The kullies of the Philippines and Malay Peninsula give forth a strong aroma of onions, says the American Forestry Magazine, while the pao d'elhe of Brazil is properly known as garlic wood. Derived Name From Occupation. Hunting with a falcon was the chief sport of medieval England, and those who trained the birds or handled them were known as falconers, from which is derived our modern Faulkner with its variations. In those cases there's more than looks danger. WEATHER CHANGES CAUSE SICKNESS. Extreme changes of weather during fall cause many colds and coughs. For quick relief from throat, chest and bronchial trouble, cough, colds and croup, use Foley's Honey and Tar. Contains no opiates—ingredients printed on the wrapper. Largest selling cough medicine in the world. "Foley's Honey and Tar" is the most pleasant and efficient remedy for coughs and colds that I ever saw." writes William Jones, Dr. Barr, Illinois. L. & C.
