

WILLIMANTIC

NORWICH BULLETIN
Willimantic Office
41 Church Street Telephone 1963

In superior court chambers in this city a short calendar session and assignment of cases of the Windham county superior court was held Friday morning. Three cases were assigned to court for next week in Putnam Tuesday, Balkan International Baking Co. vs. John E. Taylor; Wednesday, the T. E. Main & Son Co. vs. Frank S. Carr; Thursday, Marjorie Foster vs. C. Allison Potter. Eight cases on the short calendar were continued. All for default or failure to plead. Answers were ordered filed by the judge within two weeks. The cases are Frank A. Phillips vs. Evangeline C. Fuller, Emma E. Thompson vs. City of Willimantic, James L. Stone Handle Mfg. Co. vs. Windham Handle Co., Herbert L. Switzer vs. George W. Brown, Alexander Baronofski vs. Ada N. A. Bowen, Ralph W. Stimpson vs. Jo-man, Frank Russo, Philip Moore and Michael Mahowald.

A ten-minute talk to the newly admitted citizens on the responsibilities of an American citizen was given by Judge Hinman.

The annual report of the selectmen of the town of Windham for the past year shows that it cost $99,954.04 to conduct the town business. The amount of $102,500 borrowed money is not included. Last year the expense was $88,977.44 and in 1920 it was $63,535.52. A large part of the increase is due to the fact that $22,692.96 was paid out on the Windham Center school. The total amount of orders issued this year was $27,453.84. In the report is included the budget for 1922-1923, which calls for a total of $284,650.

The increase in some of the departments is due to the fact that bridges had to be replanked; $22,692.96 had to be paid on the new school building and the highways had to be maintained.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Chamberlain are superintending and making, respectively, of the almshouse have as usual done good work. The net expense of the almshouse for the year has been $6,783.27; there are 17 inmates, with a registration of 30 during the year.

Edward M. Yeomans of Andover, United States trustee, who was elected chairman of the democratic state central committee Thursday afternoon, is well known in this city. He was born in Andover Nov. 27, 1871, and attended Natchaug school here, and later Trinity college. Mr. Yeomans has been connected with government offices for a number of years. He studied law in his father's office and was admitted to the bar in 1898. He held the office of auditor, 1905-1907; health officer of Tolland county from 1909-1914, and since then, had been federal referee in bankruptcy. Some ten years ago he was legislative engraving clerk.

FACE DISFIGURED BY ECZEMA

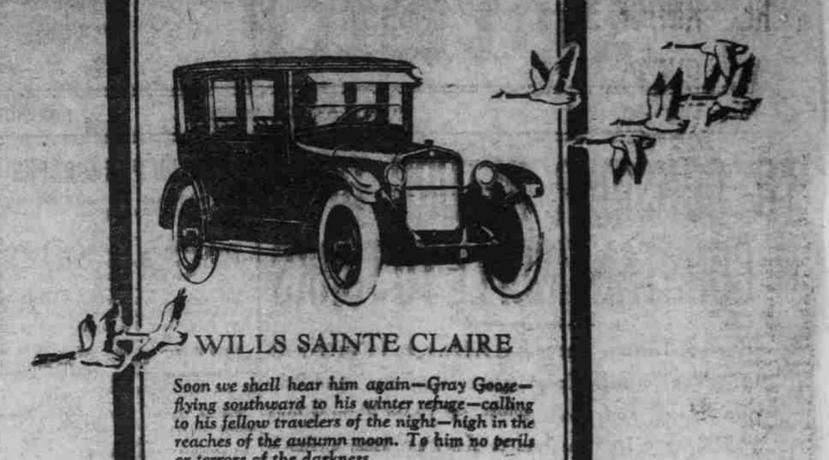

Itched and Burned. Daughter Lost Rest At Night. Cuticura Heals.

"Extreme broke out in a small, red spot on my daughter's cheek. It itched and burned so that she scratched and irritated it, and it soon spread over her face. We had to keep linen mittens on her hands to keep her from scratching. Her face was disfigured and she lost her rest at night."

"We read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment so purchased some, and in about a week her face was completely healed." (Signed) Madame Katharine L. DeGoes, The Glendell, Catskill, N. Y.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and vacuum promote and maintain skin purity, skin comfort and skin health often when all else fails.

Sample Book Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories," Dept. 500, P. O. Box 1024, Lowell, Mass. Cuticura Soap should be used without soap.

WILLS SAINTE CLAIRE

Soon we shall hear him again—Gray Goose—flying southward to his winter refuge—calling to his fellow travelers of the night—high in the reaches of the autumn moon. To him no perils or terrors of the darkness.

Engineering has given the Wills Sainte Claire a new element of security and comfort in night motoring. The brilliant headlights are raised or lowered by a steering column control. A backing light (turned on with reverse gear) and the courtesy light (on roadster and phaeton) add vastly to your motoring luxury.

JULIAN L. WILLIAMS,
30 TOWN ST.,
NORWICH

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE

Willimantic, Conn.

The New Fall Dresses

ARE CLASSICS IN LINE

The new Fall Dresses, whose lines are traceable to oversea originators, but which were modified to the American women's taste, will certainly interest you.

The smart departures in designing, the little elegancies in tailoring that distinguish the American woman, were brought about by American fashion artists.

Your attention is called to the fact, that in spite of their originality and distinctiveness, their prices ranging from $19.50 to $39.00 with many in between are noteworthy.

Today, Saturday, Sept. 23, the Jewish people of America and the world, will assemble in their synagogues to observe according to the tradition of their fathers a solemn holiday, Rosh Hashanah, or the New Year. All the business places of business in this city closed at sundown Friday and will remain closed until Monday morning next. A series of services began Friday evening and will continue through today and Sunday. Rabbi Max Levine is in charge.

Celia Hurten Beckar has brought suit for divorce against Henry Buckner of this city on grounds of intolerable cruelty. The action is returnable before the superior court in New London county on the first Tuesday in October.

Frank Caspko of No. 18 Chapman street was arrested by the police on a warrant charging him with assaulting Antonia Kulczak of No. 48 Brook street. Caspko furnished bonds of $50 for his appearance in court next Monday morning.

William F. Jordan has purchased a two-story wooden dwelling on Church street from the Mary A. Cranston estate through the administrator, William Spencer.

Louis Maurice of Canada and Miss Florence of this city were married Wednesday at St. Mary's church. Rev. M. C. Pelec officiated at the ceremony and sang the nuptial mass. The witnesses were Joseph Maurice and Joseph Vertefeuille.

The Norwich police telephoned the local department Friday noon saying that Jennie Tubbs, 11, was lost and it was believed that she had been taken to this city. The little girl has light hair, wore a pink dress, and was without hat or coat.

The republican convention of the second congressional district to nominate a candidate for congress will be held in the town hall in this city (Saturday) noon. From all indications it seems that the present incumbent, Edward F. Preston, will be nominated by acclamation. After the convention the delegates and guests will have dinner in Grand Army hall in the town building. The woman's relief corps will be in charge.

Electrical Contractor Fred L. Yeomans has brought suit against Joe Rosen a Broad street tailor for $150 damages. Plaintiff alleges that on or before August 12, 1921, he performed work and furnished material and men in the wiring of the defendant's theatre building on Broad street, for which he is being compensated. Three attachments to the amount of $2,000 have been placed on parcels of land on Quarry street belonging to Rosen and the theatre building on Broad street. The case is returnable before the Windham county superior court the first Tuesday in October.

Noted Here and There.

Thomas J. Killourey, train caller at the local station, is on a week's vacation. Friday he attended Brooklyn fair.

Constable and Mrs. Harry W. Avery of South Windham attended the Eastern States exposition in Springfield recently.

William V. Muscivich of Boston has returned to Boston college to resume his studies after a two weeks' stay with T. Maxwell Connelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Parker of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. Walter B. Slater of Portchester, N. Y., are visiting Mrs. Jennie Bradshaw at her cottage at Lake Waugumbagog.

Alfred Rivard left Friday evening to enter the Sulclian seminary in Washington, D. C. Mr. Rivard will be ordained to the Catholic priesthood in June, 1923.

Francis Brown and Miss Dorothy Hurley of this city were married at St. Mary's rectory recently by Rev. J. J. Pappilon.

Among those attending the Eastern States exposition at Springfield were Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Lincoln, Judge and Mrs. Otto B. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Storrs, Mr. and Mrs. A. Vignard, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. John Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. George Moon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Penton, Lloyd Wilson, Luther Martin, Mr. and Mrs. James Hurley, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sumner and Stanley Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Diabola, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Webster and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Bowen.

Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Russ have been entertaining Mrs. Dwight Lyon of North Windham for a few days.

Mrs. Adey Foster will spend the week with Mrs. Frances Dodge of Woodstock Valley.

Barbara Lincoln, daughter of Allen B. Lincoln of Westford, left Friday for New York to attend the wedding of her classmate, Miss Dorothy Taylor, which takes place today (Saturday).

Miss Edna M. Taylor, teacher in New Haven, is spending the week end with her parents in this city.

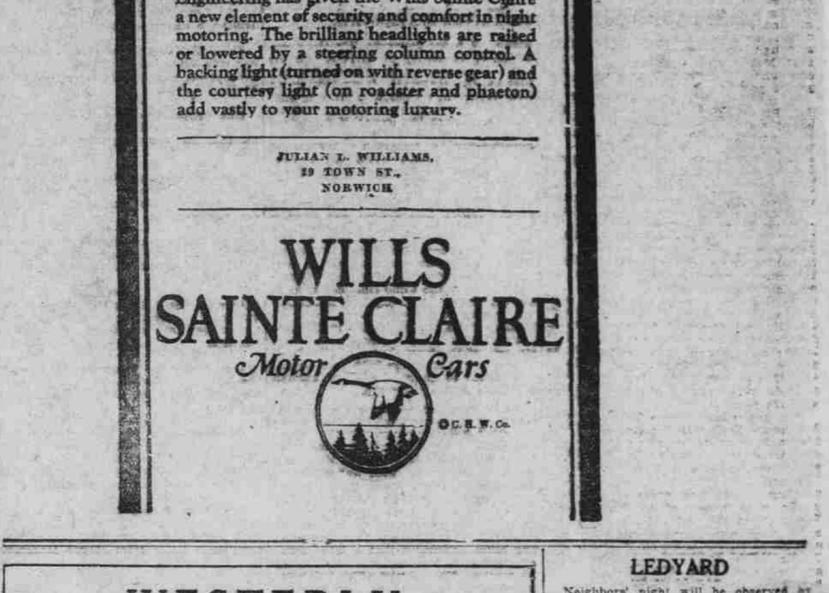

J. B. Fullerton returned Friday after several days' stay in New York.

Funeral services for Frank Howe Deming were held Friday noon at the home in Andover. Rev. Shepard Soule officiated. Burial was in the Cedar Hill cemetery, Hartford. The bearers were E. L. Smith of New Haven, Frank M. Smith, Edw. S. Smith, Maurice B. Smith, Samuel H. Harvey and John E. Harvey of this city. Many friends and relatives attended and beautiful floral pieces were received.

Funeral services for Phoebe Singley were held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the parlors of a local undertaker, Rev. Walter E. Berchert read the services. The bearers were W. C. Elmendorf, William Malibu, Burt C. Greene and David Mason. Burial was in Willimantic cemetery.

WILLS SAINTE CLAIRE

Motor Cars

WESTERLY

SWEATERS—

CONTINUE TO FASCINATE—

The reason for this is simple to solve, a pretty Sweater worn with a pretty Skirt is an attractive, yet an inexpensive costume, not to mention its desirability for keeping one warm these cool days when the glorious weather lures one on a long walk.

SWEATERS | SWEATERS

FOR WOMEN | FOR BOYS' AND MISSES'

Women's Shetland Sweaters, just received, in white large sizes — $4.98.

Women's Fine Worsted Sweaters, in colors, plain or Angora trimmed — $4.95.

Misess' Colored Coat Sweaters — $4.98.

Boys' Colored Coat Sweaters — $5.98.

COLCHESTER

A meeting of the pupils of Mrs. A. T. Van Cleve was held at her home on South Main street Wednesday evening. There were 23 present. The Etude club was organized for the purpose of studying musical history and music. Miss Sara Cutler was elected president and Miss Diana Standard secretary and treasurer. A light lunch was served and a social hour was spent. The next meeting will be held with Miss Leonard Adams as hostess.

Arthur Holmes of New London was in town Thursday.

L. Church of Willimantic was calling in town Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Howland, Mrs. A. T. Van Cleve and Daniel O'Brien motored to Boston Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Agranovich motored to New London Thursday.

John H. Sherman of Norwich was in town Thursday.

Men were in town Thursday taking out the large gasoline tank in front of T. E. Kinney's block on Merchants Row. The tank held 1300 gallons and was used by C. W. Blakeslee & Sons while building the new state road.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cohen of Hartford are visiting Mr. Cohen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. D. Hamilton and Jewish residents in town are celebrating their New York today (Saturday). All their places of business are closed for the day.

Seiden P. Sears is moving his household goods from the tenement in Joseph Agranovich's house on South Main street to New Milford.

J. Horowitz and son James motored to Bridgeport Thursday.

STAFFORDVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Belcher with their family went to Springfield last Sunday to visit their daughter, Miss Dorothy Belcher, who is a member of the nurses' training class in Wesson Memorial hospital.

George Moore has been spending a week with his grandson, Merl Hughes, and family in Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hamilton and two children of Marion Mass, have been spending two weeks' vacation with Mrs. Hamilton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maro Hatch.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Belcher and Mr. and Mrs. Edna Belcher visited relatives in New Britain Sunday.

Harry Smith is clerk for a shoe company of Hartford, where he commenced his duties the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Moore, of East-Hampton, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hatheway Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Clark and children of Ellington were the guests Sunday of Mrs. Edna Dunham.

LEDYARD

Neighbors' night will be observed by Ledyard grange, No. 157, Friday evening, Oct. 6. Invitations have been sent to Norwich, Preston City, North Stonington and Groton granges to attend and lay part in the literary program.

Arthur D. Barrett has raised some extra large yams or sweet potatoes this year. Mr. Barrett has had fifty pounds in gathering, raising a large amount of produce which was extra nice and nearly all of it was sold in the Norwich market.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gray and Mrs. Isaac G. Geer, accompanied by Charles E. Fockham of Norwich, left Thursday morning to visit the Springfield fair. From there they will tour to Vermont. Also visit relatives on Cape Cod. They expect to be gone several days.

Miss Barbara Goodenough left Wednesday to enter Columbia college. She proposes to take a year course in domestic science.

James Gray, who has been working in Preston for Albert Bennett during the past summer, is now doing work for Charles A. Gray while Mr. and Mrs. Gray are away on a pleasure trip.

Ray D. Holdridge has entered the employ of Mell & Barry of Norwich, contractors.

ART NEEDLE WORK

The long evenings and stormy days will be found shorter and pleasant if you are interested in art needlework, for here are hundreds of new prices just received.

There are bureau scarfs, centers, pillow tops, towels, dresses and a hundred and one things, stamped on good quality material, ready to work. Step in and look them over. You will be interested.

STYLISH STOUT DRESSES

More and more fashions for stout women are being developed along the lines of her slender sisters. True to this development are these we are just showing, embodying the favorite style tendencies, carried out with a dignified conservatism appropriate to full figures and designed along lines that dominate fashionable apparel, and may be had in black, navy and brown.

COLUMBIA

Miss Madeline Tucker, who is engaged in business in Hartford, is at home for a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Isham spent last week at their daughter's cottage at Groton Long Point.

The postoffice at Hop River has been closed since the recent resignation of W. E. Slater, the postmaster, as the mail for the residents is sent to the Columbia postoffice, where they are obliged to call for it, as Hop River is not on the R. F. D. route. For many years the mail for Columbia was carried into the town by a river postoffice but for the past year it has been received through Willimantic postoffice.

W. E. Slater has bought the Hook place near the bridge at the entrance to Willimantic and will move there from Hop River during October.

Miss Evelyn Woodward was given a miscellaneous shower Friday evening, the 15th at the home of her parents on Woodward Hill by the members of the Christian Endeavor society. They played games and sang songs in one of which umbrellas were carried, which at a given time were cast into the water and the guests dropped their gifts as they passed. Miss Woodward is to be married in October.

Mrs. Ruth Jacobs and her guest, Miss Mildred Latham, started at 9 a. m. Wednesday on an automobile trip to Cleveland, O. They expect to stop at Niagara Falls and to visit Miss Latham's brother, Lowell and Mrs. Latham in Cleveland, before returning to the city.

The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church held its annual meeting at the chapel Wednesday afternoon. The election resulted as follows: Mrs. Alonzo Little, first vice-president; Mrs. Henry B. Hutchins, second vice-president; Mrs. T. G. Tucker, third vice-president; Mrs. Lester J. Hutchins, secretary; Miss Amelia Fuller, treasurer. During the year they have had a balance of $14.00 in the treasury. The purchase of a piano for the chapel, $15; for the care of the church and sundry expenses, $40; total expenses, $120. During the afternoon the members had a quilt which had previously been ordered

STONINGTON

Thursday evening Ruth Chapter, No. 44, O. E. S., met in Masonic hall. At the close of the business meeting there was the initiation of one candidate. The entertainment committee furnished refreshments of coffee, sandwiches and cake. A social hour followed.

The Daughters of the Covenant held their first meeting with Mrs. D. C. Stone at the cottage Friday evening when plans were formulated for the winter's work.

The board of registration for the town of Stonington will meet today (Saturday) at the court house in Pawcatuck when those persons on the list to be made may apply for admission as electors.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Bindloss attended the Springfield fair.

Joseph Hammond leaves Monday for a vacation. He will visit his son in Canada.

Mrs. Lucy Woodbridge is ill at her home on Main street.

Cards have been received from Mr. and Mrs. William Scribner from Germany.

Mrs. Ella Kanneron has returned from a visit in Norwich.

M. E. Morton of New York is visiting borough friends over the week-end.

Mrs. J. M. Williams of Boston is visiting her aunt at the Point.

W. L. Searis of Attleboro, Mass., is spending the week-end here.

WESTMINSTER

The annual meeting of Buell wagon Canterbury, W. C. T. U., was held in the Plains church Wednesday afternoon, the 13th. The officers were re-elected recognizing that the superintendent of Americanization resigned and Miss S. L. Harty was elected to the vacancy. Mrs. Davies was elected delegate to represent the union at the state annual meeting at New London next month. At the meeting the president, Mrs. Ray Bliven, presided.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hubbard observed the 20th anniversary of their marriage Wednesday evening, Sept. 13th at their own home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Benington and little daughter spent Sunday at Longview. The Osens have been entertaining friends from Ridgewood, N. J.

There was no school last Monday and the teachers of the town, with only two missing, met with those from other towns in this group for an institute at Uncasville. One of the most interesting features of the program was the address and demonstration given by Super. H. H. West, state director of physical education.

The first of the three fall followings of the six churches of the South Windham conference, is to be held in the Congregational church in Brooklyn Tuesday of next week, beginning at 10:30 a. m. All in this region have been invited. Basket lunch is the plan, with coffee served by the entertaining church.

TRUNKS, SUIT CASES and BAGS

If you are going away traveling, on your vacation or away to school, your first thought should be on luggage, because a good trunk, suit case, or traveling bag is one thing that reflect much on your appearance.

We have them in all sizes and prices, and they are guaranteed to give you entire satisfaction—and the prices are very low.

BED LINENS

At this time of the season when vacationists are returning home, the thoughts most important in their mind is the fixing up of the home for fall and winter.

Bed sheets and pillow cases are always at their lowest ebb at this time of the year, and if you step in here, you will find a wide assortment to select from at prices that reflect economy.

PILLOW CASES, a pair 42c

BED SHEETS, each 98c

BED SPREADS, fringed, cut corners, hemmed and scalloped, at $2.00 up

SANITARY FILLED COMFORTERS $2.50 up

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

"Dairy Sunday Special."

This week is Strawberry Ice Cream, Orange Sherbet, Vanilla Ice Cream. At New Haven Dairy dealers only—Adv.

DENTIST

Dr. F. C. Jackson

SPECIALIZING IN PAINLESS EXTRACTING

715 MAIN STREET, WILLIMANTIC

Killourey Bros.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS

86 Union St. Willimantic, Conn. Phone 290. (L. Lady Assistant)

JAY M. SHEPARD

Succeeding Filmore & Shepard

Funeral Director & Embalmer

60-62 NORTH ST. WILLIMANTIC

Lady Assistant. Tel. Connection

STONINGTON

Thursday evening Ruth Chapter, No. 44, O. E. S., met in Masonic hall. At the close of the business meeting there was the initiation of one candidate. The entertainment committee furnished refreshments of coffee, sandwiches and cake. A social hour followed.

The Daughters of the Covenant held their first meeting with Mrs. D. C. Stone at the cottage Friday evening when plans were formulated for the winter's work.

The board of registration for the town of Stonington will meet today (Saturday) at the court house in Pawcatuck when those persons on the list to be made may apply for admission as electors.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Bindloss attended the Springfield fair.

Joseph Hammond leaves Monday for a vacation. He will visit his son in Canada.

Mrs. Lucy Woodbridge is ill at her home on Main street.

Cards have been received from Mr. and Mrs. William Scribner from Germany.

Mrs. Ella Kanneron has returned from a visit in Norwich.

M. E. Morton of New York is visiting borough friends over the week-end.

Mrs. J. M. Williams of Boston is visiting her aunt at the Point.

W. L. Searis of Attleboro, Mass., is spending the week-end here.

ABINGTON

Rev. R. T. Elliott has been on vacation for two weeks, during which time the church has been closed. Services will be held as usual Sunday.

School closed Wednesday to give the teachers and pupils an opportunity to attend Brooklyn fair.

Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Goodridge, who have been living in Paris the past two years, returned home the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Peal were in Waterbury over the week end attending the wedding of their niece, Miss Edna Peal, and Joseph H. Rowland for their daughter, Miss Edna Peal.

Nelson Platt took several prizes on flowers at Woodstock fair.

Misses Martha and Edith Butler returned Monday after spending several days with their sister, Mrs. C. M. Sharpe.

Vol Den grange is getting ready for its annual fair to be held this month.

Mrs. C. E. Allen of Canada is visiting her son, William Allen.

The new store is nearing completion. Many water parties from here are attending the Eastern States exposition at Springfield this week.

The will of Thomas Moffet, which directed that estates amounting to between $2,000 and $7,000 be used to erect a monument to him in Abington cemetery, has been set aside by Judge George E. Hinman in Windham county superior court. By month, the will was set aside. Mrs. Edward Peal has her niece from Boston visiting here.

There was a heavy frost Tuesday morning, the first of the season.

William Kanneron is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Burdick, in Chaplin.

Portland.—The menu for the famous Hemlock grange dinner at the Portland fair was: Roast beef with brown gravy, mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, baked corn, combination salad, rolls, tea, coffee, mince, apple and squash pie, cranberry