

DAILY UNION SERIES—VOL. LXII—No. 5719. DAILY RECORD SERIES—VOL. XXV—No. 4723.

THE DAILY RECORD-UNION. Published by the Union Publishing Company.

THE DAILY RECORD-UNION. Published every day of the week. Subscriptions: For one year, $10.00; For three months, $3.00; For six months, $5.00.

Advertising Rates in Daily Record-Union. One Square, 1 Line, 1 Week, $1.00. One Square, 1 Line, 1 Month, $2.50. One Square, 1 Line, 3 Months, $7.00.

THE WEEKLY UNION. Published on Wednesday and Saturday of each week. Subscriptions: For one year, $5.00; For three months, $1.50; For six months, $3.00.

Cadwalader & Parsons, REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE AGENTS. CORNER THIRD AND J STREETS.

FOR SALE—THE HANDSOME THREE-STORY FRAME DWELLING, No. 713 1/2 street, between J and K streets.

WANTED, LOST AND FOUND. Advertisements of five lines in this department are inserted for 25 cents for one time; three times for 50 cents or 75 cents per week.

WANTED—Males: 10 MEN TO HAY, $30 TO $35; 6 Drivers, $30; 4 Waiters, $30 to $35; 3 Reminders, $30 to $35; 4 Woodchoppers, $25; 2 Boys for Housework, $15 to $20; 2 Girls for Chamber and Waiting, $20; 2 Women Cooks, $20 to $25; 2 Men Drivers, $12 to $15; 2 Water Girls, $10 to $12. Particulars in want of help, send in your orders. Apply to HOUSTON & CO.'S Employment Office, corner of Fourth and J streets, Sacramento. m15-17d

WANTED—A BRIGHT, ACTIVE YOUTH, living with his parents, must be good at figure and mathematics. Apply to WAINSTOCK & LOUIS.

McKEONE'S GREAT LATHER SOAP. A BEAUTIFUL PURE SNOW-WHITE SOAP for the Laundry, Kitchen, Bath and Housework.

Chas. McKeone & Son Soap Mfg. Co. PHILADELPHIA. m15-17d

Chickering Pianos. Orders by Mail receive special attention, and are filled the day they are received.

WHITE ORGANS. Orders for organs, pianos, etc., sent by mail.

HALE BROS. & CO. THE Archimedean Lever

It has raised the people from the very depths of ruinous prices, and placed them far above the reach of the usurer. When there is a wish to accomplish something, it is a common remark to say, "It is only a question of time;" but in some cases, it appears that Time itself is annihilated, and its twin-born companion, "Circumstance," relieves old "Time" of its load.

SPECIAL SALE NEW YORK AND EASTERN GOODS!

The circumstance of HALE BROS. & CO. opening out an A B C business is predicative of a brighter dawn in DRY GOODS, etc., and the old cloud-capped hills of big prices melt away before the sun-lit sky of a more liberal policy. The almost omnipotent lever of

HALE'S GREAT SPECIAL SALE Has lifted from the Shoulders of the People

THE SUPERINCUMBENT WEIGHT OF FANCY PRICES! And placed within their reach all they need at figures commensurate with their income, and, with Archimedes, we hold that the same principle will lift the world.

THE PEOPLE KNOW IT; THE PEOPLE FEEL IT! CASH GOES FARTHER Than it used to do, when in the past they had to pay two dollars for what they now buy for one.

Orders by Mail receive special attention, and are filled the day they are received.

HALE BROS. & CO., 829, 831, 833, 835 K street, 1026 NINTH STREET, SACRAMENTO.

HALE BROS. & CO., 829, 831, 833, 835 K street, 1026 NINTH STREET, SACRAMENTO.

HALE BROS. & CO., 829, 831, 833, 835 K street, 1026 NINTH STREET, SACRAMENTO.

HALE BROS. & CO., 829, 831, 833, 835 K street, 1026 NINTH STREET, SACRAMENTO.

EAST OF THE ROCKIES.

The Deadlock at Washington—Devastated by Fire—The Star Route Cases—Boy shot to Death by a Playmate—The Presbyterians—Proceedings in Congress—The Fast Mail Proposition—Louisville Races—Suicide in Mid Ocean—Etc.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—The star route cases came up this morning, all the defendants being present except Peck, Chaney and Watson. The Attorney-General wished it understood that it is the intention of the Government to see whether those men have been justly or unjustly accused, and to bring those cases promptly to an end.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—The names of the members of the Tariff Commission thus far agreed upon are: John L. Hayes, of Massachusetts; Henry A. Oliver, Pennsylvania; J. M. Garland, Illinois; Robert P. Porter, District of Columbia; Alexander Mitchell, Wisconsin; John S. Phelps, Missouri; James Chestnut, Jr., South Carolina. The list will probably be completed by the election of William A. Wheeler, of New York, who if chosen, will be Chairman of the commission, and J. A. Andler, of Ohio.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—General Rosecrans has written a manifesto to his constituents in California, claiming that he has done more for the state than all the members of the Pacific coast delegation put together, and appealing for a re-nomination to Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—Calhoun called up the contested election case of Mackey vs. Dibble, and filibustering proceeded vigorously. Blackburn, on behalf of the minority, submitted a resolution proposing that a special committee of five be appointed to investigate the charges of irregularity in handling the testimony in the Mackey vs. Dibble contested election case.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—The first overtures for a compromise of the deadlock on the contested election case of Mackey vs. Dibble were made in the House today. The Democrats proposed the appointment of a committee to go to South Carolina and investigate the charges preferred by Dibble against Mackey.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—The first overtures for a compromise of the deadlock on the contested election case of Mackey vs. Dibble were made in the House today. The Democrats proposed the appointment of a committee to go to South Carolina and investigate the charges preferred by Dibble against Mackey.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—The first overtures for a compromise of the deadlock on the contested election case of Mackey vs. Dibble were made in the House today. The Democrats proposed the appointment of a committee to go to South Carolina and investigate the charges preferred by Dibble against Mackey.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—The first overtures for a compromise of the deadlock on the contested election case of Mackey vs. Dibble were made in the House today. The Democrats proposed the appointment of a committee to go to South Carolina and investigate the charges preferred by Dibble against Mackey.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—The first overtures for a compromise of the deadlock on the contested election case of Mackey vs. Dibble were made in the House today. The Democrats proposed the appointment of a committee to go to South Carolina and investigate the charges preferred by Dibble against Mackey.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—The first overtures for a compromise of the deadlock on the contested election case of Mackey vs. Dibble were made in the House today. The Democrats proposed the appointment of a committee to go to South Carolina and investigate the charges preferred by Dibble against Mackey.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—The first overtures for a compromise of the deadlock on the contested election case of Mackey vs. Dibble were made in the House today. The Democrats proposed the appointment of a committee to go to South Carolina and investigate the charges preferred by Dibble against Mackey.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—The first overtures for a compromise of the deadlock on the contested election case of Mackey vs. Dibble were made in the House today. The Democrats proposed the appointment of a committee to go to South Carolina and investigate the charges preferred by Dibble against Mackey.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—The first overtures for a compromise of the deadlock on the contested election case of Mackey vs. Dibble were made in the House today. The Democrats proposed the appointment of a committee to go to South Carolina and investigate the charges preferred by Dibble against Mackey.

WASHINGTON, May 26th.—The first overtures for a compromise of the deadlock on the contested election case of Mackey vs. Dibble were made in the House today. The Democrats proposed the appointment of a committee to go to South Carolina and investigate the charges preferred by Dibble against Mackey.

BEYOND THE SEAS.

House of Commons—The Egyptian Situation—Forty Houses Burned—Carlist King in Catalonia—Ten Years' Penal Servitude for Writing a Letter—Count Von Bismarck to be Retired—Etc.

LONDON, May 26th.—In the House of Commons today, Sir Wilfrid Lawson (Radical), presiding, discussed the Egyptian situation, and the independence of the Ottoman Empire, and asking a pledge that force shall not be employed in Egypt, Gladstone stated that it was impossible to give such a pledge, but there is nothing at present to make it likely that force will be necessary.

LONDON, May 26th.—A memorial signed by 47 Liberal members of the House of Commons, presented to Gladstone today, urging a reduction of the period in which the repression bill shall be in force and a modification of its clauses in regard to intimidation, public meetings and the press.

LONDON, May 26th.—It is reported that General Buller has received a telegram stating that Arabi Bey is finally resolved not to submit. CAIRO, May 26th.—The ultimatum of the British and French governments further prescribes the intention in the interior of Egypt of Abdallah Pasha and Ali Fahmy Pasha, who, next to Arabi Bey, are the leaders of the military party.

LONDON, May 26th.—The President of the Council of Ministers has sent the following note to the Khedive: Your note touches upon internal questions, in regard to which the powers have recognized liberty of action. The Egyptian Government and the British and French governments are not to be understood as interfering with the internal affairs of the country.

LONDON, May 26th.—Several small bands of Carlists have risen in Catalonia. The Government attaches small importance to the movement, although symptoms of a rising are reported in the Basque Provinces. A Seat in the French Academy. PARIS, May 26th.—Victor Claretie, who has been received at the French Academy, to fill the seat held by the late Dufaur.

LONDON, May 26th.—Albert Young, arrested for writing a letter containing threats to the life of her Majesty, has been sentenced to ten years' penal servitude. Suspects Released. LONDON, May 26th.—Nearly seventy suspects have been released during the last two weeks.

LONDON, May 26th.—A fire at Paquetterrie, the factory suburbs, destroyed over forty houses. Loss, $20,000. Reichsrat Proceeeded. VIENNA, May 26th.—The Reichsrat was prorogued today. English Farmers Emigrating. LONDON, May 26th.—Three hundred and twenty Hertfordshire farmers left today for Canada.

LONDON, May 26th.—The race for the Oaks stakes was won by Gehennas, Marguerite second, Nollis third. Socialist Sentenced. VIENNA, May 26th.—Ritche, editor of a socialist paper, has been sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment at hard labor, for high treason. MILK AS FOOD.

Milk is a food that should not be taken in copious draughts like beer, or other fluids, which differ from it chemically. If we consider the use of milk in infancy, the physiological ingestion, that is, of it, we find that the sucking babe imbibes little by little the natural food provided for it. Each small mouthful is secured by effort, and slowly presented to the gastric mucous surface for the primal digestion, and it is thus regularly and gradually reduced to curd, and the stomach is not oppressed with a lump of half-coagulated milk.

The same principle should be regarded in the case of the adult. Milk should be slowly taken in mouthfuls, at short intervals, and thus it is rigidly dealt with by the gastric juice. It is almost sure to burden the stomach, and to cause indigestion, and prolonged indigestion, and this for the obvious reason that there is insufficient digestive agency to dispose of it. And the better the quality of milk the more severe the discomfort will be under these conditions. Milk is insufficiently used in making simple puddings of such farinaceous food as rice, tapioca and sago. Distaste for these is engendered very often, I believe, because the milk is stinted in making them, or poor, skimmed milk is used. Abundance of new milk should be added when they are taken in. In Scottish households this matter is well understood; a distinct pudding, like a kippie, is used for this course. The dry meases, commonly served as milky puddings in England, are exactly fitted to excite disgust for what should be a most excellent and delicious part of a wholesome dinner for both children and adults. [Popular Science Monthly.]

MILK AS FOOD. Milk is a food that should not be taken in copious draughts like beer, or other fluids, which differ from it chemically. If we consider the use of milk in infancy, the physiological ingestion, that is, of it, we find that the sucking babe imbibes little by little the natural food provided for it. Each small mouthful is secured by effort, and slowly presented to the gastric mucous surface for the primal digestion, and it is thus regularly and gradually reduced to curd, and the stomach is not oppressed with a lump of half-coagulated milk.

The same principle should be regarded in the case of the adult. Milk should be slowly taken in mouthfuls, at short intervals, and thus it is rigidly dealt with by the gastric juice. It is almost sure to burden the stomach, and to cause indigestion, and prolonged indigestion, and this for the obvious reason that there is insufficient digestive agency to dispose of it. And the better the quality of milk the more severe the discomfort will be under these conditions. Milk is insufficiently used in making simple puddings of such farinaceous food as rice, tapioca and sago. Distaste for these is engendered very often, I believe, because the milk is stinted in making them, or poor, skimmed milk is used. Abundance of new milk should be added when they are taken in. In Scottish households this matter is well understood; a distinct pudding, like a kippie, is used for this course. The dry meases, commonly served as milky puddings in England, are exactly fitted to excite disgust for what should be a most excellent and delicious part of a wholesome dinner for both children and adults. [Popular Science Monthly.]

MILK AS FOOD. Milk is a food that should not be taken in copious draughts like beer, or other fluids, which differ from it chemically. If we consider the use of milk in infancy, the physiological ingestion, that is, of it, we find that the sucking babe imbibes little by little the natural food provided for it. Each small mouthful is secured by effort, and slowly presented to the gastric mucous surface for the primal digestion, and it is thus regularly and gradually reduced to curd, and the stomach is not oppressed with a lump of half-coagulated milk.

The same principle should be regarded in the case of the adult. Milk should be slowly taken in mouthfuls, at short intervals, and thus it is rigidly dealt with by the gastric juice. It is almost sure to burden the stomach, and to cause indigestion, and prolonged indigestion, and this for the obvious reason that there is insufficient digestive agency to dispose of it. And the better the quality of milk the more severe the discomfort will be under these conditions. Milk is insufficiently used in making simple puddings of such farinaceous food as rice, tapioca and sago. Distaste for these is engendered very often, I believe, because the milk is stinted in making them, or poor, skimmed milk is used. Abundance of new milk should be added when they are taken in. In Scottish households this matter is well understood; a distinct pudding, like a kippie, is used for this course. The dry meases, commonly served as milky puddings in England, are exactly fitted to excite disgust for what should be a most excellent and delicious part of a wholesome dinner for both children and adults. [Popular Science Monthly.]

MILK AS FOOD. Milk is a food that should not be taken in copious draughts like beer, or other fluids, which differ from it chemically. If we consider the use of milk in infancy, the physiological ingestion, that is, of it, we find that the sucking babe imbibes little by little the natural food provided for it. Each small mouthful is secured by effort, and slowly presented to the gastric mucous surface for the primal digestion, and it is thus regularly and gradually reduced to curd, and the stomach is not oppressed with a lump of half-coagulated milk.