

WESTERLY

In the superior court before Judge Sumner and a jury Tuesday, Maurice Handelman took the stand and told the jury of his doings on the 21st day of August, 1922. It is alleged that on that day he acted with two other men, who made their escape, to commit larceny and he is charged with the larceny of $750 from the Westerly branch of the Industrial Trust Co.

Handelman testified that he is twenty-eight years of age and has a wife living in Boston. He said that he left Boston at 10:30 a. m. on August 21 for the purpose of coming to Westerly. He arrived at Providence at 11 o'clock and arrived at Westerly via the Valley route at 1:20 sharp. Proceeding up High street he did not notice the Industrial Trust Co. bank. He drove on for a short distance and parked his car a little south of the Westerly Furniture Co.'s store.

M. Kenyon was admitted to probate and ordered recorded and Charles E. Kenyon was confirmed as executor. Inventory and appraisal of the estate of John M. Barber, deceased, was received and ordered recorded and authorized given to the executor of the will to sell articles of inventory at private sale. Petition for the appointment of a guardian of the persons and estate of Jennie L. Stillman was referred to Jan. 5th, with order of notice.
