

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

This is the week before election. It is going to be a busy week for the politicians. The average voter isn't worrying so much about what will happen next week as he is about what will happen next Tuesday evening.

Here in Killingly the republicans are confident of a sweeping victory, notwithstanding the activity of democratic leaders who say in a plan to clean up in Windham county. In their confidence, the republican leaders say that the returns on Tuesday evening of next week will show the usual majority.

In this part of the county Plainfield seems to be one of the doubtful towns. Down there the democrats have been raising ructions with republican plans for the past two years and are promising to repeat a feat from Tuesday. Up thereupon the democrats also have a real fighting chance and, admittedly, have the republicans worried. In Killingly, a republican victory seems assured. As a whole, however, it appears from a careful canvass that the 25th senatorial district, of which Plainfield is not a part, will turn in a strong majority for the republicans. This prediction is based on the proposition that Killingly and Putnam are so strongly republican that it matters little what gains the democrats make in the other towns of the district.

Between them Killingly and Putnam have approximately 5,000 votes, and the candidates who lose out in these towns cannot hope, if they are state ticket candidates, to win in the district through gains piled up in the smaller towns.

Tomorrow (Tuesday) is the last day for filing lists of taxable properties in the town of Killingly.

Plans for making the Armistice Day celebration on Saturday, Nov. 11, notable in every respect were whipped into shape at a meeting of the committee in charge at the city station. A number of organizations have accepted invitations to take part in the big parade which is to feature the observance and the committee wishes to invite all societies to participate.

At their summer home, Reid Hill, Woodstock, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bowen of New York entertained for the week end Vicecomess Malmgren and her son, who recently arrived in America. Mrs. Bowen Van Rensselaer, who was Miss Roxana Bowen, has recently arrived home from a protracted stay abroad. Saturday evening there was a house party followed by dancing given in honor of the guests.

At the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. Dwight Sharp, School street, where he has made his home since he sold the old homestead on Church street about three years ago, Dr. William H. Sharpe, perhaps the oldest dentist in Connecticut, passed away at eight o'clock Friday evening at the age of 87 years. His death was due to the weakening of a body through old age.

Dr. Sharpe had lived in Putnam for over half a century and was one of Putnam's prominent citizens. Although he had never appeared in public affairs as a holder of office he was especially active as a worker for the cause of temperance. Both Dr. Sharpe and his wife, who died in 1917, were strong advocates of temperance and they agreed between themselves for the funds of the town to be used for the purchase of a building for the cause. Dr. Sharpe was an upright Christian gentleman. He was active in the affairs of the Second Congregational church and one of its supporters for many years. For nearly fifteen years he was superintendent of the Sunday school. He attended services regularly even up to a few weeks ago. He was a pleasant man to meet, of cheery disposition and always with warm wishes and a pleasant greeting for friends or acquaintances.

William H. Sharpe was born May 2nd, 1835, at Killingly Center, son of William S. and Nancy (Jenks) Sharpe, and was one of twelve children. November 29, 1858, he was married to Miss Amy A. Cutler, daughter of Captain Dan Cutler of Killingly.

In 1857 he removed to Putnam where for a time he was employed in the drug store of Dr. J. H. Thompson. In 1859 he became associated with Dr. Albert Crawford, at that time a prominent dentist of this section. He remained with Dr. Crawford until his death in 1860 and after the doctor's death purchased the business. For the succeeding 55 years he remained in active practice, retiring about five years ago on account of advanced years.

Dr. Sharpe educated and helped to establish his brother, Dr. O. C. Sharpe of Danielson and also two of his sons, Dr. Harry W. Sharpe, who took over his father's business, and Dr. Merton R. Sharpe of Uxbridge, Mass.

Dr. Sharpe united with the Congregational church in 1859. The only other organization he was affiliated with was the Connecticut State Temperance society. He was a staunch republican.

Dr. Sharpe is survived by five children, Frederick K. Sharpe, Mrs. Cora Sharpe, Mrs. Alice Carpenter and Dr. Henry W. Sharpe, all of Putnam, and Dr. Merton R. Sharpe, of Uxbridge; also two brothers, Dr. O. C. Sharpe of Danielson and William W. Sharpe, of Boulder, Col.

Carlisle counsel, E. of C., has fixed the date for his annual indoor fair. Fred Gagne has been chosen chairman of the general committee to have charge of staging the event.

Joseph A. Lester, editor of "La Justice," a French paper, addressed the French speaking republicans of the north end in St. John's hall, Friday evening. Mayor Macdonald, State Treasurer Gilpatrick and others addressed the gathering in English. Mrs. Marion Blake Campbell of Hartford talked to the women voters.

Members of the board of assessors have been in session at the municipal building for a week receiving lists of taxable property. They will conclude their duties on Wednesday.

The police are holding two bicycles believed to have been stolen. Any person having lost a bicycle call to inspect the two machines at police headquarters on Church street.

Dr. Frank A. Wheaton, Mrs. Wheaton and their daughter of Bellingham, Washington, are the guests of Dr. Wheaton's mother, Mrs. E. M. Wheaton, Grove street. Dr. Wheaton is a graduate of the Putnam High School and lived in Putnam during his boyhood.

Putnam lodge of Elks is planning to hold a Halloween party in their rooms in the Elks' block, Tuesday evening. There will be refreshments and dancing. Hunters report many birds this fall. An unusually large number of cock pheasants are being shot. The birds are close but are an easy target when started.

The ladies of the Episcopal church held a whist, Friday evening. Eight tables were used, part playing bridge and the rest playing bid whist.

Whist, billiard and checker tournaments are being planned for the winter season by members of Putnam lodge of Elks. E. R. Robins and Victor Chappelaine are the committee on whist; George Lewis and Jess Rich, billiards, and

DANIELSON NIGHT POLICE TO BE INCREASED

(Special to The Bulletin.) Danielson, Oct. 29.—Following a meeting of the ward and court of burgesses at which representatives of the chamber of commerce were in attendance, it was announced that the night police force of this borough is to be increased. This increase in the night patrol is a direct result of the robbery of the Church company's store in which a loss of $5,000 was sustained by the firm.

Christopher Andrews, a member of the borough police force, and Arthur DeForest are to be the new officers. Of course Andrews is already in on duty and Mr. DeForest will go on duty at the end of the present week.

It is anticipated that the presence of two officers in the business section of Danielson makes it possible to keep a closer watch on all of the business places during the night season and increase the hazard of any group who may attempt to burglarize any store.

The chamber of commerce has interested itself in night police patrol matters because of the fact that many of the business men, under a peculiar system that is vague in Danielson, contribute stated sums weekly, turned in to the borough treasury, toward the support of the police department.

The changes heron announced will without doubt come as a very much of a surprise to many in Danielson, but they have been decided upon after due deliberation and in view of all of the facts presented for consideration.

PUTNAM

Among the most recent real estate deals in the city are the following: Eugene J. Mignault has sold a house and lot on the easterly side of Church street to John E. Lavallee and also a house lot on the westerly side of the same street to William St. Onge. Mr. and Mrs. Garrah Smith, Jr. have bought of Harmon G. and Everett Carver a house on Buck street.

There was a large attendance at a Halloween masquerade dance held in A. O. H. hall Friday evening. Dancing was from 9 to 1 o'clock. Many pretty and a few grotesque costumes were worn by the dancers. At intermission there were a number of supper parties.

At their summer home, Reid Hill, Woodstock, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bowen of New York entertained for the week end Vicecomess Malmgren and her son, who recently arrived in America. Next Saturday night a large delegation of members of Israel Putnam lodge of Odd Fellows will go to Central Village. They will be accompanied by 13 candidates entitled to the third degree and a class of candidates numbering 17 will be worked by the degree team of the Central Village lodge.

Miss Alice Fallon has become assistant teacher in the State District school. This school is attended by the children from the Windham County Temporary Home and has been in charge of Miss Edith Fox. The number of pupils became so large that an assistant teacher was necessary.

A stajing is being built about the steeple of the Congregational church. The top of the steeple is to be repainted and the brick work pointed up. Local men are doing the work which was last done by a steeple jack.

Lionel Labossiere, manager of the Putnam High School basketball team has his team at practice shooting baskets and limbering up during the week, getting ready for a hard season ahead for some strong teams are booked to oppose the local quintet.

While somewhat remote there is a possibility of a new manufacturing business locating in Putnam. A concern manufacturing merchandise of glass is looking about for a location. A Putnam man has offered to donate a piece of real estate suitable for building a factory. The matter is so indefinite at present that little or no information as to how far the plans have proceeded is available.

More manufacturing industries in what Putnam needs at the present time, but although during past years there have been some prospects nothing has developed. Situated as it is on a railroad junction point and a freight transfer point this city offers in this respect unusual advantages to manufacturing concerns.

A big parade during the day and a dance in the evening will feature the Armistice Day observance in Putnam. Dr. Edward F. Perry, captain in the medical corps in France during the World War and the first commander of Ansonia, Maine post, American Legion of Putnam, has been chosen to act as marshal.

The committee in charge of the parade and incidental details is composed of the Francis Metcalf, John H. Moss and Post Commander Alfred J. Pigeon.

As far as the details have been worked out the parade will form as follows: Escort of police, marching band, Waucauan band, American Legion, Red Cross, Salvation Army, K. of G. G. A. R., in automobiles, Spanish War Veterans, Women's Relief corps, Ladies of G. A. R., in automobiles, American Foresters' Guard of Honor, city officials, Red Men, Elks, other fraternal organizations, Marching band, Putnam Fire department.

All patriotic and fraternal societies have been invited to take part. Automobile owners have been appealed to to loan their cars for the occasion. The day will conclude with the dance in Union hall in charge of John J. Whitehead, Jr., Rosario Beasopelle, Kenneth C. Sharpe, Michael L. White and Charles F. Swain.

Town Clerk David Flagg and Mrs. Flagg, have returned from a motor trip to Baltimore where they were guests of their son, Joseph Flagg, and wife.

The nine ways being done by the fire team of Israel Putnam lodge of Odd Fellows of this city is becoming widely known as evidenced by an invitation from a Hartford lodge to have the team go to that city and work the third degree in the near future. The invitation is taken as a tribute to the fine work being done in this, one of the smaller cities of the state, by members of the local lodge.

Temperance union held an interesting and well attended meeting in the Congregational chapel. The president of the State W. C. T. U., Mrs. Mary C. Woodson, was present and gave a very comprehensive talk.

New Haven—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hunt held a reception in honor of their twenty-fifth anniversary at their home, 237 Newhall street.

Middletown—A meeting of local business men was held in the chapel parlors to take up for consideration the question of establishing a bank in this village.

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for cod-liver—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like cod-liver—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.
