Two break-ins were reported to the police early Wednesday morning. The stationery store of William J. Sweeney...

Mr. Sweeney telephoned to the police and Chief Daniel J. Killourey responded. In the rear of the store were found the jimmy and wrench used in the break-in...

Seven marriages in the town of Windham were recorded at the office of Town Clerk Frank P. Fenon during July. Two of them were performed by Justice of the Peace Thomas J. Kelley...

According to Postmaster John O'Rourke, the vacation schedule of the Elks and carriers in past seasons has been disarranged and it is difficult for the employees to complete their fifteen days' vacation without being interrupted by the carriers...

The Elks' carpenters were engaged recently in opening the gates which were recently placed on the Columbia road bearing announcement of the Elks Country Fair. They can now be seen from a distance of 100 feet at least. Similar action is being taken with the other gates at other entrances to the city.

The annual outing of the employees of the New England Telephone Company was held at Gardner Lake Wednesday. Those from this city who attended were Andrew J. Carey, Fred J. Wright, Lawrence Martin, Ernest Sears, Edward Keegan, Harry Vail, Edward L. Beebe, Frank L. Cranston, Louis Rival and Louis Bernista.

About 250 merchants and clerks are expected to attend the annual outing at Stone today (Thursday). The top-off will be from Lincoln square at 9:30 o'clock. The B. P. O. E. band will furnish music for the day, with a concert previous to starting.

Everything is completed for the annual lawn fête which will be held by Rockville Lodge, No. 1359, B. P. O. E. at Stone today (Thursday). The column will be led by the Boy Scouts band of fifty pieces from Willimantic.

The court officials used very sound judgment in choosing August as the time for their vacations as but four cases have been heard so far this month.

The work of the Salvation Army building committee is progressing rapidly. A committee called on the various heads of the manufacturing plants in the city and were assured financial support and hearty co-operation.

Mr. Frank Cunningham has leased a lot to John P. McQuillan to organize an aggregation of ball players composed of married men of San Jose Council to oppose the work of the Amateur Athletic Union. Mr. Cunningham is quite sure that his hope will do the trick and will hold themselves in high honor against any team of benedicts that "Jack" can pick up.

At a meeting of Company G, 188th Connecticut Infantry, it was voted to stand all expenses of a dance for the benefit of the Salvation Army building fund. It was also voted to build a tennis court at the west end of the state army grounds.

Theodore Sawahlkoff of Hop River, a section hand on the Andover gang of the Hartford division of the New Haven railroad, came to this city and caused excitement by his loud talk and antics. Two officers were needed to bring him to the station without damage.
