

TELEGRAPHIC.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.

MATTERS AT WASHINGTON.

Causes of Democrats in regard to the Kellogg case.

PASSENGERS PASSING OMAHA.

Thurlow Weed's opinion of Grant's candidacy.

THE WEST POINT OUTRAGE INQUIRY.

Recommendation for the erection of a public building at Sacramento.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS OF FOREIGN NEWS.

A Chilean Regiment Nearly Exterminated by the Peruvians.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

The Chinese Mission—Confirmation of Angell and Commissioners Swift and Tresscott.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WESTWARD-BOUND PASSENGERS.

OMAHA, April 9th.—The following through passengers were on today's train, leaving at 12:15 p. m. to arrive in Sacramento April 13th: J. G. Riley, Oakland; A. Scheller, Berkeley; Colonel H. Claywood and wife, U. S. A.; Admiral Farquhar, English Navy; Major Frank McLaughlin, G. E. Carman, Menlo Park, N. J.; J. H. Toole and family, Pasadena; Charles Haight and wife, S. J. Springer and wife, W. Van Norden, W. N. Cromwell, New York; Geo. T. Hooper and wife, Sonoma; T. F. Lewis, Ediso, H. H. Simmons, Indianapolis; A. Spencer, W. B. Wright, Columbus, O.; John A. Elliott, Des Moines, Ia.; Henry Schacht, Hamburg, Germany; H. H. McIntyre, San Francisco.

THE SPRINGER AFFAIR—LETTER FROM ABRAHAM S. HEWITT.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—H. H. Finley received today the following letter from Abraham S. Hewitt, with reference to the former's difficulty with Springer:

New York, April 8th. Hon. H. H. Finley—Very much regret that the 9th instant is received. I very much regret that the 9th instant is received. I very much regret that the 9th instant is received.

THE EASTERN TROTTLING COMMITTEE.

CLEVELAND, April 9th.—A circular announcing the following programme for the Eastern trotting circuit, beginning at Cleveland June 27th, and continuing at successive weeks at Buffalo, Rochester, Utica and Hartford.

RECOMMENDATION FOR THE ERECTION OF A PUBLIC BUILDING AT SACRAMENTO.

OMAHA, April 9th.—The Republican State Convention to elect delegates to the National Convention will be held at Columbus May 10th.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS OF FOREIGN NEWS.

A Chilean Regiment Nearly Exterminated by the Peruvians.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—At the close of an unusually prolonged legislative session, about half past 12 o'clock this evening, the Senate adjourned to a request of Senator Eaton, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, for a brief executive session, and thereupon specifically mentioned Mr. Angell, Minister, and Messrs. Swift and Tresscott as Commissioners to negotiate a new treaty with China.

THE ENGLISH ELECTIONS.

LONDON, April 9th.—The Marquis of Hartington, the Liberal leader, and R. W. Graham, Liberal for Lancashire North-east, are elected—A Liberal call of two seats. The Marquis of Hartington had already been returned by the Liberal party. His election today for Lancashire North-east, together with that of Graham, defeated the Conservative candidates, Chamberlain Starke, member of the last House, and W. F. Zorvold. The poll stood as follows: Lord Hartington (Liberal), 6,682; Graham (Liberal), 6,513; Eoroyd (Conservative), 5,231; Starke (Conservative), 5,185.

MISCELLANEOUS.

James R. Keene is informed by cable from Newmarket, England, that his horse, Lord Murphy, is severely attacked with lung fever. The Spanish Crows has approved twenty-two cases of the Cuban disease. The steamer Darita was sunk by a collision upon the river Danube. Eleven passengers and five of the crew were drowned.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES TO-MORROW.

Sixth Street M. E. Church. Quarterly meeting services will be held on Saturday and Sunday. Rev. George Clifford will preach on Saturday at 7:30 a. m., Sabbath morning at 10 a. m., and on Sunday at 9:30 a. m. The pastor will preach on Sunday evening. Subject: "The Harvest."

DEATH OF THE WIFE OF PRESIDENT DIAZ.

GALVESTON, April 9th.—A news special from Brownsville says: The wife of President Diaz, of Mexico, died at the capital to-day.

THE PROPOSED JOURNEY OF THE KING OF SIAM.

NEW YORK, April 9th.—A. M. The Herald's Paris correspondent, The Herald's London correspondent at Bangkok, Siam, gives under date of March 9th an itinerary of the proposed journey of the King of Siam. The King leaves Bangkok on a steamer for Singapore, thence by a boat of the Messageries Maritimes to Marseilles; thence to Berlin, where he will arrive on October 1st, and be received by the German Emperor. On July 1st he will embark at Southampton on an American man-of-war for America, where he will be accompanied by a splendid retinue, among whom will be several royal princes, the Ministers of War and Foreign Affairs and a dozen prominent nobles.

THE WAR IN SOUTH AMERICA—A CHILLEAN DISASTER—THE RECENT NAVAL ENGAGEMENT.

PANAMA, March 31st.—The Star and Herald says the Chileans are reported to have met with a disaster near Moquegua. The Minister of War, wishing to surprise the Peruvians, marched under cover of night to attack the Peruvian camp. He led with him a regiment of 1,200 men only 67 escaped. It is reported that the Chilean loss is 1,300 men, and that the Peruvian loss is 1,000. The Huascar and Magallanes, in an attack on Arica, lost 24 men killed and wounded. Among the former is Commander Thompson, of the Huascar, and other officers. The Marco Copac, carrying American guns, struck the Huascar ten times, carrying away her mizen-mast and seriously damaging the hull. The Chilean batteries were disabled. Many houses in the town were knocked down and several men and children were killed. The United States steamer Kearsarge is making surveys at Boca del Toro. She has six boats at anchor.

THE WEST POINT OUTRAGE INQUIRY.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.—The Exodist Committee heard A. S. Johnson, Land Commissioner of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad, who testified as to the paupering of the immigrants from the South. Major A. S. Allen, of Kansas, had heard many expressions of a desire to return home.

THE NEW YORK DEMOCRACY.

NEW YORK, April 9th.—The committee of the Irving Hall Democracy appointed for the purpose to-day, and sent to the Democratic Union, who were trying to harmonize the factions of the Democracy, an answer to a communication of the Democratic Union, declining the proposition, and also a copy of a resolution adopted by the committee declaring that they disapproved of any arrange-

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

ODD FELLOWS' PICNIC! Monday, April 26, 1880. FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE ODD FELLOWS' LIBRARY!

THE COMMITTEE TAKE PLEASURE in announcing that we have secured Comstock's Grove, in which to hold our Annual Picnic. The Grove is situated on the west bank of the Sacramento river, about twelve miles above the city, and is one mile long and a quarter of a mile wide. The ground is elevated, and completely carpeted with grass and clover, and is perfectly secure from any dampness, no matter what the height of the water in the river may be.

Excursionists will be conveyed to the grounds by two Steamers and two Barges. The Barges will be completely and securely railed in, so as to avoid even a possibility of accident, comfortable seats provided and well shaded. There will be a HAND OF MUSIC on each Barge, and dancing and returning. A variety of amusements will be furnished for both old and young, and valuable prizes will be awarded for various games. An ample quantity of pure, clear Ice Water will be furnished. To avoid going through the bridge the boats will start from and end at the Pioneer Mill wharf. Street cars of all lines will run within two blocks of the wharf.

Baskets will be called for in various places throughout the city. The committee assure the public that no pains or expense will be spared to make this Picnic event, if possible, any heretofore given. Boats leave at 4 a. m. and return at 6 p. m. Tickets, $1. Children, from 5 to 12 years, 50 cents; under 5 years, free. E. M. MARTIN, President. April 10th.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS. GRAND PICNIC AT TAMMANY'S GROVE, DAVISVILLE. SATURDAY, MAY 8, 1880. Full band of music. Games, prizes, etc., hereafter. April 10th. (See Democrat copy.)

RELIGIOUS SERVICES TO-MORROW. Sixth Street M. E. Church. Quarterly meeting services will be held on Saturday and Sunday. Rev. George Clifford will preach on Saturday at 7:30 a. m., Sabbath morning at 10 a. m., and on Sunday at 9:30 a. m. The pastor will preach on Sunday evening. Subject: "The Harvest."

Methodist Episcopal Church South, Seventh street, between J and K—Rev. T. H. Anderson, pastor. Preaching to-morrow at 11 a. m. Subject: "The Pignity of the Christian Ministry." First Baptist Church. Ninth street, between L and M—Rev. A. J. Frost, pastor. Preaching at 10:15 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. All invited.