GENTS' AND BOYS' FURNISHING GOODS!

IN GENTS' UNDERWEAR.

WE HAVE COMPLETE LINES OF THE

"CHEST SHIELD UNDERSHIRT"

Merino and All-Wool.

BACK VIEW. FRONT VIEW.

This undershirt opens in the back, and is double both front and back (the dotted line in the cuts showing the portions made double), thus bringing the protection exactly where it is most needed, and affording safety from all pulmonary complaints incident to sudden changes of weather, etc. Experienced physicians claim that in our changeable climate an undershirt that is heavy enough to protect the lungs is too heavy and too heating over the abdomen, caused by numerous folds being tucked into the drawers. The CHEST SHIELD overcomes all this by having the lower part medium weight, the upper part double, thus securing an even temperature all over the body. We have them in scarlet and white, and in all grades. Try it and you will use none other, as it is decidedly the best undershirt that has yet been introduced, and costs you no more.

The "Chest Shield" in Scarlet is recommended particularly for its great anti-rheumatic qualities.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.

DOMESTIC.

Proposed Postal Savings Banks. n17-18

CHICAGO, November 25th.—The Tribune's Washington dispatches say: The draft of a bill for postal savings bank system which Postmaster-General James will cause to be presented to Congress will embrace the following features: First, that the Postoffice Department should be authorized to establish postal savings banks at its discretion; second, the system should be self-sustaining, no appropriations being required; third, the credit of the United States should be pledged for the payment to the depositor or his legal representatives of every sum deposited in accordance with the provisions of the Act; fourth, the rate of interest should be not more than two per cent. per annum, the one per cent. difference to be for the payment of all the expenses of whatever nature under the system, and the surplus of any, to be turned into the general fund of the Postoffice Department. This bill will further provide for the safe keeping of money deposited under it can be turned over to the central depository at Washington for investment; for protection against fraud on the part of the depositor; and the early withdrawal of deposits at option of depositors, and for the detail of necessary inspectors and clerks. As at present agreed upon, each person can deposit no more than $500 in one year. No one can be a depositor at any one time more than $1,500. Abraham S. Hewitt, who has been spending the winter in Europe, has called special attention to the Postal Savings Bank system, and will be a warm supporter of it. n17-18

One Cowboy Shoots Another. n17-18

CHEYENNE (Wyo. T.), November 25th.—A cowboy special from Sydney, Neb., says: Hank Coyne, a cowboy, fatally shot an unknown cowboy from Texas Thanksgiving night, while in a saloon. No prosecution for the act is known, and it was cool and deliberate. Three weeks were produced, and he will die, and, being insensible, his name has not been learned. Coyne escaped, but is pursued by a large party. n17-18

ANOTHER ACCIDENT. n17-18

OHAMA, November 25th.—At Sidney, Neb., last night, about half-past 10, James Jamison and Henry Coyne, cowboys, were wrestling in a saloon, and Jamison getting the worst of it, ran for his revolver, and fired at the night, while in a saloon. No prosecution for the act is known, and it was cool and deliberate. Three weeks were produced, and he will die, and, being insensible, his name has not been learned. Coyne escaped, but is pursued by a large party. n17-18

CHOLERA AND PLAGUE. n17-18

NEW YORK, November 25th.—Dr. Jones, of the Board of Health, says of the cholera and plague reported in parts of the old world: "I do not think there is reason to fear any outbreak of the plague here. The National Board of Health has known for some time that cholera was raging in many parts of Europe and Asia, and has arranged with the health authorities of other nations to prevent its spread. What they will do with this other disease—bubonic plague, which is also reported in the death of the middle ages, I don't know; but they will undoubtedly act as promptly as they have heretofore as soon as the nature of the plague is definitely known." n17-18

The First Execution. n17-18

BARNETT (Ga.), November 25th.—Tallferro county had its first execution to-day. Sang Armer (colored) was hanged in Crawfordville, Ga., for the murder of a woman named Ellington, an old white man, in April last. The prisoner was reprieved one month, in expectation of the pardon of several other convicts who were in the same cell. He was made out. Just before the drop fell to-day full efforts were made by the crowd to induce him to call his lawyer. n17-18

Atlantic and Pacific Railroad. n17-18

NEW YORK, November 25th.—The Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company, at a meeting of its Directors held here, resolved that the construction of the road between New York and San Francisco and the Colorado river, in the Nevada Territory, should be prosecuted only until the whole line from the Rio Grande to the Pacific is put in operation. n17-18

Explosion of Sulphur. n17-18

KANSAS CITY (Mo.), November 25th.—An explosion of sulphur in an elevator which fell with the load, at Meyer Bros.' drug store, caused a loss of $4,000, and slightly injured Wm. Chickard. n17-18

Strikers Cause Trouble. n17-18

BELLEVILLE (Ill.), November 25th.—There is a good deal of feeling here among the strikers, who threaten violence to the workmen. At the dinner this morning given by the most respectable of the strikers, the speaker, who was a member of the working force, was dispersed by the police. n17-18

Destruction by Fire. n17-18

PITTSBURG, November 25th.—This morning the Hotel St. Charles, a brick building, caught fire in the finishing department, and was soon in ruins. The loss is estimated at $125,000; insurance, $75,000. It is believed that an incendiary was the cause of the fire. This tannery has been twice burned this year. n17-18

Invalid Patents. n17-18

CHICAGO, November 25th.—In the Federal Court this morning Judge Drummond decided that the patent for the present meat-refrigerator refused in 1875 to William J. Wilson, and the John A. Wilson patent for the construction of a white oak pack and preservative meat, issued in 1876, is both invalid. The amount involved is said to be about $1,000,000. n17-18

A Rough Passage. n17-18

NEW YORK, November 25th.—The Canadian steamship Gaelic arrived this morning, five days behind time, after one of the stormiest passages of which any record exists. Captain Hays reported no accidents, but passengers were annoyed by a heavy rain, and a storm beginning before another left off. All the days were characterized by fierce gales and high seas. The ship behaved bravely, and not a screw is loose in the machinery. n17-18

Murdered and Robbed. n17-18

RALEIGH (N. C.), November 25th.—Thos. M. Lynch, an old and respected citizen, being chased from home by robbers, was killed with the head crushed in, lying in the road, and under a bridge near by found two negroes dividing the money and property taken from the murdered man. The negroes are in jail, and the people are greatly incensed. n17-18

Hanged for Murder. n17-18

SUMMITT (S. C.), November 25th.—Henry Johnson was hanged to-day for the murder of John Davis. The execution was private. He had made a full confession during his trial, saying a confederate had given him a chance to shoot Davis to win his wife and avoid the penalty. He only succeeded in availing the wife. The other charn failed him. n17-18

ROBERTSVILLE (Tenn.), November 25th.—Joe Harris was hanged here this afternoon for the murder of two men—Brown and Heck—whom he butchered in bed, and then robbed and strangled. His death was quick, and there was good order among the large crowd present. n17-18

Mrs. Abraham Lincoln. n17-18

CHICAGO, November 25th.—So far from Mr. Abraham Lincoln being short of funds, as alleged in recent New York dispatches, his friends in Springfield say she has had an income of $5,000 arising from her pension of $3,000 and her Government bonds. n17-18

FOREIGN.

Terrific Storm in the "Old Country." n17-18

LONDON, November 25th.—A storm has raged since Tuesday with terrific violence. At St. Pancras the sea broke over the beach and invaded the streets. The Arclion Hotel, at Port Williams, was flooded by the sea, and three or four feet of gravel fell in the rooms. The pier was much damaged. At Hicpool the sea swept through the windows into many houses, and cars were blown over. The sea rushed down the streets, and thoroughfare being under six feet of water. n17-18

In Ireland the gale was very severe. At Port Adonn the doors of houses were carried across several streets. At Sligo a schooner was blown ashore and a brig partially destroyed. At Derry Head, Queen's county, a man named Moran was killed by a house being blown down. Part of the roof of the Arclion Hotel, at Port Williams, was carried away. Similar reports are received from Newry, Lurgan and elsewhere. At Dublin the storm was the severest known for many years, and at Sligo County Galway, it was the severest experienced for a century. n17-18

Shipping on the coast suffered terribly. In addition to the loss of the ship Queen and a crew of twenty-one, the T. Harris foundered and three seamen were drowned. The bark Barbara, from Rangoon for Liverpool, was taken wrecked in West Bay, Pembroke. All hands were saved except the Captain. n17-18

A brigantine was seen about a mile and a quarter outside Ardara, battling with the gale Wednesday, but the foundered, and her crew, seven or eight in number, were put in the lifeboats. The brigantine was put into Queenstown greatly damaged. n17-18

The Trouble in Ireland. n17-18

LONDON, November 25th.—Five arrests were made under the Coercion Act to-day. A Protestant character, a rural district of County Cork has been wrecked. A large party of men, armed and disguised, entered a house in Dublin county for arms. Thirteen of them were arrested, and several of whom have been committed for trial. n17-18

It is understood that it is the intention of the Government to refer the imprisoned members of the House of Commons to the emigration of Parliament, provided that no unreasonable conspiracy exists, and that the members are not intimidated from applying to the Land Court. n17-18

In consequence of the increased pressure in the business of the Land Court in Ireland, the Government intends to appoint additional sub-Commissioners. The principal Irish judges strongly deprecate any suspension of trial by jury. n17-18

The London will probably close the first week in December, at the date of the re-assembling of Parliament. It will then be arranged, probably, for the 21 of January or the 9th of February. n17-18
