At the grave in Jewett City cemetery the clergyman conducted the funeral services of the Mosaic lodge, No. 112, F. & M., taking place at the final ceremonies, under direction of Worshipful Brother W. Franklin Sheldon. The bearers were Edward Goldberg and Clark Gillingham of Norwich, and Frank C. Whiting, Edwin M. Gray, William T. Crumb and Walter Marechal of Mount Vernon, Vt.

The flowers were exceptionally beautiful. There were present from out of town: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Strickland of Middletown, Thomas Potts, Miss Mary Potts and Mr. and Mrs. James Farrell and son James of Manchester, N. Jewett City boys made a fine showing at the athletic meet held at the Norwich fair Wednesday, under the direction of Hal Chase. The Ashland club won the big event, the one-half mile relay race, bringing home the Norwich Chapter of Commerce cup. The team was composed of Lloyd Ely, Theodore Boule, Arthur Massey and Edward Murphy.

Theodore Boule finished second in the amateur 100-yard dash with Herbert Lafave a close third and Eap Liberte not a bad fourth. Theodore Boule also finished second in the 200 yard dash. Nap Liberte was again a close fourth in this event. Lloyd Ely was a close second in the quarter mile race.

Considering the opposition offered by the other entrants the boys' medal was well won. Some of the best track men in eastern Connecticut took part in these events.

Recently Charlie Casey wrote to the Burroughs Station Club and received an answer stating flatly that the hoop snake was a myth. A supplementary note in the letter, told of $1000 offered by the New York Zoo for a snake that could take its tail in its mouth and get up speed in approved hoop-like fashion. Three local men have actually seen this peculiar breed. "Doc" Wallace, a fox hunter, well known in this section, is reported to have seen one near the Down Hampton Hill, that resembled a great snakeless cart wheel. At the time the controversy arose "Doc" was not able to produce proof relative to the stories according to him, Mr. Soule and Mr. Jones stoutly made affidavits that they, too, had seen hoop snakes in actual operation. Lacking visible proof, and being without the necessary money to establish the facts beyond question, the matter was pretty well forgotten. Not by the "Doc" however, he knew where the hoop snakes lived, and more than that, he proposed to prove it. One warm day last week he loaded up his trusty musket, and saying never a word to his sleeping family, he was up and away before dawn. A heavy charge of buckshot was riddled into his hide and he was sure they would puncture the hooper's hide. Now, the proof of the pudding is in the eating. The skin, which contains a little more than a pound of meat, was cut from an exhibition in Carey's window for all to see who declare against the existence of the good old-fashioned hoop snake, as stated.

Manager Chase has booked Roy Roberts All Stars to play here this week. This team is always a big favorite with the fans and is as strong as ever. Sudds Forsythe will be in the lineup.
