HANCOCK AND TILDEN.

TRUTH & FRAUD! STATE FAIR, 1880!

ONCE UPON A TIME, "TRUTH" AND "FRAUD" LAID DOWN TO SLEEP, AND WHILE "TRUTH" SLEPT, "FRAUD" STOLE AND DRESSED HIMSELF IN "TRUTH'S" CLOTHES; THEREFORE, "TRUTH" HAS GONE NAKED EVER SINCE!

WEBSTER, THE GREAT LEXICOGRAPHER, defines "TRUTH," as conformity to "Reality or Fact"; "Exactness"; "Honesty"; "An Established Principle." The opposite of this is "FRAUD," signifying "Deception"; "Deceit"; "Trick"; "Breach of Trust." TRUTH and FRAUD travel side by side, and it is ever the aim of FRAUD to present the semblance of TRUTH. The Tinsel man purloins the Base Metal in such similitude to the Purer Material, that an Expert only can detect the Counterfeit. Even the Carmine of SHAME simulates the blush of INNOCENCE, and so in everyday business this pernicious coloring is used at every point.

The half of the Business Advertisements of to-day are nothing more than well-dressed Frauds, written for the purpose of Deception, Deceit, Trick, and a Breach of that Trust that was placed in these Advertising by the people, and we hereby warn the people against all such Advertising, and most earnestly advise the public to sift the matter to the very core.

If a house advertises BLACK SILK, at $1 25, worth $2 25—go to that house, and if you find they have not got the article, write "Deception" against that house, and travel to the next; and, if after inspection, you find you have been misled, shut right down on that house, and write "Deceit" on it. And on to the next; try them all thoroughly, sift them, weigh them in the balance, and if they are found wanting, write down "Trick," and give up trading at those houses at once and for ever—they have committed a "Breach of Trust," and filled Mr. Webster's Bill of Fraud to the letter.

Now, then, for a Test Case: FRENCH BONNETS! Ostrich Feathers! Ostrich Plumes! TIPS AND STUMPS! PLUSH AND FELT HATS AND BONNETS

Of all imaginable shades and designs, embracing all that is new and fashionable to be found in the market.

We wish the public to see it, inspect it thoroughly, measure the width, and pronounce judgment. We are anxious that the crease shall be applied to the CRITERION. Make the order as stringent as you please, and our record will be all the brighter. The CASHMERE is only one item in our varied and extensive stock. Each Department is replete with perfect goods, and at the Lowest Prices. Our Firm is aware that its prices are an enigma to the Trade generally, although we have explained it more than once. Yet, "Having eyes to see, they see not; and ears to hear, they hear not, neither do they understand." The fact is, they are troubled with a moral obliquity of vision; they won't see. The Combination want their old prices, and it may be said of these houses: "Ephraim is joined to his idols, let him alone." As for our house, we are determined to serve the people, advance with the people—the times demand it; not without our "Mess of Pottage," for we will not sell without remuneration, but our great forte is to spread that profit equitably around. We find the system works healthily. We have Five Houses on the Coast; therefore it has been well tried, and works like a charm.

In conclusion, let us say one word of consolation to the Combination: We, HALE BROS., do frankly look over all your little mean tricks. We forgive you for saying that "Our House was fit only for the Poorest of the Poor." The poor are trying it everyday, and they find it pays them. We forgive you for the threatening letter, "for you know not what you do."

But, in justice to ourselves, let us remind you that the firm of HALE BROS. will take no back-water; that we will not "Down" under any of your threats, and that your Combination may thank their particular Providence that they had merciful opponents to contend with.

TO THE PUBLIC: We are contemplating extensive alterations in our premises. Our Immense Commitments from the East about to arrive, and our fast increasing business, demand more space. Due notice will be given of the alteration.

Heartily thanking you for your support, we remain, very truly yours,

Constable Mining Matters.

VICTORIA, September 14th.—The management of the Ophir mine report ore in the east cross-cut joint with the California shaft 400 feet level. The cross-cut is, however, 40 feet north of the line. Not much has been done on the level above. The management says it will take a long time yet to develop this ore body, and tell what it amounts to, but the opinion is that it will help the situation considerably.

A telegram from Fair to Mackey says the former is in New York, and will be home in about ten days.

More quartz is officially reported in the south and in cross-cut No. 2 of Ophir. Sierra Nevada is cross-cutting west on the 2,500-foot level towards the mine from the 2,400-foot level, which was sunk in ore.

Passengers Passing Carlin for California.

Weather—Delegates En Route—Officers Elected—Suicide of a Deceased Woman.

PORTLAND, September 14th.—The weather is lovely.

A number of delegates are in the city, en route to attend the Democratic Territorial Convention at Portland, Sept. 15.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trade the following officers were elected: President, Colonel John McCracken; First Vice-President, Charles Hodge; Second Vice-President, S. Burrell; Secretary and Treasurer, Ivan Dawson.

News is received of the suicide of Mrs. M. Scott at Centralville, Union county, on the 12th, while laboring under a fit of temporary insanity. The lady procured a rope, and going into the woodshed unobserved, hanged herself. Deceased leaves a husband and several children.

Organization Effected.

PORTLAND, September 14th.—The House met this afternoon and effected a permanent organization for the election of 1881.

By resolution, the Senate and House met to-day in joint session, and notified Governor H. H. Hatfield of the election of 1881.

This evening Judge Levesque, of Louisiana, addressed an audience on the subject of the election of the Louisiana Restraining Board, which he claimed was accomplished by fraud, supporting his assertion by somewhat extended statements of a general nature.

State Mineralogist Henry H. Hanks has analyzed the water of Tichenor's alleged gold-bearing spring near Colfax, and finds it to contain not the slightest trace of gold. Prof. Hanks denounces Tichenor's enterprise as a fraud. The gold to-morrow will publish an expose of the manner in which Tichenor pretended to obtain gold from the water, which may be briefly described as "adding" to the water with chloride of gold. Prof. Hanks has received from the last letters of inquiry regarding the spring in question, which leads to the belief that some steps have been taken to get up an excitement over it in that quarter.

Golden Gate Fair—Opening Address.

OAKLAND, September 14th.—A large crowd was in attendance at the Golden Gate Fair to-day. The cattle exhibition was excellent, and the track was in splendid condition.

In the running race Connor won, Jack Douglas second.
