The number of steamboat accidents during the year 1855, have been 27, by which 175 persons were killed, and 107 were wounded.

The Cincinnati Commercial is greatly shocked, because Senator Pugh declared in speech before the Ohio Democratic State Convention, that he should not consider himself under obligations to obey any laws which the present Know Nothing Abolition Legislature of that State might see fit to give him.

When a gentleman, with a full knowledge of his views on all the great questions of the day, no Legislature has the moral right to instruct him to contrary to his avowed sentiments, and no upright and independent Senator will regard these mischievous "instructions," with which an opposition Legislature may choose to annoy him.

We learn from a communication in the New Albany Ledger, that the citizens of Jeffersonville are making an effort to have the seat of justice of Clark county removed from Charlestown to that place.

The Know Nothing Councils of the city of Richmond, Va., have declared a preference for John M. Botts for the Presidency. In commenting upon this nomination, the Richmond Whig, the organ of the party in Virginia, makes a terrible assault on Botts, charging him with desertion of the rights of the South to advance his own personal interests, and to gratify his overweening vanity.

The journals promise some rich developments in the case of the Doctor of Rev. R. W. Griswold, editor of the "Poets of America," about to come before the courts. The Doctor married for his third wife a Miss McGrille, of Maine. His second wife is a South Carolina by birth, and alleges fraud on the Doctor's part in obtaining a divorce from her.

On the 4th ult., Jane Anderson and her infant two years old, were found dead on Armstrong Creek, Fayette county, Virginia. It appears the girl had fallen, and had been for some time lying with Charles Payne, her seducer. He deserted her, and with her infant in her arms, she walked to her step-father's. He indignantly spurned her from his door, and the poor woman started to cross the mountain, with the intention of searching for Payne. Her strength gave out in the attempt, and with her child she sank in the cold mountain path and breathed her last.

At Burlington, Illinois, a few days since, a woman, while drawing water from a well, slipped on the ice and fell to the bottom, nearly thirty feet, headwards! She managed to get above water immediately, and calling help, was extricated from her perilous condition.

A German woman crossing in the ferry boat from Jersey City to New York, on Thursday evening, to take the Erie cars, wrapped her shawl around her infant to keep it warm. When the boat reached the wharf, the mother unwrapped the infant, and found that it was stark and stiff, having been smothered to death!

Kosuth in his letter to the New York Independent, denounces the Papal-Austrian Concordat, in bitter invective, as a "new usance forged for the Hungarians," and as a "new poison brewed in the arsenal of Emperor and Pope." He sees in it was unnumbered for the Protestants of his native land.
