TERRIFIC STORM. SAN FRANCISCO.

Special to the Record-Union.

The Effect of the Veto.

San Francisco, April 7.—The effect of the veto continues the principal topic of conversation in political circles.

Great Number of Lives Lost.

Houses, Pences and Trees Levelled with the Ground.

Chicago, April 7.—A Topeka (Ka) special says: A cyclone started south of the Arkansas, near Raymond, Rice county, last night, and moved in a northerly direction.

It prostrated the telegraph poles when it crossed the Santa Fe tracks.

John Wilson's house was blown down.

Mrs. Wilson killed, and a Mrs. Parker fatally injured.

Several other large houses were demolished.

Proceeding north, the storm struck the new town of Chaney, and demolished 22 of the buildings in the place.

Three cars from the tracks and did other damage.

Mr. Reed, a hotel-keeper, was killed, his wife fatally hurt, and another woman and child killed about the same time.

A small cyclone, with a veritable water-spout, passed through the eastern part of the county later in the day, but did little damage except by drowning out stock.

At E. B. Lawrence's farm the water was soaked out of wells.

The cloud as it approached Chaney was funnel-shaped, whirling and twisting with fearful velocity.

All the inhabitants of Chaney were more or less hurt.

Among the losses are: Eddie Beck, store-room destroyed with $2,000 worth of goods.

Ed. Shattuck's store-room and residence; loss, $3,000.

Arthur House and Dufresne's store-room and lumber; loss, several thousand dollars.

George F. Miller's new business house, $1,500.

Congregational church, $1,500.

The depot was unroofed, and several parties killed, whose names are not given.

The people are living in box cars, and many are destitute.

Further Devastation.

A special from Clyde station, Mich., reports a terrible hurricane near Highland station, on the Flint and Pere Marquette road, south of Holly, early last night.

The extent of the damage is unknown, as the telegraph line is blown down and the railroad agent walked to Clyde to send what he knew.

The dwelling of a man named Crandall was blown down, Crandall and one child killed, and a daughter severely injured.

A guest, Mrs. Taylor, of Pontiac, was also killed, and several other persons injured.

The hurricane covered an area of less than half a mile wide, but leveled everything within its path.

There are reports also of high and destructive winds and heavy rains in the vicinity of Keokuk and along the Wabash and Rock Island roads in Iowa.

At Keosauqua and Humiston, in Iowa, and at Kankakee and Ashton, Missouri, the damage was very severe, but full particulars are wanting because telegraphic communication is shut off.

House Lifted into the Air and Dashed to Pieces.

East Saginaw (Mich.), April 7.—About 6 o'clock last evening a tornado swept over the territory northeast of Midland village, twenty miles west of this city, doing considerable damage.

The residence of a farmer named E. E. Walton was picked up bodily and capsize, tearing it into pieces.

The wreck took fire from the stove and burned up.

Buildings Ground to Atoms.

Chicago, April 7.—The Evening Journal's special says: A terrific tempest passed through the township of Kalama, Eaton county, Michigan, last night, which did immense damage to houses and barns, and killed a large amount of live stock.

Several lives are reported lost and many injured.

The place is remote from travel and telegraph.

Later particulars say of the Oakland county storm: J. Lafayette Crandall, his sisters and little boy, and Mrs. Henry Tyler were killed, and his little girl's arm was badly crushed.

As Kankakee, on the South Haven road, there was a regular cyclone. Mr. Wilder's house was blown down.

It is rumored that a man was killed in Cooper township.

Woman Killed and Six Other Persons Injured.

Clay Center (Ks.), April 7.—Heavy rains have occurred for two days. A wind-storm struck the house of John Rocks last night, five miles northeast of this town, and tore it into splinters, killing Mrs. Mann, a daughter-in-law of Rocks, and slightly injuring six other persons.

The storm did no other damage.

The Path of the Hurricane.

Detroit, April 7.—There is not much fuller intelligence from the tornado near Highland.

This storm appears to have first struck on the farm of Joseph Bird, near Highland Corners, damaging it considerably.

It then passed east, blowing down fences, trees, everything in its path, and next striking the barn of George Lewis, making it a complete ruin.

The house of Orson Kellogg was badly damaged.

Then the house of L. Crandall, where the loss of life heretofore reported occurred.

Then it passed east and struck the residence of Mrs. Deering, damaging it considerably.

It then struck the house of Mr. Beaumont, damaging it, and blowing the barn into the lake.

CANDELA, April 7.—Last night Peter Sully, Jr., shot and instantly killed Nicholas Gregovich, at Columbus, eight miles east of here.

The trouble was about a dollar. A woman of the town had young Sully's watch in pawn for $4.

The woman carried the watch to Gregovich and got $1 on it, telling him Sully would redeem it when she saw Sully.

Sully she told him he owed Gregovich $3 on the watch.

Sully went to Gregovich, and ordered him the $3.

After a wrangle over the amount, Gregovich became excited and started after Sully with a Winchester rifle.
