SIGNAL SERVICE.

Additional Daily Reports to be Furnished this Station.

In July last Sergeant Sicker, in charge of the Signal Corps station at this place, recommended that changes be made in the telegraphic weather reports furnished this station, with a view to make them more precise, by furnishing in advance information from stations situated upon the more usual storm centers leading to the valley.

All the reports heretofore received at the Sacramento Station, with the exception of those from San Francisco, were from the West, along the Central and Union Pacific Railroads, and the Signal Corps reports furnish no record of the storm upon this coast, invariably come from the reports of the Pacific coast "storm center" of nearly all five miles the coast in Oregon or Washington Territory.

This is conclusively shown by the diagram of storms, published by the Signal Bureau, as will be seen by simply referring to those of last winter. The first general storm which occurred during the last rainy season commenced October 11th, with the center near the north of Columbia river, and passed southwesterly. The total rainfall at this point was .55 of an inch. The next storm first appeared on the 8th of November, the center following down the Pacific coast from northward to the vicinity of San Francisco, which place it reached on the 9th, and then moved eastward across the State, giving a rainfall of .71 of an inch. It reached the coast near the north line of Oregon, on the 21st of December, and passed in an almost direct line to Colorado. It produced a rainfall here of .78 of an inch. On December 7th another storm passed eastward over this State with the center between San Francisco and Humboldt bay; rainfall, .42 of an inch. The center of the storm which produced 1.87 inches rainfall in Sacramento on the 19th and 20th of that month, struck the coast at the north of California, and took nearly a direct line to the far east. On the 7th of January the next appeared from the west, with center at Portland, and took an easterly direction into Idaho, but gave a rainfall of 1.40 inches at this point.

During the month of February there were four general storms upon the coast, giving a total rainfall of 1.83 inches, all of which came from the Pacific, and the storm centers were from west to east, through Oregon or Washington Territory.

There were several storms during the month of March. The storm center of all of these first appeared as far north as Portland, and maintained an easterly direction from their starting point on the coast. April was noted for its heavy rains, 14.20 inches falling during the month. This central track of all these storms came upon the coast from the Pacific and north of the California line. The great storm which commenced on the 19th and lasted till the 23d, during which time 9.17 inches of rain fell, first appeared on the North-western Pacific coast, the storm center being near Portland, and moving eastward through Oregon and Idaho, and was central in western Montana on the 22d. Four it is seen that the storm centers of all the general storms of last season upon the coast passed north of California, except two, and one then crossed down from the north until it reached the break in the coast range at the Golden Gate, and then passed eastward through the State. The storms therefore which affect this State, and especially this valley, almost invariably first appear on the coast in Oregon or Washington Territory, and hence the reports to be of value forecasting the weather in this valley should come from north and west, and not from the subject matter which the above observations cannot be correct, as rain generally attend or result from south and southeast winds, which are termed the "rainy quarter." This fact, however, provokes the proposition which the Signal Corps authorities assert, namely, that the current of wind is always toward the storm center. The storm centers nearly always passing to the north of us, the prevailing wind for rainy weather would be from the north, and this observation, and fixed laws in regard to storms led to the above recommendation in reference to the change of telegraphic reports from north and west, and which was concurred in by Lieutenant Glassford, the Inspecting Officer of the Signal Corps, who is stationed at this place. An order was issued from the Signal Service headquarters at Washington, on the 10th instant, by which Sergeant Sicker will hereafter receive reports from Olympia, Portland, Holman, Stanton, Reno, Washburn, Astoria, Huntington, Hopkins, Co., 4 cases hardware, 100 pair shoes, 50 cases ax handles, W. G. Richardson, 30 bundles paper, C. H. Stevens & Co., 1 box books; Whittier, Fuller & Co., 1 box molder; G. Lavenson, 2 boxes shoes.

Another Charge. - During the State Fair eight pair of blankets were stolen from the Clinch building, corner of Eighth and K. Officers Woods and Campbell have been working the case up, and concluded that the party who stole them was the same one that took the harness of Dr. Dixon and Mr. Luce. Some of the blankets were found some time since in a second-hand clothing store, where an old man named Dohler had sold them. He was arrested, but said the blankets were given to him to dispose of by a young man whose name he did not know. Dohler was kept in jail, however, to await developments. Charles Burns, a box and trunk maker at Sacramento, has a man who sells the harness, and now being confronted by Dohler is ready to identify the party who stole the blankets to him, in which he is believed by the police authorities he is correct. Another charge of burglary was added to the state in Burns' behalf.

Freight Movements. - The following carloads of freight were received in this city yesterday: 2 of flour and feed, 1 of flour, 2 of coal, 1 of wheat, 20 of lumber, 11 of steel rails, 2 of wood, 4 of wheels, 4 of lumber, 1 of salt, 2 of carriages, 2 of canned fruit, 1 of cattle, 2 of coal, 2 of copper bullion, 1 of iron rails. Through carloads were forwarded 12 as follows: 12 of barley, 16 of wood, 1 of wine, 2 of machinery, 1 box of sugar, 2 of fruit, 9 of tea, 1 of silk, 1 of lard, 1 of canned goods, 2 of beans, 1 of whitefish, 2 of...

In Working Order. - The adjusting of the pipes and connections with the new boiler at the Court-house was completed yesterday and trial made, which resulted entirely satisfactory. The various rooms of the Court-house and Jail are being heated at the same time, and the necessary temperature, and in strong contrast to the heating capacity of the former boiler. N. A. Kilduff, who has charge of the heating apparatus and this machinery about the Court-house, has procured a competent engineer and will hereafter maintain a uniform and desired temperature for the office and Court-rooms.

To Observe the Court. - Secretary of State Burns has sent a communication to the Chairman of each of the three chief political central committees for the State notifying them, in view of the closeness of the election, that on the day when he shall make up the aggregate of the reports of the counties relative to the late Electoral vote, the committees can have, if they desire, representatives present to examine the returns and prove the footing. The law requires him to canvass the returns, and ascertain the aggregate by the 29th instant, or as much sooner as all the returns may be received.

Owner Found. - The five-gallon can of butter which was found in the possession of a Chinaman who was arrested by officer Ferris upon suspicion, is found to have been stolen from the cellar of Wm. Fountain, at Fifteenth and P streets, and the charge of burglary has been entered against the Chinaman, whose name is Ah King. He had formerly worked for Mr. Fountain.

Defects and Their Natural Remedy. - From a business point of view the revelations made by Hale Bros. & Co. in today's advertisement are very interesting as well as instructive.

Nothing to Compare with Them. - In the city - those heavy ingrain carpets for 45 cents per yard, at the Red House.

Complete in All Its Details. - The Hat Department of the Mechanics' Store.

The Coming Event. - The coming event ends this evening, 31st J street.

The Great Event - The Carnival.

BRIEF NOTES.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered Miss Jennie Logan at her home on L street, between Seventh and Eighth, Thursday evening. About twenty couples engaged in a social merrymaking with music, dancing and feasting to the full acceptance of all present.

Charles Baker was found on Perkins' ranch, Yolo county, yesterday, in a partly naked condition. He was brought to this city, and it was ascertained that he had been suffering from an attack of delirium tremens.

Deputy Sheriff Hanks, of Virginia City, Nev., passed through yesterday with an insane man named H. Fredrick, en route for the Asylum at Stockton.

A Chinaman named Ah Goon was arrested yesterday, charged with stealing lead and other materials from a tinners' premises.

One hundred and thirty muleteers will arrive from the East (by overland) this afternoon, of whom 80 are males.

Eleven cars of wool rails were forwarded from this point for the Southern Pacific Railroad yesterday.

The weather begins to tell upon the open air dealers, and lodgings at the police station are in request.

It is announced that today at 2 and 7 p. m. will close the Wilson dry goods auction sale.

Ten car loads of cattle from Cottowood passed through yesterday for San Francisco.

One car of lumber from Sacramento dealers was yesterday shipped to Los Angeles.

ROBERT AND ARRESTS. - Yesterday the storehouse of Black Bros., on Front street, between K and L, was entered and a box of personal effects belonging to G. W. Leitch, broker open and a quantity of clothing and other articles stolen. The robbery was discovered last evening by some of the articles being found stowed away under a westland window in the rear of the Railroad House, which adjoins the storehouse.

Chief Karcher was informed of the robbery and detailed officers Ferris and Smith to investigate the parties. They went to the hotel and obtained a room which opened out upon the porch where the stolen goods were hidden, with the door slightly ajar, watched for the party to return and get the booty. About 10 o'clock this morning Charles Johnson, a German who had a room at the hotel, was seen to approach the stand, going in his stock of goods, and the door was opened and he had the things in his arms and was starting for his room, when he was arrested. He stated that he was told by some one to get the things by James Mooney, who was also in a room close by Thompson. Mooney was also arrested and both taken to the City Jail and charged with robbery.

POLICE COURT. - In the Police Court yesterday, Mrs. Cairns failed to appear to answer to the charge of being drunk, and her deposit of $750 was declared forfeited. James Gibson was found guilty of insulting ladies passing the city, and will receive sentences today. D. Burk, a drunk, was fined $5 and costs. The case of Ah King for burglary was heard today, and the examination in the case of George A. Baker was resumed. The remainder of the testimony will be heard after arguments of counsel, the defendant was held to answer to the Superior Court, with bail fixed at $2,000, which he afterwards furnished.

ARRESTS. - On complaint of Mrs. Dr. Summers, Dr. H. Odell was yesterday arrested on a charge of grand larceny, it being alleged that he appropriated a box of surgical instruments belonging to the estate of Dr. Summers, deceased. Dr. Odell warmly denies that he has any such instruments, and for a time with the knowledge of Mrs. Summers, and in order to sell them for her; that he was absent from the city for a time, and on his return returned the instruments to Mrs. Summers, and paid her for the use of them. The doctor's denial was after a review of the warrant, and Mrs. S. declined to receive them. The case will be examined in the Police Court today.

THE HORSE SHOW. - The Sherman educational horse show will perform here but twice more at this afternoon's matinee and this evening. Last evening friends of John Sherman, the trainer, interrupted the performance to present to him a very handsome, gold mounted and appropriately inscribed; also a fine riding blanket and a handsome bottle for Jack, the Brown. Harry Lewis made the presentation remarks, and Sherman responded fitting and appropriate remarks. This evening Sherman will show that he is a true horse man, and trained "both ways," in order to prove that the animal understands what is said to him.

OUT OF TROUBLE. - James A. Powellson, who was arrested and taken to San Francisco upon a charge of larceny, is in possession of a splint-mark in having a $10 gold piece, was examined on Thursday afternoon before United States Commissioner O'Brien and discharged, as there was no evidence that he had undertaken to commit fraud with it. He was then remanded to the Police Court by the city clerk, and a $200 bond was set for his appearance at the Police Court, and he stood again for his battery. Yesterday the woman whom he had choked and given a black eye appeared at the court, and his fine and took him off under her arm as if nothing had happened.

TRAVELING-DAY SPORTS. - On Thanksgiving Day, November 25, 1880, at Agricultural Park grounds, Placerville, California, there will take place a 100-yard dash for a valuable gold medal, between John Belcher, champion of the San Francisco Olympic Club, and B. B. Brown, champion of the Placerville Athletic Club, and El Dorado county. Also a 120-yard hurdle race, ten hurdles, for the champion cup. B. B. Jones challenges any amateur runner to meet the above-named gentlemen at that time and place for the championship. Communications can be addressed to him.

POLICE COURTS. - The following arrests were made in the city yesterday: Ah Goon, for petty larceny, by officer Carroll and locals Coffee and Karcher; James Curran, grand larceny, by officer Ferris; J. Shindler, the driving wheel, by officer Carroll; Dr. T. H. Odell, grand larceny, by officer Jackson; Charles Burns, burglary and grand larceny, by officers Woods and Campbell; John Smith, charged by Constable Cantrell; Chas. Johnson and James Mooney, robbery, by officers Ferris and Smith.

STEAMER ARRIVED. - The steamer Modoc, while coming up night before last, got aground in Suisun bay, in consequence of the very strong north wind which prevailed. It remained there nearly twelve hours, and was not reached until 5 o'clock last evening.

SCHOOL MATTERS. - The Republican City Central Committee is called to meet tonight at Grove L. Johnson's office, and all Republicans interested in school matters are invited to be present.

STIFF HATS FOR CHILDREN. - Stiff hats for boys, Stiff hats for girls, Stiff hats for men. All the way from 50 cents to $4.25. Mechanics' Store Hat Department.

DON'T FORGET SEATS FOR THE Carnival. - A CARLOAD OF NEW, SUGAR-CURED, CORN PEN WHITTAKER STAIN HATS. - For flavor, nothing equal to them in the market, and at reduced price. For sale by G. W. Chesley, Jr.

STYLE AND ECONOMY COMBINED in the stiff hat that has been reduced from $1 to 70 cents in the Mechanics' Store Hat Department.

DON'T FORGET THIS is the last day of the Wilson goods. Great slaughter of shoes at private sale.
