

Indiana State Sentinel.

WEEKLY EDITION.

INDIANAPOLIS, MAY 29, 1847.

Our Terms. The following will hereafter be the permanent terms of the Weekly Indiana State Sentinel.

Published three times a week during the session.

Legal Advertisements. The undersigned will not publish legal notices in their respective papers without payment being made therefor in advance.

The Saddle placed on the right horse. Hardly ever have we seen a more infamous article than that which appeared in the Indiana Journal of April 30, under the above head.

Upon what ruzzed mountain side or gay plain did your (French) vixen, leeches affect the sincerity of their principles of a system of aggression and plunder?

Terre Haute and Richmond Railroad. We have been favored with the following letter for publication. The appointment of commissioners to consider an excellent one; and we have no doubt, from the interest manifested in the subject, that they will receive subscriptions not only liberal, but commensurate with the importance of the work.

CHAUNCEY ROSE, President. JAMES H. TURNER, Sec. pro tem. To Messrs. J. S. BOWEN, N. W. VOYLES, N. McCARTY.

OLD FELLOWS.—White Water Lodge, No. 21, I. O. O. F. was instituted at Richmond on the 21st instant, by J. P. Chapman of Indianapolis, who had been deputed by the proper authority for that purpose, and who was aided and assisted by respectable delegations from the lodges at Cambridge, Centreville, Hagerstown, and Indianapolis.

IRISH FAMINE.—The London Spectator of a late date says—it is now calculated by active members of relief committees, and the estimate is said to be admitted by cabinet ministers, that the Irish famine will probably kill two millions of people this year.

Candidates for Congress. Democratic. 1st District. Robert Dale Owen, Elisha Embree.

THE RAILROAD.—We understand that the commissioners appointed as per letter in another column, have determined to open their books in accordance with said instructions, at BROWN'S HOTEL.

THE BANK OF ENGLAND.—The Bank of England was, at the latest dates from the other side, putting on the screws to some purpose.

THE NEW ORLEANS PLEASURE.—The Philadelphia Ledger of the 18th inst., says: "The war in Mexico is not only aroused the military enthusiasm of our own citizens, but it seems that numbers of Europeans are offering their services to the United States Government."

BANK DEFEALATION.—A large defealation has been discovered in the New England Bank, Boston. Philip Muret, formerly Cashier, and lately President of the Bank, has abstracted from its funds over $100,000.

THE AMERICAN STAR.—The title of the new American paper published at Jalapa. Under the head of "Revolution in Washington," the "Star" translates a statement from "El Republicano" of the city of Mexico, to the effect that a Revolution had broken out in Washington City, and that "the whig and loco-foco parties were preparing for action."

IRISH GENEALOGY.—A sailor on board of one of our vessels to Belfast was fined £5 for an attempt to smuggle a quantity of tobacco—an offence to which Jack, in his good-natured sympathy for all lovers of the weed, is specially prone.

GEN. WOOL.—Nine-tenths of the volunteers who have served under Gen. Wool, says the "Picket Guard," would this day prefer him to any Brigadier General in Mexico.

Charge of Garbling.

The Indiana Journal, a few days since charged the Logansport Pharos with the dishonesty of publishing a garbled extract of one of General Taylor's letters, for the purpose of showing that the General was in favor of marching to the Rio Grande and claiming that river as the Texan boundary.

Our position was in the road, by which alone the artillery of the enemy could be brought forward, and only opened to artillery fire until the 2d Indiana, Kentucky, Illinois, and Mississippi troops had been successively driven back by the overpowering force of the enemy.

As troops never fought better than the 3d Indiana—as their steadiness and coolness is proverbial, it is not to be wondered at that they were ordered to do so by their commander, (as in evidence before a court of inquiry now sitting.)

It would be criminal in me to permit our brave soldiers, who have done so much to sustain their country's honor, to sleep under the gross injustice which your article does them, and I respectfully request that you will give this note a place in your paper.

It having been stated that Captain Lincoln was killed whilst rallying the Indians, Colonel Lane addressed a letter to Captain Starbuck, inquiring into the facts of Captain Lincoln's fall.

IMPROVEMENT OF THE WABASH.—An extra from the Vincennes (La.) Gazette, dated the 14th instant, announces that the obstructions in the navigation of the Wabash river are about to be removed.

THE BOOKS FOR THE SUBSCRIPTION TO THE WABASH NAVIGATION COMPANY, opened at this place, have been closed, with a subscription of $31,000, which, with what we know has been taken at other points, fully authorizes us to announce that more than the expected amount of stock has been taken.

MONEY MATTERS.—The New York Tribune says—There is a sudden and considerable accession to the supply of money in Wall street, more than is rent for through legitimate loans.

THE AMERICAN STAR.—The title of the new American paper published at Jalapa. Under the head of "Revolution in Washington," the "Star" translates a statement from "El Republicano" of the city of Mexico, to the effect that a Revolution had broken out in Washington City, and that "the whig and loco-foco parties were preparing for action."

THE SADDLE PLACED ON THE RIGHT HORSE. Hardly ever have we seen a more infamous article than that which appeared in the Indiana Journal of April 30, under the above head.

UPON WHAT RUZZED MOUNTAIN SIDE OR GAY PLAIN DID YOUR (FRENCH) VIXEN, LEECHES AFFECT THE SINCERITY OF THEIR PRINCIPLES OF A SYSTEM OF AGGRESSION AND PLUNDER?

The Indiana Volunteers at Buena Vista.

The New Orleans Delta publishes the following communication, from Col. Lane, of the 3d regiment Indiana Volunteers, in relation of the charges that have been circulated in relation to the conduct of the Indians at the Buena Vista: CAMP BUENA VISTA, April 19, 1847.

It is an error that the Indiana brigade, as a brigade, was in the fight at the 1st regiment was on the Rio Grande, the 2d on the extreme left of the line of battle, the 3d on the extreme right—further separated than any two regiments upon the field.

Our position was in the road, by which alone the artillery of the enemy could be brought forward, and only opened to artillery fire until the 2d Indiana, Kentucky, Illinois, and Mississippi troops had been successively driven back by the overpowering force of the enemy.

As troops never fought better than the 3d Indiana—as their steadiness and coolness is proverbial, it is not to be wondered at that they were ordered to do so by their commander, (as in evidence before a court of inquiry now sitting.)

Brigadier General Lane.

The hearing of this gallant officer in the battle of Buena Vista, as detailed by persons who were present, was in the highest degree gallant, noble and soldier-like.

Our position was in the road, by which alone the artillery of the enemy could be brought forward, and only opened to artillery fire until the 2d Indiana, Kentucky, Illinois, and Mississippi troops had been successively driven back by the overpowering force of the enemy.

The Contrast.

The Washington Union, under this head, has a communication, contrasting the course of the federal members of Congress, and our brave army in Mexico. In speaking of the battle of Buena Vista, which took place on the 22d day of February, a day long to be recollected as the anniversary of the birth day of Washington. He writes:

Whist these brave men were fighting our battle, and pouring out their life's blood like water, curiosity led me to examine what their representatives in Congress assembled were doing for them.

But they breathed out their spirits; and the cold, unfeeling, anti-American words fell not upon the leaders ears. In the other end of the Capitol, where the immediate representatives of the people were assembled, another scene was being enacted; the army appropriation bill was under consideration.

Three days before the bloody battle of Buena Vista, Colonel Bowles ordered the lamented Captain Kinder to detail a portion of his command for a special purpose.

Relief of Ireland and Scotland. The committee have sent down to the depot 44 wagon loads of provisions for Ireland and Scotland. The freight is more expensive than was at first anticipated.

PROVISIONS. J. Jones and C. White, flour, 1 barrel. Powell Howard, " 200 lbs. John Hatch, " 1 barrel.

THE NEW YORK CORRESPONDENT OF THE WASHINGTON UNION, under date of May 18, writes—"There is no prospect for any reduction in the prices of breadstuffs all this season.

THE COLUMBUS GAZETTE seems to give the "cold shoulder" to the whig candidate for Congress in this district. It says—"We are not sufficiently acquainted with the other portions of the district, out of our own county, to give an opinion as to the judiciousness of the choice of the convention, nor with Mr. McCarty, to judge of his capacities.

FRENCH FLEET.—THE AURORA, of Matanzas, under date of the 15th ult., says that the whole French fleet, at that time lying in the harbor of Havana, was ordered to depart immediately for Vera Cruz.
