During the next eleven days, we shall do all that Business Men can do, consistently to reduce our stock, and those "LEADERS" that our opponents are in such particular love with shall abound throughout the House.

Now, Ladies, just one word of explanation with regard to those "LEADERS" that cause so much consternation in the camp of our competitors.

The whole thing lies in a nutshell, and they admit the fact, THAT HALE BROS. RULE THE PRICES.

We conclude this "LEADER" with a word or two: If selling an article below our opponents constitute it a "LEADER," then our House is FULL OF "LEADERS,"

We have now done with that, and leave the "intelligent man" of buyers to judge for themselves, and we here give a final invitation to all,

COME AND SEE THOSE "LEADERS," AND DEPEND UPON IT THAT YOU WILL SUFFER NO DISAPPOINTMENT.

One visit will fully satisfy all that not only our stock, but that we also are the GREAT "LEADERS" IN DRY GOODS on the Pacific coast.

Boy Killed - Funeral of the Late Captain Fritz - Supposed Case of Shanthing.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29th. - This afternoon at 4 o'clock a boy, name unknown, was run over and killed by a dummy on the Geary-street cable road, at the corner of Geary and Leavenworth streets.

The funeral of the late Captain A. J. Fritz was a very large one. A company from each regiment of the Second Brigade, and a cavalry battalion, besides the Union Cavalry Battery, made the military cortege.

The Democratic County Committee attended in a body, as did also all the commissioned officers of the Second Brigade.

It is the supposition that William Fisher, of Leadville, Col, had been shanghaied, and to-day four outward-bound vessels were searched without finding him. It has been ascertained that he had valuable jewelry and $800 upon his person when last seen. Men have been murdered for less on the water front, and fears of foul play are entertained by his friends.

Name of the Unfortunate Boy. SAN FRANCISCO, May 29th. - The name of the boy killed in Geary street this afternoon was Louis Fisher. Three brothers were on the dummy, when Louis jumped from it before it stopped, and fell before the car could be stopped. He was run over and killed.

All Quiet in Mono - Killed by a Street-Car - Election - Memorial Day. BODIE, May 29th. - The party which went out to Mono Lake to drive off the Chinamen employed on the local railroad has all returned without accomplishing anything. The Chinamen have come off the island in the lake and resumed work. The excitement in regard to the matter has all died out.

This morning's Free Press has the following account of a homicide committed last night: At 12 o'clock John Meyers was shot and instantly killed in the Cmcstock saloon by light officer Jack Roberts. At the hour mentioned Roberts and a couple of men were standing at the bar taking a social drink when Meyers entered and walked up to the stove. In a moment he moved to the corner of the bar and began looking at some grass growing on the top of a barrel, which stood nearly behind the bar. He glanced at the officer two or three times in the meantime. Roberts saw him enter, and while he was at the barrel he (Roberts) pulled his six-shooter and aiming at Meyers fired, at the same time remarking, "You are one of the -- of -- who want to get to me." The officer repeated the fire twice more, or may be three times. The two men were standing close together at the time, and it is probably the first shot that took effect. Meyers staggered against the folding door, drew his pistol and fired. He reeled through the doors and then back again to the floor in front of the stove. Roberts had a narrow escape, as a ball from Meyers' pistol grazed and cut the right sleeve of his coat, and the powder burned the flesh on his wrist. Roberts surrendered himself immediately after the occurrence, and was lodged in jail. He said to a reporter that Meyers had frequently threatened his life, since he had searched his cabin for stolen articles a short time since. Meyers came to Bodie three years ago, and has worked in the mines here. He has been a railroad man for several years, clerking for the Salt Lake divisions of the Central Pacific.

An election has been held in Bodie to decide the question of levying a tax upon the support of the Fire Department, and it was carried by a good majority.

Memorial day will be observed here with appropriate ceremonies.

OREGON. Hill Burned - Suit for Damages - Charged with Adultery - City Politics. PORTLAND, May 29th. - The wool-carding mill owned respectively by the Eugene City Flouring mills and Charles Goodrich, was totally destroyed by fire at Eugene this morning. The alarm was sounded at 2 o'clock A. M. and the fire was extinguished in about an hour. A small dwelling-house adjoining, owned by the Eugene mill company, was also destroyed. No insurance. The value of the building was $400 per annum. The carding machinery was owned by Goodrich, and was valued at $60,000. It was insured for $30,000 by the Commercial and Humboldt and Bremen Companies. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have been the work of a incendiary.

Mrs. Nathan has commenced suit in the State Circuit Court against Captain Hamilton and other persons, claiming damages in the sum of $2,500. It is claimed that the accident was the result of gross carelessness on the part of defendants.

A young man named George Savage has been arrested at Salem yesterday on a charge of robbing a Chinaman, claiming damages in the sum of $250. His remains were brought to this city.

BRITISH COLUMBIA. Determined Suicide - Dropped Dead. VICTORIA, May 29th. - Early yesterday morning the dead body of A. F. O. Engert, formerly in the employ of Haas Brothers, San Francisco, was found seated in a chair in his room at the California House, Yale, and an empty deringer and large pool of blood on the floor, disclosed the ghastly fact that he had died by his own hand. The act was evidently a determined one. He had sat down in a chair before the looking glass, near enough that his feet when on the floor were braced against the bureau, and placed an empty pistol cartridge on the bureau in front, ready in case the first failed. He had evidently died without a struggle. A coroner's jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

George Cunningham, a young man in the railroad employ, while sitting smoking his pipe yesterday morning, suddenly threw up his arms and dropped dead. He had been ailing for some time. His relatives live in San Francisco.

"That's nothing," said the boy, gravely; "I went one night to a place where the performers had nothing at all on; not a stitch, I assure you." The old lady fainted away, and when she came to her senses she was told that it was an exhibition of horses at the Hippodrome, and they performed their tricks without saddle or bridle.

A Standard Article Everywhere. It is a long way from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Maine to the Gulf of Mexico, but in all the vast arctic village those boundaries there is not a city, town, village, settlement or camp where Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is not well known and in great demand. It is the household medicine of the American people, and is taken everywhere as a safeguard against epidemics and endemic, as a remedy for dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, and as a cure for cholera and fevers and rheumatic ailments, as a sedative in nervous cases, and as a general restorative and invigorant. To the weak and drooping, it imparts strength and vitality, bracing the relaxed nerves, and rousing all the latent energies of the system. For years it has been the standard tonic and corrective of the Western World.
