LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

RED MEN'S PICNIC.—The members and friends of the Improved Order of Red Men, and all other reputable people who choose to go, will on Monday at 8 A. M. leave the new depot on special train for Natoma Grove, where the Red Men's annual picnic will be held. The committee of management say that the grounds, being high, rolling, and of sandy composition, are dry and in better order than ever before known, and that the most delicate need have no fear of attending because of supposed dampness, as the contrary is true of the grounds in all parts, and that to-day's and Sunday's sunshine and breezes will add to the dryness of the grounds, indeed, though they are already dry enough, and just right for thorough enjoyment. Express wagons will call for baskets at these places and hours: Twentieth and G, 7; Sixteenth and D, 7:15; Fourteenth and E, 7:30; Twelfth and H, 7:45; Tenth and I, 7:50; Seventh and G, 7:55; Fifth and F, 8:00; Second and M, 8:05; Sixth and J, 7:35; Tenth and K, 7:45; Twelfth and I, 7:50; Fourteenth and E, 7:55; Sixteenth and D, 8:00; Eighteenth and G, 8:05; Twentieth and A, 8:10. The picnic prizes will be awarded for military band shooting, archery team shooting, lady archers, gentlemen archers, amateur archers, ladies' foot-racing, mixed foot-racing, ladies' egg-race, gentlemen's foot-race, sack-race, base ball match and other amusements.

A TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—The Sacramento Pastoral Association at its meeting May 10th adopted the following minute: "The Pastoral Association of Sacramento feel deeply afflicted by the death of S. B. Gregory, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church and Vice-President of this Association. Brother Gregory has endeavored himself to us by his gentle spirit and warm Christian feeling. We have found him a brother beloved, true, earnest and consecrated; for depth and gentleness of piety; for well-developed manly character; for simplicity of life, showing itself in unobtrusiveness and in the absence of any affectation; for the warmth and breadth of his sympathies, steeped in Christian love; for his devotion to the work of his Master, not only in his own parish, but throughout the city; for catholicity of feeling, in which his large heart, without lacking in love for his own denomination, welcomed other Christians as having an equal place in the society of Christ; he has held a high place in our regard, and we cherish his memory very tenderly and sorely. We feel deeply the loss to us individually and to our Association. We sympathize with his stricken and sorrowing Church, and pray that the influence and awe of the ministry may be made manifest to them. And we tender to his family our warmest feelings of condolence and sympathy, and offer our earnest prayers that the dear Lord will comfort and sustain them in this great sorrow."

TROPICAL PLANTS.—Master Mechanic A. J. Stevens, while upon his recent trip to Arizona, procured four large specimens of the Yucca gloriosa, or Bayonet Plant, alias Adama's Needle, which is quite a curiosity in its line in this section of the country. The leaves of the plant are shaped very similar to a bayonet, are from five-eighths to three-fourths of an inch wide, and about two feet long. It sends up a flowering stalk from its center similar in appearance to that of the Century plant, but not so tall, and bears two to three inches in diameter, and generally five to seven feet high, but they have been seen as much as twelve feet high. This stalk during its flowering season is covered with cream-colored flowers, which are exceedingly fragrant. The plants are to be put out at the grounds about the railroad shops, which are already assuming the appearance of beauty and taste by the variety of trees, shrubs and plants. Another lot of orange trees have just been received from Los Angeles, to be planted in the railroad yards.

AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATIONS.—Certificates have been filed with the Secretary of State showing that citizens have organized District Agricultural Societies under the State law. One is named the El Dorado Society, District No. 8, and the signers are thirty-three in number. Another is for District No. 4, and known as the Sonoma and Marin Society, and the signers are seventy-seven in number. Another is for District No. 3, and known as the Colusa and Colusa counties, and the signers are eighty-one in number.

INCORPORATED.—Articles of incorporation of the Amelia Gold Mining Company were yesterday filed in the Secretary of State's office. Capital, $1,000,000. Directors—A. Chavannes, E. Galliard, H. Barthelme, Antoine Bern, Theodore L. Kay, Robert Watt and Jules Firost. Also of the Maryland Gold Quartz Mining Company, to operate in Nevada county. Capital, $100,000. Directors—S. P. Dorsey, J. C. Coleman, Edward Coleman, Stephen Moore and Samuel Bethell.

ZONAVER'S ELECTION.—The Sacramento Zonaves (colored) at their annual election chose the following officers: Captain, Sims Emery; First Lieutenant, Cyrus B. Zougar; Second Lieutenant, John Chapman; Sergeant, Fred Harrison; Second Sergeant, James Harris; Secretary, C. B. Cooper; Treasurer, Isaiah Dunlap; Color-bearer, Samuel Gale.

POLICE COURT.—Cases were disposed of in the Police Court yesterday as follows: John Eberhardt, for battery with spade, trial by jury, verdict guilty; to be sentenced to-day. Jacob Biber, battery with stick with cow, discharged. The cases of Al. Now, arrested for petit larceny, and John Brown, a drunk, were continued until to-day.

HATS! HATS! HATS!—Of every style, every shape, every color and every material, from the ordinary wool to the finest quality silver beaver. Our stock of hats is the largest variety and styles, the most complete and substantial of any house in Sacramento. Besides purchasing hats direct from the manufacturers, we are enabled to offer special inducements in price. Call in, and try to show you our styles and prices. Hats, Mechanical Store, Weinstein & Lubin, proprietors.

The great rush for ladies' and children's trimmed and untrimmed hats, at the Red House, surpasses anything yet, and why is it? It's because they are being sold at 50 cents on the dollar, bought at a bankrupt sale.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.

The closing session of the Convention commenced yesterday morning, and half an hour was devoted to prayer and praise-meeting. The regular business of the Convention was then called, with Rev. Dr. Gray, Moderator, in the chair, who said that before any business was considered he wished to state that no persons have a right to vote in the Convention unless authorized as delegates from the churches or delegates from associations, or as life members. He made the statement as he had been informed that parties had participated in voting who were unauthorized to do so.

Mr. Guiley wanted to know who was referred to, and Mr. Hewes stated that no such irregularity had occurred upon the resolutions voted upon yesterday afternoon if the churches had been called as he wished to have done, while Mr. Kallioch wanted to know if it was Mr. Smith or there who was referred to, as he saw he voted on that occasion yesterday referred to by Mr. Hewes, and desired to know by what authority, as he was not a delegate.

The Moderator stated that he did not refer to any one in particular, and had cautiously refused to do so, but had only spoken for future guidance upon whatever might come before the Convention. He also hoped that there would not hereafter be any expression given by the members of clapping hands or stamping of feet nor hisses. These might be admissible in political bodies, but did not comport with the dignity which should be maintained by this.

The reports of committees were then called for, and Rev. Dr. Taft submitted a report from the Committee on Foreign Missions, recommending the acceptance of the American Board of Home Missions' proposition, to furnish $2 to each dollar raised by the State for mission work in this State, and the sum of $2,000 be raised by the churches this year for this purpose.

On motion, the report was adopted, and an effort to raise a portion of it at once, by pledges from delegates and churches, secured about $1,100 of the amount, when the matter was referred to the delegates to take home to their several churches.

Rev. G. S. Abbott submitted a report of the Committee upon Publications, which recommended that the American Baptist Publishing Society take immediate steps to establish a book depository at San Francisco or some eligible place in this State; recommending the publications of the Society, and also including the Zeal and Heroism of Truth, published in this State, and recommending that they be liberally sustained by the denomination.

The committee to arrange for the place of holding the next State Convention reported that three of the committee were in favor of the Fifth Baptist Church, San Francisco, and two in favor of meeting at the Metropolitan Temple Church.

Rev. Mr. Hewes moved that the Fifth Church be adopted as the place.

Rev. Dr. Taft moved to amend to the church at Dixon, and said that he thought the temper of the Convention and the condition of things in San Francisco just now made it preferable to visit that city at some other time.

The motion as amended to insert Dixon was agreed to almost unanimously.

Rev. C. W. Hewes arose to a question of privilege, and read from the report of the Convention: "The Board of Home Missions, in a statement that in reference to taking the rate to lay the resolutions relating to Mr. Kallioch upon the table, that he (Mr. Kallioch) made a motion that the list of churches be called in alphabetical order and the votes be given by ayes and noes. 'This motion,' continued the speaker, reading, 'was sustained by several voices, but in the confusion which was now upon us it was not noticed by the Chair, and a vote upon the motion of Dr. A. Cooley to lay the resolutions upon the table was taken by a rising vote, which resulted 46 in the affirmative, and 30 in the negative. Now,' said Mr. Hewes, 'I wish to ask the Moderator whether this statement which has been broadcast over the land is correct—whether you heard my motion or not? I regarded it important at that juncture, and that the result might have been different if the vote had been taken in accordance with it.'

The Moderator stated that it was correct—that he heard the motion, but as the Secretary had not been called away by a telegram, and the Secretary pro tem. had no list of the churches or knowledge of the papers, he put the question upon the table was taken by a rising vote, and declared the vote so taken. He said this was the way it occurred and he had directed the Secretary to prepare a list of the churches, and that the vote could be taken in that manner thereafter if desired.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—James I. Felter & Co.

Have removed their importing and wholesale wine, liquor and cigar house from the old stand on Front street, to new and more spacious quarters in the Orleans building, 1016 and 1018 Second street, between J and K. The opening day, Thursday, attracted crowds of visitors. The new storerooms are decidedly handsome and complete for the business conducted. The front is iron and glass, 40 feet, and the depth is 150 feet. There are two floors. It is about the best lighted and ventilated basement in any business house in the city. The front moves back to the alley, and falls just below the alley level, so that trucks can load and unload with the greatest ease, and goods taken in can be wheeled directly into the basement by an elevator, and thence transported up stairs. For nearly two-thirds of the depth there runs upon the south side a court, upon which numerous windows open, out from the basement floor, and from which a goodly portion of the upper floor is also lighted. In the rear part basement are the Orleans Hill vineyards, California wines and brandies, Kentucky whiskeys and great small casks and barrels, and all the varied packages in which fine wines and liquors come. The contents of a country rack over a cement floor draining to the sewer, where barrels can be washed with the water in the front part is the bottling department. Here, being adjusted racks of nice construction to hold 300 dozen bottles of wine, and so arranged as to be rotated twice a day, thus bottling the wine in the most approved and beneficial manner. The upper floor consists of a rear room of equal extent with the rear basement, and several smaller rooms, a large closet and stationary marble basin; next to it on the east, lighted from an adjacent court, is the private office, handsomely furnished. This extends into the general business office next east, which is a glass structure standing in the main store-room and looking out toward the glass front. It is arranged with ease and convenience for the book-keepers and clerks. In line with the bottling department, beneath which is a cooler, are the cigar jobbing room from the rear cigar department, which opens upon the street, and is under the charge of B. Moore. The remainder of the floor is taken up by glass show-windows, in which samples of fine bottled wines and liquors will be displayed, and especially samples of fine foreign goods. The upper floor is also lighted from the rear, and is a large and complete cigar store, with all the appliances of a first-class liquor house. On this floor is the sample case and the section for the city department, under the care of A. J. Davis. The house, in the line of California wines, exclusively deals and exhibits the produce of the Orleans Hills vineyard, owned by J. H. Carroll, in Colusa County, Yolo county. The vintages shown from this vineyard come from the Zinfandel grapes from which the best French clarets are made. The foreign wines exhibited are imported direct by the firm, and are the best, say the firm, that are to be had with car, and include cognacs, port, sherry and champagne to be seen and examined come direct from French, German and Spanish producers, under the care of Charles Flint; song, by Miss Florence Waterhouse, and recitation, by Reid Miller. Refreshments were served by the firm, and the entertainment throughout was enjoyable.

NOT THE MAN.—The Chinaman arrested as Ah Sing a few days since at Drytown, Amador county, for the murder of Ah Lin in San Rafael, in March last, was held in jail here until the Sheriff of Marin county could be notified and come for the prisoner. Upon arrival, however, at the city and entrance into the custody of the Sheriff, he was found not to answer the description of the man wanted, and was discharged from custody.

CHURCH SOCIAL.—A social was held last evening at the Sixth-street M. E. Church, at which there was a good attendance. The following programme was very pleasingly and successfully rendered: Duet, by Mr. and Mrs. De Yoe; recitation, by Mrs. Stella Powell; song, by E. Brunner; recitation, by Charles Flint; song, by Miss Florence Waterhouse, and recitation, by Reid Miller. Refreshments were served by the firm, and the entertainment throughout was enjoyable.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The annual examination of the city schools commenced yesterday, and will be continued to-day, in accordance with published programme.

RECOVERING.—Bertie Slaughter, late of this city, who has been confined in an insane asylum at the East, is reported to be nearly recovered.

SUICIDE.—Jeremiah Cready, aged 70 years, and long an inmate of the County Hospital, cut his throat Thursday and died yesterday.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—It gives us pleasure to inform the public that we shall have from this on a supply of the finest strawberries in market. We have the entire control of the crop of four of the largest gardens in the county. On hand, a lot of the first genuine Salt Lake potatoes of the season. Longton & Anthony, Fulton Market, Fifth and K streets.

GENTLEMEN desiring a light business suit for summer wear, be accommodated with stylish makes at the most reasonable prices, at Clothing Department, Mechanics' Store, Weinstein & Lubin, proprietors.

CALL at the Fulton Market, Fifth and K streets, to-day, and see the fine lay-out of new vegetables and strawberries. It will astonish you.

CHILD INJURED.—Last evening, as Louis Bell was driving with his horse and carriage on Fourth street, and turning around the Postoffice corner down K, a little child, not more than three years of age, started to run across the street, when one of them, a little girl of W. H. Sherburn, was hit by the horse and very narrowly escaped being run over and badly injured. Fortunately it escaped with only a bruise upon the ankle and being badly frightened. The permitting of small children upon the street, unaccompanied by older attendants, as well as driving at a moderate rate where there is a possibility of such accidents, cannot be too carefully guarded against for safety.

AUCTIONS.—Sherburn & Smith hold their regular sale at 1030 A. M. to-day, at their rooms, K street, between Third and Fourth. It will include a large lot of household goods and a lot of groceries. Bell & Co. at 1030 A. M. to-day sell at 1016 Fourth-street a quantity of household goods, including some fine parlor and bedroom furniture and house furnishings. Also a driving horse, two saddle horses, and a thoroughbred stallion, "Time." The full certified pedigree will be found published in another column. Tuesday next D. J. Simmons & Co. will sell at 418 J street, at 1030 A. M., the contents of a country house, including a large quantity of household goods, and a lot of groceries.

JEWISH OBSERVANCES.—The second of the three great annual feasts observed by the Jewish people—"Feast of Weeks"—begins this evening and ends to-morrow evening. It is a festival commemorative of the giving of the Law on Mount Sinai. The festival will be observed by services in the Synagogue at 7:30 o'clock, and a public prayer, and the last service there will be a confirmation ceremony, the first ever had here. The candidates are six in number. The Synagogue is decorated for the occasion, and the ceremonies, it is said, will be imposing and according to the ancient custom.

COMMON DRUNK.—Lizzie Jenks, who has been very frequently in the police station for drunkenness, and who was only discharged from custody three or four days since, was again on a bender last evening and arrested as a "common drunk." After being placed in a cell she made high hideous and kept up her side of pandemonium against another in a cell, and splashing his shirt and every body's ears calling for "more water."

FAILED TO AGREE.—In the case of the People vs. Ralph Johnson, tried in the Superior Court yesterday for burglary, the jury, after remaining out over four days, failed to agree—standing 11 for conviction and 1 for acquittal—and were discharged. The defendant was charged with burglary after the case of Mrs. Rohrer, on Fourth street, between K and L, and stealing an overcoat and other articles belonging to L. Jacobson. The defendant is returned to jail to await another trial.

CHURCH SOCIAL.—A social was held last evening at the Sixth-street M. E. Church, at which there was a good attendance. The following programme was very pleasingly and successfully rendered: Duet, by Mr. and Mrs. De Yoe; recitation, by Mrs. Stella Powell; song, by E. Brunner; recitation, by Charles Flint; song, by Miss Florence Waterhouse, and recitation, by Reid Miller. Refreshments were served by the firm, and the entertainment throughout was enjoyable.
