Missing Book-keeper-Another Defalca-

tion. SAN FRANCISCO, January 2d.—Gideon M. Berry, book-keeper for ex-Sheriff Nunan, has been missing for some days. As he still re-tained control of considerable unfinished usiness of the Sheriff's office, it was decided to-day to obtain an entrance to the safe de voted to such business, and see if any defal-cation had occurred. On opening the safe it was found that cash to the amount of $15,000 to $18,000 was missing. It has also been discovered that since the new Sheriff went into office Berry has been selling property on the Sheriff's account and putting the money in his pocket, and has also appropriated $1,600 that he had been ordered to turn over to the Twelfth District Court. Another strange feature of the case is that the bonds of Sheriff's Deputies are not to be found, and it is stated that Berry's bond was not renewed Shocking Accident. NAPA, January 2d.—A most shocking accident occurred on the railroad three miles above this place last night. A wagon drawn by two mules in which were three drunken Germans was crossing or standing on the track as the up train neared Union Station on its way to Calistoga, and being run into the men were thrown out and terribly mutilated. One was killed outright, another rendered unconscious, the third sustaining a fracture of the skull but being able to walk. The man killed had both legs cut off and one arm broken, and the legs of the second man were horribly mashed. The train immediawith its furniture, was entirely consumed. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Loss, $3,000. The house was insured in the Ætna of Hartford for $1,000, and the furniture in the Liverpool and London and Globe for $700. Cheering Reports from Ventura County.

SANTA PAULA, January 1st.—The new year opens to-day with great prospects of a good season, we having had 8.1 inches of rain to date. Grass and other feed looks well. Stock-raisers are jubilant over the prospects of a rich harvest. There are about 15,000 sheep, 10,000 head of hogs, and a great amount of other stock, besides about 3,000 stands of bees, which yielded in 1878 300 tons of honey. The outlook for a large honey crop was never better than now. This part of the county of Ventura is the native home of all semi-tropical fruits, and contains some of the best lands for wine-growing in the

About a hundred years before, the Tezcans, the most enlightened of the native tribes, had a prince whose history has a striking resemblance to that of the Hebrew King David. His name is a hard one, but by dividing it into double syllables we may master it—Neza-haul-coyotl. In his youth, like David, he was obliged to flee for his life from the wrath of a morose monarch who occupied the throne, and he met with many romantic adventures and hair-breadth escapes. Once, when some soldiers came to take

The wagon was shivered to pieces. The mules escaped secottages of the poor people, who befriended their prince at the peril of their lives. NAPA, January 1st.—The new year opened clear and cold, the frosty weather of the past two weeks continuing.

Once, when closely pursued, passing a girl who was reaping in a field, he begged her to cover him from sight with the with a war-drum, about which they were dancing. No bribe could induce his faithful people to betray him.

"Would you not deliver up your prince if he came in your way?" he once asked a young country-fellow, to whom his person fortune?" said the prince. " Not for all the world !" was the answer. The prince, who was rightful heir to the throne, grew every day in the favor of the people, and at last he found himself at the head of an army, while the bad King was more and more detested. A battle was fought, the usurper's forces were routed. and he was afterward s'ain. The prince, who so lately fled for l is life, was now prolaimed Kin .
