth from the company after his home on South Second avenue, Taftville, had been searched, revealing 134 1-4 yards of plain and fancy cotton goods which it is claimed has been taken from the mill.

Search of the house was made by Constable Hornidas Joseph, D. Aiken, assistant agent of the company, and Capt. John P. Nowell of the Watvis Detective agency, Inc., of Boston. The officers found the cloth in trunks, closets and beds, valued at $158.50. The goods were positively identified as of Ponemah mill manufacture, some of it of very recent manufacture, and some pieces of collar cloth that had not been made by the mill for two or three years.

The overseer provided bail of $500 at the home of his wife, and made the claim that the goods which the officers had seized at his house had all been bought and paid for by him.

The search and arrest were caused, it is understood, by the mercantile protective service organized and protected by the Watvis agency, of which Captain Nowell, who participated in the search and seizure, is the representative.

MANFIELD TRAINING SCHOOL OFFICERS ARRIVED. The annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Manfield State Training school and Hospital was held at the school building at Manfield, Thursday, July 27th, at 12:30.

The board listened to reports from Judge L. P. Waldon, president of the board, and Dr. Charles P. Lamoure, superintendent of the school. Reports reviewed the activities of the institution during the fiscal year which ended June 30th and contained suggestions for the future development of the institution.

This being the annual meeting the following officers were elected: President, Walter W. Marvin, Hartford; treasurer, Nathan D. Prince, Danvers; secretary, John M. Lee, Norwich; executive committee, Dr. Charles P. Lamoure, Nathan D. Prince, William O'Connor, and others.

Following the business session the members of the board inspected the various buildings and a property of the institution.

GOVERNOR MAKES OFFICIAL VISIT TO NANTIC CAMP. Governor's day was observed Friday at Camp Lake, Nanticoke, where he was accompanied by a staff of 120 men. He was met by the staff shortly after 10 o'clock.

An interesting program of exercises was carried out in honor of the state's chief executive. The exercises began with a parade and review at two o'clock. The program included a review by the Governor, target practice, and other state officials and military officers.

The review was followed by an exhibition of the state's military forces, including the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd, 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th, 60th, 61st, 62nd, 63rd, 64th, 65th, 66th, 67th, 68th, 69th, 70th, 71st, 72nd, 73rd, 74th, 75th, 76th, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, 91st, 92nd, 93rd, 94th, 95th, 96th, 97th, 98th, 99th, 100th.

BELIEF CORPS WILL PROVIDE DINNERS FOR REUNIONS. The regular meeting of the Sedgwick Relief corps, No. 16, was held Friday afternoon at 8 o'clock at the Buckingham Memorial. Reports of the secretary and treasurer and the chairman of the executive committee were read and approved. A new candidate was initiated. The Relief corps will furnish the dinner at the reunion of the 18th C. V. association on Aug. 15th, and the 16th. The meeting closed with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner and the pledge to the flag.

Engagement Announced. At a miscellaneous shower given on Thursday evening for Miss Margaret McGarry at her home, 85 Lincoln avenue, New London, her engagement was announced to William Carberry of Norwich. The marriage is to take place in September. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGarry.

Miss McGarry received numerous gifts of silver, cut glass, linen, etc. Miss Margaret O'Brien and Miss Dorothy Kingsley gave piano and vocal selections during the evening and there were readings by Miss Agnes Sullivan.

Fairrell Undergoes Operation. Assessor James T. Fairrell, the dean of the law school of Hartford, who was elected chairman of the board of directors of the Fairrell Memorial hospital, New London, where he has been a patient three or four days, was taken to the hospital, which was not a serious one, was successful. Mayor Kingsley and Fire Commissioner Charles Kingsley will go to New London today (Saturday) to visit the assessor.

Struck by Automobile. Thomas English, an employe of the street department, was struck by an automobile on his way to work on Bowtell avenue when he was out on his hand and his foot was hurt. The automobile was driven by Samuel Washington of Franklin street.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Wm. J. Reynolds. Mrs. Lucinda C. Reynolds, widow of William J. Reynolds died Thursday in her 84th year at the home of her son, Rev. Walter Reynolds of East Lyme, with whom at the parsonage of the Baptist church she had made her home for the past five years. Death was due to advanced years. For the last five days of life she was in a coma.

Mrs. Reynolds was a native of Rhode Island, being born in Wickford, that state. She came from a prominent family and she was reputed to be the last constituent member of the Cranston street, Roger Williams church of Providence which was organized under the pastorate of Dr. Bixby. She was an ardent church worker although during the latter years of her life she was handicapped by the feebleness of old age. She was a member of a Woman's Relief Corps of Warren, R. I., where she made her home for many years. She lived with her son. She was educated at the Wickford Academy in the town of her birth and although her school days ended with her graduation from that institution she was ever a student and studied the Bible extensively.

Having spent her early life in Wickford she later removed to Warren. Her husband died eight years ago. She then went to Narragansett Pier to live with her son, Rev. Walter Reynolds, a Baptist church there. She lived there three years and then when her son took up the pastorate at the East Lyme Baptist church she removed to that place with him.

She was the daughter of Maj. George T. and Amy Ann Thomas Nichols. Her husband was prominent in the Baptist church there. She lived there three years and then when her son took up the pastorate at the East Lyme Baptist church she removed to that place with him.

On both sides of her family, Mrs. Reynolds' family dates back to the early days and her ancestors were among the settlers of the states in which she was born.

Besides Rev. Walter N. Reynolds of East Lyme, with whom she lived for many years, she is survived by two other sons. One is the Rev. William J. Reynolds, pastor of the First Baptist church at Auburn, R. I., who has served for that church for the past 20 years and the other, the eldest, Frank W. Reynolds, is connected with the Rev. F. J. Young, the Providence tobaccoist.

With the passing of his mother, Rev. Walter N. Reynolds has forwarded to the church for which he has served for the past five years, his resignation and has accepted the pastorate of the Baptist church in Minneapolis, Minn., a town of about 3,000 population. It is situated near Salina, that state, which is a center on the Union Pacific line.

Charles T. Palmer, son of the late Frank L. Palmer of New London, died Thursday, July 27, in San Francisco, Calif., after a brief illness. Word that Mr. Palmer was critically ill was received by his mother, Mrs. Louisa T. Palmer, on Wednesday afternoon. Upon receiving word of the illness of her brother, the Misses Theodora and Virginia Palmer left for San Francisco. Mr. Palmer was born in New London 43 years ago and attended schools in that city. He graduated from Bulkeley high school and went to Brown university for two years. Later he joined the Palmer Bros. company, which was then the head and at the time of his death was vice president of the company.

It was Mr. Palmer's custom to make a western business trip every summer, and as usual he left last spring for California. He stayed at Shasta Springs in that state for some time, taking the curative waters of that place.

Mr. Palmer was married several years ago and is survived by his wife, his mother and two sisters. He was a member of the Norwich Golf club and was well known in this city.

His body is to be brought east and buried in New London.

A man of engaging personality popular with all whom he came in contact with, Mr. Palmer leaves many who will mourn his loss.

PREDICTS GROUSE PLENTY FOR SHOOTING SEASON. Superintendent John W. Tibcomb, of the game commission, stated Friday that there would be an abundance of grouse in the woods of the state for the hunting season which begins on Wednesday, October 11. Owing to the rainy weather, there will be a scarcity of pheasants. Mr. Tibcomb added that there were few hares in the state. He predicted that the efforts to propagate these partridges have not been successful. They were abundant in 1921, but he hopes that they would become common again this year. He stated that the commission made up of one from each county that was legislated out of existence at the session of 1921. Mr. Tibcomb said that the failure of Connecticut to propagate this game is the experience of other states, and that the matter is receiving the attention of the state and game officials whose field of activity is the protection of the game. The law restricts the number of grouse which may be shot in one day to one and to twenty-one for the entire season.

WESTMINSTER. The morning worship was poorly attended in part because of the threatening rain following the torrential rain of Saturday, and partly in anticipation of coming to the evening service. The singing of "Taking the Cross and Following Christ."

In the evening, with the same conditions, Westminister church was well filled with worshippers. The pastor, Rev. J. H. Schfield, presided. The choir, headed by Mrs. J. H. Schfield, rendered a beautiful service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains and one from Canterbury Green, the mother church, both churches having members in Westminister to share in the goodly fellowship, goodly in numbers, quality of attendance and in the spiritual uplift of the worship. The two selections rendered by the quartette were greatly appreciated as were the earnest words of Rev. William C. Dennis, the Plainfield pastor, as he urged her granddaughters and conducting a service, bringing order and song service. Fourteen automobiles were parked on the west side of the church. There were 40 names of people not from Plainfield taken. The names of those who failed to be recorded. Of these, six were from the Plains