PLAYGROUNDS ASSOCIATION PLANS

The playgrounds committee of the Norwich chamber of commerce and the Norwich Playgrounds association members paid a visit to the Lake street playgrounds late Thursday afternoon for the purpose of considering the development of the playground. Peter Ver Steeg, superintendent of Mohegan Park was present to offer suggestions regarding the playing out of the grounds. Mr. Ver Steeg has had considerable experience in the laying out of grounds and landscape work.

The plan which the playgrounds committee and the members of the playgrounds association have in mind is the setting out of a number of shade trees and the re-seeding of the grass plots. Those interested in the proposed development of the playgrounds should be provided for the recreation during the time they are in use by the children.

The recreation commission which Mayor Milo R. Waters has been authorized to create will be functioning October 1st and in all probability the major portion of the $1,000 recently appropriated for the improvement of the Lake street grounds will be expended by the new commission on the construction and maintenance of the playgrounds in the city.

Of late there has been quite a demand on the part of the young men of the city who play twilight games for a suitable diamond. The matter has been taken up by Secretary John J. O'Rourke of the chamber of commerce who has conferred with Henry A. Tirrell, principal of the Norwich Free Academy, regarding the use of the Academy campus for these evening games.

Mr. Tirrell informed Mr. O'Rourke that in order to secure the use of the campus it will be necessary to lay the matter before the executive committee of the academy. Before the use of the grounds could be secured it would be necessary that assurance be given that no damage would occur to the grounds or academy buildings. Secretary O'Rourke has conferred with Mayor Waters regarding the possibility of securing police protection at the campus while the games are in progress.

At the present time there are about a dozen twilight baseball teams in the city due to daylight saving which gives the players an extra hour of daylight in the evening. The teams represent factories, stores and business men and it is felt that a suitable diamond should be provided for the games.

The grounds at Mohegan park are too small for the men in that they are not wide enough and baseballs have at various times been lost in the surrounding woods and underbrush. When it is realized that the baseballs used cost two dollars a piece, it can be readily understood why the hard diamond is not as popular as it might be.

NEMROD GROTON ENJOYS SAIL DOWN THE THAMES. Nemrod Groton, U. D. M. O. V. P. E. R., held his first moonlight sail Tuesday evening, going as far as Bartlett's Reef Fisher's Island north on the steamer Nelesco.

Although the weather was not very promising, 400 or more made the trip. They left Groton at 8 p. m. and arrived back at midnight. During the trip 18 members of Nemrod's own band furnished music, and a program of singing and dancing was enjoyed.

The few members who decided not to make the trip because of the threatening weather missed a delightful time throughout the trip. There was but a brief shower, and that occurred at New London. Later in the evening on the return trip there were occasional glimpses of the moon.

While passing Groton Long Point it was quite evident that some of the prophets who are summering there were on the watch for the excursionists, as a boat was seen approaching the bathing beach as soon as the boat was sighted. The signal was recognized and responded to by the tooting of the Nelson whistle and playing the searchlight in Mayflower cove.

During the return several of the local boys who took part in the groto's special minstrel helped to liven things a bit by singing together and singing their favorite songs.

The entire sail was enjoyed by all and but one of the list of passengers had any use for that other friends on the rough seas, a little lemonade was served.

The groto has already made the first steps toward putting on its fall ceremonial.

MASSAPEAG CHAPEL SALE AND SUPPER A SUCCESS. At Massapeag chapel Wednesday evening the clam chowder supper was well attended. The committee in charge was Mrs. C. N. Rogers, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. P. A. Rogers and Mrs. L. Smith.

In charge of the tables were Mrs. Hilton and Miss Champlin, assisted by the following waitresses: Mrs. L. Rogers, Mrs. McKenney, Mrs. E. Bushnell and Miss Sevier. The entertainment was given by Mrs. Smith and Mrs. M. E. Elbridge.

This was the third social event of the season and the parish members enjoyed the Massapeag chapel, which has resulted in increasing the treasury fund. The chapel is to receive extensive repairs at an early date.

COUNTY DAIRY CLUB BOYS HOLD FIELD DAY. Ten of the fourteen boys in the New London County Dairy club met recently at the farm of J. R. Foster in Lebanon.

The boys were given a lesson on the judging of Jersey cattle. It was explained that Professor Simms from Storrs college would be present, but owing to sickness in his family he was unable to attend.

In his absence the demonstrations were given by County Agent H. F. Johnson. In the afternoon the group of boys were taken to the farm of Lloyd Ayer & Son in Farmington where considerable time was spent in judging the fine Holstein cattle owned by Mr. Ayer. Plans are underway to hold another field day during the latter part of this month.

WILL SOON APPOINT PLAYGROUNDS COMMISSION. Mayor Milo R. Waters has announced that he will make his selection for the playgrounds commission prior to the September meeting of the council. There are three candidates for the position, whose duties it will be to coordinate all playground activities in Norwich during the summer months.

Olaf Family Leaves Yantic. Having sold their home in Yantic, members of the Olaf family are to locate in other quarters. Olaf, Sr., is residing in Bridgeport, at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Olaf. A grandson, Henry Gavins of New York, who has made his home in Yantic, is at present visiting at the home of his uncle Zimmond Olaf of New Jersey. In September young Gavins will return to New York to make his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gavins.

Miss Elizabeth A. Olaf, prominent in musical circles in Norwich, is to leave Sunday night for New York to reside at the home of her sister, Mrs. Gavins.

Miss Olaf made her first appearance before Norwich people, when she entertained delightfully with a number of songs at a concert given at the Backus hospital by the Norwich Town Quintet, with which she has been the soprano for two years.

On Motor Trip. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Linderson and son Wm. Linderson of Tatfield, are this week enjoying a motor trip through Connecticut and Rhode Island. A nephew of Mrs. Linderson, Nelson Chesbro of Mystic, who has been their guest for several days, accompanied them to Hartford Monday, and Madison beach Tuesday, before returning to Mystic, where the Linderson family remained over night Wednesday their niece, Miss Althea Chesbro, joined them on a trip to Providence, returning to Tatfield by way of Putnam.

Mrs. Daniel Brown Improving. Following a stay of two weeks at the home of her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Brown of Mystic, Miss Catherine Brown returned Thursday to her home on Oneco street, Norwich. Miss Brown was called to Mystic to assist her grandmother, who had received serious injury from a fall, it being at first thought that Mrs. Brown had broken her ribs. Her condition is much improved and she is now able to attend to her duties about the house.

New Counterfeit $10 Bill. A new counterfeit $10 bill has made its appearance. A circular issued by the treasury department describes the counterfeit note as follows: "On the Federal Reserve bank of Chicago, check letter 'D' series of 1914, B. F. Houston, secretary of the treasury, John Burke, treasurer of the United States; portrait of Jackson. The number of the specimen at hand is G239608A. The workmanship on this note is so crude throughout that further description is deemed unnecessary."

Putnam Sisters on Vacation. Sister Emelmerie of the Sacred Heart who was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Pierre Sabourin, of 191 Brook street, Norwich, has left for Putnam where she will join the other sisters of her order, that of The Holy Ghost, to make their yearly retreat. Other guests present during the retreat were her brother, Joseph Bouquet of Mount Laurel seminary, Mr. Ralph Jette of Woonsocket, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Antaya, Mr. and Mrs. Lavallee and family of Wauregan.

POLICE REFEREE CONTEST OVER WIFE'S BELONGINGS. Mrs. Pauline Cusano Palmetti of this city is having her troubles in New London, and the police in that city had their hands full Wednesday trying to smooth over her domestic affairs. Mrs. Palmetti lived on bank street in New London until a few days ago, when she decided to come to Norwich to make her home.

Wednesday Mrs. Palmetti made a farewell visit to her former home to secure some of her personal effects before permanently leaving her husband. The Palmetti family troubles got into the city court at New London and the court sanctioned her return to her home in Norwich to get her belongings. During her visit at the house Police Sergeant Nelson S. Smith spent several hours acting as referee in a linen swapping contest.

Mrs. Palmetti believes that she is about to get her husband for a divorce. The police alleged that neighbors of Mrs. Palmetti favor her side of the case and claim that her husband, Mariano Palmetti, made most unreasonable demands of the woman.

Nearly every sheet and towel in the house was subject of a contest for ownership. The contest was held in the yard in front of the house and a second round victory arose over the distribution of 15 (valued by one person) and 19 (claimed by the other) phonograph records. Mrs. Palmetti claimed that she had bought the "singing machine" with money earned by her own hands, and Mr. Palmetti claimed that his money had purchased the machine. The police finally got a sufficient amount of goods turned over to the woman so she was satisfied to leave the place.

PROGRAM FOR BAND CONCERT THIS EVENING. The first of the series of four public band concerts will be held this (Friday) evening on Union square, the program to open at 8 o'clock sharp.

The following musicians are to be re-organized by Tubbs' Military Band under the supervision of A. W. Jarvis, director: March, Olympia Hippodrome, Alexander The Star Spangled Banner.
