STATE ITEMS.

The ladies of Lafayette got up a soldiers' supper the other night, which netted $370 45.

On Saturday and Sunday a terrific bombardment was kept up on Fort Sumter by three of our monitors...

On Monday morning, while the Silver lay off Hilton Head, Capt. O'Neal, the Indiana Corps, reported that news had been received by our military authorities that Fort Sumter was in our possession...

The news was conveyed to Hilton Head by the United States steamer Golden Gate on Monday morning.

The steamer Silver, which has been engaged in the Government service, arrived at this port from off Charleston this afternoon, having left there three days ago.

After the surrender of the fort it was taken possession of by the 14th Pennsylvania.

The old flag has been restored on the very spot where it was first degraded.

From Fort Sumter, November 7.—The Richmond Whig of the 6th inst., contains the following dispatches:

CHARLESTON, Nov. 4.—The bombardment of Fort Sumter continues furiously. It was kept up all last night and is still going on this morning.

President Davis has visited James Island, Fort Mifflin, and Johnston and all the batteries along the shore.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 5.—There is slow firing today from the enemy's monitors and land batteries. Some 425 shells have been fired in the last 24 hours.

Another iron-clad has joined the fleet. The three monitors are taking in ammunition to-day.

ATLANTA, Ga., no date.—The Yankees retain possession of Raccoon battery, having been reinforced by the Y. vessels, which have been successfully shelling our forces unavailingly.

The flood in the Tennessee river has demolished all the Yankee pontoons.

We secure Hilton Head, which is within 23 miles of Knoxville, behind the defenses of the enemy.

The enemy is raiding the country near Hilton Head, committing great depredations. The raids are more disastrous than any of their preceding ones in Madison and Hantsville counties.

The enemy has gained important advances in the last 24 hours, and they are very interested, will place the question of substituting his army in Chattanooga beyond a doubt.

From New York, November 8.—The machinists of this city organized an extensive strike last evening.

The Herald's Washington dispatch gives a rumor that Assistant Secretary of War Watson is about to resign.

Gen. Meagher has been reinstated as a Brigadier General, with authority to recruit his Irish brigade to the full number.

The Herald's Army of the Potomac dispatch of the 7th says the 12th Illinois cavalry has gone home to recruit.

The railroad between Warrenton Junction and Beilston Station is nearly completed.

The weather is magnificent and the troops are ready for duty.

A letter to the Times, dated Fort Scott, Oct. 28, says:

Gen. Grant leaves on the 29th for the Indian Territory, to turn over his command to Gen. Meade.

The rebel General Cooper to concentrate his forces, and is threatening the line of the Arkansas river.

McNeill is pursuing Shelby.

Gen. Grant has made a demand on the rebel General Cooper for the surrender of Quantrell and his men as murderers and assassins.

On the 5th she gave chase and fired 18 times into the rebel steamer Margaret and Jessie, ordered her to surrender.

The 13th and 19th army corps are yet in the vicinity of Warrenton Junction.

Unfounded rumors prevail of an attack at different points on our line of the bayonet.

TELEGRAPHIC.

From Philadelphia, November 7.—The steamer Silver arrived at this port today from Morris Island, and brings the most cheering intelligence.

On Saturday and Sunday a terrific bombardment was kept up on Fort Sumter by three of our monitors and Fort Gregg and Wagner.
