

WESTERLY

Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown recently discovered that Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gagnon and two daughters were residing in a dilapidated barn at the station place near the Pawcatuck river.

George Gedeonello of Pierce street is unable to be out again after sustaining injuries in a recent football game.

At a spiritual mass celebrated by Rev. Henry Bruno Wednesday morning at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on High street, Miss Margaret Gentile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gentile of Westford, was the bride.

William A. Sisson, aged 75 years, died at his home on the Post road Wednesday afternoon.

In the superior court at Kingston Wednesday in the case of the state against John Alessio, charged with driving away a motor truck belonging to Charles Goldberg, the defendant pleaded guilty.

The Corporation of the Palmer Chapter, No. 2, Royal Arch Masons, tendered a reception Wednesday evening at the Masonic hall on High street.

Several autoists have been summoned to appear before Judge Williams in the Third District court Friday morning at nine o'clock on alleged violations of the parking ordinance.

Joseph Lortie of Mystic and Miss Cecilia Grosvenor of Westford were united in marriage Wednesday at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on High street by Rev. Henry Bruno.

The selectmen of the towns of Groton and Stonington had a joint meeting Monday evening and the meeting of the expense in connection with the building of the new bridge at Mystic was taken up.

Next Thursday the Stonington High school football team will play the Westford team.

Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Henderson will close their home here next week and return to St. Louis for the winter.

Edward Farman has come to New York where he will enter the employ of the New York Central railroad.

An exploding magazine stove set fire to the kitchen of Henry School at Grand View park Tuesday and quite a little damage was done before the fire was put out.

Miss M. A. Staplin is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. August Mather of Westford.

FOR COUGHS AND COLDS... THE OTHER JOHN'S MEDICINE... NO DRUGS

MYSTIC

Mystic people are being warned by Chief Engineer C. R. Donath of the Mystic fire department of the possibilities of chimney fires which may happen.

Miss Esther Glick, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Goldberg have returned from Hartford, having been guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Benditt of West Main street.

Charles Trimbach of New York was a visitor here this week.

There were several hupling parties in the woods Tuesday after the rain, recalling that the open season on birds is fast coming to a close.

The dedication for the bazaar to be held at the Congregational church are in charge of a committee with Edward King as chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Alroy, who recently moved to Plainfield from Taftville, spent the week-end in their town home.

The work of excavating under the Congregational church is going on with marked success.

The staging is up for the repairing of the roof and work is already under way.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilberly were visited last week by their daughter, Miss Maude Wilberly, nurse in the Hartford hospital.

Henry Gagnon, one of the members of the Atwood Hose company, was injured at the fire which destroyed most of the dwelling house of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lively early Saturday morning of last week.

Leo Farland, who has been and now is at the Day Kimball hospital, is slowly improving but will doubtless be there for some weeks to come.

Walter Smith has a new automobile.

Miss Mary Gainer of Pascoag, R. I. is at the Kerkano for a few days.

Double Change of Volstead Act. Will either the democratic party or the republican party take the risk of relaxing Volsteadism?

PACKARD TRUCKS

It is a fact that the user of Packard Trucks rarely changes. He buys at the right price, in the first place; and he receives full value in the years his Packard serves him, and in the money it saves him.

E. B. PATTERSON 391 Williams Street New London, Conn. PHONE 2157

PACKARD TRUCKS

NUMBER FOUR

(Continued from Page One)

review the 106th Infantry regiment. Crossing Manhattan bridge, the Tiger's car plunged at once into a lane of wildly cheering school children—many of them garbed in picturesque garments, most of them waving French or American flags, and all of them cheering and crying "Vive Le Tigre" and "Vive La France."

The children, whose number was estimated as high as 350,000, lined both sides of the street for nearly five miles—all the way to the armory.

Clemenceau, visibly moved, kept waving his gray felt hat and bowing, and exclaiming to his escorts "Les Petites Coques" (the little goings)—a French expression of affection.

The 106th army, which seats about 10,000, was packed, and the Tiger was given long ovation as he walked slowly in review before the massed troops.

After he had placed a wreath on the tablet commemorating the regiment's dead, Clemenceau faced the uniformed men and addressed them "as a man of action to men of action."

Praising their work in France, which he said he had good cause to remember, the Tiger declared:

"All that remains for you now is to be as great in peace as you were in war. I will remain until my last breath a great admirer of the United States. And I will always remember that behind the citizens there are always the soldiers—magnificent soldiers."

Although it was his day of greatest ovations, there came to the Tiger, too, evidence that his tour was not to be wholly over a path of roses.

He told his auditors, for example, that they, with the rest of America, were "not as well informed as they ought to be."

When they came to France, he said, they talked about the trip to Brookline, Fifth avenue and Broadway.

Then he robbed the remark of its sting by advising them to ask any American soldier who had met a French girl how easy and pleasant it was to learn French and the ways of France.

Immediately after he had charged America with having "betrayed" France "in the lurch" he set the hall reverberating with applause when, with a great flashing of eyes, he declared, "We have to defend our frontier, and we will defend it."

Closing his speech, he declared he already felt his self-imposed mission to America was a success.

STONINGTON

The selectmen of the towns of Groton and Stonington had a joint meeting Monday evening and the meeting of the expense in connection with the building of the new bridge at Mystic was taken up.

Next Thursday the Stonington High school football team will play the Westford team.

Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Henderson will close their home here next week and return to St. Louis for the winter.

Edward Farman has come to New York where he will enter the employ of the New York Central railroad.

An exploding magazine stove set fire to the kitchen of Henry School at Grand View park Tuesday and quite a little damage was done before the fire was put out.

Miss M. A. Staplin is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. August Mather of Westford.

FOR COUGHS AND COLDS... THE OTHER JOHN'S MEDICINE... NO DRUGS

WILSONVILLE

Miss Mary Gainer of Pascoag, R. I. is at the Kerkano for a few days.

Walter Smith has a new automobile.

Double Change of Volstead Act. Will either the democratic party or the republican party take the risk of relaxing Volsteadism?

It is a fact that the user of Packard Trucks rarely changes. He buys at the right price, in the first place; and he receives full value in the years his Packard serves him, and in the money it saves him.

WOMEN'S PLUSH COATS, AT $25.00

Women's Sport Coats with Raccoon Collars — Plaid-back material, half-lined—swagger fur-collared Coat, at $35.00.

RACCOON-COLLARED COATS, AT $45.00

Women's Coats with "double skin" Raccoon Collars on handsome Polo Cloth, with Suede lining—exceptional value Coats. at $45.00.

WOMEN'S PLUSH COATS, AT $25.00

Women's Plush Coats, with large Mufflon Collars, at $25.00—these are unusual value.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL Co.

November Sale of Coats

A fortunate purchase—a sacrifice of our profit—both unite in the biggest money-saving occasion in Women's, Misses' and Children's Coats that we have ever offered at this season.

THE SAVINGS ARE EXTRAORDINARY!

FUR-COLLARED COATS, AT $25.00

At this price, we offer an unusual selection of Coats for Women and Misses. The materials are Bolivia, Normandy and Suedine Cloths, with and without fur collars—snappy styles for young women and slenderizing models for large women.

WOMEN'S PLUSH COATS, AT $25.00

Women's Plush Coats, with large Mufflon Collars, at $25.00—these are unusual value.

WOMEN'S PLUSH COATS, AT $29.50

Women's Plush Coats with handsome Beaverette Collars—very special value at $29.50.

WOMEN'S PLUSH COATS, AT $45.00

These are 40-inch Coats of fine quality Plush, with large black Opossum collar and cuffs—extraordinary value at $45.00.

FUR-COLLARED COATS, AT $49.50

Women's Fur-Collared Coats of rare charm and style, luxurious soft fur collars—Beaver, Squirrel, Wolf, Australian Opossum, Nutria and Caracul—the fabrics are of surprising beauty in appearance and texture, sizes 16 to 46—Very special value at $49.50.

WOMEN'S FUR COATS

AT $125.00—Women's Sealine Coats with Skunk collar and cuffs.

AT $129.00—Women's 40-inch Natural Opossum Coats.

AT $185.00—Women's Handsome, Natural Muskrat Coats.

Women's and Misses' Coats, $15.00

Women's and Misses' Winter Coats of heavy plaid back and Polo Cloth, sizes 16 to 42, a wonderful coat for business or school wear. A good selection of styles—all at $15.00, value up to $29.50.

Children's Winter Coats, at $13.50

These Coats are of Polo Cloth, with Beaverette Collars, in a variety of attractive models, sizes 8 to 14 years—Coats taken from our line of better goods and reduced to $13.50 for this occasion.

The Porteous & Mitchell Co.

Rheumatism! Sloan's... It kills pain by breaking up congestion. Most aches of rheumatism arise from congestion. Apply Sloan's... Sloan's Liniment kills pain!