HALE & CO., CRITERION STORE.

ATTEMPTED BULLDOZING.

SACRAMENTO, August 14, 1880. MESSRS. O. A. HALE & CO., San Jose.—Gentlemen: As I see you are largely interested in the welfare of your business in this city, you will not be in the way of fixing the prices of COATS' SPOOL THREAD to 60 cents per dozen in this city.

"MR. A. COOLIT, Sacramento.—Dear Sir: No merchant can sell Genuine J. & P. COATS' SPOOL COTTON at Fifty Cents per dozen, without losing money or cheating his customers in other goods. Yours, truly, O. A. HALE & CO., Agents for J. & P. Coats on the Pacific Coast."

"OFFICE OF KITTLE & Co., ETC., ETC., SAN FRANCISCO, August 13, 1880. 'MR. A. COOLIT, Sacramento.—Dear Sir: No merchant can sell Genuine J. & P. COATS' SPOOL COTTON at Fifty Cents per dozen, without losing money or cheating his customers in other goods. Yours, truly, KITTLE & CO., Agents for J. & P. Coats on the Pacific Coast."

You are respectfully requested to consider this matter, and inform me your house in Sacramento of your approval, so as to prevent the publication of the foregoing notice. With great considerations, yours truly, A. COOLIT, (A. L. C.)

P. S.—All the merchants here are unanimous to sell it for 50 cents a dozen if you won't agree to sell it for 60 cents, so you see you will not gain anything by doing so. This implies only in the city of Sacramento.

HALE & CO.'S REPLY.

MR. A. COOLIT, Sacramento, Cal.—Sir: Yours of the 14th instant at hand, and "with great consideration" contents noted. THIS IS NOT THE FIRST TIME ATTEMPTS HAVE BEEN MADE TO DICTATE TO US terms upon which we should do business, and THREATS SIMILAR TO YOURS have been made, but without avail.

It seems strange to us, Sir, that you, a Cigar and Tobacco Vendor, should be so interested in the prices of Dry Goods, unless you are in collusion with Dry Goods Firms of your persuasion. YOU ARE MISTAKEN IN YOUR MEN. We shall not enter any combination; you can't bluff or frighten this firm into doing that which considers detrimental to the public welfare. We must distinctly state we shall in any and all cases manage our affairs as we deem right and proper, whether it suits you or not. Should we need assistance in arranging our prices at any time, we have your address.

Yours, with due respect, O. A. HALE & CO., PER COB.

MECHANICS' STORE.

WE DESIRE TO INTRODUCE TO THE NOTICE OF THE PUBLIC

Furnishing Goods DEPARTMENT.

We have now, with our increased room, facilities for carrying a much larger stock and a more varied assortment than heretofore. We were determined to make this department so complete, that it should be second to none on the coast.

We shall enumerate a few items, which we claim can be purchased at our house to advantage: FIRST—

WHITE SHIRTS!

We obtain these goods direct from Troy, and as we purchase in large quantities, we obtain our WHITE SHIRTS at the same prices as those paid by the San Francisco wholesale houses. We believe we are the only house in this city having this advantage at purchasing; for even if others order East, they can neither find a first-class house to fill their orders, nor can they obtain as low prices, unless they order in large quantities. The same can be said of our stock of

Linen Collars, Cheviot, Fancy Dress

CALICO SHIRTS!

OUR NECKWEAR DEPARTMENT

Has been amply stocked with stylish TIES, BOWS and SCARFS of every conceivable shade, texture and design, so as to meet the demand of the most fastidious or fashionable.

Our Underwear Department!

We obtain the principal supply direct from the New York Commission Merchants. Hence, we claim the same advantages as in our WHITE SHIRTS and COLLARS. We manufacture considerable of the goods sold in this department on the premises. We now employ in our Factory about 30 hands—running the Sewing Machines by a Rider Engine, thereby reducing the cost of production.

OVERALLS, JUMPERS, OVERSHIRTS, BLOUSES,

Boys' Pants, Underwear, Wrappers, Cloaks, Etc.

Flannel Underwear!

Besides the articles enumerated, we would mention that we invite an inspection of the following divisions of the Furnishing Goods Department:

Suspenders, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Hosiery, Notions, Etc.

ONE PRICE! ONE PRICE!

Orders Filled Promptly. Price List and Samples Sent FREE. Address:

WEINSTOCK & LUBIN,

PROPRIETORS MECHANICS' STORE, Nos. 400, 402, 404, 406, 408 K street, Sacramento.

Until September 1st we shall continue to close our Stores at 7 o'clock P. M., Saturdays and Pay-Days at the Railroad Shops excepted.

The English Peers and Gladstone's Bills.

LONDON, August 28th.—The House of Lords has fixed the third reading of the Employers' Liability bill for Tuesday, when it will probably pass, but the bill which the House of Commons will not be disposed to accept.

LOS PIROS (Chil.), August 28th.—A runner has just arrived announcing Orton's death. He is believed to be the same Orton who was not for at least a year. Matters will be much complicated by his death.

WASHINGTON, August 28th.—The death of Chief Justice Roger Taney, in the opinion of the officers of the Interior Department, seriously impedes the business of the Commission, which has been organized to negotiate the pending, Acting Secretary Bell, which concerning Chief Orton's considerable influence among the Southern States, thinks there still remain among them other chiefs and head-men favorably inclined to the treaty, who will induce the members of their tribe to agree to it, and consequently the treaty confident that the negotiations will be conducted to a successful end.

Exciting Scene During a Murder Trial in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, August 28th.—A thrilling scene occurred in the Court-room at Nicholasville, during the trial of a man charged with the murder of his brother-in-law, Hon. Robert Taylor, on the 21st inst. The jury, consisting of C. J. Brown, for the State, replied to Senator Voorhes, of Arnold's counsel, and in his summary denounced a part of the testimony for the defense as a forgery, when Arnold's counsel interrupted, saying: "May it please the Court, no such testimony as that has been introduced in this Court. I denounce the statement as untrue." Brown, turning to the Senator, emphatically declared that he was not a forger, and was satisfied with each other for some time, when J. T. Sewell, a friend of the prisoner, said that the holding of the case had been offered. Then some audience shouted: "It is a d—l lie," and there was a riot and confusion. Meantime a brother of the prisoner had presented a pistol at the heart of Prosecuting Attorney Brown, and profanely declaring that he had got him now was about to fire, when a bystander crapped the pistol and turned the muzzle aside. Brown called for somebody to give him a pistol, but nobody responded. Judge Duckner commanded the officers to control the crowd, but they were nearly overpowered. He summoned his clerk and the bystanders to disarm a man who was flourishing a pistol, which they succeeded in doing, and the man was sent to prison, and order being restored, the jury and the prisoner, who had been locked up together, were brought out. Senator Voorhes and Brown then explained that their dispute had been the result of a misunderstanding. Arnold's wife wept her hands across her face, and he sat upon his knee, refusing to leave him.

The trial closed to-day with a verdict of "not guilty." The killing occurred on the 19th of December, at Richmond, where both were prominent and respected citizens. The mother of the prisoner had died a few months previously, leaving an estate of $5,000, with little as executor. The administration of the estate led to personal ill feeling between the two men, whose wives were to share it equally, and on the morning named Arnold went to Little's office, and in the presence of a witness, shot him. The theory of self-defense, upon which Arnold was acquitted, was based upon the testimony of witnesses that on the probability that an altercation would take place when the two met, he had taken the precaution of procuring a pistol in the Court-room. Arnold's friends shouted and surrounded him, while his wife covered him with her body to prevent his being killed. A strong guard took the prisoner to his home.

The examination of Arnold's brother for drawing a revolver on Brown was concluded this evening. He was fined $1,000 and sentenced to State Prison for a year.

Westward-bound Passengers.

OMAHA, August 28th.—The following through passengers were on to-day's train, leaving at 12:30 P. M., to arrive in Sacramento September 1st: Mrs. J. H. Tins, San Gabriel, Cal.; Mrs. Lewis Gerlach and child, Miss Emma Gerlach, Miss Louise Mansfield, Stockton, D. Samuel, Master Morris Samuel, Mrs. Harry C. Allen, San Francisco; Mrs. Cole, Chicago; Mrs. Little, England; Mrs. W. C. Parke, Miss Annie Parke, Miss Venice Parke, Honolulu; Miss Cora Wade, Boston; J. H. Cook, Sacramento; Mrs. C. C. Schaffly, Alameda; Mrs. J. A. Wilson, San Rafael; Mrs. C. L. Juillard, Louisville, O.; Mrs. M. F. Kiddo, England; Mrs. L. S. Hodson, Chicago; Mrs. D. N. Brown, Nevada; Miss Gibson, Miss M. S. Gibson, Utica, N. Y.

A Convention of Infidels.

MARSHALLTOWN (O.), August 28th.—The State Mass Convention of Infidels closed to-day after three days' session. It was presided over by Matthew Farmington, of Bremer county, as President, and Dr. Sheridan Harris, of the Chicago Times, as Secretary. A number of addresses were delivered, among the most notable being by Heron C. Leland, of New York city; Mrs. Lake, of California; and W. A. Jameson, of Chicago. General O. A. Banks, of Kansas, spoke to-night, on the subject of the "Garden of Eden." What the Convention lacked in numbers it made up in enthusiasm. All the day and night meetings were held in the largest open lot in the city.

Misno's Report.

NEW YORK, August 28th.—Speaking of Isthmus commerce, the Tribune's Washington correspondent says: "Misno takes up the question of dispatches in order to show the chiefly affected, which could more advantageously be transacted through a canal than around the Isthmus. He then shows the average and prospective production and demand in respect to all the principal commodities which will form the staples of commerce by the canal. This report was undertaken at the request of the Association of Civil Engineers.

Miss Nelson's Will.

NEW YORK, August 28th.—Miss Nelson's will disposing of $200,000. Her mother receives $30,000; Mr. Knight, critic of the Atlantic, $1,000; Compton, who acted with her in America and watched her during her illness, $1,000. The residue she leaves to Admiral Carr Glynan; but it is thought he will decline the legacy, as he, the divorced husband of Miss Nelson, has made trouble. It is supposed, however, that the legal protection accorded to Nelson by an English Court may deter him.

Oil Tank Struck by Lightning.

BRADFORD (Pa.), August 28th.—During a violent thunder-storm this evening a 50,000-gallon oil tank at Bradford, Pa., which connected with the United lines, was struck by lightning, and is now burning. Cannon have been sent for to shoot the tanks, in the hope of extinguishing the oil before an overflow takes place. Another tank of the same size, it is said, must also go. There are 80 tanks of the same size in the valley. Men have been sent to the scene to protect surrounding property.

Sisters of Charity.

MILWAUKEE, August 28th.—To-day fifty young women took the vows and made profession of the Sisters of Charity at the Mother House of the Order, the Convent of Notre Dame, in this city. On the 15th instant fifty-six novices took the same vows, making a total of 110 within two weeks. These young women are from all parts of the country, and none from Canada.
