Miss Annie Pixley is resting at Fort Snelling.

Sarasate will not come to America just at present.

Miss Edith Abell will summer in Boston and vicinity.

A Western paper calls "Bocaccio" the "new 'Pinafore'."

Saratoga will be the summer home of Mrs. F. P. Whitney.

The family of Carlyle Petersiles will summer at Nantasket.

The Toledo Festival was an artistic if not a financial success.

Miss Annie Louise Cary already talks of retiring from the stage.

Hugh Talbot has decided to remain in Boston until next winter.

The cello player, M. Fischer, has gone to Europe, but will return in October.

Madame Essipoff's husband, M. Leschetzky, is giving piano recitals in Leipzig.

Horace Frail has joined Fred. Stinson's "Evangeline" Company, now in Halifax.

Sarah Bernhardt says that a woman cannot possibly live on less than $17,000 a year.

Miss Annie Guenther has been engaged by the Comley-Barton Company for next season.

Paul Geisler's "Symphonic Poem," "Der Rattenfänger," has been well received in Leipzig.

Several of the members of the original "Pirates of Penzance" Company sailed for Europe recently.

It is said that there is, really, a slight change, in the direction of deterioration, in Nilsson's voice.

Mme. Albani has been pronounced very successful in London in Isabella in Harold's "Trau und Gloria."

The composer of "Paul et Virginie," Victor Masse, is writing an opera to be called "Cleopatre."

A "church-goers' opera" is what the versatile Jerome Hopkins calls his new oratorio, "Samuel."

"Pacchiusi" is the name of a new opera, of which both the words and music are by M. Marnet, of Paris.

Digby Bell and Mrs. Lillian Brooks Bell will be members of the Comley-Barton Company next season.

The music for the Newport Casino during the season will be furnished by Prof. Allen's orchestra, of Boston.

Dr. Goldstein, formerly editor of the New Yorker Musik Zeitung, has left the States and settled in Berlin.

The New York Courts are still busy over the financial wreck of John C. Freund, of the late Music Trade Review.

Signor Brignoli and Miss Emma Abbott are announced to appear in a concert at Long Branch during this month.

Adelina Patti will not go to St. Petersburg, because musical talent there is obliged to give way to official favoritism.

Madame Ambre is to present "Aida" in New Orleans next fall, supported by M. Tournie, tenor, from the Grand Opera, Paris.

Madame E. Robinson, chief singer at the Stadt Theater, Hamburg, for three years past, has withdrawn from that establishment.

Signor Stagno has appeared in "Les Huguenots" at the Liceo, Barcelona, and announced to appear in New York. It is believed that he will accept the offer.

Mme. Lucra has abandoned the roles of Zerlina in "Don Giovanni" and Cherubino in "Figaro," at the earnest solicitation of her husband.

Miss Marie Schelle, an American soprano who has been studying abroad, is the latest addition to the ranks of musical aspirants in New York.

Mme. Sembrich, who has created so sudden a reputation in London, is not a German, but a Pole, and an intimate friend of Mme. Modjeska.

It is said that a new composer of comic opera has arisen, whose name is something like Suda. It is to be hoped that he will have clean librettos.

Professor Kaspar Zumbusch, who originated the project of the Beethoven Monument in Vienna, has received the honorary freedom of that city.

It is expected that Theodore Thomas will bring home from Europe a number of musical novelties for performance next season by the New York Philharmonic Society.

Theodore Thomas is already mentioned as the probable musical director of the proposed Barnum's Museum in New York. It is not believed that he will accept the offer.

Mlle. Bianchi, famous as a prima donna at the Royal Opera in Vienna, is engaged for three performances in Berlin for 500 marks, and for a season at St. Petersburg for 4,000 francs a night.

Mme. Sembrich is said to be very plain looking, although young, with a dumpy figure, very bright black eyes, swarthy complexion, wide mouth, and firm white teeth. She plays the piano and violin.

Mrs. Caroline Richings-Bernard and Pierce Bernard will hereafter make Richmond, Va., their home, singing in Grace Church, Episcopal, and the Baptist Female Institute, and giving private instruction.

Dr. Hullah, the eminent musician, says the New York Herald, recently tried to play on the trombone. That Hullah blew at one end while there was a hallelaloo at the other is the only fact worth recording.

Mr. Saalfeld is preparing for a fall and winter series of concerts, and announces the laudable intention of attempting to secure the services of Miss Clara Louise Kellogg, Mrs. Antoinette Sterling, Susie Reeves and Mr. Santley.

ACCIDENT - A correspondent of the RECORD-UNION, writing from Clarksville, El Dorado county, under date of the 22d, says: William Johnson, an old resident near this place, met with a serious accident yesterday. He was teaming from Cowell's mine to Collier's station.

While near Barrett's ranch with a load, his leaders, young colts, became frightened and started to run. Johnson was thrown off the seat, and his right arm was broken near the shoulder by the fall; the hind wheel ran over his right leg below the knee joint and crushed it. The doctor in attendance thinks he can save both limbs.

In 1863 three thousand silver mining companies had been organized in San Francisco, with a nominal capital of a thousand million dollars, and with thirty thousand shareholders.

I CHEERFULLY RECOMMEND Hammer's Casaca Sagrada Bitters for dyspepsia, habitual constipation and liver complaint. They have made me a well man.

R. DAVIS, 411 K Street, Sacramento.

The potato bug makes excellent bait for perch.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

It costs $17.50 a day to water the dogs in Candelaria, Nev.

Grasshoppers have cleaned out the poor-house garden at Reno, Nev.

The concrete foundation of the Normal School building is completed.

Stockton police have notified the chronic loafers of that town to leave.

Business is reported in lank in the town of Linden, San Joaquin county.

The total amount of money in the Nevada County Treasury is $30,468.70.

The daily Bodie Standard is said to exist last Tuesday. Cause, too much competition.

A party of Petaluma sportsmen shot a huge bear on Sanhedrin Mountain recently.

There is talk of constructing a narrow-gauge railroad between Lodi and Wood-bridge.

The manufacturing of cheese has become quite an industry in Lower Carson valley, Nevada.

Over 32,000 head of cattle have crossed Big Canas Prairie, Idaho, on their way to the Eastern markets this season.

Twenty patients in St. Mary's Hospital, Tucson, Arizona Territory, and an additional being built will make room for forty more.

Nearly all the tramps have disappeared along the railroad. Whether the hot weather or an increasing demand for labor has caused them to stop traveling is not known.

The various railroads throughout the State have burned the grass on each side of the track, to prevent, as far as possible, any fires occurring from sparks from the locomotive. So far the damage has been slight.

The depravity of this peculiar people is almost devilish, says the Salt Lake Tribune. But a short time since several of the young sons of Zion were united in the holy bonds of matrimony with sons of Africa's shore, Zion as the sea of spiders.

A well authenticated snake story reaches us from the mountains at the head of the valley, says the Napa Register. A few days ago a lady threw a stone at one of the reptiles, four or five feet long, cutting a gash in its side, from which ran forty small snakes of lengths varying from twelve to fourteen inches.

Fires were burning in the foothills northeast of town during the past week, says the Biggs Recorder. In the evening the hills were one mass of flames, which illuminated the country for miles around, and presented a grand appearance. According to the Oroville Mercury a tract of territory two miles wide and ten miles long was burned before the fire was checked.

The Pacific (Nev.) Record says that owing to the carelessness or negligence of the Supervisor of the Census in not furnishing the necessary papers, the inhabitants of the southern portion of Lincoln county, estimated at 400, have not been enumerated, and as the time allowed by law for taking the census has passed, they cannot now be embraced in the census returns. The same state of affairs exist in this county.

The Reno (Nev.) Gazette has an eye to business. The editor was sued the other day for libel, and now the Gazette keeps the following quotation from Kinkaid's complaint, made on oath, at the head of its editorial column: "The Gazette has an extensive circulation in the State of Nevada and in other States and Territories. James H. Kinkaid, sworn to before me this 8th day of July, 1880. Mark Parish, Clerk of Washington county."

It is said that Mono Lake is alive with curious animals. Some of them are fully an inch in length, and when magnified by a glass assume the most grotesque and horrible shapes. One particular kind has a savage-looking mouth, fierce black eyes and a long downy tail. Their bodies seem all mouth, eyes and tail. These tiny monsters swim always on their back, with mouth wide open like a hungry shark. There are many other kinds in the water, all looking horrible and repulsive when magnified.

The business men of Gold Hill are complaining of the number of mutilated silver coins in circulation, says the News. These coins are not old and worn, but comparatively recent droppings from the mints, and have been clipped, and that, too, not very far away, as is proved by the freshness of the mutilations. Some one is making himself liable to a prosecution for delay for the sake of the little silver gained by clipping these coins, and unless a stop is put to it, it will certainly be found out. The only way is for everybody to refuse to take these coins, and then they will be returned from one to another till they reach the one doing the mischief and he will be known.

MINING NOTES.

The Star mine shipped $3,286 on the 19th.

The gold era began in 1848. The silver era began in 1861.

The Ophir mine did not produce a dollar in bullion last month.

A shipment of $5,393 was made from the Christy mine on the 21st.

The Raymond & Ely mine and mills were not worked during the month of June.

The mill of the Stewart mine of Utah was not run during the month of June.

The Black Hawk mine at Bodie has been assessed 20c per share, delinquent August 25th.

Prospectors coming into Bodie from Lundy speak in high terms of the district, and fancy there is millions in it.

The great gold discoveries were almost simultaneous in California and Australia, and apprehensions of a fall in the price of gold were freely expressed.

Assessments of 15c on the Leviathan mine and 20c per share on the De Fries mine were levied yesterday, to become delinquent August 27th and 24th respectively.

We have been shown some very fine samples of silver-bearing quartz from Green and Virginia creeks, says the Homer Mining Index. Several parties have made locations over there.

The Marysville district, Utah, is attracting miners from Nevada and the north by reason of its rich and extensive gold ledges. The last assay from one of the prominent prospects of that district showed $12,000 gold.

According to the Homer Mining Index, the Lake View mine, in Lake Canyon, is proving to be a splendid property. A tunnel is being run in upon the ledge, which shows fully three feet of high-grade quartz in the face. About twelve inches of it is perfectly alive with fine free gold.

On Gold Canyon, about three-quarters of a mile above Dayton, Nev., it is to be seen that which is a reminder of some of the old mountain camps of California, being two companies of Chinese engaged in placer mining. One of the companies have in operation a water-wheel about ten feet in diameter, which runs a pump that drains the mine, while the other party keep the water out of their diggings by means of a hand pump, the stroke of which is in accordance with the length of the arm of the Chinaman that happens to be running it. As to how much the ground is paying per man is not known, but the Celestials doubtless have a much better thing than they would have were they "railroading it."
