NOANK PLANT SOON TO RENEW OPERATIONS

That the Noank plant of the Groton Iron Works recently sold at auction to Jennie E. Morse, sister of Charles W. Morse is soon to renew operations seems to be an assured fact as alterations and changes are being made suitable for lines of work other than being a yard.

Harry F. Morse has spent considerable time at the plant of late and it is understood that he was enthusiastic about the future of the plant as a hot storage yard for the storage of anthracite. The plant will operate under the name of the Noank Shipyards Inc. and will build, repair or store small boats, yachts and larger craft.

One or two sets of marine railways for the handling of the smaller boats are to be put in while the large railways, already there, are to be repaired and put in shape to take out large yachts, steamers, barges etc.

The Noank shipyard, which always used for the construction and repair of large boats, is an ideal location for a plant since it is situated on a being a sufficient depth of water on either side of the property for basins for the storage of boats. There is plenty of land upon which to store boats of any size or description.

Regarding the flurry of surprise which the announcement that the commission was considering the addition of a new line of coal to the twenty-five cents per ton to pay expenses had evoked among persons who wondered what use the commission could have for so much money, Mr. Russell said that the new line of coal is a highly technical one which required a great deal more expense than people thought.

Since the time the coal is mined until it reaches the furnaces of the domestic consumer, it passes through a great many hands and how to get to the furnace of the domestic consumer is a small problem," he explained.

NEW WILSON LINE. The new Wilson Line steamer, the Major E. Estlin, probably will start in commission on the local line to New York city today (Saturday). Word to that effect was received from New York Friday at the headquarters of the Wilson Line, 100 Broadway.

The new craft supplants the steamer Norland which has been in commission on the line for some months. The new craft is a larger, speedier and more up-to-date than the Norland and one that will assure better service and permit expansion of the company's business.

Since being acquired by the Wilson Line, the Estlin has been tied up at New York city where some alterations of a minor nature have been made.

FLETCHER POST ARMISTICE DAY COMMITTEE NAMED. The executive committee of Fletcher Post, No. 4, American Legion, held a meeting Friday evening at the Legion room with William A. Anderson, commander, in the chair.

Several important matters were taken up at the meeting which was well attended. Preliminary steps towards the annual armistice day celebration were taken. It was announced that Webster D. Copp has been appointed general chairman of the post's armistice day committee with power to appoint his own committee.

Mr. Copp, who served as chairman of the committee last year, has named the following to assist him this year: William A. Estlin, John De Brunner, L. V. Denison, Harold T. Robinson, W. J. Broadhurst, Louis Hawkins, Wm. Skelly and Raymond Sherman.

TUBBS' BAND GIVES CONCERT AT UNION SQUARE. In spite of the unfavorable weather several hundred people gathered at Union square Friday night where the first of a series of four public concerts was given by Tubbs' Military band under the direction of Aubrey W. Jarvis.

The concert was well attended and rendered by the band and frequent encores were given. From the attendance at the concert there is little doubt that Norwich people still like to hear the best music of the city. Future concerts should draw large crowds.

The second concert by the band will be given on Friday night, Aug. 18th, and on the week following the Friday night concert will be omitted as the band is to play at the four grounds on the evening of Wednesday, the 23rd.
