TRUTH & FRAUD! STATE FAIR, 1880!

ONCE UPON A TIME, "TRUTH" AND "FRAUD" LAID DOWN TO SLEEP, AND WHILE "TRUTH" SLEPT, "FRAUD" STOLE AND DRESSED HIMSELF IN "TRUTH'S" CLOTHES; THEREFORE, "TRUTH" HAS GONE NAKED EVER SINCE!

WEBSTER, THE GREAT LEXICOGRAPHER, defines "TRUTH," as conformity to "Reality or Fact;" "Exactness;" "Honesty;" "An Established Principle." The opposite of this is "FRAUD," signifying "Deception;" "Deceit;" "Trick;" "Breach of Trust." TRUTH and FRAUD travel side by side, and it is ever the aim of FRAUD to present the semblance of TRUTH. The Tinsel man purveyor dresses the Base Metal in such similitude to the Purer Material, that an Expert only can detect the Counterfeit. Even the Carmine of SHAME simulates the blush of INNOCENCE, and so in everyday business this pernicious coloring is used at every point.

The half of the Business Advertisements to-day are nothing more than well-dressed Frauds, written for the purpose of Deception, Deceit, Trick, and a Breach of that Trust that was placed in these Advertising Houses by the people, and we hereby warn the people against all such Advertising, and most earnestly advise the public to sift the matter to the very core.

If a house advertises BLACK SILK, at $1 25, worth $2 25—go to that house, and if you find they have not got the article, write "Deception" against that house, and travel to the next; and, if after inspection, you find you have been misled, shut right down on that house, and write "Deceit" on it. And on to the next; try them all thoroughly, sift them, weigh them in the balance, and if they are found wanting, write down "Trick," and give up trading at those houses at once and for ever—they have committed a "Breach of Trust," and filled Mr. Webster's Bill of Fraud to the letter.

Now, then, for a Test Case:

HALE BROS. "CRITERION"

ADVERTISE A

Genuine Black French Cashmere, MEASURING 46 INCHES WIDE, FOR

75 cents per yard. WORTH AT LEAST $15.

We wish the public to see it, inspect it thoroughly, measure the width, and pronounce judgment. We are anxious that the crucible shall be applied to the CRITERION. Make the ordeal as stringent as you please, and our record will be all the brighter. The CASHMERE is only one item in our varied and extensive stock. Each Department is replete with perfect goods, and at the Lowest Prices. Our Firm is aware that its prices are an enigma to the Trade generally, although we have explained it more than once. Yet, "Having eyes to see, they see not; and ears to hear, they hear not, neither do they understand." The fact is, they are troubled with a moral obliquity of vision; they won't see. The Combination want their old prices, and it may be said of these houses: "Ephraim is joined to his idols, let him alone." As for our house, we are determined to serve the people, advance with the people—the times demand it; not without our "Mess of Pottage," for we will not sell around remembrance, but our great forte is to spread that profit equitably all round. We find the system works healthy. We have Five Houses on the Coast; therefore it has been well tried, and works like a charm.

In conclusion, let us say one word of consolation to the Combination: We, HALE BROS., do frankly look over all your little mean tricks. We forgive you for saying that "Our House was fit only for the Poorest of the Poor." The poor are trying it everyday, and they find it pays them. We forgive you for the threatening letter, "for you know not what you do."

"INVINCIBLE IGNORANCE" IS A TERRIBLE THING TO CONTEMN AGAINST; BUT IT OPENS A DOOR FOR YOUR ESCAPE.

But, in justice to ourselves, let us remind you that the firm of HALE BROS. will take no back-water; that we will not "Down" under any of your threats, and that your Combination may thank their particular Providence that they had merciful opponents to contend with.

TO THE PUBLIC:

We are contemplating extensive alterations in our premises. Our Immense Conspicuous from the East about to arrive, and our fast increasing business, demand more space. Due notice will be given of the alteration.

Heartily thanking you for your support, we remain, very truly yours,

HALE BROS.' "Criterion,"

THE MAINE ELECTION.

A Hard-Fought Battle—Full Vote Polled.

THE FUSION GVERNOR ELECTED.

The Legislature, However, Believed to be Strongly Republican.

(SPECIAL BY TELEGRAPH TO THE RECORD-UNION.)

CHICAGO, September 13th.—The Inter-Ocean has an interesting August special, saying: "The Republicans are alive and active, because of dispatches from all over the country, telling them of the anxiety felt by the Republicans."

California telegraphs: "Upon the result in your State depends the result in ours. Give us a good road majority, and we will double it, and gain a Congressman." From Louisiana comes an appeal that would be effective anywhere: "It looks to us here as if Maine would decide the Presidential election, and if Garfield is beaten we see no hope in store for the Republicans in the South."

From Florida comes the cheering intelligence: "We stand a fair chance of carrying Florida and gaining a Congressman. A Republican victory in Maine would give us more encouragement than anything else, and would add to our ranks many hundreds of 'trimmers,' who are waiting to see how the wind blows."

But the strongest dispatches are from Indiana, where a powerful moral effect seems to be expected from a victory in Maine. The Democrats have given out the impression in Indiana, it seems, that Maine will probably go Republican, so that if it should happen to be otherwise, they could make a boast of it, and claim "a tidal wave." Hence Indiana Republicans are extremely anxious, and they expect the result in Maine will change thousands of voters.

Mr. Blaine has been sitting behind the telegraph instrument all day. His Private Secretary, T. C. Sherman, is an experienced telegrapher, and Blaine directs the campaign in this State almost entirely by wire. If a man in Bangor or Portland, or both, desires to communicate with Mr. Blaine, or give him any information, he steps into a telegraph office and writes his dispatch. In a few moments it is in Mr. Blaine's hands, and an answer is dictated instantly, and the man receives it before he leaves the office from which it is sent. Blaine, who is familiar with every town in Maine, and as well with the peculiarities of most of the inhabitants, half of whom he can call by name, will telegraph some citizen of a town from which doubtful voters are reported, asking him the use of his influence with the men named, and notify the headquarters at once of the result. In a few hours Blaine will receive a telegram from the gentleman addressed, saying, for example: "I have seen John Doe and Richard Roe, as requested. The former will vote with us; the latter is doubtful. He expresses a high regard for you, but does not like the candidate." On receiving such information, Mr. Blaine will at once address a telegram to Richard Roe, saying: "I fully appreciate your embarrassment, but you must look behind the men and vote for the principles they represent. You are looked upon as a leader in thought and action among your associates, and I hope, as a personal favor to me, you will not only vote, but work with us." An appeal like this can have but one result—Roe goes with the Republicans.

BOSTON, September 13th.—The Herald's Belfast (Maine) special says: "The morning opened damp and foggy. Voting commenced at 9 o'clock, both parties crowding about the polling places early, ready for battle."

PORTLAND, September 13th.—The weather is beautiful, and a very heavy vote is being thrown at all the wards.

PORTLAND, September 13th.—Telegraphic tallies from all the wards at 12 o'clock to the Republican State Committee rooms give the Republicans 1,536, the Fusionists 1,433. This is three-over of the city vote. The Fusionists made strong efforts to get in a vote early.

CHICAGO, September 13th.—A comparison of returns from Portland indicates that the net gain already made in that city is 632 over last year, and that if a similar gain is made in all the remaining counties the Republicans will have carried the State by 4,700 majority, and will have gained 5,136 votes over the vote in 1878. These figures are made only as a curiosity, and merely indicate approximately the defeat of to-day's vote. The majority may be much larger, but it is not likely to be smaller, as the most favorable returns are expected from the rural districts.

LEWISTON, September 13th.—At the election here Lewis gave Davis 822, Plaided 675. Everybody is working and the weather is fine, bringing out a full vote. Fog runs behind his ticket. At Auburn the vote is very large, and the Republicans are confident of increasing the majority of last year.

BOSTON, September 13th.—The Journal's special from Lewiston at noon says: "The election here and at Auburn is progressing quietly. Both sides are out to the last man. The Independent Prohibition ticket is receiving almost no votes. The Republicans will carry Auburn by a large majority, as they estimated. Lewiston is closer, but the Republicans will carry it by a good majority. There are more foreign votes than usual for the Republicans, and the Greenbackers are cutting the Fusion ticket somewhat. Fogg (Fusion) for Congress runs behind. Most of the voting is done here in the afternoon. A great variety of tickets are in circulation."

BIDDEFORD, September 13th.—Voting today so far has been quiet, each side endeavoring to get out a full vote. At noon but a light vote had been thrown, and the Republicans had a small majority. They also led in Kennebec and Saco. In Kennebec the Democrats are casting a much larger vote than last year, and it is probable that a Representative may be gained. The town of Kennebec and Lyman county will be close. The temperance vote is small.

EASTPORT, September 13th.—The election is progressing quietly. So far the parties in Eastport have polled about an equal number of votes.

BOSTON, September 13th.—The Traveler's special from Augusta says: "The morning opened with perfect weather, which reports from other parts of the State show to be general. The result is that a heavy vote is being cast, and while the polling goes on the shouters on both sides maintain an equally confident front. Senator Blaine cast his vote early. He declines to give an estimate in figures, but feels assured of a complete Republican triumph that will make the Congressional delegation solid. Candidate Plaided says, however, that he feels certain that he will be the next Governor. Congressmen Ladd and March are equally as positive in their claims. Captain Boutwell believes that he will have from 8,000 to 10,000 majority over Ladd. Representative Frye shares his confidence. If the result proves them correct, it is impossible to see how the Republican majority in the entire State can be less than 10,000. The Republican Committee received dispatches this morning from Belfast, which state Plaided and March are both running behind the Fusion vote of last year and that of 1878.

BOSTON, September 13th.—A Herald Bangor special says: Election day opened pleasant, and political excitement runs high. Voters are coming in in full numbers, and those who are well informed say they never knew a year when the people manifested so much interest and activity in the polls as largely as now. It is too early to give any idea of the relative vote thrown.

PORTLAND, September 13th.—2 P. M.—Portland gives the Republicans 3,011; Fusion, 2,722. Republican majority, 289.

BIDDEFORD, September 13th.—1 P. M.—Forty-seven Republican majority.

ROCKLAND, September 13th.—1:30 P. M.—Two hundred Republican majority.

SACO, September 13th.—1 P. M.—Republican majority, 200.

DEERING, September 13th.—1 P. M.—Fusion majority, 60.

BOSTON, September 13th.—A Portland special to the Herald says: The polls opened with indications of a heavy vote, with a good deal of scrubbing. The Fusionists in most of the wards are voting in a solid body. The Fusion vote will be in early. All quiet. The indications are that the Nye men are voting for Plaided. There is an astonishing crowd at the polls. Berry, Secretary of the Greenback Committee, claims that True, the Republican candidate for Sheriff, has been scratched enough to defeat him. The Democrats challenged every Irish Republican vote in Ward No. 4.

In Biddeford the election is proceeding earnestly, with the promise of a full vote. The Democrats are more confident this morning than at any previous time.

At 11 A. M. the Republicans led in six of the seven wards, having about sixty majority. Chicago, September 13th.—An Augusta dispatch says: The latest returns indicate that Plaided (Fusionist), for Governor, is elected. Congressmen Ladd and March (Democrats) are elected. Anderson (Democrat) is elected in the First District. Thirty-two towns give Davis 18,618; Plaided, 16,322; scattering, 120. The same towns in 1879 gave Davis 17,981; Smith, 9,324; Garcelon, 3,842.

BOSTON, September 13th.—An Augusta dispatch says: New returns received indicate a close and doubtful election in Maine. A Bangor telegram says the Republicans carried that city by 140 majority—a Fusion gain of 214. Nye received five votes.

NEW YORK, September 13th.—The Times has the following dispatch from Augusta, Maine: The returns to this time indicate that the State is in doubt. The Fusionists make a large gain in Portland, Bangor and places where Democratic money has been freely used during the last week. The Republicans claim gains in the country towns.

PORTLAND, September 13th.—In 34 cities and towns the Fusion gain is 263. The above towns include Lewiston, Augusta, Portland, Rockland, Biddeford, Auburn and Skowhegan.

PORTLAND, September 13th.—Fifteen towns give Davis 21,884, Plaided 19,794, scattering 130. Last year the same towns gave Davis 21,019, Smith 11,648, Garcelon 7,901, scattering 112. Aggregate 41,808, against 33,800 last year. Davis' majority 1,990, against 2,278—Fusion gain of 317.

BAY, September 13th.—Both parties polled a full vote. The Republican county officers are elected by reduced majorities. The representation is as before. In this city Davis received 1,089 votes, Plaided 621, Joy 482.

BOSTON, September 13th.—A special to the Herald says that Wadsworth county, Maine, has gone heavily for the Fusionists.

EASTPORT, September 13th.—Davis 431, Plaided 230. Net Republican gain, 15. At the close of the polls in Portland the Republicans had 231 majority. Last year the Republican majority over all in Portland was 692.

PORTLAND, September 13th.—Official returns, including the late vote, give Davis (Rep.) 3,481; Plaided (Fusion) 2,291; Nye (enforced prohibition), 19. Total, 6,778. Republican plurality, 230. Republican majority, 184. Last year the Republican vote was 3,466; Greenback, 1,331; Democrat, 1,504; scattering, 29. Republican majority, 602.

Lewiston—Davis, 1,564; Plaided, 1,397; Joy, 31; Nye, 2. Net Republican gain, 120.

Auburn—Davis, 1,472; Plaided, 970; Joy, 8; Nye, 1; D. Bradbury, 1.

Biddeford—Davis, 1,111; Plaided, 1,057; scattering, 15. Last year Davis received 1,009, Smith (Greenback) 775, Garcelon (Democrat) 327.

Belfast—Republican majority in Belfast, 12; last year 14.

PORTLAND, September 13th.—One hundred and four towns give Davis 30,712, Plaided 29,145, scattering 157. Total, 60,014. The same last year gave Davis 29,256, Smith 18,093, Garcelon 9,475, scattering 137. Total, 56,961. Davis' majority, 1,410, against 1,551 last year—a Fusion gain of 141.

PORTLAND, September 13th.—One hundred and forty-eight towns give Davis 35,922, Plaided 34,873, scattering 170. Total, 71,041. The same towns last year gave Davis 34,292, Smith 22,339, Garcelon 10,728, scattering 137. Total, 67,516. Davis' majority, 943, against 1,068 last year—a Republican gain of 125.

This indicates about 1,500 Fusion majority. AUGUSTA, September 13th.—Mild and pleasant. The immense crowds around the headquarters of both parties in the early part of the evening are dispersing. The vote has been very close, but the indications now are that the back towns will offset the Republican loss in the cities. At the Republican headquarters Davis' election is claimed, as are the House and Senate. A Republican defeat of one Representative in the Fourth and Fifth Districts is conceded. One hundred and eighteen towns give a net Republican loss of 200 over last year.

At the Fusion headquarters Plaided's election is claimed by 2,000 majority, as are three of the five Congressmen.

LAURENS, September 13th.—Mild and fine. Frye is re-elected in the Second District by about 1,500 majority.

NEW YORK, September 13th.—The Democrats at the National Committee rooms tonight indulged in general rejoicing over the returns from Maine. At 11 o'clock at the Republican National headquarters they had lost the State.

The following dispatch was received from J. L. Smith, Secretary of the State Committee of Maine: "The indications now are that the election of Plaided is assured unless the country towns do better than the cities."

BOSTON, September 13th.—A dispatch to the Herald says: Senator Blaine admits the defeat of Reed, Boutwell and Milliken in the First, Fourth and Fifth Congressional Districts—a Fusion gain of one Congressman.

PRESS COMMENTS ON THE RESULT. NEW YORK, September 14th.—The Times concludes: The result in Maine puts a new face on the situation. By imparting confidence to the Democrats and alarming the Republicans it will influence the result and give the activity of both. The country will enter on a contest more strenuous and heated than has been witnessed in our politics for a long period.

CHICAGO, September 14th.—The Times says: The success of the Fusion ticket in Maine will not only be a source of profound astonishment to the whole country but will go a long way towards setting the Presidential contest in advance. Its influence will be felt, especially in Indiana, where the scales are almost evenly balanced, and where it needs nothing more to turn the balance sharply in favor of the Democrats. It will give the canvass for Hancock everywhere new life and vigor. The result shows that the majority of the people of a State long Republican are willing to abandon the Republican party, and are convinced that the country is in no danger of subjugation by "rebel brigadiers."

NEW YORK, September 14th.—The Tribune says: "The result will be somewhat of a disappointment to the Republicans, and lead them out of their over-confidence." It also draws attention to the fact that there will be no foreign aid against the Republicans in November. The writer continues: "The refusal of a large proportion of the voters of a State to condemn the grossest crime ever attempted against an honest ballot, is another proof that there is no infidelity which the Democratic party will not approve to elect a Democratic ticket."

The States Zealot says that the unexpected defeat of the Republicans in Maine will have a very discouraging effect on their efforts in Indiana and Ohio, as well as the Pacific States, and claims the result as a Democratic victory.

"THE IDEAL STANDARD OF INDEPENDENCE." (Contra Costa Gazette.)

Recent commencement of a new volume has been made the occasion by many of its contributors of saying highly complimentary things of the SACRAMENTO RECORD-UNION, which are mostly well deserved, whether sincerely intended or not. That journal comes nearer, we think, the ideal standard of independence in this country than any other published on the coast, and is recently conducted in all respects.

MINING NOTES. A company of Mexican miners are at work some forty rods to the southward of the Sierra mine, Devil's Gate,
